CAMTEK REPORTS PRELIMINARY SALES RESULTS
FOR THE FOURTH QUARTER OF 2003

MIGDAL HA EMEK, ISRAEL January 12, 2004 Camtek Ltd.
(NASDAQ:CAMT) reported today preliminary sales results for the fourth quarter of 2003, which reflect the trend of increasing demand for its PCB products. This trend, which was reported by Camtek together with its financial results for the third quarter of 2003, continued and even intensified in the fourth quarter.

Camtek announced that its sales in the fourth quarter of 2003 are expected to reflect an approximate 17% increase over those of the third quarter of 2003, bringing sales in the fourth quarter of 2003 to close to $10 million. Camtek expects to report its final fourth quarter results, together with its audited results for the year 2003 on or about February 19th, 2004.

We wanted to share with our shareholders the trends we currently see in our markets, as these trends have clearly changed course over the last few months. Assuming that the current level of activity and the growth trends in the PCB industry continue during 2004, we expect our sales in 2004 to the PCB market alone to be 15%-25% higher than the rate of sales during the fourth quarter of 2003. This increase is expected to result in an additional increase in our gross profit, said Rafi Amit, Camtek's CEO.

We also expect substantial additional revenues to be generated during 2004 by the sales of the Falcon, our newly introduced system for semiconductor wafer-level inspection, and from additional sales of the Pegasus, our product for semiconductor packaging inspection added Mr. Amit.
