Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 20, 2005, Altiris, Inc. (the Registrant) implemented a Senior Management Severance Plan, the form of which is attached as Exhibit 10.9 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (the Severance Plan). Pursuant to the Severance Plan, eligible Registrant employees whose employment is terminated as a result of an involuntary termination (as defined in the Severance Plan) within six months following a change of control (as defined in the Severance Plan) will receive (i) a lump sum severance payment equal to twelve months' base salary; (ii) 100% of such eligible employee's target bonus for the year in which the change of control (as defined in the Severance Plan) occurs; (iii) full vesting of any unvested stock options; (iv) a release of any right by the Registrant to repurchase Registrant common stock owned by such eligible employee; and (v) twelve months' paid health, dental, vision and life insurance benefits. In addition, any eligible employee who remains continuously employed by the Registrant through the six month anniversary of any change of control (as defined in the Severance Plan) is also entitled to receive the payments and benefits listed in (i) through (v) of the previous sentence as a retention payment. The Registrant's obligation to make any severance or retention payments under the Severance Plan is conditioned on the eligible employee's covenant not to solicit the Registrant's employees to terminate their employment with the Registrant. An employee becomes eligible to participate in the Severance Plan when he or she receives a Notice of Participation from the Registrant and signs and returns such Notice of Participation to the Registrant. Temporary employees and employees with a separate written employment contract with the Registrant relating to severance benefits, among others, are ineligible to participate in the Severance Plan.

The foregoing description of the Severance Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Severance Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.9 and incorporated herein by reference.
