Accordingly, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

Broker Non-Votes. Broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, but will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of Votes Cast with respect to the particular proposal on which the broker has expressly not voted. Table of Contents

Committees of the Board

The Board has four (4) standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Content Acquisition Committee. None of these committees held a meeting during the year ended December 31, 2005. These committees were established effective upon the Company's initial public offering in February 2006. The current membership and the function of each of the committees are described below. All committee members are independent under the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. From time to time, the Board may also create various ad hoc committees for special purposes.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee consists of Messrs. Hatchett (Chairman), Biscay and Trier. The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing and monitoring the Company's corporate accounting and financial reporting processes, the periodic public release of financial results and the periodic filing of financial reports with the SEC, and selecting the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements, including approving their compensation and monitoring their qualifications, independence and performance. The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent for purposes of Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), and that each member qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K. Messrs. Hatchett and Trier qualify as an audit committee financial expert by virtue of having previously been partners in the audit division of large international public accounting firms and Mr. Biscay by virtue of his significant financial and investment responsibilities at Cisco Systems, one of the largest publicly-traded companies in the United States, as set forth in his biography on page 3. The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining salaries, incentives and other forms of compensation for the Company's executive officers and compensation for non-employee directors, as well as administering the Amended and Restated 2005 Stock Plan and other incentive compensation and employee benefit plans of the Company. The Compensation Committee has a written charter, which was adopted by the Board in January 2006. Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee consists of Messrs. Trier (Chairman), Altschul, Biscay, Csathy, Hatchett and Kilcullen. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for developing and recommending Board member selection criteria, identifying and recruiting prospective Board candidates, recommending nominees for election to the Board, considering committee member qualifications, recommending corporate governance principles to the Board, and providing oversight in the evaluation of the Board and each committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers nominees proposed by stockholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has a written charter, which was adopted by the Board in November 2005. The charter is available on the Company's website at <http://investor.digitalmusicgroupinc.com> under the link Corporate Governance.

Content Acquisition Committee. The Content Acquisition Committee consists of Messrs. Altschul (Chairman), Csathy and Trier. Table of Contents

Meetings Attended by Directors

Digital Music Group, Inc. was incorporated in April 2005 and was a private company until February 2006. The Board, as a private company, held fourteen (14) meetings in person and by written consent during the year ended December 31, 2005.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, no director attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board during the period for which he served as a director. The directors are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting. The Company has not previously held an annual meeting of stockholders since it became subject to the Exchange Act.

Consideration of Director Nominees

Nominations. The Board believes that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which consists of all independent directors of the Company, can adequately identify appropriate candidates to the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider any future nominees for director nominated by the Company's stockholders.

Stockholder Nominees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers properly submitted stockholder nominations for candidates for membership on the Board as described below under Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors. Any stockholder nominations proposed for consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee should include the nominee's name and qualifications for Board membership. In addition, they should be submitted within the time frame and in the manner as specified under STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS TO BE PRESENTED AT NEXT ANNUAL MEETING .

