Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this prospectus or the date of the other documents incorporated by reference herein. Readers also should understand that it is not possible to predict or identify all such factors and that the risk factors as listed in our filings with the SEC should not be considered a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise indicated in a prospectus supplement, we intend to use the net proceeds from the sale of our securities for general corporate purposes, possible future repayments of indebtedness or for such other purposes as may be specified in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Table of ContentsRATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth the unaudited consolidated ratios of earnings to fixed charges for Cincinnati Bell on a historical basis:

	Six Months Ended		Year Ended December 31,
	June 30, 2009	2008	2007	2006	2005	2004
Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges	2.3	2.2	1.8	1.9		1.5
Coverage Deficiency	n/a	n/a	n/a	n/a	$ 21.7	n/a

We computed the ratio of earnings to fixed charges by dividing fixed charges into the sum of earnings (after certain adjustments) and fixed charges. Earnings used in computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges consisted of income from continuing operations before income taxes, adjustment for noncontrolling/minority interests, income or loss from equity method investees and fixed charges except for capitalized interest. Fixed charges consist of interest expensed and capitalized and the portion of rent expense representative of interest.

purchases of the securities by a broker-dealer as principal and resales of the securities by the broker-dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;

ordinary brokerage transactions; or

In addition, we may sell any securities covered by this prospectus in private transactions or under Rule 144 of the Securities Act rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Edgar Filing: CINCINNATI BELL ANY DISTANCE INC - Form S-3ASR

We may sell offered securities through agents designated by us from time to time. Any agent in the offer or sale of the securities for which this prospectus is delivered will be named, and any commissions payable by us to that agent will be set forth, in the prospectus supplement. In connection with the sale of securities covered by this prospectus, broker-dealers may receive commissions or other compensation from us in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions. In connection with any underwritten offering, underwriters may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from us or from purchasers of the securities for whom they act as agents. Underwriters may sell the securities to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from the purchasers for whom they may act as agents. Any underwriters, broker-dealers agents or other persons acting on our behalf that participate in the distribution of the securities may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any profit on the sale of the securities by them and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any of those underwriters, broker-dealers agents or other persons may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Table of Contents

In connection with the distribution of the securities covered by this prospectus or otherwise, we may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with such transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of our securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume with us. We may also sell securities short and deliver the securities offered by this prospectus to close out our short positions. We may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction. We may also from time to time pledge our securities pursuant to the margin provisions of our customer agreements with our brokers. Upon our default, the broker may offer and sell such pledged securities from time to time pursuant to this prospectus, as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction.

At any time a particular offer of the securities covered by this prospectus is made, a revised prospectus or prospectus supplement, if required, will be distributed which will set forth the aggregate amount of securities covered by this prospectus being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers, brokers or agents, any discounts, commissions, concessions and other items constituting compensation from us and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers. Such prospectus supplement, and, if necessary, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, will be filed with the SEC to reflect the disclosure of additional information with respect to the distribution of the securities covered by this prospectus. In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the securities sold under this prospectus may only be sold through registered or licensed broker-dealers. In addition, in some states the securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

In connection with an underwritten offering, we would execute an underwriting agreement with an underwriter or underwriters. Unless otherwise indicated in the revised prospectus or applicable prospectus supplement, such underwriting agreement would provide that the obligations of the underwriter or underwriters are subject to certain conditions precedent, and that the underwriter or underwriters with respect to a sale of the covered securities will be obligated to purchase all of the covered securities, if any such securities are purchased. We may grant to the underwriter or underwriters an option to purchase additional securities at the public offering price, less any underwriting discount, as may be set forth in the revised prospectus or applicable prospectus supplement. If we grant any such option, the terms of that option will be set forth in the revised prospectus or applicable prospectus supplement.

Underwriters, agents, brokers or dealers may be entitled, pursuant to relevant agreements entered into with us, to indemnification by us against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act that may arise from any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact, or any omission or alleged omission to state a material fact in this prospectus, any supplement or amendment hereto, or in the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, or to contribution with respect to payments which the underwriters, agents, brokers or dealers may be required to make.

proceeding is for the director voting for or assenting to the following: (a) the payment of a dividend or distribution, the making of a distribution of assets to shareholders, or the purchase or redemption of the corporation's own shares in violation of law or the corporation's articles of incorporation; (b) a distribution of assets to shareholders during the winding up of the affairs of the corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, without the payment of all known obligations of the corporation or without making adequate provision for their payment; or (c) the making of a loan, other than in the usual course of business, to an officer, director or shareholder of the corporation, unless at the time the loan was made, a majority of the disinterested directors of the corporation voted for the loan and taking into account the terms and provisions of the loan and other relevant factors, determined that the making of the loan could reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation.

