PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To Be Held May 16, 2005

GENERAL INFORMATION

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Extra Space Storage Inc. (the "Company"), a Maryland corporation for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the "Annual Meeting"), and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, to be held at the Grand America Hotel located at 555 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, on Monday, May 16, 2005, at 11:00 a.m. Mountain time. The purposes of the meeting are: (1) to elect seven members to the Board of Directors, each to serve until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The nominees to the Board of Directors are the following: Kenneth M. Woolley, Anthony Fanticola, Hugh W. Horne, Spencer F. Kirk, Joseph D. Margolis, Roger B. Porter and K. Fred Skousen; (2) to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2005; and (3) to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This proxy statement is accompanied by a copy of the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2004.

ABOUT THE MEETING

Record Date

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on April 1, 2005 as the record date (the "Record Date") for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Each share of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share ("Common Stock") is entitled to one vote for each matter to be voted upon. As of the Record Date, there were 31,169,950 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Quorum; Voting

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock which are entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is not present or represented at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders entitled to vote, whether present in person or represented by proxy, have the power to adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the Annual Meeting, until a quorum is present or represented. At any such adjourned Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present or represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the Annual Meeting as originally noticed.

Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock registered in the stockholder's name on the Record Date. A plurality vote of the outstanding Common Stock is required for the election of directors. An affirmative vote, of a majority of the votes, cast at the meeting by holders of the Company's Common Stock at which a quorum is present is required for the approval and ratification of each other matter.

If you properly execute a proxy in the accompanying form, and if we receive it prior to voting at the Annual Meeting, the shares that the proxy represents will be voted in the manner specified on the proxy. If no specification is made, the shares of Common Stock will be voted FOR the proposals and as recommended by the Board of Directors with regard to all other matters in its discretion.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting, who will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter. Under New York Stock Exchange rules, if your shares are held in street name, your broker may, without instructions from you, vote your shares on all proposals set forth in this proxy statement.

If you cast a vote by proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted by:

giving written notice to the Company's Secretary at our address, expressly revoking the proxy, by signing and forwarding to us a proxy dated later, or by attending the Annual Meeting and personally voting the common stock owned of record by you.

Costs of Soliciting Proxies

The Company will bear the entire costs of soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting. In addition to solicitation by mail, certain of the Company's directors, officers and regular employees may solicit the return of proxies by telephone, facsimile, personal interview or otherwise without being paid additional compensation. American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the transfer agent and registrar for the Company, will assist in the distribution of proxy materials and tabulation of votes. The Company will also reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing the beneficial owners of the Company's shares for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners in accordance with the proxy solicitation rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange.

Table of ContentsITEMS TO BE VOTED ON BY STOCKHOLDERS*ITEM 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, each member of the Board of Directors is elected at the Annual Meeting. Each member of the Board of Directors elected will serve for a term expiring at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and until his successor has been elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. Messrs. Kenneth M. Woolley, Anthony Fanticola, Hugh W. Horne, Spencer F. Kirk, Joseph D. Margolis, Roger B. Porter and K. Fred Skousen are the Board of Directors' nominees for election.

Proxies in the accompanying form that are properly executed and returned will be voted at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof in accordance with the directions on such proxies. If no directions are specified, such proxies will be voted FOR the election of the seven persons specified as nominees for directors, each of whom will serve until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Company has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected. However, should any director nominee named herein become unable or unwilling to serve if elected, it is intended that the proxies will be voted for the election, in his stead, of such other person as the Board of Directors of the Company may nominate, unless the Board of Directors reduces the size of the membership of the Board of Directors prior to the Annual Meeting to eliminate the position of any such nominee.

The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that Messrs. Fanticola, Margolis, Porter and Skousen are independent within the standards prescribed by the New York Stock Exchange.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The executive compensation philosophy, policies, plans, and programs of the Company are under the supervision of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, which is composed of the Non-Management Directors named below, each of whom has been determined by the Board of Directors to be independent under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee has furnished the following report on executive compensation.

The Company completed its initial public offering in August 2004. The information regarding executive compensation as described in the Company's registration statement on Form S-11 served as the basis for the Company's executive compensation policies, practices, and programs during 2004.

Compensation Philosophy

The basic philosophy underlying the Company's executive compensation policies, plans, and programs is that executive and stockholder financial interests should be aligned as closely as possible, and that compensation should be based on delivering pay commensurate with performance. Accordingly, the executive compensation program for the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and the other officers of the Company has been structured to:

Edgar Filing: Extra Space Storage Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Provide compensation that attracts, retains, and motivates key executives.