Director Qualifications. While the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not established formal procedures or specific minimum qualifications for the evaluation of director candidates, the candidates for Board membership should have the highest professional and personal ethics and values, and conduct themselves consistent with the Company's Code of Business Conduct. Additionally, candidates and nominees must ultimately reflect a Board that is comprised of directors who (i) have broad and relevant experience, (ii) are predominantly independent, (iii) are of high integrity, (iv) have qualifications that will increase overall Board effectiveness and enhance long-term stockholder value, and (v) meet other requirements as may be required by applicable rules, such as financial literacy or financial expertise with respect to Audit Committee members.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Directors. Typically, any new candidates for nomination to the Board are suggested by existing directors or executive officers of the Company, although candidates may also come to the Company's attention through professional search firms, stockholders or other persons. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board shall carefully review the qualifications of any candidates who have been properly brought to its attention. Such a review may, in the Committee's discretion, include a review solely of information provided to the Committee or it may also include discussion with persons familiar with the candidate, an interview with the candidate or other actions that the Committee deems proper. In the case of new director candidates, the questions of independence and financial expertise are important to determine what roles can be performed by the candidate, and the Governance and Nominating Committee determines whether the candidate will meet the independence standards set forth in the SEC rules and regulations and the applicable Nasdaq listing standards, and the level of the candidate's financial expertise. In the case of incumbent directors whose terms of service are set to expire, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews such directors' overall service to the Company during their terms, including attendance at meetings, level of participation, quality of performance, and whether the director continues to meet the independence standards set forth in the applicable SEC rules and regulations and the applicable Nasdaq listing standards. The Committee shall consider the suitability of each candidate, including the current members of the Board, in light of the current size and composition of the Board. In evaluating the qualifications of the candidates, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers many factors, including character, integrity, reputation, business judgment, independence, relevant business and industry expertise, diversity of experience, geographic location of the candidate, length of service and other criteria. The Committee evaluates such factors, among others, and does not assign any particular weighting or priority to any of these factors. Candidates properly recommended by stockholders are evaluated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee using the same criteria as other candidates. Candidates are first screened by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and if approved by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, they are then screened by other members of the Board. The full Board approves the final nomination(s) based on recommendations from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Chairman of the Board, acting on behalf of the full Board, will extend the formal invitation to become a nominee of the Board. Qualified candidates for membership on the Board will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, ancestry, national origin or disability.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The current members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Biscay, Hatchett and Kilcullen, none of whom are employees of the Company and all of whom are considered independent directors under the applicable Nasdaq rules. There were no interlocks or insider participation between any member of the Board or Compensation Committee and any member of the board of directors or compensation committee of another company.

Director Compensation

Directors who are also employees of the Company or employees of any of its subsidiaries do not receive additional compensation for serving as directors. Prior to completion of the Company's initial public offering in February 2006, the Chairman of the Board, who was also the Company's only independent director, received compensation of $10,000 per month for services as a director. Each director who is not also a Company employee receives a fee of $36,000 per year, plus $500 per committee meeting attended, except that the chairperson of the Audit Committee receives $40,000 and the Chairman of the Board receives $50,000 per year. Directors of the Company are reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board or the committees thereof, and for other expenses reasonably incurred in their capacity as directors. In February 2006, each non-employee director received an initial option to purchase 24,000 shares of Company common stock with an exercise price per share equal to $9.75, the price to the public of the Company's common stock in the initial public offering. These options vest in equal monthly installments over 24 months beginning on the date of grant. Any new non-employee director will be entitled to receive an initial option to purchase 12,000 shares of Company common stock with an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of Company common stock on the date of grant, vesting in equal monthly installments over 12 months beginning on the date of grant. On each date of the annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (beginning in 2006), the Company will grant to each non-employee director who has served on the Board for at least the preceding six (6) months an additional option to purchase 6,000 shares with an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of Company common stock on the date of grant. These annual option grants will vest in equal monthly installments over 12 months beginning on the date of grant. The timing and terms of these option grants to non-employee directors are set forth in the Company's Amended and Restated 2005 Stock Plan; they are automatic and non-discretionary with respect to the number and terms.

Code of Business Conduct

The Company is committed to maintaining the highest standards of business conduct and ethics. The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct for its directors, officers and other employees. The Code of Business Conduct reflects Company values and the business practices and principles of behavior that support this commitment. The Code of Business Conduct satisfies SEC rules for a code of ethics required by Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as the Nasdaq listing standards requirement for a code of conduct. The Code of Business Conduct is available on the Company's website at <http://investor.digitalmusicgroupinc.com> under the link Corporate Governance. The Company will post any amendment to the Code, as well as any waivers that are required to be disclosed by the rules of the SEC or Nasdaq, on the Company's website.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Digital Music Group, Inc. was incorporated in April 2005 and was a private company until the completion of its initial public offering in February 2006, at which time the Company became a Nasdaq-listed company and its present Audit Committee was formed. Prior to February 2006, the entire Board of Directors of the Company effectively functioned as an Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee is comprised of Messrs. Hatchett (Chairman), Biscay and Trier. The Board of Directors has determined that each member is independent under the Nasdaq audit committee structure and membership requirements, and that each member qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K. Messrs. Hatchett and Trier qualify as an audit committee financial expert by virtue of having previously been partners in the audit division of large international public accounting firms and Mr. Biscay by virtue of his significant financial and investment responsibilities at Cisco Systems, one of the largest publicly-traded companies in the United States. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. A copy of the charter can be found on the Company's website at <http://investor.digitalmusicgroupinc.com> under the link Corporate Governance.

