Unaudited Interim Financial Information The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of October 4, 2011, the condensed consolidated statements of operations for each of the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010 and the condensed statements of stockholders' equity and cash flows for the 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010 have been prepared by the Company, without audit, and have been prepared on the same basis as the Company's audited consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, such statements include all adjustments (which include only normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary to present fairly the financial position as of October 4, 2011 and the results of operations and cash flows for the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010. The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 28, 2010 has been derived from the Company's audited consolidated financial statements. Operating results for the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the 53 week fiscal year ending January 3, 2012. The Company reports its results of operations on a 52-week or 53-week fiscal year, which is comprised of thirteen 4-week periods or twelve 4-week periods and one 5-week period. The first fiscal quarter is 16 weeks, the second and third fiscal quarters each are 12 weeks, and the fourth quarter is 12 or 13 weeks. The fourth quarter in fiscal year 2011 is 13 weeks.

Certain information and disclosures normally included in the notes to annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) have been omitted from these interim financial statements pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). Accordingly, these interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual consolidated financial statements and notes thereto in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2010. (2010 Annual Report).

Advertising Fund The Company participates with its franchisees in an advertising fund, established in fiscal 2010, to collect and administer funds contributed for use in advertising and promotional programs which are designed to increase sales and enhance the reputation of the Company and its franchise owners. Contributions to the advertising fund are required for Company Stores and traditional Franchise Stores and are generally based on a percent of store sales. The Company has control of the advertising fund. The fund is consolidated and the Company reports all assets and liabilities of the fund that it consolidates.

The advertising fund assets, consisting primarily of cash received from the Company and franchisees and accounts receivable from franchisees, can only be used for selected purposes and are considered restricted. The advertising fund liabilities represent the corresponding obligation arising from the receipts of the marketing program. In accordance with ASC Topic 952-605-25, the receipts from the franchisees are recorded as a liability against which specified advertising costs are charged. The Company does not reflect franchisee contributions to the fund in its Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations or Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Advertising fund assets representing receivables from franchisees of $1.1 million and $0.6 million were recorded in accounts receivable on the consolidated balance sheet as of October 4, 2011 and December 28, 2010, respectively. Advertising fund liabilities of $0.8 million and $0.9 million were recorded in accounts payable on the consolidated balance sheet as of October 4, 2011 and December 28, 2010, respectively.

Comprehensive Income Comprehensive income is defined as the change in equity during a period from transactions and other events, excluding changes resulting from investments from owners and distributions to owners. Comprehensive income (loss) equals net income (loss) for all periods presented.

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 10-Q

Earnings (Loss) Per Share Earning (loss) per share is computed in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 260. Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed based on the weighted-average of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed based on the weighted-average number of common shares and potentially dilutive securities, which includes outstanding warrants and outstanding options and restricted stock awards granted under the Company s stock option plans.

Table of Contents

Anti-dilutive shares have been excluded from the calculation of diluted weighted-average shares outstanding. Anti-dilutive shares of 2.9 million and 30.2 million have been excluded from the calculation of diluted weighted-average shares outstanding in the 12 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively. Anti-dilutive shares of 24.3 million and 32.4 million have been excluded from the calculation of diluted weighted-average shares outstanding in the 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively.

For purposes of determining the net income available (loss attributable) to common stockholders used in the computation of earnings (loss) per share, the amount of the income (loss) is increased (decreased) by the preferred stock dividends and deemed dividends. The deemed dividend represents the accretion of the issuance costs and beneficial conversion feature of the Company's preferred stock. For the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011, the convertible preferred shares are dilutive, therefore the dividends and deemed dividends related to the preferred stock have been added back to the net income available to common stockholders and the number of preferred shares have been included in the diluted earnings per share calculation. For the 40 week period ended October 4, 2011 and the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 5, 2010, the convertible preferred shares are anti-dilutive and the dividends and deemed dividends related to the preferred stock have not been added back to the net income available to common stockholders. Also the number of preferred shares has not been included in the diluted earnings per share calculation.

