USE OF PROCEEDS

Except as may be stated in the applicable prospectus supplement, we intend to use the net proceeds we receive from the sale of the securities offered by this prospectus for general corporate purposes, which may include the acquisition, development and construction of new residential properties, the acquisition of companies or operations in homebuilding and related businesses, or the repayment of existing indebtedness.

SECURITIES WE MAY OFFER

We may, from time to time offer under this prospectus, separately or together:

common stock;

warrants entitling the holders to purchase common stock;

rights to purchase our common stock; and units consisting of any of the above securities.

The following is a general description of the terms and conditions of the securities we may offer and sell by this prospectus. These summaries are not meant to be a complete description of each security. This prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement, taken together, will contain the material terms and conditions for each security. The prospectus supplement may also add, update or change the terms and conditions of the securities as described in this prospectus. These securities may be sold separately, together or as units with other securities offered under this prospectus.

Common Stock

The following is a general description of the terms of our common stock. You are strongly encouraged, however, to read our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and our amended and restated bylaws, copies of which are filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part and available from us, at no cost, upon request.

Voting Rights. Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote. Except as provided under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the holders of shares of our common stock vote together as a single class on all matters on which stockholders are permitted or entitled to vote, including the election of directors.

Dividends. Each share of our common stock is entitled to receive dividends, if, as and when declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available for that purpose and subject to preferences that may apply to any preferred stock, including our convertible preferred stock, that we may issue in the future.

Liquidation Rights. If we are dissolved or liquidated, after we satisfy all of our debts and liabilities and distributions to the holders of any preferred stock, including our convertible preferred stock, or debt instruments that we may issue in the future to which they are preferentially entitled, holders of our common stock will be entitled to share equally with other holders of our common stock in the distribution of assets to the stockholders.

Other Provisions. There are no cumulative, subscription or preemptive rights to subscribe for any additional securities that we may issue, and there are no redemption provisions, conversion provisions or sinking fund provisions applicable to our common stock.

Election of Directors. The election of our directors is determined by a majority of the votes cast at any general meeting at which our directors are elected. Our stockholders do not and will not have cumulative voting rights. Accordingly, our largest beneficial stockholder, Brookfield Asset Management, as the holder of approximately 60.44% of the voting rights attached to our common stock (82.40% assuming full conversion by it of our 8% convertible preferred stock), will, as a practical matter, have the power to control the election of all of our directors.

Board Actions. Our by-laws provide that certain actions require approval by our board of directors. These actions require approval by a majority of the votes present and entitled to be cast at a properly convened meeting of our board of directors.

Transfer Agent and Registrar. BNY Mellon Shareowner Services is the transfer agent and registrar for shares of our common stock.

Registration Rights. None of our common stock is subject to registration rights under the Securities Act of 1933.

Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. Our certificate of incorporation and by-laws include provisions that require that any action to be taken by our stockholders be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting or by written consent.

Liability of Officers and Directors. Our certificate of incorporation states that no director will be personally liable for violations of the director's fiduciary duties, except:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to our corporation or our stockholders;

for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; and for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Our certificate of incorporation further states that we may indemnify any officer or director against any liability, loss, damage or expense incurred or suffered by the officer or director in the individual's capacity as officer or director, subject to the Delaware General Corporation Law and except for liability resulting from intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law. We have been informed that in the opinion of the Commission, indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act is against public policy and unenforceable.

To the extent any director or officer is successful in defending any proceeding, whether civil or criminal, our certificate of incorporation states that we will indemnify the individual for all liabilities incurred in the individual's capacity as officer or director.

Our certificate of incorporation permits us, subject to applicable law, to advance the expenses incurred in defending any civil or criminal action for which indemnification is required against an undertaking of the indemnified person to repay the amount advanced if it is ultimately determined that the indemnified person is not entitled to be indemnified and subject to a determination by our board of directors or, in specified situations, independent legal counsel or a majority vote of our stockholders, that indemnification would be proper in the circumstances.

Convertible Preferred Stock. We have issued and outstanding 10,000,000 shares of 8% convertible preferred stock, which was issued pursuant to our certificate of designations for that 8% convertible preferred stock. The certificate of designations for our 8% convertible preferred stock is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. The shares of 8% convertible preferred stock are convertible into shares of common stock at a conversion rate of 3.571428571 shares of common stock per share of 8% convertible preferred stock, subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms of the 8% convertible preferred stock. Holders of 8% convertible preferred stock are entitled to receive cumulative dividends on the 8% convertible preferred stock at the rate of 8% per year of the $25.00 stated value of each share of 8% convertible preferred stock. We may elect to pay dividends on the 8% convertible preferred stock in cash, shares of common stock or a combination of cash and shares of common stock. Holders of 8% convertible preferred stock generally have no voting rights. The 8% convertible preferred stock ranks prior to common stock as to payment of dividends and distribution of assets on liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of our company. The 8% convertible preferred stock is not redeemable but may be converted into shares of common stock at our option under certain circumstances. We refer you to the full description of the terms of the 8% convertible preferred stock contained in the certificate of designations.

