In connection with the Credit Agreement, certain AECOM subsidiaries also entered into a First Amendment (the Amendment) dated as of August 31, 2007 to the Term Credit Agreement dated as of September 22, 2006 (the Term Credit Agreement), by and among certain AECOM subsidiary borrowers, Union Bank of California, N.A., as Administrative Agent, Bank of Montreal, acting under its trade name BMO Capital Markets, as Syndication Agent and certain other lender parties thereto. The Amendment conforms certain of the definitions, covenants and other provisions in the original Term Credit Agreement (previously filed with the Commission on January 29, 2007), to the definitions, covenants and other relevant provisions of the Credit Agreement. The pricing for borrowings under the Term Credit Agreement remains unchanged.

The Credit Agreement increases the available borrowing capacity under AECOM s unsecured revolving credit facility to $600 million from $300 million, and expires on August 31, 2012. AECOM may also, at its option, increase the commitments under the facility up to a total of $750 million. The Credit Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default.

AECOM and its affiliates maintain various commercial and service relationships with the Lenders and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, the Lenders and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in commercial banking, investment banking, financial advisory or other services with AECOM and its affiliates for which they have in the past and/or may in the future receive customary compensation and expense reimbursement.

The descriptions of the Credit Agreement and the Amendment contained herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement and the Amendment, copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2 and are incorporated herein by reference.