The number of incremental shares from the assumed exercise of restricted stock awards, warrants and options was calculated by applying the treasury stock method. The "if converted" method was used for the conversion of preferred stock. A reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted earnings per share calculations is as follows (in thousands, except shares):

	12 Week Period Ended		40 Week Period Ended
	October 4, 2011	October 5, 2010	October 4, 2011	October 5, 2010
Net income available (loss attributable) to common stockholders (numerator for basic earnings (loss) per share)	$ 3,635	$ (1,427)	$ (317)	$ (7,562)
Preferred stock dividends and deemed dividends	489
Numerator for diluted earnings (loss) per share	$ 4,124	(1,427)	$ (317)	$ (7,562)
Basic weighted-average shares outstanding	67,042,745	59,632,944	66,024,576	57,367,985
Incremental shares from assumed conversion of Series B preferred shares	16,844,852
Incremental shares from assumed exercise of restricted stock awards, warrants and options	1,309,250
Diluted weighted-average shares outstanding	85,196,847	59,632,944	66,024,576	57,367,985

The Company held $1.8 million in restricted cash at December 28, 2010, of which $1.6 million was classified as a current asset and $0.2 million was classified as a long-term asset. Restricted cash represents cash held in money market accounts or certificates of deposits to collateralize the Company's letters of credit.

Table of Contents4. SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company maintains three share-based compensation plans (collectively, the Plans). The Company's Amended and Restated 2006 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Plan, as amended (the 2006 Plan) was approved by the Company's stockholders on November 28, 2006, and provides for the granting of up to eight million shares of common stock in the form of nonqualified and incentive stock options, stock grants or other share-based awards to employees, nonemployee directors and consultants. The amendment and restatement of the 2006 Plan was approved by stockholders on May 20, 2010. In connection with the merger of Jamba, Inc. with Jamba Juice Company on November 28, 2006, the Company assumed the outstanding options under the Jamba Juice Company 1994 Stock Incentive Plan (the 1994 Plan) and the Jamba Juice Company 2001 Equity Incentive Plan (the 2001 Plan), both of which provided for the granting of nonqualified and incentive stock options to employees, nonemployee directors and consultants. No additional grants are available under the 2001 Plan and the 1994 Plan. As of October 4, 2011, there remained 2,930,016 shares available for grant under the Company's 2006 Plan. In December 2008, the Company also granted an option covering an aggregate of 1,500,000 shares of common stock under an inducement grant made outside of the Company's existing equity plans. A summary of stock option activity under the Plans as of October 4, 2011, and changes during the 40 week period then ended is presented below:

	Number of Options (in thousands)	Weighted- Average Exercise Price (per share)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (in thousands)
Options outstanding at December 28, 2010	5,818	$ 2.60
Options granted	590	2.04
Options exercised	(100)	0.91
Options cancelled	(653)	4.15
Options outstanding at October 4, 2011	5,655	$ 2.40	$ 1,374
Options vested or expected to vest at October 4, 2011	5,005	$ 2.47	$ 1,307
Options exercisable at October 4, 2011	2,913	$ 3.15	$ 717

The fair value of options granted was estimated at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model. Option valuation models, including Black-Scholes, require the input of highly subjective assumptions, and changes in the assumptions used can materially affect the grant date fair value of an award. These assumptions include the risk-free rate of interest, expected dividend yield, expected volatility, and the expected life of the award. The risk-free interest rate is based on the yield of the treasury security at grant date with a maturity closest to the expected term of the award. Expected dividends are zero based on a history of not paying cash dividends on the Company's common stock and as the Company does not intend to pay dividends in the future. Expected volatility is based on a 75/25 blend of historic, daily stock price observations of the Company's common stock since its inception and historic, daily stock price observations of the Company's peers during the period immediately preceding the share-based award grant that is equal in length to the award's expected term. Estimated forfeitures are also included as a part of the grant date estimate. The Company used historical data to estimate expected employee behaviors related to option exercises and forfeitures. Currently there is no market-based mechanism or other practical application to verify the reliability and accuracy of the estimates stemming from these valuation models or assumptions, nor is there a means to compare and adjust the estimates to actual values, except for annual adjustments to reflect actual forfeitures.

