1. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

(1) Analysis of results of operations

(Results of operations for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013)

On the subject of the economic and financial environment for the fiscal 2012, despite a strong sense of stagnation globally from mid-2012 through the autumn, bright spots in financial and economic conditions had been gradually increasing since then. Overseas, the housing market and employment conditions had been improving obviously in the US since the second half of last year, while Asian economies had been recovering after marking a bottom in early fall. Meanwhile, in Europe, strains in financial markets had eased somewhat, but the real economy had continued to deteriorate. Amidst such situation, Japan's economy was derailed from its recovery path in early FY2012 because of increased downward pressures from slowing overseas economies and others, and the economy went into a recession or on the verge of a recession at one point. However, the new Administration inaugurated in late 2012 had implemented a series of economic policies including emergency economic measures, a supplementary budget, and more aggressive monetary easing which had weakened the JPY and boosted share prices. Household and corporate sentiment had been improving quickly.

In the financial environment, US and UK policy rates had been at historically-low levels, while another rate cut was made in the Euro-zone in last July. A number of emerging countries had also been lowering interest rates. In Japan, the Bank of Japan had maintained a virtually zero interest rate policy and increased the total size of the Asset Purchase Program multiple times in FY2012. In January of this year, the Bank of Japan also introduced the price stability target at 2 percent in terms of the year-on-year rate of change in the consumer price index and announced the start of open-ended asset purchasing method from January 2014. Amidst such developments, market interest rates had fallen even further, both for short- and long-term rates. The JPY had also depreciated quickly since last fall on expectations for the new administration's economic policies and others. Share prices had surged in tandem.

Under such business environment, consolidated gross profits for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 increased by 132.1 billion yen from the previous fiscal year to 3,634.2 billion yen. This was mainly due to increases in loan income in overseas, net fees and commissions, income from sales and trading and net gains on debt securities, despite tighter domestic deposit-loan margin, lower interest income in Global Markets segment and lower net interest from consumer-finance subsidiaries. General and administrative expenses increased by 100.4 billion yen from the previous fiscal year due to distribution of resources to core business strategies, such as strengthening business footprint in overseas. As a result, net business profits were 1,539.2 billion yen, an increase of 31.7 billion yen from the previous fiscal year.

Total credit costs for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 decreased by 77.8 billion yen from the previous fiscal year, mainly due to decreases in losses on loan write-offs and provision for specific allowance for credit losses. Net losses on equity securities decreased by 35.0 billion yen from the previous fiscal year, primarily due to a decrease in losses on sales of equity securities. Other non-recurring gains decreased by 285.6 billion yen from the previous fiscal year, mainly due to a decrease in profits from investments in affiliates.

As a result, ordinary profits for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 were 1,344.1 billion yen, an increase of 127.8 billion yen from the previous fiscal year. Consolidated net income for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 was 852.6 billion yen, an increase of 128.7 billion yen from the previous fiscal year.

4. Accounting Policies

(1) Trading assets and trading liabilities; trading income and expenses

Transactions involving short-term fluctuations or arbitrage opportunities in interest rates, currency exchange rates, market prices of financial instruments or other market indices (Trading purposes) are presented in Trading assets and Trading liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet on a trade date basis, and gains and losses from trading transactions (interest and dividends, gains or losses on sales and gains or losses on valuation) are presented in Trading income and Trading expenses on the consolidated statement of income on a trade date basis. Trading assets and trading liabilities are stated at their fair values on the consolidated balance sheet date.

(2) Securities

- (A) Debt securities being held to maturity are stated at amortized costs (using the straight-line method) computed under the moving average method. Other securities are primarily stated at their quoted market prices on the consolidated balance sheet date (cost of securities sold is calculated primarily under the moving average method), and other securities whose fair value is extremely difficult to estimate are stated at acquisition costs computed under the moving average method. Net unrealized gains (losses) on other securities are included directly in net assets, net of applicable income taxes, except in the case of securities with embedded derivatives, which are measured at fair value in their entirety with the change in fair value recognized in current earnings.
- (B) Securities which are held as trust assets in money held in trust are accounted for under the same basis as noted above in Notes (1) and (2)(A). Unrealized gains and losses on securities in money held in trust, which are not held for trading purposes or held to maturity, are included directly in net assets, net of applicable income taxes.

