Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(b) Effective January 5, 2009, William Adams, has agreed to resign as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Patient Safety Technologies, Inc. (the "Company"). Mr. Adams has also agreed to resign as an officer and director of the Company's subsidiary to which he served in such capacities, also effective January 5, 2009. Mr. Adams has agreed to stay on with the Company as a consultant.

(b) Richard Bertran, has agreed to resign as President of SurgiCount Medical, Inc., the Company's subsidiary, effective January 6, 2009. Mr. Bertran's departure from the Company arose from his desire to pursue other career opportunities.

(c) On January 5, 2009, the Company's Board of Directors appointed David Bruce as its President and Chief Executive Officer, effective immediately. Mr. Bruce was also appointed to the Board of Directors. In connection with this appointment, on January 5, 2009 the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Bruce (the "Agreement").

The Agreement has the following terms: Mr. Bruce will receive an initial annual base salary of $325,000 and he is eligible to receive an incentive bonus each fiscal year in the amount of not less than 25% of his annual base salary for such year, with the payment of such bonus based on Mr. Bruce's achievement of performance objectives established by the Company's Board of Directors each fiscal year. The Agreement also provides for certain severance arrangements for Mr. Bruce, beginning six months after the effective date of the Agreement. In the event that Mr. Bruce's employment is terminated without cause the Company is required to pay Mr. Bruce (1) all accrued but unpaid compensation; (2) severance payments based on his annual base salary for a period of twelve months; (3) a pro-rated bonus for the year in which termination occurred; and (4) payment of, or reimbursement for, the continuation of his health and welfare benefits coverage pursuant to COBRA for a twelve-month period following such termination or resignation date.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company will also grant Mr. Bruce incentive stock options to purchase 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The exercise price of the options will be the average closing price of the Company's common stock for the ten trading days prior to the effective date of the Agreement. Upon the six-month anniversary of the effective date of the Agreement, 250,000 Shares subject to the Option shall vest and become exercisable and thereafter, the remaining shares will vest over a forty-two month period at the rate of 1/48th of the total shares per month. In addition, upon a change of control of the Company that occurs during his employment, any unvested options shall become fully vested and Mr. Bruce will receive a cash payment of two times his current base salary.

Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Bruce, 49, was the Chief Executive Officer of EP MedSystems, Inc. a developer of electrophysiology devices, which was recently acquired by St. Jude Medical. Mr. Bruce's experience also includes nine years of increasing responsibility at Acuson Corporation and the Ultrasound Division of Siemens, including as General Manager of the intracardiac echo (ICE) catheter. He also served as Vice President, Marketing for EVL, a laser vision correction company. Mr. Bruce received an MBA from the Wharton School and BS in Mechanical Engineering from the University of California, Berkeley.

The Company's press release dated January 8, 2009 announcing the appointment of Mr. Bruce as described above is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