Share-based compensation expense, which is included in general and administrative expense, was $0.3 million and $0.4 million for the 12 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively. Share-based compensation expense was $0.8 million and $1.0 million for the 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively. At October 4, 2011, non-vested share-based compensation for stock options and restricted stock awards, net of forfeitures totaled $1.1 million. This expense will be recognized over the remaining weighted average vesting period. There was no income tax benefit related to share-based compensation expense during the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010.

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The carrying value of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate fair value because of their short-term nature. Fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or a liability. A three-tier fair value hierarchy is established as a basis for considering such assumptions and for inputs used in the valuation methodologies in measuring fair value:

Level 1: Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions that market participants would use in pricing.

The following table presents the Company's financial assets that were accounted for at fair value, using level 1 inputs, on a recurring basis as of October 4, 2011 and December 28, 2010 within the fair value hierarchy (in thousands):

For assets that are measured using quoted prices in active markets, fair value is the published market price per unit multiplied by the number of units held without consideration of transaction costs. The Company had cash invested in money market funds and active exchange funds of $1.4 million and $1.8 million as of October 4, 2011 and December 28, 2010, respectively.

Assets held for sale consists of Company Stores that the Company expects to rebrand. Such assets are recorded at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. Fair value is determined based on the purchase price in the asset purchase agreement.

6. IMPAIRMENT OF LONG LIVED ASSETS AND STORE LEASE TERMINATION AND CLOSURE COSTS*Impairment of long-lived assets*

The Company reviews its entire portfolio on a regular basis. The review includes an analysis of each store's past and present operating performance combined with projected future results. Impairment charges include the write-down of long-lived assets at stores that were assessed for impairment because of management's intention to close the store or because of changes in circumstances that indicate the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. The Company recorded impairment charges of $0.3 million and $0 million for the 12 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively. Impairment charges of $1.2 million and $2.3 million were recorded for the 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, respectively.

Store lease termination and closure costs

Lease termination costs consist primarily of the costs of future obligations related to closed store locations. Discounted liabilities for future lease costs and the fair value of related subleases of closed locations are recorded when the stores are closed. All other costs related to closed units are expensed as incurred. In assessing the discounted liabilities for future costs of obligations related to closed stores, the Company makes assumptions regarding amounts of future subleases. If these assumptions or their related estimates change in the future, the Company may be required to record additional exit costs or reduce exit costs previously recorded. Exit costs recorded for each of the periods presented include the effect of such changes in estimates. Lease obligations are payable through 2021, less sublease amounts. The charges are noted below.

(In thousands)	12 Week Period Ended		40 week Period Ended

Balance, end of period	$ 668	$ 2,454	$ 668	$ 2,454

7. INCOME TAXES

At the end of each interim period, the Company calculates an estimated annual effective tax rate based on the Company's best estimate of the tax expense (benefit) that will be provided for the full year. The income tax expense (benefit) for the period is a result of applying the estimated annual effective tax rate to the period's actual pre-tax income (loss) and adjusting for discrete tax items.

A valuation allowance is recognized if, based on the weight of available evidence, it is more-likely-than-not that some portion, or all, of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. After consideration of all the evidence, both positive and negative, management has concluded that it is not more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized and a full valuation allowance has been maintained against the Company's net deferred tax assets.

Table of Contents

During the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011, stock options related to certain former employees were cancelled. Once the requisite service has been provided, the prior book expense is not reversed. However, because a tax deduction will no longer be realized, there is no longer a temporary difference. The deferred income tax asset and related valuation allowance for these stock options at December 28, 2010 were adjusted during the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011.