The Audit Committee is primarily responsible for assisting the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibility by reviewing the financial information that will be provided to stockholders and others, appointing and reviewing the work performed by the independent registered public accounting firm, evaluating the Company's accounting policies and its system of internal controls that management has established, and reviewing with management significant financial transactions, the reasonableness of significant judgments made by management and the clarity of disclosures made in the financial statements. Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process, including the preparation of its financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and its system of internal controls. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing those financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and expressing its opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Audit Committee does not prepare financial statements or perform audits, and its members are not auditors or certifiers of the Company's financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles used by the Company, the reasonableness of significant management judgments and estimates made in the accounting process, and the clarity and completeness of disclosures in the financial statements. The Audit Committee also met with the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer to discuss their review of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal accounting and financial controls in connection with the preparation and filing of the Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Audit Committee discussed with Perry-Smith LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the overall scope of work for its 2005 audits. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 with Perry-Smith LLP, and met with representatives of the firm, with and without management present, to discuss the results of its audit work, its evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and its assessment of the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee has also discussed with Perry-Smith LLP the matters required to be discussed by the Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61.

The Audit Committee has also received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Perry-Smith LLP as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with the auditors the auditor's independence.

Table of Contents

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Audit Committee also selected Perry-Smith LLP to audit the Company's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2006.

The Audit Committee has relied, without independent verification, on management's representations that the financial statements are complete, free of material misstatement and prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and on the opinion and representations made by Perry-Smith LLP in its report on the Company's financial statements, including its representations that Perry-Smith LLP is independent and the audit was performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. The Audit Committee's oversight does not provide assurance that management's and Perry-Smith LLP's opinion and representations referred to above are correct.

Executive Compensation

The Company was incorporated in April 2005 and did not conduct any operations during the year ended December 31, 2005, other than raising capital and those activities related to the acquisition of Digital Musicworks International, Inc. and certain assets of Rio Bravo Entertainment LLC. The Company did not pay any salaries prior to the completion of the initial public offering in February 2006. Accordingly, a Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors on executive compensation for 2005 is not provided.

The Board has delegated to the Compensation Committee the responsibility for making decisions on the compensation of the Company's executive officers and non-employee directors. The Company's Amended and Restated 2005 Stock Plan and other employee benefit plans are also administered by the Compensation Committee. The present Compensation Committee was formed in February 2006, and consists of Messrs. Kilcullen (Chairman), Biscay and Hatchett, all of whom are independent directors.

The Company's executive compensation policies and employee benefit plans are designed to (i) provide compensation at a level and in a form which will attract, motivate and retain highly qualified managers, employees and Board members, (ii) align the compensation of executive officers, whose performance is crucial to the Company's long-term success, with the Company's long-term business strategies and annual operating plans as approved by the Board, and (iii) provide appropriate financial incentives to motivate executives to perform at a high level, encourage them to manage from the perspective of owners with an equity stake in the Company, and reward them when the Company's strategies and plans are achieved and stockholder value is enhanced.

The Company's compensation program for executive officers consists of annual compensation and long-term incentive compensation. Annual compensation is paid in the form of a base salary payable in cash in accordance with the individual executive's employment agreement and consistent with the Company's standard payroll practices and a management incentive bonus plan. Bonuses are intended to provide executive officers with an opportunity to earn additional compensation (primarily in the form of cash) through individual and collective performance as measured on an annual basis. The Compensation Committee intends to develop a management incentive bonus plan during 2006. Equity grants and awards, which are earned over a number of years, are intended to focus executive officers on managing the Company's business from the perspective of owners with an equity interest and to align their long-term compensation with the risks and benefits realized by the Company's stockholders. The Compensation Committee considers the total value of these components in determining total compensation for executive officers. In determining individual executive compensation, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors, including overall company performance, individual performance and compensation preferences as well as comparative local and industry compensation data.

