Form 10-Q/A
Amendment No. 1 for the Quarterly Period Ended
November 30, 2004

Edgar Filing: FRMO CORP - Form 10-Q/A

This Amendment No. 1 is filed to correctly report the effect of the accounting change required to be reported pursuant to EITF 03-16 as the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle. This requires that the requisite change from the cost to equity method of accounting for the Company's investment in Kinetics Advisors, LLC for the quarters prior to February 28, 2004, amounting to $368,925, net of income taxes of $245,000, be reported in the first quarter of the fiscal year which commenced on March 1, 2004. This Amendment reports the statements of income (page 4) for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2003 as reported in the 10-Q reports originally filed for those periods without including income from the investment in Kinetics Advisors LLC retroactively on the equity method. The cumulative effect of the change from the cost to equity method for periods prior to February 28, 2004, amounting to $368,925 net of income taxes of $245,000 is reported in the first quarter ending May 31, 2004 and in this amended 10-Q as shown for the nine months ended November 30, 2004. The effect of this amendment at page 4 is to increase the net income for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 from the $464,830 previously reported in the 10-Q report for this period to $833,755 as shown on page 4 with the separate identification of the cumulative effect and the pro-forma amounts if the new equity method were to be applied retroactively. Conforming changes were made in the statements at pages 3 and 5 as well as Notes 1, 2 and 6 and Management's Discussion and Analysis.

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information in response to the requirements of Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring items) necessary to present fairly the financial position as of November 30, 2004; results of operations for the three months and nine months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003; and cash flows for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003. For further information, refer to the Company's financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended February 29, 2004.

As indicated in Note 2, below, a new accounting rule for an investment in limited liability companies (EITF 03-16) became effective for reporting periods beginning after June 15, 2004, which, for the Company, is its three month period ended November 30, 2004. This rule requires that the effect of its adoption be reported as the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle. Accordingly, this has been so reported for the three and nine month periods ended November 30, 2004 in the statements of income and in the balance sheet at November 30, 2004. However, as Note 2 states (i) the net income for the prior periods in the statements of income, namely the three and nine month periods ended November 30, 2003, has not been restated but pro forma amounts for those two periods are shown assuming the new accounting rule is applied retroactively and (ii) the balance sheet at February 28, 2004 has not been restated.

2. Investments

In February 2002, FRMO acquired an interest in Kinetics Advisors, LLC, now 8.4%. Pursuant to a new accounting rule (EITF 03-16), and as noted on page 10 of the Company's 10-Q Report for the Quarterly Period Ended August 31, 2004, effective September 1, 2004 the Company has changed its accounting policy regarding its investment in Kinetics Advisors, LLC to the equity method. Under the cost method used in periods prior to September 1, 2004, the Company included in revenue only the cash distributions that it received on this investment. Effective September 1, 2004, under the equity method, the Company also includes in revenue its proportionate share of the income earned in the period by Kinetics Advisors, LLC. As a result, the financial statements for the three and nine months ended

November 30, 2004 include revenue from this investment of $368,238 and $613,420, respectively. Kinetics Advisors, LLC has a December 31 fiscal year, so that results for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 for the Company include the Company's share of the income of Kinetics Advisors, LLC for the nine months ended September 30, 2004. The effect of the change on the three and nine months ended November 30, 2004 was to increase income before the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle by $202,312 ($0.03 per diluted share) and $290,764 ($0.05 per diluted share), respectively. The cumulative effect on prior quarters (to February 28, 2004) was to increase net income for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 by $368,925 ($0.06 per diluted share). The pro-forma amounts shown in the statements of income reflect the retroactive application of the change in accounting principle as if the equity method been in effect for those periods.

The investment in unconsolidated subsidiary on the balance sheet at November 30, 2004 of $1,098,532 consists of the Company's proportionate share of the net assets of Kinetics Advisors, LLC. The balance sheet at February 28, 2004 has not been restated.

Following is a summary of the unaudited financial position and results of operations of Kinetics Advisors, LLC:

	September 30,
	2004	2003
Investments	$ 16,347,526	$ 5,016,733
Other assets	614,843	1,376

Net income	$4,001,379	$ 829,640	$5,751,085	$3,966,119

In August 2004, FRMO made a $200,000 limited partner investment (100%) in a hedge fund known as Jordan Partners, LP. This is a value oriented fund that presently focuses on income-oriented securities and strategies, with an objective of providing double-digit returns in a relatively steady-state fashion. These are publicly traded securities, and the investment capital may be withdrawn on a quarterly basis. Horizon Asset Management, Inc. is a member of both the General Partner and the Manager of Jordan Partners, LP.