For the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011, the Company recorded income tax benefit of 5.6% and 32.8%, respectively. The effective tax rates were affected by pretax income or loss, a change in the valuation allowance related to deductible temporary differences originating during the current year, the release of certain unrecognized tax benefits related to deductions, state tax credits and related interest as the statutes have expired, and the foreign withholding taxes in connection with foreign franchise revenue.

As of October 4, 2011, the Company's uncertain tax positions were reduced by approximately $229,000 in the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011 as compared with the uncertain tax positions disclosure as provided in Note 15 in the Notes to the Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2010. The change was due to the expiration of the statutes of limitations and a decrease in prior year unrecognized tax benefits.

8. OTHER OPERATING, NET

Other operating, net includes gains or losses recognized in connection with the refranchise of certain Company Stores. During the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011, the Company recognized a net loss on sale of fixed assets of refranchised stores of $0 and $0.3 million, respectively. During the 12 and 40 week period ended October 5, 2010, the Company recognized a loss on the sale of fixed assets of refranchised stores of $1.4 million and a gain of $1.8 million, respectively.

During the first fiscal quarter of 2011, the Company completed its refranchising initiative with the sale of 42 stores in the Chicago/Minnesota and Lake Tahoe markets.

9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is a defendant in litigation arising in the normal course of business. Although there can be no assurance as to the ultimate disposition of these matters, it is the opinion of the Company's management, based upon the information available at this time, that the expected outcome of these matters, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect on the results of operations, liquidity or financial condition of the Company.

EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

Key Overall Strategies

The BLEND Plan represents our multi-year strategic plan to transform Jamba Juice from a made-to-order smoothie company to a healthy, active lifestyle brand. The key strategic priorities of the BLEND Plan include:

Continue to build a customer first operationally focused service culture;

Continue to expand our beverage and food menu offerings across all four day parts (breakfast, lunch, afternoon, and dinner);

Continue to accelerate the development of franchise and non-traditional stores;

Continue to build a consumer products growth platform; and Continue to implement a disciplined expense management plan.

2011 Third Quarter Financial Highlights

Net income was $4.1 million for the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011 compared to net loss of $(0.8) million for the prior year period. The increase in net income represents a $4.9 million improvement and was driven primarily by:

A decrease in company store expenses as a percent of company store revenue, of approximately 540 basis points;

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 10-Q

An increase in franchise and license revenue of $0.8 million; and

Decrease in general and administrative and other expenses.

Diluted earnings per share was $0.05 for the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011, compared to loss per share of $(0.02) for the prior year period.

System-wide comparable store sales increased by 3.7% for the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011, reflecting growth of 3.3% for Company Stores and growth of 4.2% for Franchise Stores. System-wide comparable store sales, a non-GAAP financial measure, represent the change in year-over-year sales for all Company and Franchise Stores opened for at least 13 full fiscal periods.

Total revenue decreased to $57.1 million for the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011, compared to $66.1 million for the prior year period, primarily due to the reduction in the number of Company Stores as a result of our refranchising initiative.

11 new Franchise Stores and two new Company Stores were opened in the U.S. during the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011.

Jamba's Korean master developer opened an additional four Jamba Juice stores in South Korea during the 12 weeks ended October 4, 2011.

2011 Third Quarter Business Highlights

Store Sales

Sales at system-wide Jamba Juice Stores opened more than thirteen full fiscal periods increased 3.7% in the quarter, reflecting increases of 3.3% for Company Stores and 4.2% for Franchise Stores compared to the prior year period. For Company Stores, this increase reflects our fourth consecutive quarter of positive Company Store comparable stores sales growth and eight out of ten quarters of sequential improvement in Company Store comparable store sales. The increase in Company Store comparable sales in the third quarter was largely attributable to an average ticket increase related to a price increase applied in the previous quarter and to more efficient marketing and promotional initiatives.