During 2005, the Company entered into employment agreements with several executive officers, establishing salary levels and participation in a management bonus plan for these executive officers, which compensation commenced at the completion of the initial public offering of common stock in February 2006. The annualized base salaries of the Company's most highly compensated executive officers are currently $150,000 for Mr. Mitchell Koulouris, President and Chief Executive Officer, $130,000 for Ms. Karen Davis, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary, $130,000 for Mr. Anders Brown, Chief Operating Officer, $120,000 for Mr. Peter Koulouris, Vice President of Business Development, and $120,000 for Mr. Richard Rees, Vice President of Business Development. In addition, pursuant to their employment agreements with the Company, Messrs. Mitchell Koulouris, Brown and Peter Koulouris will each be entitled to participate in a cash bonus plan beginning in the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2006, under the management incentive bonus plan to be created and approved by the Compensation Committee. Ms. Davis will also be entitled to participate under such plan. These bonuses are to be between 30% and 75% of each such individual's annual salary if the Company's and the individual's performance meets certain milestones to be determined by the Compensation Committee.

Employment Agreements and Change in Control Arrangements

During 2005, the Company entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Mitchell Koulouris, Brown, Rees and Peter Koulouris. Each agreement has a term of two years, unless earlier terminated by the Company without cause upon 30 days written notice or upon written notice for cause, subject to a 60-day notice period where such cause is curable by the employee. In addition, each officer may terminate the agreement upon written notice for good reason or no reason. All agreements provide that if the officer's employment is terminated for cause by the Company or voluntarily by the officer, such officer will be entitled to receive compensation and benefits through the date of termination in accordance with the terms of the Company's benefit plans. In addition, all agreements provide that if the agreement is terminated by the Company without cause or by the officer for good reason, the officer will be entitled to receive compensation and benefits for a period following the date of termination in accordance with the terms of the Company's benefit plans. For Mr. Rees, this period is three months; for Messrs. Brown and Peter Koulouris, this period is six months; and for Mr. Mitchell Koulouris, it is 12 months. Each of these officers and each of the Company's other employees have entered into at-will employment, confidential information, invention assignment and arbitration agreements that prohibit such individuals from disclosing the Company's confidential information and trade secrets, assigns all intellectual property developed by them in the course of employment to the Company and prohibit these individuals from soliciting Company employees for a period of one year following termination of employment. Each agreement provides for employment on an at-will basis that allows either party to terminate the employment relationship at any time without reason and without notice.

As part of employment arrangements with the Company, Messrs. Mitchell Koulouris, Brown and Peter Koulouris each were sold and issued 200,000 restricted shares of Company common stock in August 2005. The shares sold to each of Messrs. Mitchell Koulouris, Brown and Peter Koulouris are subject to a Company repurchase option at the original purchase price that lapses monthly over 24 months following the date of grant so long as they each remain a service provider to the Company. If any of Messrs. Mitchell Koulouris, Brown or Peter Koulouris is terminated involuntarily other than for cause, or quits for good reason, as such terms are defined in their employment agreements, their remaining unvested shares will be released from the repurchase option. As part of Mr. Rees' employment arrangement with the Company, he was sold and issued 75,000 shares of Company common stock in August 2005.

Mitchell Koulouris, Brown, Peter Koulouris and Rees that prohibit any of them from competing with the Company anywhere in the United States or soliciting Company employees for a period of three years following the completion of the acquisitions in February 2006. There is an exception in Mr. Rees' agreement that allows Rio Bravo Entertainment LLC to continue to provide services to a third party pursuant to an existing agreement provided that it receives no economic benefit from such relationship and pays all monies received from such third party, after reasonable expenses, to the Company and Mr. Rees is obligated to transfer such agreement to the Company as soon as reasonably practicable.