Section 1701.13(E)(3) of the OGCL provides that to the extent that a director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of a proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of Section 1701.13, the director or officer must be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such a proceeding.

Section 1701.13(E)(4) of the OGCL provides that any indemnification under division (E)(1) or (2) of Section 1701.13, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct. Section 1701.13(E)(4) further provides that the determination shall be made by: (1) a majority of a quorum of the directors who are not parties to such proceeding; (2) if there is no such quorum of directors, or if a majority vote of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel; (3) by the shareholders; or (4) by the court of common pleas or by the court in which the proceeding was brought.

Section 1701.13(E)(5)(a) of the OGCL provides that unless (1) the articles or regulations of a corporation specifically state otherwise or (2) the only liability asserted against a director in a proceeding is for the director voting for or assenting to any of the following: (a) the payment of a dividend or distribution, the making of a distribution of assets to shareholders, or the purchase or redemption of the corporation's own shares in violation of law or the corporation's articles of incorporation; (b) a distribution of assets to shareholders during the winding up of the affairs of the corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, without the payment of all known obligations of the corporation or without making adequate provision for their payment; or (c) the making of a loan, other than in the usual course of business, to an officer, director or shareholder of the corporation, other than in the case of at the time the loan was made, a majority of the disinterested directors of the corporation voted for the loan and taking into account the terms and provisions of the loan and other relevant factors, determined that the making of the loan could reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation, the corporation must pay expenses as they are incurred by the director or officer in defending the proceeding if the director or officer undertakes to (i) repay the amount so paid if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the director or officer's action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation and (ii) reasonably cooperate with the corporation concerning the proceeding.

Section 1701.13(E)(5)(b) of the OGCL provides that a corporation may advance expenses to a director or officer before the final disposition of a proceeding if the director or officer undertakes to repay the amount so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification.

Section 1701.13(E)(7) of the OGCL permits corporations to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in his capacity as a director or officer, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the director or officer against such liability under Section 1701.13 of the OGCL.

who was or is a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the company, because he is or was a manager or member of the company. Section 1705.32(A) further provides that a company may indemnify a manager or member against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement that reasonably were incurred by him in connection with the proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company and, in connection with any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 1705.32(B) of the OLLCA provides that a limited liability company may indemnify any person who was or is a party or who is threatened to be made a party to any action or suit by or in the right of the company to procure a judgment in its favor, because he is or was a manager or officer of the company. Section 1705.32(B) further provides that the company may indemnify a manager or officer against expenses, including attorney's fees, that were reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, except that an indemnification shall not be made in respect of any claim as to which the person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the company unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas or the court in which the action was brought determines that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for expenses that the court considers proper.

Section 1705.32(C) of the OLLCA provides that to the extent that a manager or officer of a limited liability company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action referred to in division (A) or (B) of Section 1705.32, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, that were reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action.

Section 1705.32(D)(1) of the OLLCA provides that unless ordered by a court and subject to division (C) of Section 1705.32, any indemnification under division (A) or (B) of Section 1705.32 shall be made by the limited liability company only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the manager or officer is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct. Section 1705.32(D)(1) further provides that the determination shall be made: (a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of managers who were not parties to the action; (b) whether or not such a quorum is obtainable and if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested managers so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel; (c) by the members; (d) by the court of common pleas or the court in which the action was brought.

Section 1705.32(F) of the OLLCA provides that a limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance for or on behalf of any person who is or was a manager or member of the company. Section 1705.32(F) further provides that the insurance or similar protection purchased or maintained for those persons may be for any liability asserted against them and incurred by them in their capacity as a manager or member or for any liability arising out of their status as a manager or member, whether or not the company would have the power to indemnify them against that liability under Section 1705.32.

Section 1705.32(G) of the OLLCA provides that a limited liability company may pay expenses of persons entitled to indemnification under Section 1705.32 as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of an action or the payment of indemnification or insurance pursuant to Section 1705.32.

Section 13.1-700.1 of the VSCA provides that with respect to a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the court may order indemnification of the director to the extent of his reasonable expenses if it determines that, considering all the relevant circumstances, the director is entitled to indemnification even though he may have been adjudged liable to the corporation.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering;

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.
