Item 8.01 Other Events:

Pro-Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) was notified on February 14, 2005 that the Office of Administrative Law Judges at the U.S. Department of Labor issued the Judge's Recommended Decision and Order dated February 11, 2005 following the hearing held in April 2004 related to a complaint filed in May 2003 by a former employee of the Company. The former employee alleged that the Company terminated her employment in violation of the employee protection provisions of Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Judge did not find that the Company violated federal securities law. The Judge determined that the former employee had a reasonable belief that the Company engaged in some activity that violated federal securities law, and ordered it to pay the former employee's legal expenses.