After a change in control, including the completion of the acquisition of Digital Musicworks International, Inc., pursuant to Mr. Mitchell Koulouris' and Mr. Peter Koulouris' restricted stock purchase agreement with Digital Musicworks International, Inc., if, within 12 months, the executive is terminated involuntarily other than for cause or he quits for good reason, as such terms are defined in that agreement, the lesser of 16²/3% of his total shares or the remaining of his unvested shares under such agreement shall be released from the Company's repurchase option.

Ms. Davis also receives certain employee benefits available generally to all employees or specifically to executives of the Company, including participation in the Company's management incentive bonus plan, once created. Under the terms of the employment agreement, if Ms. Davis is terminated by the Company without cause or if she terminates her employment for good reason, she will be entitled to (i) continued payment of her then base salary and provision of benefits for a period of one year; (ii) a pro rata share of any annual incentive bonus that she would have otherwise been eligible to receive; and (iii) provision or payment by the Company of continuation benefits for one year; provided that such amounts will be entitled to set off by the Company, dollar for dollar, against whatever is earned by Ms. Davis if she secures other employment during such period. The employment agreement includes provisions that prohibit Ms. Davis from disclosing Company confidential information and trade secrets, assigns all intellectual property developed by her in the course of employment to the Company and prohibits her from soliciting the Company's employees during the term of the agreement and for a period of one year following termination of employment.

INTERNAL AUDIT FUNCTION:

Neither Company senior management nor the Board believes that an internal audit function is warranted or cost justified at the present time, given the Company's current size and scope of operations. However, as the Company grows and in the event that the nature of its operations changes and/or becomes substantially more complex, the Audit Committee shall periodically review, in consultation with senior management and the independent auditors, whether an internal audit function (performed by either an outside firm or Company personnel) would be beneficial. In the event that the Audit Committee reaches such a conclusion, it shall draft an amendment to this Charter setting forth the duties of the internal audit function and the Audit Committee's oversight responsibilities with respect thereto, for presentation to and approval by the Board.

MEETINGS:

The Audit Committee will meet at least four times each year on a quarterly basis. The Audit Committee shall establish its own schedule for quarterly meetings, which the Chairman of the Audit Committee will provide to the Chairman of the Board in advance. In addition, the Chairman of the Board or the Chairman of the Audit Committee may call a meeting of the Audit Committee at any time when he/she believes that circumstances warrant such a meeting. The Chairman of the Audit Committee shall establish and distribute in advance the agenda for any and all meetings. The Chairman of the Audit Committee shall preside at all sessions of the Audit Committee or, in his/her absence, another Audit Committee member may be selected to preside.

Formal action to be taken by the Audit Committee shall be by unanimous written consent or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Audit Committee members present (in person or by conference telephone) at a meeting in which a quorum is present. A quorum shall consist of at least one-half of the members of the Audit Committee. A non-management member of the Board may attend a meeting of the Audit Committee as an invited guest, but shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum and shall not be entitled to vote.

The Audit Committee will meet separately with the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company at such times as are appropriate to review the financial affairs of the Company. Among the items to be discussed in these executive sessions with management are management's opinions as to the effectiveness of the audit or quarterly review process and their evaluation of the lead partner and other personnel of the independent audit firm. The Audit Committee will meet separately with the independent auditors of the Company on a quarterly basis, at such times as it deems appropriate. Among the items to be discussed in these executive sessions with the independent auditors are the auditors' evaluation of Company accounting and financial personnel and the level of cooperation received by the auditors from Company personnel. While the Audit Committee is not required to provide a written report of such private executive sessions, it is incumbent upon the Chairman of the Audit Committee to communicate on a timely basis to the Chairman of the Board any material concerns or material issues arising from such sessions.

MINUTES:

The Audit Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be prepared and approved by the Audit Committee on a timely basis and then be transmitted to the Chairman of the Board and to the Company Secretary to be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

REPORTS:

In addition to preparing the report in the Company's proxy statement in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Chairman of the Audit Committee will summarize its activities and significant findings in periodic reports to the Board as may be appropriate, as and when requested by the Chairman of the Board.
