Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 1, 2005, Curis, Inc. (the Company) announced that it elected to exercise a co-development option with its collaborative partner, Genentech, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Genentech). The Company and Genentech will share development costs in the United States and any future net profits derived from sales in the United States of a therapeutic product candidate for the topical treatment of basal cell carcinoma, a skin cancer. The Company expects that by exercising this co-development and equal cost-sharing option it will incur approximately $20 million in development expenses through Phase II clinical trials, a portion of which will be booked in the first quarter of 2005.

The full text of the Company's press release regarding the announcement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
