Item 8.01
Other Events.

On May 17, 2007, the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of EGL, Inc. ("EGL" or the Company ) received a revised proposal from entities affiliated with James R. Crane, EGL's largest shareholder, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, together with investment funds affiliated with Centerbridge Partners, L.P. and The Woodbridge Company Limited (the "Crane group"), that would amend the current merger agreement between EGL and the Crane group. The proposal would increase the consideration to holders of EGL common stock to $46.25 per share in cash. The Crane group also proposed to increase the termination fee that is payable by EGL under certain circumstances from $30 million to $40 million. This proposal was received as the Board of Directors was deliberating on the recommendation of the Special Committee to accept the proposal from CEVA Group Plc, a UK public company that is owned by affiliates of Apollo Management, L.P. (the "CEVA group"), to purchase the Company for $46.00 per share in cash. On May 18, 2007, EGL issued a press release announcing the Special Committee's receipt of the revised proposal.

Following the receipt of the revised proposal from the Crane group, the Special Committee determined that the CEVA group proposal was no longer a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement. The Special Committee informed representatives of the CEVA group of this decision.

On May 21, 2007, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Special Committee had received a revised definitive proposal from the CEVA group, increasing the consideration to holders of EGL common stock to $47.50 per share in cash. The definitive proposal included financing commitments.

The CEVA group also proposed to decrease the termination fee payable by EGL to the CEVA group under certain circumstances from $30 million to $20 million. In addition, the termination fee payable by the CEVA group to EGL would be increased to $40 million in the event that CEVA's financing is not obtained and to $60 million in the event of any willful breach by CEVA of the proposed merger agreement between CEVA and EGL.

The Special Committee determined that the revised definitive proposal received from the CEVA group is a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement with the Crane group.

While at this time the current merger agreement with the Crane group remains in effect, the Special Committee has notified the Crane group of its determination and its availability to discuss and negotiate any revised proposal that the Crane group wishes to make during the period provided by the agreement, which period will end at the close of business on May 23, 2007. At that time, the Special Committee would consider whether the terms of the CEVA group's proposal remains a superior proposal, and, if so, the Board of Directors and the Special Committee would then consider whether to take such actions as would be necessary and proper to terminate the merger agreement with the Crane group and enter into an agreement with the CEVA group.

The current agreement with the Crane group may be terminated under certain circumstances, including if the Board or Special Committee has determined in good faith that it has received a superior proposal and otherwise complies with certain terms of the agreement, including the payment by EGL of the $30 million termination fee.

The Special Committee cautions that there can be no assurance that the CEVA group's proposal will lead to the termination of the merger agreement with the Crane group and the execution of a definitive agreement with the CEVA group, or that the proposed transaction with the CEVA group will be approved or consummated.

Copies of press releases issued on May 17, 2007, May 18, 2007 and May 21, 2007 are included as Exhibits 99.1, 99.2 and 99.3 to this Form 8-K and are incorporated into this Item 8.01 by reference.

Information about the Company's directors and executive officers and their ownership of the Company's common stock is set forth in the Company's Form 10-K/A filed on April 30, 2007. Shareholders and investors may obtain additional information regarding the interests of the Company and its directors and executive officers in the Crane Merger, which may be different than those of the Company's shareholders generally, by reading the proxy statement and other relevant documents regarding the Crane Merger, which will be filed with the SEC.