Warrants

The following is a general description of the terms of our warrants. We will issue each series of warrants under a separate warrant agreement that we will enter into with a bank or trust company, as warrant agent. Before we issue any series of warrants under this prospectus, we will file as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, or incorporate by reference into the registration statement from another report that we file with the Commission, the form of warrant agreement (and the form of warrant certificate) that describes the terms of the particular series of warrants we are offering. The following description of the warrants is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, all of the provisions of the warrant agreement and warrant certificate applicable to a particular series of warrants. Prior to purchasing our warrants, we urge you to read the applicable prospectus supplement related to the particular series of warrants that we sell under this prospectus, as well as the complete warrant agreement and warrant certificate that contain the terms of the warrants.

Each prospectus supplement will describe:

the title of the warrants;

the aggregate number of warrants to be issued and currently outstanding, if any;

the price or prices at which the warrants will be issued;

the number of shares of common stock purchasable upon exercise of the warrants and the exercise price of each warrant;

the procedures and conditions relating to the exercise of the warrants including:

the date on which the right to exercise the warrants will commence and the date on which that right will expire;

the maximum or minimum number of the warrants which may be exercised at any time; and any limitations relating to the exchange and exercise of the warrants;

any provisions for adjustment of the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants and/or the exercise price of the warrants;

if applicable, a discussion of any material federal income tax considerations;

the terms of any rights to redeem or call the warrants;

the manner in which the warrant agreement and warrants may be modified; and any other material terms of the warrants.

Prior to the exercise of any warrants, holders of the warrants will not have any of the rights of holders of the common stock purchasable upon exercise, including the right to vote or to receive any payments of dividends on the common stock issuable upon exercise.

The description of warrants in the prospectus supplement will not necessarily be complete and will be qualified in its entirety by reference to the warrant agreement relating to the warrants being offered.

Rights

We may issue rights to purchase common stock that we may offer to our security holders. The rights may or may not be transferable by the persons purchasing or receiving the rights. Each series of rights will be issued under a separate rights agent agreement to be entered into between us and a bank or trust company, as rights agent, that we will name in the applicable prospectus supplement. The rights agent will act solely as our agent in connection with the rights and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any holders of rights certificates or beneficial owners of rights. Before we issue any rights under this prospectus, we will file as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, or incorporate by reference into the registration statement from another report that we file with the Commission, the form of rights agreement (and the form of rights certificate) that describes the terms of the particular rights we are offering. The following description of the rights is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, all of the provisions of the rights agreement and rights certificate applicable to any particular rights. Prior to purchasing our rights, we urge you to read the applicable prospectus supplement related to the particular rights that we offer and sell under this prospectus, as well as the complete rights agreement and rights certificate that contain the terms of the rights.

The prospectus supplement relating to any rights that we offer will include specific terms relating to the offering, including, among other matters:

the date of determining the security holders entitled to the rights distribution;

the aggregate number of rights issued and the aggregate number of shares of common stock purchasable upon exercise of the rights;

the exercise price;

the conditions to completion of the rights offering;

the date on which the right to exercise the rights will commence and the date on which the rights will expire; and any applicable federal income tax considerations.

Each right will entitle the holder of the rights to purchase for cash the number of shares of common stock at the exercise price set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement. Rights may be exercised at any time up to the close of business on the expiration date for the rights provided in the applicable prospectus supplement. After the close of business on the expiration date, all unexercised rights will become void.

If less than all of the rights issued in any rights offering are exercised, we may offer any unsubscribed securities directly to persons other than our securityholders, to or through agents, underwriters or dealers or through a combination of these methods, including pursuant to standby underwriting or other arrangements, as described in the applicable prospectus supplement.

The description of rights in the prospectus supplement will not necessarily be complete and will be qualified in its entirety by reference to the rights agreement relating to the rights being offered.

Units

We may issue units to purchase one or more of the securities referenced in this prospectus. The terms of the units will be set forth in a prospectus supplement. Before we issue any units under this prospectus, we will file as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, or incorporate by reference into the registration statement from another report that we file with the Commission, the form of unit or other agreement that describes the terms of the units we are offering. Prior to purchasing any of our units, we encourage you to read the applicable prospectus supplement and unit or other agreement.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Any of the securities being offered by this prospectus may be sold:

through agents;

to or through underwriters;

through dealers;

directly by us to purchasers;

a combination of any these methods of sale; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

In addition, we may issue the securities as a dividend or distribution or in a subscription rights offering to our existing security holders.

