Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 28, 2004, Nextel Partners, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that the Company is commencing a tender offer (the Tender Offer) and consent solicitation (the Consent Solicitation) and, together with the Tender Offer, the Offer) relating to any and all of its outstanding 11% Senior Notes due 2010. In addition, the Company announced that it intends to finance the Tender Offer with an incremental term loan and an offering of senior notes pursuant to Rule 144A and Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, together with other available funds. The securities to be offered have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be offered or sold in the United States, absent registration or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Nothing in this report should be construed as an offer to purchase any outstanding 11% Notes, as such offer is only being made upon the terms and is subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase.

The statements in this report regarding future aspects relating to the Offer, the incremental term loan and the new senior notes and other statements which are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, market and competitive conditions, that may cause actual future experience and results to differ materially from the statements made.