(3) Derivatives

Derivatives transactions (other than trading purposes) are calculated primarily based on fair value.

(4) Depreciation of fixed assets

(A) Tangible Fixed Assets (except for Lease Assets)

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets of MUFG and its domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries is computed under the declining-balance method.

The useful lives are primarily estimated as follows:

Buildings: 15 years to 50 years

Equipment: 2 years to 20 years

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets of other consolidated subsidiaries is computed primarily under the straight-line method based on their estimated useful lives.

(Change in accounting policies which are difficult to distinguish from changes in accounting estimates)

Starting from the current fiscal year, MUFG and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries have changed the method of depreciation due to the revision of Corporation Tax Act. Accordingly, tangible fixed assets acquired on or after April 1, 2012 shall be depreciated according to the revised act.

This change has minor impact on the consolidated statement of income and others.

(B) Intangible Fixed Assets (except for Lease Assets)

Amortization of intangible fixed assets is computed under the straight-line method. Development costs for internally used software are capitalized and amortized under the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of primarily 3 years to 10 years.

(C) Lease Assets

Depreciation or amortization of lease assets in Tangible fixed assets or Intangible fixed assets of the finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees is computed under the straight-line method over the lease periods with zero residual value unless residual value is guaranteed by the corresponding lease contracts.

(5) Deferred Assets

Stock issuance costs and bond issuance costs are expensed as incurred.

Discount on bonds recognized prior to March 31, 2006 is amortized using the straight-line method over the life of corresponding bonds and the unamortized portion is deducted directly from bonds in accordance with ASBJ PITF No. 19 Tentative Solution on Accounting for Deferred Assets (August 11, 2006).

(6) Allowance for Credit Losses

Principal domestic consolidated subsidiaries provide allowance for credit losses in accordance with the internal standards for self-assessment of asset quality and the internal standards for write-offs and provisions.

For claims on borrowers that have entered into bankruptcy, special liquidation proceedings or similar legal proceedings or whose notes have been dishonored and suspended from processing through clearing houses (bankrupt borrowers) or borrowers that are not legally or formally bankrupt but are regarded as substantially in a similar condition (substantially bankrupt borrowers), allowances are provided based on the amount of claims, after the write-offs as stated below, net of expected amounts to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees.

For claims on borrowers that are not yet legally or formally bankrupt but deemed to have a high possibility of becoming bankrupt (potentially bankrupt borrowers) excluding a portion of which principal and interest payment can be reasonably estimated from borrower s cash flows, allowances are provided based on an overall solvency assessment of the claims, net of expected amounts to be collected through the disposal of collateral and the execution of guarantees.

For claims on potentially bankrupt borrowers and claims on borrowers requiring close monitoring, of which principal and interest payment can be reasonably estimated from borrower's cash flows, allowances are provided in an amount equal to the difference between the book value of the claims and the relevant cash flows discounted by the initial contractual interest rates.

For other claims, allowances are provided based on historical credit loss experience.

For claims originated in specific foreign countries, additional allowances are provided based on an assessment of political and economic conditions of these countries.

All claims are assessed by branches and the credit supervision departments in accordance with the internal standards for self-assessment of asset quality. The credit review department, which is independent from those operating sections, subsequently audits these assessments.

For claims on bankrupt borrowers and substantially bankrupt borrowers, the amount of claims exceeding the estimated value of collateral or guarantees, that is deemed uncollectible, has been written-off. The total amount of write-offs was ¥619,561 million.

Consolidated subsidiaries, not adopting procedures stated above, provide allowances based on their historical credit loss experience for general claims and based on individual assessments of the possibility of collection for specific deteriorated claims.

(7) Reserve for Bonuses

Reserve for bonuses, which is provided for future bonus payments to employees, reflects an estimated amount accrued on the consolidated balance sheet date.

(8) Reserve for Bonuses to Directors

Reserve for bonuses to directors, which is provided for future bonus payments to directors, reflects an estimated amount accrued on the consolidated balance sheet date.

