Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 8, 2014, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office issued to Jazz Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Jazz Pharmaceuticals plc (the Company), a patent entitled Method of Administration of Gamma Hydroxybutyrate with Monocarboxylate Transporters. This patent relates to the safe and effective use of Xyrem® (sodium oxybate) oral solution by decreasing the dose of Xyrem in patients receiving a concomitant dose of divalproex sodium (also referred to as valproate or valproic acid), as provided in the Xyrem label. The Company intends to submit this patent, U.S. Patent No. 8,772,306, for listing in the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's publication Approved Drug Products With Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations (the Orange Book). This patent will expire on March 15, 2033.

This report contains forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements related to the expected listing of the patent identified in this report in the Orange Book. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations and inherently involve significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results and the timing of events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of the risks and uncertainties associated with regulatory matters and the protection of the Company's intellectual property rights, as well as other risks and uncertainties detailed from time-to-time under the caption Risk Factors and elsewhere in the Company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings and reports (Commission File No. 001-33500), including in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2014 and future filings and reports by the Company. The Company undertakes no duty or obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this report as a result of new information, future events or changes in its expectations.
