(e) IHS Inc., a Delaware corporation, (the Company) grants long-term incentive awards to its executive officers under the Company's stockholder-approved 2004 Long-Term Incentive Plan. Beginning with fiscal year 2011, the Company may grant as part of its annual compensation cycle new performance-based restricted stock unit awards to certain of its executive officers pursuant to the form of agreement attached hereto as an exhibit, which is hereby incorporated by reference in its entirety. These performance-based restricted stock unit awards will vest upon the achievement of performance objectives, which may be based on, among other things, financial metrics, other corporate valuation measures, or special initiative objectives. The awards are designed to further the objectives of the Company's executive compensation program which continues to focus on aligning executives incentives with shareholder value, providing for long-term retention of our leadership team, and driving long-term value to our shareholders.