(9) Reserve for Retirement Benefits

Reserve for retirement benefits, which is provided for future pension payments to employees, is recorded in the amount deemed accrued on the consolidated balance sheet date based on the projected benefit obligation and the estimated plan asset amount at the end of each fiscal year.

Unrecognized prior service cost is amortized under the straight-line method for a period, primarily over 10 years, within the employees' average remaining service period, commencing on the fiscal year in which the cost is incurred.

Unrecognized net actuarial gains (losses) are amortized under the straight-line method for a period, primarily over 10 years, within the employees' average remaining service period, commencing on the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the gains (losses) are incurred.

(Additional Information)

Employees' pension funds of MUFG's domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiary obtained approval of the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, dated January 1, 2013, for returning the substitutional portion which relates to past employee services. As a result, ¥50,615 million of gains on transfer of benefit obligation relating to employees' pension fund were recorded as part of extraordinary gains.

Edgar Filing: MITSUBISHI UFJ FINANCIAL GROUP INC - Form 6-K

(12) Reserve for Contingent Losses

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies or booked at overseas branches of domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries are translated into yen primarily at exchange rates prevailing at the consolidated balance sheet date, except for investments in non-consolidated affiliates which are translated into yen at exchange rates prevailing at the acquisition dates.

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies of other consolidated subsidiaries are translated into yen at the exchange rates prevailing at the respective balance sheet date.

(15) Leasing Transactions

(As Lessees)

Domestic consolidated subsidiaries' finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees, which commenced in fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2008, are accounted for in a similar way to purchases and depreciation for lease assets is computed under the straight-line method over the lease term with zero residual value unless residual value is guaranteed by the corresponding lease contracts.

Finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees, which commenced in fiscal years beginning prior to April 1, 2008, are accounted for in a similar way to operating leases.

(As Lessors)

Finance leases other than those that are deemed to transfer the ownership of leased property to the lessees are accounted for in a similar way to sales and income and expenses related to such leases are recognized by allocating interest equivalents to applicable fiscal periods instead of recording sales as Other ordinary income .

(16) Hedge Accounting

(A) Hedge Accounting for Interest Rate Risks

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries have adopted the deferred hedge accounting method for hedging transactions for interest rate risks arising from financial assets and liabilities. Portfolio hedging or individual hedging, as described in the JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24, Treatment of Accounting and Auditing of Application of Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments in Banking Industry (February 13, 2002) and JICPA Accounting Committee Report No. 14, Practical Guidelines for Accounting for Financial Instruments (January 31, 2000), are primarily applied to determine hedged items.

With respect to hedging transactions to offset fluctuations in the fair value of fixed rate deposits, loans and other instruments, hedging instruments (e.g. interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items individually or collectively by their maturities in accordance with Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24. With respect to hedging transactions to offset fluctuations in fair value of fixed rate bonds classified as other securities, hedging instruments (e.g. interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items collectively by the type of bond. Since material terms related to hedged items and hedging instruments are substantially identical, and such hedging transactions are deemed highly effective, the assessment of effectiveness is based on the similarity of the terms.

With respect to hedging transactions to fix the cash flows related to floating rate deposits and loans as well as forecasted transactions related to short-term fixed rate deposits, loans and other instruments, hedging instruments (e.g. interest rate swaps) are designated to hedged items collectively by interest rate indices and tenors in accordance with Industry Audit Committee Report No. 24. Since material terms related to hedged items and hedging instruments are substantially identical, and such hedging transactions are deemed highly effective, the assessment of effectiveness is based on the similarity of the terms. The effectiveness of hedging transactions is also assessed by verifying the correlation between factors that cause fluctuations in interest rates of hedged items and those of hedging instruments.

As of March 31, 2003, deferred hedge losses and gains were recorded on the consolidated balance sheet as a result of the application of macro hedge accounting based on JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 15 Tentative Treatment for Accounting and Auditing in Adoption of Accounting Standards for Banking Industry (February 15, 2000), under which the overall interest rate risks arising from numerous deposits, loans and other instruments are hedged collectively by derivative transactions. These losses and gains are amortized as expense or income over the remaining lives of the macro hedging instruments (for a maximum period of 15 years from April 1, 2003). Deferred hedge losses and gains attributable to macro hedge accounting at the end of the current fiscal year were ¥49 million (before tax effect adjustment) and ¥0 million (before tax effect adjustment), respectively.

