Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 29, 2004, Ampex Corporation announced that it has reached a settlement with Sony Corporation whereby Ampex will withdraw the patent litigation it initiated in July 2004 in the International Trade Commission and in the Federal District Court for the District of Delaware relating to digital still cameras manufactured and sold by Sony. Under the terms of the settlement, Sony will be licensed to manufacture and sell various products, including digital video tape recorders and digital still cameras. In return for a $40.0 million payment, which Ampex expects to receive during its fourth quarter of fiscal 2004, Sony will be permitted to use Ampex patents in any of its products for the period through April 2006. After that time, the licenses provide for running royalties based on sales of certain products that utilize Ampex patents.

A copy of Ampex's press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