We continue to focus on expanding our beverage and food offerings with the goal of driving sales by increasing average check, traffic, and attachment rates. During the quarter, we expanded our Whirl ns Frozen Yogurt line into an additional 27 stores. Whirl ns is now available in 157 of our Company Stores in California. We focused on the better-for-you attributes of our products and reinforcing our position as a leading healthy, active lifestyle brand by highlighting our portfolio of more than 22 smoothies under 250 calories. We believe our focus on (1) optimizing media and digital marketing platforms and (2) value offerings and relevant price promotions contributed to our success in increasing sales across all day-parts.

At the start of 2011, we launched a new customer engagement program that provides us with real-time customer feedback. During the quarter, we posted our best performance to date in overall guest satisfaction and have improved our metrics each quarter since the program launched. Despite the continued macro-economic challenges, we believe our strategy to transform the Company will continue to drive sales improvement across the system.

Franchising

During the third quarter, we opened 11 new domestic Franchise Stores, consisting of two traditional venues and nine non-traditional venues. Our system has approximately 60% Franchise Stores and approximately 40% Company Stores at the end of the third quarter.

We believe a more heavily franchised business model requires less capital investment and reduces the volatility of cash flow performance over time. We expect our franchising effort to result in lower total revenue for fiscal 2011 as we trade retail sales at Company Stores for royalties and franchise fees to be received from our franchisees globally.

During the quarter, we began testing a new growth concept called JambaGo , which provides a limited menu of our most popular smoothies and allows Jamba to expand brand availability through multi-unit locations in K-12 schools, colleges and universities, and other non-traditional venues. We are currently testing JambaGo in 15 locations.

Our Korean master developer opened four new Jamba Juice locations in South Korea, bringing their total number of stores to nine. We continue to actively pursue international development opportunities. Subsequent to the end of the quarter, our partners in Canada opened their first store in Toronto.

As of October 4, 2011, we have a total of 777 Jamba Juice locations, on a global basis, including the 15 JambaGo test locations. We expect to have opened at least 80 locations, globally, during fiscal year 2011.

Store-level Margins

During the third quarter, our Company Store-level margins increased as compared to the prior year period primarily due to our continued diligent focus on labor and store operating expense initiatives, leverage in our fixed costs as a result of our increased comparable store sales, and improved cost of sales. While we have locked in pricing for several major commodity contracts for the remainder of 2011, we expect price pressure on our cost of sales to continue in areas such as dairy, fuel and other commodities. We continue to focus on cost savings initiatives to help mitigate cost increases.

Consumer Products

During the third quarter, we continued to make progress gaining additional points of distribution for our existing product lines. We signed a new licensing agreement with Bare Fruit LLC to produce three varieties of bake-dried, all-natural fruit chip snacks, which we anticipate will be in distribution by year end. With over 30 individual Jamba products on shelves in retail outlets across all 50 states, totaling approximately 28,000 points of retail distribution, we are generating increasing levels of royalty revenue as well as increasing consumer brand awareness. We believe the Jamba consumer products licensing program represents a strategic growth opportunity for us, and we intend to actively pursue additional licensing opportunities.

Total revenue	$ 57,078	100.0%	$ 66,089	100.0%

Total revenue is comprised of revenue from Company Stores, franchise royalties and fees and consumer products licensing revenue.

Total revenue for the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011 was $57.1 million, a decrease of $9.0 million or 13.6%, compared to $66.1 million for the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010.

Company Store revenue

Company Store revenue for the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011 was $54.1 million, a decrease of $9.8 million, or 15.4%, compared to Company Store revenue of $63.9 million for the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010. The decrease in Company Store Revenue was due primarily to a net decrease of 68 Company Stores operating since the prior year period, which includes opening nine new Company Stores, closing 18 Company Stores and refranchising 59 Company Stores in connection with our refranchising initiative, partially offset by the increase in comparable store sales as illustrated by the following table:

	Company Store Decrease in Revenue (in 000 s) Third quarter 2011 vs. Third quarter 2010
Reduction in number of Company Stores, net	$ (11,516)
Company Store comparable sales increase	1,696
Total change in Company Store Revenue	$ (9,820)

Company Store comparable sales increased $1.7 million for the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011, or 3.3%. Average check improved 5.4%, reflecting a price increase and improved marketing initiatives compared to the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010. This improvement was partially offset by 2.1% fewer transactions compared to the same prior year period. The third quarter in 2011 was more efficiently promoted than the same period in 2010. Company Store comparable sales represents the change in year-over-year sales for all Company Stores opened for at least 13 full fiscal periods. As of October 4, 2011, approximately 97% of our Company Stores had been open for at least 13 full fiscal periods.

