Sony Corporation

Announcement of the establishment of new company by joint incorporation-type company split
(small-scale company split) by Sony Corporation and Sony Global Solutions Inc.

Sony Corporation (“Sony”) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sony Global Solutions Inc. (“SGS”), today announced that both companies have decided to establish a new company by a “joint incorporation-type company split.” The new company will succeed to certain rights and obligations related to the maintenance and operation of the information systems business for Sony Group companies in Japan (excluding the electronics and mechanical CAD businesses) (the “Business”) that Sony and SGS each currently independently operate. The contemplated company split is a step in the process of outsourcing part of the information system operations and maintenance services for Sony Group companies in Japan to Accenture Japan Ltd. (“Accenture”), as announced on September 13, 2013.

Certain information is omitted from this announcement since this is a joint small-scale company split with Sony’s wholly-owned subsidiary.

1. Purpose of the company split

The purpose of this company split is to have a newly established company, Application Delivery Services Corporation (“ADS”), succeed to certain of Sony’s rights and obligations related to the Business.

(1) Schedule of the company split

Approval of the incorporation-type company split plan (by the representative corporate executive officer)	December 12, 2013
Effective date of the company split	April 1, 2014 (scheduled)

Sony will not obtain shareholder approval of the incorporation-type company split plan pursuant to the provisions of the “small-scale company split” set forth in Article 805 of the Companies Act of Japan.

(2) Method of the company split

The method of the contemplated company split is a joint incorporation-type company split between Sony and SGS (as the splitting companies), and ADS (as the formed and successor company).

(3) Details of consideration allotted upon the company split

ADS will issue 1 common share to Sony upon the completion of the contemplated company split.

(4) Treatment of stock acquisition rights and bonds with stock acquisition rights of the splitting company

There will be no changes to the treatment of stock acquisition rights or bonds with stock acquisition rights of Sony upon the completion of the contemplated company split.

(5) Increase or decrease of share capital upon the company split

There will be no increase or decrease of share capital of Sony upon the contemplated company split.

(6) Rights and obligations to be succeeded to by the successor company

ADS, as the formed and successor company, will succeed to certain rights and obligations related to the Business, as set forth in the incorporation-type company split plan.

(7) Expectation of the performance capabilities of the successor company's obligations

Sony expects that the contemplated company split will have no material impact on the performance capabilities of ADS to fulfill its obligations which become due after the effective date of the contemplated company split.