(B) Hedge Accounting for Foreign Currency Risks

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries have adopted the deferred hedge accounting method for hedging foreign currency risks arising from financial assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Portfolio hedging is applied to determine hedged items as described in JICPA Industry Audit Committee Report No. 25 Treatment of Accounting and Auditing concerning Accounting for Foreign Currency Transactions in the Banking Industry (July 29, 2002). Hedging instruments (e.g. currency swaps and forward exchange contracts) are designated to hedged items collectively by currencies.

Domestic consolidated banking subsidiaries and domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries have adopted deferred hedge accounting method for hedging transactions for foreign currency risks arising from investments in affiliates denominated in foreign currencies, while adopting the fair value hedge accounting method for hedging transactions for foreign currency risks arising from other securities (other than bonds) denominated in foreign currency. Portfolio hedging and individual hedging are applied to determine hedged items. Monetary liabilities denominated in the same foreign currencies or forward exchange contracts are used as hedging instruments.

(C) Transactions among Consolidated Subsidiaries

Derivative transactions including interest rate swaps and currency swaps which are designated as hedging instruments among consolidated subsidiaries or between trading accounts and other accounts (or among internal sections) are not eliminated from the consolidated statements of income or valuation difference, but are recognized as related gains or losses or deferred under hedge accounting because these derivative transactions are executed, meeting certain criteria under JICPA Industry Audit Committee Reports No. 24 and No. 25 and they are regarded as equivalent to external third party transactions.

(17) Amortization of Goodwill and Amortization Period

Goodwill and negative goodwill recognized on or before March 31, 2010 are amortized using the straight-line method over 20 years starting from the period of the consolidation. Goodwill with insignificant balances was expensed as incurred.

(18) Cash and Cash Equivalents in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows

Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows are defined as Cash and due from banks on the consolidated balance sheet, excluding time deposits and negotiable certificates of deposits in other banks.

(19) Consumption Taxes

National and local consumption taxes are excluded from transaction amounts. Non-deductible portions of consumption taxes on the purchases of tangible fixed assets are expensed when incurred.

(20) Accounting Standard for Foreign Subsidiaries

Financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are used for consolidated accounting as long as they are prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) or Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States (U.S. GAAP).

If they are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in each domicile country and not in accordance with IFRS or U.S. GAAP, the financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are mainly adjusted in accordance with U.S. GAAP. They were also adjusted when necessary in the process of consolidation.

The total amount of the unused portion of these facilities was ¥72,131,464 million.

The total amount of the unused portion does not necessarily represent actual future cash requirements because many of these contracts are expected to expire without being drawn upon. In addition, most of these contracts include clauses which allow MUFG's consolidated subsidiaries to decline the borrower's request for disbursement or decrease contracted limits for cause, such as changes in financial condition or deterioration in the borrower's creditworthiness. MUFG's consolidated subsidiaries may request the borrowers to pledge real property and/or securities as collateral upon signing of the contract and will perform periodic monitoring on the borrower's business conditions in accordance with internal procedures, which may lead to renegotiation of the terms and conditions of the contracts and/or initiate the request for additional collateral and/or guarantees.

5. Change in Classification of Securities by Purpose of Holding

- (1) In the current fiscal year, classification of bonds for the value of ¥47,566 million held by domestic consolidated trust banking subsidiaries was changed from "Being held to maturity" category to "Other securities" following a significant deterioration of creditworthiness of the bond issuers.
- (2) In the current fiscal year, classification of securitized products for the value of ¥96,319 million held by some of foreign subsidiaries closing accounts at the end of December, which had previously been classified as "Debt securities being held to maturity", was changed to "Other securities" in accordance with the U.S. Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 320 Investments - Debt and Equity Securities.

This change was conducted based on the judgment that it would be more appropriate to reclassify securitized products as "Other securities" since the subsidiaries no longer had intention to hold them to maturity as a result of a change in the risk weight used to calculate capital adequacy ratio and others.