Impairment of long-lived assets

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 10-Q

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment when indicators of impairment are present. Expected future cash flows associated with an asset, in addition to other quantitative and qualitative analyses, including certain assumptions about expected future operating performance and changes in economic conditions are the key factors in determining undiscounted future cash flows. If the sum of the undiscounted cash flows is less than the carrying value of the asset, we recognize an impairment loss equal to the amount by which carrying value exceeds the fair value of the asset.

Table of Contents

Impairment of long-lived assets for the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011 was $0.3 million. During the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010 impairment was $0. The increase in the charge for impairment of long-lived assets was primarily related to underperforming stores.

Other operating, net

Other operating, net consists primarily of gain or loss on disposals, income from jambacard breakage, store lease termination and closure costs and pre-opening costs. For the 12 week period ended October 4, 2011, other operating, net was expense of $0.9 million, compared to expense of $2.7 million for the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010. The decrease in expense is primarily due to net losses from store refranchising for the third quarter of fiscal 2010 which did not recur in the third quarter of fiscal 2011 (approximately $1.4 million), a decrease in store lease termination and closure costs (approximately $1.1 million), partially offset by an increase in pre-opening costs (approximately $0.2 million), a decrease in gift card breakage, net of related fees (approximately $0.4 million).

Interest expense

Interest expense for the 12 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, was $0.1 million.

In addition, during the 12 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010, we paid cash dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock totaling $0.4 million and $0.5 million, respectively.

Income tax expense

The effective tax benefit was primarily affected by pretax income, a change in the valuation allowance related to deductible temporary differences originating during the current year, the release of uncertain tax benefits on certain unrecognized tax benefits related to deductions, state tax credits and related interest as the statutes have expired, and foreign withholding taxes in connection with foreign franchise revenue.

We recorded income tax expense of 29.1% for the 12 week period ended October 5, 2010. Our prior year tax rate was primarily affected by pretax loss, a change in the valuation allowance related to deductible temporary differences originating during the accounting period and $165,000 of foreign taxes related to a development agreement in South Korea.

Other operating, net

Other operating, net consists primarily of gain or loss on disposals, income from jambacard breakage, store lease termination and closure costs and pre-opening costs. KEY FINANCIAL METRICS AND NON-GAAP MEASURES

Management reviews and discusses its operations based on both financial and non-financial metrics. Among the key financial metrics upon which management focuses is reviewing the performance based on the Company's consolidated GAAP results, including Company Store comparable sales. Management also uses certain supplemental, non-GAAP financial metrics in evaluating financial results, including Franchise Store comparable sales and system-wide comparable sales.

Company Store comparable sales represent the change in year-over-year sales for all Company Stores opened for at least 13 full fiscal periods.

Franchise Store comparable sales, a non-GAAP financial measure, represents the change in year-over-year sales for all Franchise Stores opened for at least 13 full fiscal periods, as reported by franchisees.

System wide comparable store sales, a non-GAAP financial measure, represents the change in year-over-year sales for all Company and Franchise Stores opened for at least 13 full fiscal periods and are based on sales by both company-owned and franchise-operated stores, as reported by franchisees.

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 10-Q

Company-owned stores that were sold in franchising transactions are included in the store base for each accounting period of the fiscal quarter in which the store was sold to the extent the sale is consummated at least three days prior to the end of such accounting period, but only for the days such stores have been company-owned. Thereafter, such stores are excluded from the store base until such stores have been franchise-operated for at least one full fiscal period at which point such stores are included in the store base and compared to sales in the comparable period of the prior year. Comparable store sales exclude closed locations.

