INDENTURE SECURITIES

8. ANALYSIS OF INDENTURE PROVISIONS. The Notes will be issued under the Indenture which is attached hereto as Exhibit T3C.1. The following is a summary of the provisions of the Indenture required to be summarized by Section 305(a)(2) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Holders of Notes are encouraged to read the entire Indenture since many provisions that will control the rights of a holder of Notes are not described in this analysis. Capitalized terms defined in the Indenture and used (but not otherwise defined) herein are used herein as so defined.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT; WITHHOLDING OF NOTICE

In the case of an event of default arising from certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency with respect to the Company or any significant subsidiary of the Company or in the payment when due of certain settlement fees and expenses, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other event of default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by notice in writing to the Company specifying the respective event of default.

Holders of the Notes may not enforce the Indenture or the Notes except as provided in the Indenture. Subject to certain limitations, holders of a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power.

Except in the case of a Default or an Event of Default in payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on, any Note or a Default or Event of Default in complying with Section 5.01 of the Indenture, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its Trust Officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interest of Holders. The Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of a Default or an Event of Default other than as described in clauses (1) or (2) of Section 7.01 of the Indenture unless an officer of the Trustee with direct responsibility for the administration of the Indenture has actual knowledge thereof. This is in lieu of the proviso to Section 315(b) of the Trust Indenture Act and such proviso to Section 315(b) of the Trust Indenture Act is hereby expressly excluded from the Indenture and the Notes, as permitted by the Trust Indenture Act.

Each of the following is an event of default:

- (1) a default in the payment of any interest on any Note when the same becomes due and payable and the default continues uncured for a period of 30 days, whether or not such payment is prohibited or restricted by the subordination provisions of the Indenture;
- (2) a default in the payment of (i) principal of or premium, if any, on any Note when the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise, or (ii) the Fundamental Change Purchase Price in respect of any Note when due, in either case whether or not such payment is prohibited by the subordination provisions of the Indenture;

- (3) a default in the performance of any other of the Company's covenants or agreements in the Indenture and such default continues uncured for a period of 60 days after written notice to the Company by the Trustee or the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of outstanding Notes;
- (4) failure by the Company to make any payment when due, including any applicable grace period, in respect of the Company's indebtedness for borrowed money, which payment is in an amount in excess of $20 million;
- (5) a default by the Company with respect to any of its indebtedness for borrowed money, which default results in acceleration of any such indebtedness that is in an amount in excess of $20 million; and
- (6) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization.

AUTHENTICATION AND DELIVERY OF THE NOTES; APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS.

Two officers of the Company must sign the Notes for the Company, by manual or facsimile signature. If an officer of the Company whose signature is on a Note no longer holds that office at the time such Note is authenticated such Note will be valid nevertheless.

A Note will not be valid until authenticated by the manual or facsimile signature of the Trustee. The signature of the Trustee will be conclusive evidence that a Note has been authenticated in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. The Trustee, upon a written order of the Company signed by two officers of the Company (an Authentication Order), must authenticate and deliver Notes for original issue in an aggregate principal amount specified in such order. Such Authentication Order must specify the amount of the Notes to be authenticated and the date on which the original issue of Notes is to be authenticated. The aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under the Indenture is $275,000,000.

The Notes will be issued in the form of one or more fully registered global certificates (the Global Notes). The Global Notes will be deposited upon issuance with the Trustee as custodian for The Depository Trust Company (DTC), in New York, New York, and registered in the name of DTC or its nominee, in each case for credit to an account of a direct or indirect participant in DTC as described below.

The Global Notes may be transferred, in whole and not in part, only to another nominee of DTC or to a successor of DTC or its nominee. Beneficial interests in the Global Notes may not be exchanged for Notes in certificated form except in the limited circumstances described below. Except in the limited circumstances, owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of Notes in certificated form.

There will be no proceeds (and therefore no application of proceeds) from the issuance of the Notes because the Notes will be issued in exchange for Existing Notes. Accordingly, no provisions are contained in the Indenture with respect to the Company's use of proceeds of the issuance of the Notes.

RELEASE AND SUBSTITUTION OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THE LIEN OF THE INDENTURE.

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company.

The Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect as to all Notes issued thereunder, when:

(1) either:

(a) all Notes that have been authenticated have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(b) all Notes that have not been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation have become due and payable by reason of the making of a notice of redemption or otherwise or will become due and payable within one year and the Company has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee, as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the holders, money or U.S. Government Obligations, in such amounts as will be sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on the Notes not delivered to the Trustee for cancellation for principal and accrued interest to the date of maturity or redemption; and

(2) the Company has paid or caused to be paid all sums payable by it under the Indenture.

In addition, the Company must deliver an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel to the Trustee stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been satisfied.

EVIDENCE AS TO COMPLIANCE WITH CONDITIONS AND COVENANTS.

The Company must deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year, an officers' certificate stating that, to such officers' knowledge, the Company is in compliance with all conditions and covenants under the Indenture. The officers' certificate must specify any Events of Default known by such officers.

The Company must deliver to the Trustee, forthwith upon any officer becoming aware of any default or event of default, an officers' certificate specifying such default or event of default and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.