As a result, "Other securities and net unrealized gains (losses) on Other securities" increased ¥118,082 million and ¥12,939 million, respectively.

- (3) In the current fiscal year, classification of securitized products held by some of foreign subsidiaries closing accounts at the end of December, which had previously been classified as "Other securities", was changed to "Debt securities being held to maturity" at fair value (¥13,416 million) in accordance with ASC 320 Investments - Debt and Equity Securities.

This change was conducted based on the judgment that it would be more appropriate to reclassify securitized products as "Debt securities being held to maturity" since the subsidiaries had capability as well as intention to hold them to maturity.

Other securities changed to debt securities being held to maturity (as of March 31, 2013)

			(in millions of yen) Amount of net unrealized gains (losses) on other securities recorded on consolidated balance sheet
	Fair value	Amount on consolidated balance sheet
Foreign bonds	11,473	11,344	395

6. Securities Incurred Impairment Losses

Securities other than those held for trading purposes and investment in affiliates (excluding certain other securities of which fair value is extremely difficult to determine) are subject to write-downs when their fair value has impaired considerably and it is not probable that the value will recover to the acquisition cost as of the end of the current fiscal year. In such case, the fair value is recorded on the consolidated balance sheet and the difference between fair value and acquisition cost is recognized as losses for the fiscal year (referred to as impairment losses).

For the current fiscal year, impairment losses were ¥87,224 million consisting of ¥75,764 million of impairment losses on equity securities and ¥11,460 million of impairment losses on bonds and other securities in which securities whose fair value was extremely difficult to estimate were included.

Considerable decline in fair value was determined based on the classification of issuers in accordance with the internal standards for self-assessment of asset quality as follows:

Bankrupt, Substantially bankrupt or Potentially bankrupt issuers:

Fair value is lower than acquisition cost.

Issuers requiring close monitoring:

Fair value has declined 30% or more from acquisition cost.

Other issuers:

Fair value has declined 50% or more from acquisition cost.

Bankrupt issuer means an issuer who has entered into bankruptcy, special liquidation proceedings or similar legal proceedings or whose notes have been dishonored and suspended from processing through clearing houses. Substantially bankrupt issuer means an issuer who is not legally or formally bankrupt but is regarded as substantially in a similar condition. Potentially bankrupt issuer means an issuer who is not yet legally or formally bankrupt but deemed to have a high possibility of becoming bankrupt. Issuer requiring close monitoring means an issuer who is financially weak and under close monitoring conducted by MUFG's subsidiaries. Other issuer means an issuer who does not correspond to either of the four categories of issuers mentioned above.

Our exposure to securitized products and related investments as of March 31, 2013 is outlined below. (Figures are on a managerial basis and rounded off to the billion yen)

[Balance, net unrealized gains (losses), realized gains (losses)]

The balance as of the end of March 2013 increased to ¥2.44 trillion in total, an increase of ¥0.78 trillion compared with the balance as of the end of March 2012, mainly due to an increase in highly rated CLOs and CMBS.

Net unrealized losses were ¥2 billion, improved by ¥52 billion compared to the end of March 2012.

The effect on the P/L for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 was approximately ¥1 billion.

The above table does not include mortgage-backed securities arranged and guaranteed by U.S. government sponsored enterprises, etc., Japanese RMBS such as Japanese Housing Finance Agency securities, and products held by funds such as investment trusts. These are also applicable to the tables in this document.
- Following the publication of Tentative Solution on Reclassification of Debt Securities (Practical Issue Task Force No.26, The Accounting Standards Board of Japan, December 5, 2008), some of our securitized products were reclassified into securities being held to maturity from securities available for sale at and after the end of January 2009. The balance and net unrealized gains (losses) of the securities being held to maturity in the above table are based on book value before reclassification.

[Distribution by rating]

AAA-rated products accounted for 74% of our investments in securitized products, an increase of 4% compared with the end of March 2012, mainly due to an increase in highly rated CLOs and CMBS.

AAA and AA-rated products accounted for 94% of our investments in securitized products.
