The former officers will have forty-five days to execute the release of claims, and seven days after execution to revoke the release, after which time the severance provisions will be paid.

Item 5.02 Departure of Director and Principal Officer; Appointment of Principal Officer

As discussed above, on September 19, 2006, Steven D. Stringer's service as Chief Financial Officer was terminated as part of our restructuring plan.

On the same date, our board appointed Thomas R. Brown, who has served as our President and Chief Executive Officer since September 5, 2006, as Interim Chief Financial Officer effective immediately. Mr. Brown formerly served as an independent director on our board of directors until his resignation on September 5, 2006, and served as a member of the compensation committee and the audit committee until his resignation from those committees on August 20, 2006. As a result of Mr. Brown's appointment as President and Chief Executive Officer, he no longer qualified as an independent director under applicable Nasdaq standards. We intend to reappoint him to the board as soon as we may do so and maintain compliance with the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market requiring us to have a board consisting of a majority of independent directors.

Mr. Brown, age 55, served as President of BrownThompson Executive Search, a financial executive search firm, from April 2005 until immediately prior to September 5, 2006, the date on which he commenced employment with our company. From April 2001 to September 2004, Mr. Brown was Executive Vice President and Deputy President of the Information Technology division of Sony Electronics, where he was responsible for supply chain operations including Information Technology, Procurement, North American Manufacturing Operations and Finance. He continued to consult with Sony Electronics on its ERP implementation from September 2004 to January 2005. From April 2000 to September 2004, Mr. Brown was concurrently the Executive Vice President and President of Information Technology Division for Sony Electronics, where he was responsible for establishing the North American personal computer division. Mr. Brown is a director of Mad Catz Interactive (AMEX/TSX: MCZ), a provider of video game accessories. Mr. Brown obtained a B.A. in Economics from Rutgers University in 1973. Mr. Brown is also a certified public accountant.

Mr. Brown is employed under the terms of a letter agreement dated as of August 23, 2006. Mr. Brown's current base salary is $250,000 per year. In connection with his employment, he received a non-statutory stock option to purchase 200,000 shares of common stock under our 2005 Equity Incentive Plan with an exercise price $3.33 per share, the closing price of our common stock on the start date as reported on the Nasdaq Capital Market. Mr. Brown will be eligible for an annual bonus with respect to fiscal years beginning fiscal 2007 as recommended by the compensation committee and approved by the board. The bonus will be based in part on his achievement of detailed annual goals that will be established by the compensation committee. In the event that Mr. Brown's employment is terminated for any reason other than cause, or if he resigns for good reason, he will be entitled to severance equal to one month's salary for each two month period of service, or portion thereof, up to six months' salary. He will also be entitled to continuation of his company-provided health and dental benefits for the same period. The terms of Mr. Brown's employment will not change in connection with his appointment as Interim Chief Financial Officer.
