On October 13, 2011, Exelon and Constellation issued the attached press release concerning the distribution of the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus for the special shareholder meetings associated with their proposed merger:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EXELON, CONSTELLATION BEGIN DISTRIBUTION OF
JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS FOR SHAREHOLDER
MEETINGS

Chicago, IL and Baltimore, MD (October 13, 2011) Exelon (NYSE:EXC) and Constellation (NYSE:CEG) have begun the distribution of the joint proxy statement/prospectus for the special shareholder meetings associated with their proposed merger, both scheduled for Thursday, November 17, 2011:

Exelon's shareholder meeting will be held at 9:00 AM Central Time in Chase Auditorium at Chase Tower, 10 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. The purpose of the meeting is to consider and take action on a proposal to approve the issuance of Exelon common stock to Constellation stockholders in connection with the merger contemplated by the merger agreement.

Constellation's stockholder meeting will be held at 9:00 AM Eastern Time at the offices of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, 601 Lexington Avenue, 50th Floor, New York, New York. The purpose of the Constellation meeting is to consider and take action on a proposal to approve the merger on substantially the terms set forth in the merger agreement and a non-binding, advisory proposal to approve the compensation that may become payable to Constellation's named executive officers in connection with the completion of the proposed merger. Shareholders of record of shares of Exelon and/or Constellation common stock at the close of business on October 7, 2011 are entitled to vote at the special meetings described above.

Shareholders, whether or not they attend the meeting, are urged to vote their shares over the Internet or via the toll-free telephone number, as described on their proxy cards. As an alternative, a shareholder who receives a paper copy of the proxy card by mail may sign, date and mail it in the envelope provided.

Under the merger agreement, Constellation's stockholders will receive 0.930 shares of Exelon common stock in exchange for each share of Constellation common stock. Based on Exelon's closing share price on April 27, 2011, Constellation stockholders would receive a value of $38.59 per share, or $7.9 billion in total equity value.

The exchange ratio represents an 18.1 percent premium to the 30-day average closing stock prices of Exelon and Constellation as of April 27, 2011.

Based on Exelon's current annual cash dividend rate of $2.10 per common share, Constellation stockholders would receive an approximate 103 percent dividend increase, or $0.99 per Constellation share over the current Constellation annual dividend. Under principles established in the merger agreement, Constellation stockholders will receive a dividend at the Constellation rate until the closing and will begin to accrue the regular Exelon dividend after the closing.

The companies expect to close on the merger in early 2012.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Except for the historical information contained herein, certain of the matters discussed in this communication constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, both as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as may, will, anticipate, estimate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, target, and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions, or events identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding benefits of the proposed merger of Exelon Corporation (Exelon) and Constellation Energy Group, Inc. (Constellation), integration plans and expected synergies, the expected timing of completion of the transaction, anticipated future financial and operating performance and results, including estimates for growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Exelon and Constellation, as applicable. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this communication regarding the proposed merger. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the merger; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the merger; (3) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) an unsolicited offer of another company to acquire assets or capital stock of Exelon or Constellation could interfere with the merger; (5) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (6) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (7) the merger may involve unexpected costs, unexpected liabilities or unexpected delays, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies expectations; (8) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (9) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger; (10) the companies may not realize the values expected to be obtained for properties expected or required to be divested; (11) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (12) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of Exelon, Constellation or the combined company. Discussions of some of these other important factors and assumptions are contained in Exelon's and Constellation's respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, including: (1) Exelon's 2010 Annual Report on Form 10-K in (a) ITEM 1A.
