Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 7, 2004, the Board of Directors of Valassis Communications, Inc. (the "Company") amended the compensation plan for the Company's Independent Directors by increasing the annual retainer and meeting fees by 3.5%. Effective January 1, 2005, the Company will pay directors who are not employed by the Company an annual retainer of $40,600 comprised of $17,033 in cash plus an annual grant of restricted stock with a fair market value of $23,567, granted on a pro-rated quarterly basis. Each outside director also will receive $2,434 for participating in a board meeting and $1,217 for participating in a committee meeting, provided, however, that if the meeting is held telephonically, the meeting fee will be reduced to $1,217 and $608, respectively. All other terms of the Company's annual independent director compensation remains the same.

In addition, effective January 1, 2005, per contractual agreement base salaries for the named executive officers of the Company increased as follows:

Alan F. Schultz	$780,000 (from $760,000)
Robert L. Recchia	$390,000 (from $380,000)
Barry P. Hoffman	$390,000 (from $380,000)
Richard P. Herpich	$360,000 (from $350,000)
William F. Hogg	$290,000 (from $275,000)

These increases in base salary were approved by the Compensation Committee which annually reviews and approves the corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the CEO and other corporate officers and sets compensation levels based on such evaluation. The Committee evaluates the annual base salaries by assessing performance in terms of a number of financial and non-financial goals, such as sales growth, earnings, competitive environment, employee retention and such other factors the Committee determines appropriate.