The securities may be sold at a fixed price or prices which may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices relating to the prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The distribution of securities may be effected from time to time in one or more transactions, by means of one or more of the following transactions, which may include crosses or block trades:

transactions on the New York Stock Exchange or any other organized market where the securities may be traded;

in the over-the-counter market;

in negotiated transactions;

through put or call option transactions relating to the securities;

under delayed delivery contracts or other contractual commitments; or a combination of these methods of sale.

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the terms of the offering of securities, including:

the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent involved in the offer and sale of the securities;

the terms of the offering;

the purchase price of the securities and the proceeds we will receive from the sale;

any over-allotment options under which underwriters may purchase additional securities from us;

any agency fees or underwriting discounts and other items constituting agents' or underwriters' compensation;

the anticipated delivery date of the securities;

any discounts or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers; and any securities exchange or market on which the securities may be listed.

Sales Through Underwriters or Dealers

We may sell securities from time to time to one or more underwriters, who would purchase the securities as principal for resale to the public, either on a firm-commitment or best-efforts basis. If we sell securities to underwriters, we may execute an underwriting agreement with them at the time of sale and will name them in the applicable prospectus supplement. The obligations of the underwriters to purchase the securities will be subject to the conditions set forth in the applicable underwriting agreement. The underwriters may resell the securities from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions. Underwriters may sell the securities in order to facilitate transactions in any of our other securities (described in this prospectus or otherwise), including other public or private transactions and short sales. Underwriters may offer securities to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more firms acting as underwriters. The underwriters may change from time to time any initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers.

In connection with sales to underwriters, the underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation from us in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions and may also receive commissions from purchasers of the securities for whom they may act as agents. Underwriters may resell the securities to or through dealers, and those dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from purchasers for whom they may act as agents. The applicable prospectus supplement will include any required information about underwriting compensation we pay to underwriters, and any discounts, concessions or commissions underwriters allow to participating dealers, in connection with an offering of securities.

From time to time, we may sell securities to one or more dealers acting as principals. The dealers, who may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act, may then resell those securities to the public. The applicable prospectus supplement will include the names of the dealers and the terms of the transaction.

If we offer securities in a subscription rights offering to our existing security holders, we may enter into a standby underwriting agreement with dealers, acting as standby underwriters. We may pay the standby underwriters a commitment fee for the securities they commit to purchase on a standby basis. If we do not enter into a standby underwriting arrangement, we may retain a dealer-manager to manage a subscription rights offering for us.

Direct Sales and Sales Through Agents

We may solicit offers to purchase securities directly from the public from time to time. In this case, no underwriters or agents would be involved. We may also designate agents from time to time to solicit offers to purchase securities from the public on our behalf. These agents may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. The applicable prospectus supplement relating to any particular offering of securities will name any agents designated to solicit offers and will include information about any commissions we may pay the agents in that offering. Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, any agent will agree to use its reasonable best efforts to solicit purchases for the period of its appointment.

We may sell the securities directly to institutional investors or others who may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act with respect to any sale of those securities. The terms of any such sales will be described in the prospectus supplement.

Market Making, Stabilization and Other Transactions

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, each other class or series of securities issued will be a new issue with no established trading market. We may elect to list any other class or series of securities on any exchange, but we are not currently obligated to do so. Any underwriters that we use in the sale of offered securities may make a market in the securities, but may discontinue market making at any time without notice. Therefore, we cannot assure you that the securities will have a liquid trading market.

Any underwriter may also engage in over-allotment, stabilizing transactions, syndicate covering transactions and penalty bids in accordance with Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Over-allotment involves sales in excess of the offering size, which create a short position. Stabilizing transactions involve bids to purchase the underlying security in the open market for the purpose of pegging, fixing or maintaining the price of the securities. Syndicate covering transactions involve purchases of the securities, either through exercise of the over-allotment option or in the open market after the distribution has been completed, in order to cover short positions. Penalty bids permit the underwriters to reclaim a selling concession from a syndicate member when the securities originally sold by the syndicate member are purchased in a syndicate covering transaction to cover short positions. Those activities may cause the price of the securities to be higher than it would be in the absence of the transactions. The underwriters may, if they commence these transactions, discontinue them at any time.

Indemnification

Underwriters, dealers, agents and other persons may be entitled, under agreements that they may enter into with us, to indemnification by us against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or contribution with respect to payments that these persons make with respect to these liabilities. Our underwriters, dealers and agents, or their affiliates, may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for, us in the ordinary course of business.