3. Intangible Assets

Research Agreements

In March 2001, the Company acquired the research service fees that Horizon Research Group receives from The Kinetics Paradigm Fund in exchange for 80,003 shares of common stock. The value of the shares issued in this transaction was $51,003. The Company is amortizing the cost of The Kinetics Paradigm Fund research agreement over ten years using the straight-line method.

Subscription Revenues

In October 2001, the Company acquired a 2% interest in the subscription revenues from subscribers to The Capital Structure Arbitrage Report that Horizon

Edgar Filing: FRMO CORP - Form 10-Q/A

Research Group and another third party receive. Consideration for this interest consisted of the issuance of 50 shares of Series R preferred stock. The value of the shares issued in both of these transactions aggregated $26,250. The Company is amortizing the purchase of these subscription agreements over ten years using the straight-line method. At the time of these transactions, a 2% interest in the subscription revenues amounted to $3,018 per annum.

Sub-advisory Revenues

In June 2004, acquired a one-third interest in the advisory fee revenue that Horizon Asset Management, Inc. receives from the Lehman Brothers Manager Access Program, in exchange for 4,587 shares of FRMO Corp. common stock. The value of the shares issued in this transaction was $3,440. The Company is amortizing the cost of the Sub-Advisory Revenue interest over five years using the straight-line method.

Intangible assets consist of the following:

	November 30, 2004	February 29, 2004
Research agreements	$ 51,003	$ 51,003
Subscription revenue	26,250	26,250

4. Net Income Per Common Share And Per Common Share Equivalent

Basic earnings per common share for the nine and three months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003 are calculated by dividing net income by weighted average common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per common share for the nine and three months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003, are calculated by dividing net income by weighted average common shares outstanding during the period plus dilutive potential common shares, which are determined as follows:

	Three months ended November 30,		Nine months ended November 30,
	2004	2003	2004	2003
Weighted average common shares	7,589,321	4,485,902	6,576,087	4,093,650
Effect of dilutive securities:
Conversion of preferred stock	50,000	50,000	50,000	50,000
Exercise of stock options	39,382	16,154	31,964	7,015

5. Compensation For Contributed Services

Two officers/shareholders performed services for the Company during the nine months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003 for which no compensation was paid. The Company recorded a charge to operations for these contributed services of $9,000 and a corresponding credit to paid-in-capital for each period.

6. Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes consists of the following:

	Three months ended November 30,		Nine months ended November 30,
	2004	2003	2004	2003
Current:
Federal	$ 20,000	$ 4,245	$ 84,000	$ 7,800
State	5,859	2,709	14,943	4,962
Total current	25,859	6,954	98,943	12,762
Deferred:
Federal	114,000	--	165,000	--
State	20,000	--	29,000	--
Total deferred	134,000	--	194,000	--
Total	$159,859	$ 6,954	$292,943	$ 12,762

Deferred taxes have been provided on the undistributed income of an unconsolidated subsidiary at 40% as if such income had been received in the current period.

-8-

7. Comprehensive Income

Other comprehensive income refers to revenues, expenses, gains and losses that under generally accepted accounting principles are included in comprehensive income but are excluded from net income as these amounts are recorded directly as an adjustment to stockholders' equity. Comprehensive income approximated net income for all periods presented.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

All statements contained herein that are not historical facts, including but not limited to, statements regarding future operations, financial condition and liquidity, capital requirements and the Company's future business plans are based on current expectations. These statements are forward looking in nature and involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are changes in the financial markets, which affect investment managers, investors, mutual funds and the Company's consulting clients, and other risk factors described herein and in the Company's reports filed and to be filed from time to time with the Commission. The discussion and analysis below is based on the Company's unaudited Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended November 30, 2004 and 2003. The following should be read in conjunction with the Management's Discussion and Analysis of results of operations and financial condition included in Form 10-K for the year ended February 29, 2004.

