Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On October 10, 2008, Norman Carmichael, 42, was appointed Vice President, Operations of American Technology Corporation (the "Company") and an Officer of the Company. Mr. Carmichael has been with the Company for four of the last five years, most recently serving as the Company's Director of Operations. Between his current and prior employment with the Company, Mr. Carmichael was the Director of Supply Chain Management for Continuous Computing Corporation. Prior to initially joining the Company, Mr. Carmichael was the Director of Materials for Copper Mountain Networks.

In connection with his promotion, Mr. Carmichael's annual salary will be increased to $154,000. He is also entitled to participate in the Company's incentive bonus plan and to receive all rights and benefits for which he is eligible under the Company's standard benefits and compensation plans. His employment with the Company is at-will.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Carmichael and any director or executive officer of the Company which would require disclosure under Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K. Other than with respect to his employment with the Company, there are no transactions between Mr. Carmichael or any of his immediate family members and the Company or any of its subsidiaries which would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
