On March 29, 2005, Delta's Senior Vice President - Technical Operations, issued a memorandum to Delta's Technical Operations employees, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 that are not historical facts, including statements regarding Delta's estimates, beliefs, expectations, intentions, strategies or projections, may be "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the estimates, beliefs, expectations, intentions, strategies and projections reflected in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, our ability to reduce operating expenses, our ability to obtain necessary financing to meet our liquidity needs, our ability to meet financial covenants in financing agreements, our pension plan funding obligations, pilot early retirements, the cost of aircraft fuel, the effect of credit ratings downgrades, interruptions or disruptions in service at one of our hub airports, our increasing dependence on technology in our operations, future losses of key employees, the effects of terrorist attacks, restructurings by competitors and competitive conditions in the airline industry. Additional information concerning risks and uncertainties that could cause differences between actual results and forward-looking statements is contained in Delta's Securities and Exchange Commission filings, including its Registration Statement on Form S-3 filed with the Commission on March 28, 2005. Caution should be taken not to place undue reliance on Delta's forward-looking statements, which represent Delta's views only as of March 29, 2005, and which Delta has no current intention to update.
