Under the terms of and subject to the conditions set forth in the Agreement, the Company will pay $10 million in cash, subject to post-closing adjustments, to the members of Wescoco LLC, with $3 million of that amount to be placed in escrow to satisfy certain indemnification obligations of the FastFind members.

In connection with the Agreement, the surviving entity (FastFind) entered into executive agreements with T. Sean McCarthy and Eric K. King, former majority members of Wescoco LLC which, among other things, impose certain obligations to maintain the confidentiality of non-public information and to refrain from certain activities in competition with FastFind. The executive agreements become effective on the closing date of the Agreement.