OVERVIEW

By reason of the spin-off transaction described in Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2002, the Company had a new start in terms of its continuing business and its financial statements. After the spin-off, its balance sheet consisted of $10,000 in assets, no liabilities and 1,800,000 shares of common stock. On January 23, 2001 the Company issued an additional 34,200,000 shares of common stock for $3,258,000 to be paid as set forth in Item 1 of Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2001.

Since its new start on January 23, 2001, FRMO completed the following transactions through November 30, 2004:

- i. The Company invested $5,000 in FRM NY Capital, LLC, a limited liability venture capital company whereby the substantial investment of financial capital will be made by unrelated parties but where FRMO will have a carried interest based on leveraging the creative services of its personnel (its intellectual capital). This interest was inactive and the investment was sold at cost during the fiscal 2004 year.
- ii. A consulting agreement was signed effective January 1, 2001, whereby FRMO is currently receiving approximately $27,000 a year from the manager of Santa Monica Partners, LP, a director and shareholder of FRM, for access to consultations with the Company's personnel designated by Murray Stahl and Steven Bregman. Santa Monica Partners, L.P. is a private fund, which owns 218,000 shares of common stock of FRMO.
- iii. In March 2001 FRMO acquired the research service fees that Horizon Research Group had received from The Kinetics Paradigm Fund in exchange for 80,003 shares of FRMO common stock. Management believes that the growth of that Fund in the current fiscal year and future years will increase the current level of research fees for which the stock consideration was paid. The Paradigm Fund outperformed the S&P 500 Index by approximately 13 percentage points in its first fiscal year of operation, Calendar 2000, and returned 21% during Calendar 2004. From inception through Calendar 2004, it outperformed the S&P 500 Index by 78 percentage points, or in the parlance of investment professionals, by 7,800 basis points. In August 2003, The New Paradigm Fund was assigned a five-star rating by Morningstar, Inc., the fund rating service. This is Morningstar's highest rating and is often the basis on which mutual fund investors seek to select funds.
- iv. In October 2001, FRMO acquired a 2% interest in the subscription revenues from The Capital Structure Arbitrage Report that Horizon Research Group and another third party receive, in exchange for 50 shares of Series R preferred stock. While the subscriptions were minimal at the time, they have advanced and management believes that they will continue to expand in future years.

Edgar Filing: FRMO CORP - Form 10-Q/A

- v. In February 2002, FRMO acquired an interest in Kinetics Advisors, LLC, now 8.4%, and the Finder's Fee Share Interest from the Stahl Bregman Group, in exchange for 315 shares of FRMO common stock. Kinetics Advisors, LLC controls and provides investment advice to Kinetics Partners, LP, a hedge fund and to Kinetics Fund, Inc., an offshore version of Kinetics Partners. While these funds were quite small at the time of acquisition, they have expanded significantly and management believes that they will continue to grow in future years. During its first year of operation in 2000, and in 2001, Kinetics Partners returned 23.7 and 21.6 percentage points more than the S&P 500 Index, net of management and incentive fees. In 2002, it outperformed the S&P 500 Index by 33 percentage points. In Calendar 2003 and 2004, it outperformed the S&P 500 Index by a further 23 percentage points and, according to preliminary figures, 6 percentage points, respectively. On a cumulative basis, over the 4-year 4-month period from inception through year-end 2004, the Kinetics Partners Fund has returned 124%, whereas the S&P 500 Index has lost (15%).
- vi. On June 1, 2004, FRMO acquired a one-third interest in the advisory fee revenue that Horizon Asset Management, Inc. receives from the Lehman Brothers Manager Access Program, in exchange for 4,587 shares of FRMO Corp. common stock. Under this program, Horizon Asset Management provides investment advisory services to certain Lehman Brothers clients, the fees being calculated on the basis of assets under management. While assets under management were quite modest at the time of acquisition, they have expanded significantly and exceeded $100 million as of December 31, 2004. Management believes that they will continue to expand in future years. The five-year investment returns of the strategy utilized by this program, through December 2004, amount to about 14% per year versus the approximately 2% annualized loss for the S&P 500 Index over the same period.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

2004 Period Compared to the 2003 Period

The Company's revenues from operations for the three months ended November 30, 2004 ("2004") were $418,963, an increase of $378,449, as compared to $40,514 for the three months ended November 30, 2003 ("2003"). The increase in the three-month period was due principally to an increase in revenue from investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries (Kinetics Advisors, LLC); see Note 2, "Investments", above and, to a lesser extent, the increase in research fees. The Company's revenues from operations for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 ("2004") were $794,275, as compared to $90,197 for the nine months ended November 30, 2003 ("2003"). The increase of $704,078 in the nine-month period was principally attributable to the increase in income from investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries (Kinetics Advisors, LLC) and, to a lesser extent, the increase in research fees.