Table of Contents

Management reviews the increase or decrease in Company Store comparable store sales, Franchise Store comparable sales and system-wide comparable sales compared with the same period in the prior year to assess business trends and make certain business decisions. The Company believes that Franchise Store comparable sales and system-wide comparable sales data, non-GAAP, financial measures, are useful in assessing the overall performance of the Jamba brand and, ultimately, the performance of the Company.

The following table sets forth operating data that do not otherwise appear in our consolidated financial statements as of and for the 12 and 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010:

Table of ContentsLIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCESCash Flows Summary

The following table summarizes our cash flows for the 40 week periods ended October 4, 2011 and October 5, 2010 (in thousands):

	40 week Period Ended October 4, 2011	40 week Period Ended October 5, 2010
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 2,630	$ 5,406
Net cash (used in) provided by investing activities	(5,726)	3,989
Net cash used in financing activities	(1,108)	(1,937)
Net (decrease) increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ (4,204)	$ 7,458

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities decreased by $2.8 million for the 40 week period ended October 4, 2011, compared to the 40 week period ended October 5, 2010, primarily due to decreased cash flows associated with a reduction in our operating assets and liabilities (approximately $6.3 million), partially offset by the change from net loss to net income adjusted for noncash items (approximately $3.5 million). Our decreased cash flows were primarily due to our decision not to repeat, in 2010, the holiday season Jambacard program we established with Costco in 2009, and payments to complete payouts for terminated leases. Our increased cash flows were associated with fees from our franchisees and licensees as we expanded our franchise store base and consumer products licensing program. We recorded proceeds from Costco of approximately $6.2 million from sales of jambacards during the 40 week period ended October 5, 2010.

The amount of cash used in our operating activities during any particular quarter is highly subject to variations in the seasons, with the first and fourth quarters of the fiscal year encompassing the winter and holiday season when we traditionally generate our lowest revenue, and our second and third quarters of the fiscal year encompassing the warmer seasons where a significant portion of our revenue and cash flows are realized. For more information on seasonality, refer to the section below entitled Seasonality and Quarterly Results. We also expect to have increased expenditures during the first part of the fiscal year as we invest in product development and domestic expansion with the goal to have new products released and new stores open by mid-year to take advantage of the busier summer months.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities during the 40 week period ended October 4, 2011, was $5.7 million compared to cash provided by investing activities of $4.0 million during the 40 week period ended October 5, 2010. The resulting increase of $9.7 million in cash used in investing activities was primarily due to a decrease in proceeds received from the franchising initiative (approximately $9.4 million) and a net increase in spending on company-owned store capital (approximately $0.3 million).

In fiscal 2011, we expect capital expenditures to be between $9 million to $10.5 million depending on our liquidity needs, including investing in improvements to our technology infrastructure and maintenance capital. We expect to open up to nine new Company Stores as we focus our growth on franchise development.

Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities decreased $0.8 million for the 40 week period ended October 4, 2011, compared to the 40 week period ended October 5, 2010. The decrease was primarily due to a decrease in preferred stock dividend payments (approximately $0.6 million), due to the conversion of shares of preferred stock to common stock and a reduction in capital lease payments (approximately $0.2 million).