Reinforce a results-oriented management culture with executive pay that varies according to overall Company and individual performance against business goals and core behavioral standards.

Place more emphasis on variable performance-based compensation, commensurate with an executive's increasing responsibilities.

Align the interests of the Company's executives and stockholders by implementing and maintaining compensation programs that provide for the acquisition and retention of significant equity interests in the Company by senior executives.

Based on these objectives, the executive compensation program has been designed to assist the Company in attracting, motivating and retaining executives to help the Company achieve its performance goals. The program is structured to provide the Company's executives with base salaries, annual cash incentive awards, long-term incentive awards, and stock ownership opportunities.

Table of Contents

All executive employment agreements were initiated and were made effective August 2004, prior to the Company's initial public offering. A description of these agreements is set forth under the heading "Agreements with Executive Officers" on page 15 in this Proxy Statement.

Executive Compensation

The executive compensation plan has been structured to provide short and long-term incentives that promote continuing improvements in the Company's financial results and returns to stockholders. The elements of the Company's executive compensation, as provided for in the executives' employment agreements, are primarily comprised of three elements designed to complement each other.

Base salaries. Base salaries are paid for ongoing performance throughout the year. The Company's base salaries of executive officers and guaranteed portions of annual incentive bonuses are designed to be competitive with those of executives of other equity REITs, which compete with the Company, while also taking into account the executive officers' performance;

Annual Incentive Bonus. Under the 2004 Performance Bonus Plan, the Company provides for the payment of cash incentive bonuses based on the Company's performance in relation to predetermined objectives and individual executive performance.

Long-Term Incentives. The Company's long-term incentive program allows for awards of stock options and grants of restricted stock under the Company's 2004 Incentive Plan, the exact numbers of which vary, depending on the position and salary of the executive. These equity based awards are designed to link executive compensation to the Company's long-term common share performance and have been issued in accordance with the description set forth in the Company's registration statement on Form S-11. Stock options vest 25% each year for four years from the date of grant and no restricted shares were granted in 2004. Executives only benefit from the grant of stock options if the stock price increases and shareholders also benefit.

CEO Compensation

Kenneth M. Woolley served as the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer during 2004. Mr. Woolley's employment agreement was initiated in August 2004 and sets an annual salary of $250,000 and an annual bonus award as determined by Committee. Mr. Woolley also received 150,000 stock options in 2004.

Federal Tax Regulations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the deductibility on the Company's income tax return to compensation of $1 million for certain executive officers unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan that is performance based, nondiscretionary and has been approved by the Company's shareholders. This regulation did not apply to the Company prior to the time it became a public company in August 2004. The Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) since the initial public offering is to make reasonable efforts to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted, while simultaneously providing the Company's executives with appropriate rewards for their performance.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee:

Roger B. Porter (Chairman)

K. Fred Skousen

Joseph Margolis

Acquisition of Storage Spot Properties

During August 2004, the Company purchased 26 self storage properties from Storage Spot Properties No. 1, L.P. and Storage Spot Properties No. 4, L.P. for $147.0 million.  - (d) an understanding of internal controls and procedures for financial reporting; and
 - (e) an understanding of audit committee functions.
3. No director who serves on the audit committee of more than three other public companies may be a member of the Committee, unless the Board determines such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee, and discloses such determination in the Company's annual proxy statement, or in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

4. The members of the Committee will be appointed, removed and replaced by, and in the sole discretion of, the Board.
5. The Board will designate a member of the Committee to serve as chairman of the Committee.
6. The Committee will create its own rules of procedure. Such rules will be consistent with the Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the Charter), and Bylaws (the Bylaws) of the Company and with this charter.

The Committee will have the authority to engage independent counsel, accounting and other advisors, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for payment of compensation (a) to the Independent Auditor employed by the Company to audit the financial statements of the Company and (b) to any advisors employed by the Committee.

The Committee may require any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or Independent Auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

Responsibilities

The Committee will from time to time adopt policies or procedures it deems necessary to ensure that the accounting and reporting practices of the Company are of the highest quality.

Edgar Filing: Extra Space Storage Inc. - Form DEF 14A

While the Committee has the powers and responsibilities set forth in this charter, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Committee to (i) plan or conduct audits, (ii) determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate or are in accordance with GAAP or applicable rules and regulations, or (iii) monitor and control risk assessment and management. These are the responsibilities of the Company's management and the Independent Auditor.