Costs and expenses from operations were $15,833 during the three months ended in November 2004, an increase of $3,047 (or 24%) from the comparable 2003 period. During the nine-month period ended in 2004, costs and expenses increased by $7,446 (17%) to $50,439. The result for the three-month period was primarily due to an increase in accounting expenses. The increase for the nine months ended in 2004 was primarily due to increases in accounting expenses and shareholder reporting expenses.

For the reasons noted above as well as an adjustment for income tax expense, the Company's income before cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle for the three months ended November 30, 2004 increased by $224,039 to $245,086, as compared $21,047 in 2003. For the same reasons, income before cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 was $464,830, as compared to $35,189 for the same period in 2003, an increase of $429,641.

Some discussion is required with respect to an asset which, by reason of a change in the method of accounting, as discussed in Note 2 above, has had a large impact on the FRMO financial statements. This is the minority interest in Kinetics Advisors, LLC, acquired by the Company in February 2002, which controls and provides investment advice to several mutual and hedge funds. Kinetics Advisors has elected to reinvest in two of the funds the major portion of the fees to which it is entitled from them. As a consequence, FRMO does not receive its proportional interest in those fees until such time that Kinetics Advisors itself elects to or is required to receive them. Under generally accepted accounting principles, as they applied in fiscal 2003 and 2004, FRMO recorded this investment on a cost basis. As of September 1, 2004, the Company has applied the equity method and reports the effect of the new accounting rule as the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle. See Note 1, "Basis of Presentation", above. This is in accordance with the new accounting rule EITF 03-16, "Accounting for Investments in Limited Liability Companies."

-10-

Another asset whose impact on the Company's earnings was negligible during the three and nine months ended November 2004, yet which will have a more significant impact in future periods, is the sub-advisory fee revenue interest in the Lehman Brothers program. Based upon the amount of assets in this program as of January 2005, the level of annual revenues that would be due to the Company exceeds $150,000, although this is received and recognized quarterly and with a lag since fees are paid in arrears.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's operating activities during the nine months ended November 30, 2004 resulted in an increase in cash of $154,017. This increase was due to $90,426 of net cash provided by operations plus the $143,721 provided by financing activities, less the $80,130 used in investing activities. Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended November 30, 2004 was $80,130, representing the Company's investment in a limited partnership interest in a hedge fund known as Jordan Partners, LP and in marketable equity securities, less distributions received from Kinetics Advisors, LLC. Cash provided by financing activities was $143,721, representing payments from shareholders for common shares held in escrow. The Company expects its business to develop without the outlay of cash, since growth is expected to be a function of its intellectual property as presently represented by consulting, research, subscription and sub-advisory fees as well as its asset-based general partner interest.

Effects of New Accounting Pronouncements

The Company previously accounted for its 8.4% investment in Kinetics Advisers, LLC using the cost method of accounting at February 29, 2004. In March 2004, the FASB ratified Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 03-16, "Accounting for Investments In Limited Liability Companies". Under EITF 03-16, investments in limited liability companies that have separate ownership accounts for each investor greater than 3 to 5 percent should be accounted for under the equity method. Effective September 1, 2004, the Company has changed its method of accounting for this investment so that it now records its pro rata share of Kinetics Advisers income (loss) each period. See Notes 1 and 2 above.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

On January 23, 2001 the Company issued 34,200,000 shares of $.001 par value stock for $3,258,000. Only $39,375 was paid for at the time, and the balance remaining as of November 30, 2004 of $2,849,904 will be paid to the Company as set forth in Item 1 of Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2001. The Company's market risk arises principally from the obligations of the shareholders to pay for the shares of common stock of the Company based on dividends from outside sources and the income generated from the management of the mutual and hedge funds. The carrying value of the investment in Kinetics Advisors is affected by the markets in which the hedge funds it manages invests.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures within 90 days of the filing date of this quarterly report, and, based on their evaluation, our principal executive officer and
