Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 11, 2006, in connection with the acquisition by Kronos Incorporated (the Company) of Unicru, Inc., an Oregon corporation (Unicru), the Company entered into a credit agreement (the Credit Agreement) with Citizens Bank of Massachusetts (Citizens Bank) which provided for a three-year $100,000,000 revolving credit facility (the Loan) intended (i) to finance a portion of the Company's acquisition of Unicru and (ii) to pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with such acquisition. Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement, the Company was permitted to borrow the total commitment available under the Credit Agreement from Citizens Bank. Loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement could be prepaid at any time in whole or in part without premium or penalty. The Credit Agreement contained customary negative covenants, including financial covenants and covenants relating to liens, investments, mergers, permitted acquisitions, indebtedness, material adverse changes and distributions.

Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement and concurrent with the extension of the Loan by Citizens Bank, the Company executed and delivered to Citizens Bank a promissory note dated July 11, 2006 in the principal amount of up to $100,000,000, promising payment of the principal amount and interest on the unpaid principal amount of each of the loans described above from the date of such loans until such principal amounts were paid in full.

The obligations of the Company under the Credit Agreement were guaranteed by its wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries. Upon execution of the Credit Agreement, Kronos Securities Corporation, Kronos Technology and Research Holdings, LLC, Kronos Technology Systems Limited Partnership and Kronos Research Systems Limited Partnership each executed a guaranty agreement in favor of Citizens Bank.

In addition, upon execution of the Credit Agreement, the Company pledged as collateral for the Loan all of its capital stock holdings in Kronos Securities Corporation and all of its interests in Kronos Technology and Research Holdings, LLC. Those two entities also executed a pledge agreement pledging as collateral for the Loan all of their interests in Kronos Technology Systems Limited Partnership and Kronos Research Systems Limited Partnership. Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement, the Company was required to pledge the stock of any new material domestic subsidiary (or 65% of such stock of material foreign subsidiaries).

Principal on all amounts borrowed under the Credit Agreement was due on July 11, 2009; interest on the unpaid principal amount was based on the LIBOR Lending Rate.

The Company drew down $97.9 million from the line of credit in August of 2006 in order to complete the Unicru acquisition, approximately $54.7 million of which remained outstanding as of December 30, 2006. As of May 15, 2007, the Company had paid all remaining outstanding principal relating to the Loan.

On June 1, 2007, the Company paid all remaining interest and an unused commitment fee related to the Loan and terminated Credit Agreement.
