Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

InfoSpace, Inc. announced that on August 22, 2003, the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington entered judgment in Dreiling v. Jain, et al. in the total amount of $247 million against Naveen Jain, the Company's former chairman and chief executive officer.

On May 14, 2003, the Court had granted plaintiff's motion for summary judgment in this case holding that the Jain defendants had engaged in short-swing trading in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

This suit was brought by a private party on behalf of InfoSpace and, as such, any damages paid by the Jain defendants will go to the Company. The Company does not control the direction or ultimate outcome of the matter.

The Court's order may be appealed by the Jain defendants and the outcome of any appeal is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, InfoSpace cannot at this time determine with any certainty the amount, if any, or timing, of any payment that may be required to be made by the Jain defendants to the Company.

A copy of the press release is furnished to the Commission as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
