Convertible Note Financing

On April 22, 2005, E&C Capital Partners, LLLP and E&C Capital Partners II, Ltd. (collectively, the "Noteholders") entered into a Note Purchase Agreement with the Company pursuant to which they acquired convertible promissory notes (the "Convertible Notes") in the aggregate principal amount of $1,500,000, together with an option to acquire an additional $2,500,000 of convertible Notes on or before July 22, 2005 (the "Option"). We filed a Current Report on Form 8-K on April 26, 2005, relating to the initial issuance of the Convertible Notes. On June 1, 2005, the Noteholders exercised a portion of the Option and acquired an additional $1,500,000 of the Convertible Notes. Accordingly, as of June 1, 2005 each Noteholder held Convertible Notes with an aggregate principal amount of $1,500,000 and held an Option to acquire up to $500,000 in additional Convertible Notes. On July 18, 2005, the Noteholders exercised the remaining portion of the Option and acquired an additional $1,000,000 of the Convertible Notes such that each Noteholder now owns Convertible Notes with an aggregate principal amount of $2,000,000.

The Noteholders are controlled by our Chairman, Michael Egan. The Convertible Notes are convertible at anytime prior to payment into shares of the Company's common stock at the rate of $.05 per share. Assuming the Option is fully exercised and all Convertible Notes are thereafter converted at the initial conversion rate, and without regard to the potential anti-dilutive adjustments described below, approximately 80,000,000 shares of common stock could be issued. The Convertible Notes are due 5 days after demand from the holder, and are secured by a pledge of all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Convertible Notes bear interest at the rate of ten (10) percent per annum.

The Convertible Notes were not registered under applicable securities laws and were sold in reliance on an exemption from such registration. Each of the Noteholders is an "accredited investor" and the Company believes that the issuance and sale of the Convertible Notes qualified for an exemption from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933.

The Noteholders are entitled to certain demand and piggy-back registration rights in connection with their investment. The conversion price of the Convertible Notes is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events, including with respect to stock splits or combinations.

The Company intends to use the proceeds from the sale of the Convertible Notes for general working capital. The proceeds are intended to provide the Company with temporary liquidity to conduct its business while it seeks to raise additional capital, including with respect to the potential sale of one or more of the Company's subsidiaries, including SendTec.

Absent additional financing, in the event demand is made for repayment of the Convertible Notes, the Company will not have the resources to repay the Convertible Notes. Inasmuch as substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries secure the Convertible Notes, in connection with any resulting proceeding to collect the indebtedness relating to the Convertible Notes, the Noteholders could seize and sell the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, any or all of which would have a material adverse effect on the Company and its operations.