Capital Resources

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 10-Q

As of October 4, 2011, we had cash and cash equivalents of $24.8 million compared to $29.0 million as of December 28, 2010. Our primary sources of liquidity are the remaining cash on hand, proceeds from the sale of Company Stores as part of our refranchising initiative, which concluded during the first quarter, and cash provided by operating activities. As of October 4, 2011, we held $1.4 million in restricted cash, which represented cash held in money market accounts to collateralize our letters of credit. While we have completed our refranchising initiative and do not anticipate further proceeds from the sale of additional Company Stores, we expect that our cash on hand and cash flows provided by operating activities will be sufficient to fund our working capital and general corporate needs, our Series B Preferred Stock dividend payments and our non-discretionary capital expenditures for the foreseeable future. In the future, we may also enter into a credit facility, and equipment leasing arrangements as permitted under our Securities Purchase Agreement for our Series B Preferred Stock to the extent such financing is available on favorable terms. During September, 2011, we resumed our Costco jambacard program for the 2011 holiday season, where we sell jambacards to Costco who resells them to its customers. The adequacy of our available funds will depend on many factors, including the macroeconomic environment, the operating performance of our Company Stores, the successful expansion of our franchise and licensing programs, the successful rollout and consumer acceptance of our new beverage and food initiatives. Given these factors, our foremost priorities for the near term continue to be preserving and generating cash sufficient to fund our liquidity needs.

Contractual Obligations

There have been no significant changes to our contractual obligations table as disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2010, other than obligations with respect to dividends payable in connection with, or payments for redemption of our outstanding Series B-1 and Series B-2 Preferred Stock. The decreases in the obligations relating to our preferred stock were a result of voluntary conversions of some of the shares of previously outstanding preferred stock into common stock by the holders thereof that occurred after December 28, 2010.

	Payments Due by Period (in 000 s)				5 or More Years
	Total	Less Than 1 Year	1 - Less Than 3 Years	3 - Less Than 5 Years

COMMODITY PRICES, AVAILABILITY AND GENERAL RISK CONDITIONS

We contract for significant amounts of individually quick frozen fruit, fruit concentrate and dairy products to support the needs of both our Company Stores and Franchise Stores. The price and availability of these commodities directly impacts our results of operations and can be expected to impact our future results of operations.

SEASONALITY AND QUARTERLY RESULTS

Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations. We expect to realize significant portions of our revenue during the second and third quarters of the fiscal year, which align with the warmer summer season. In addition, quarterly results are affected by the timing of the opening of new stores and weather conditions. However, geographic diversification of our store locations may conceal or diminish the financial statement impact of such seasonal influences. Because of the seasonality of our business, results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be achieved for the full fiscal year or any subsequent quarter.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to adopt accounting policies and make significant judgments and estimates to develop amounts reflected and disclosed in the financial statements. In many cases, there are alternative policies or estimation techniques that could be used. We maintain a process to review the application of our accounting policies and to evaluate the appropriateness of the many estimates that we are required to make in order to prepare the financial statements. However, even under optimal circumstances, estimates routinely require adjustment based on changing circumstances and the receipt of new or better information. There have been no significant changes to the policies and estimates as discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 28, 2010.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The following discussion of market risks contains forward-looking statements. Actual results may differ materially from the following discussion based on general conditions in the financial and commodity markets.

We purchase fruit based on short-term seasonal pricing agreements. These short-term agreements generally set the price of procured frozen fruit and 100% fruit juice concentrates for less than one year based on estimated annual requirements. In order to mitigate the effects of price changes in any one commodity on its cost structure, we contract with multiple suppliers both domestically and internationally. These agreements typically set the price for some or all of our estimated annual fruit requirements, protecting us from short-term volatility. Nevertheless, these agreements typically contain a force majeure clause, which, if utilized (such as when hurricanes in 2004 destroyed the Florida orange crop and more recently with the freeze that affected California citrus), may subject us to significant price increases.

Our pricing philosophy is not to attempt to change consumer prices with every move up or down of the commodity market, but to take a longer term view of managing margins and the value perception of our products in the eyes of our customers. Management's objective is to maximize our revenue through increased customer frequency. However, management has the ability to increase certain menu prices in response to food commodity prices.

We do not purchase derivative instruments on the open market.

We are subject to changes in the risk free interest rate in connection with the cash we hold in interest bearing accounts.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We have established and maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that material information relating to the Company and our subsidiaries required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only a reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management was necessarily required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. We carried out an evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level as of October 4, 2011.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) during the fiscal quarter ended October 4, 2011 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
