Status of Activities to Strengthen the Functions of the Corporate Auditors

The Company has formed the Corporate Auditors' Office as a staff organization directly under the Board of Corporate Auditors to provide support to the Board of Corporate Auditors. Corporate Auditor Kunio Endo has had sufficient operating experience in the finance and accounting departments of the Company and its subsidiaries, and Corporate Auditor Hirotake Abe has abundant experience and considerable knowledge as a certified public accountant. Both of these Corporate Auditors qualify as persons with considerable knowledge of finance and accounting, as specified under Article 121-8 of the Implementation Regulations of Japan's Company Law. In addition, the Company's Board of Corporate Auditors has recognized Corporate Auditors Kunio Endo and Hirotake Abe as specialists in finance in the Board of Corporate Auditors as specified in the regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, based on Article 407 of U.S. Public Company Accounting Reform and Investor Protection Act of 2002 (Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002).

Table of Contents

The Company has appointed Outside Corporate Auditors who can conduct auditing activities from a broad and sophisticated perspective based on their abundant experience and considerable knowledge. In selecting these Outside Corporate Auditors, in principle, the Company seeks to identify persons whose interests are not in conflict with those of its shareholders and persons who have a high degree of independence.

Decisions on Candidates for Director and Corporate Auditor

Candidates for Director are determined by the decisions of the Board of Directors. Candidates for Corporate Auditor are selected by decisions of the Board of Directors with the approval of the Board of Corporate Auditors.

Organizational Operating System

Under the Company's operating systems, to further develop its business operations with strong ties to regions around the world, based on its basic philosophy and from a long-term perspective, headquarters have been established in six regions. The Motorcycle Business, Automobile Business, Power Products and Other Businesses have developed medium- to long-term plans by product and are making adjustments to pursue optimal business operations globally. In addition, each of the Company's functional headquarters, including Business Management Operations, Business Support Operations, IT Operations, Purchasing Operations and Customer Service Operations, is providing support and making appropriate adjustments etc. to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the Honda Group as a whole.

R&D activities are conducted mainly by independent subsidiaries. These activities are carried out on a free and competitive basis, centering around Honda R&D Co., Ltd., for products, and Honda Engineering Co., Ltd., for production technologies, with the goal of creating distinctive and internationally competitive product groups through the application of advanced technology.

Operating Officer System

The Company appoints Operating Officers to regional, business and functional headquarters, R&D subsidiaries and other major organizational units. This management system facilitates the making of rapid and appropriate management judgments at the regional and working level.

Executive Council

The Company has formed an Executive Council, which is composed of Operating Officers of senior managing officer level and above. This council conducts prior discussions of items that will be decided by the Board of Directors, and, within the limits of authority delegated to it by the Board of Directors, deliberates important management matters.

Regional Operating Boards

To give greater autonomy to the regional level and make rapid management decisions, the Company has formed regional operating boards within each regional headquarters. Within the limits of authority delegated to them by the Executive Council, these regional operating boards deliberate important management matters within their respective regions.

Accounting Audit

The Company has been audited from an accounting perspective by KPMG AZSA LLC as required under Japan's Company Law, Japan's Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and the Securities and Exchange Law of the United States.

Within KPMG AZSA LLC, a total of 113 staff conducted the audit. These accounting firm staff members comprised three certified public accountants (Sawaharu Kanai, Hiroyuki Yamada and Tsutomu Ogawa) who were in overall charge of the accounting audit, and 110 professional staff (including 58 certified public accountants, 5 accountants with U.S. certified public accountant status and 47 other staff members).

Table of Contents

The total remuneration paid to KPMG AZSA LLC and its affiliated accounting firm, KPMG, in fiscal year 2013 for the preparation of the auditor's report, based on Japan's Company Law, Japan's Financial Instruments and Exchange Law, and the Securities and Exchange Law of the United States, which covered the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries, was ¥3,670 million. In addition, remuneration paid by the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in fiscal year 2013 for services other than auditing services received from KPMG AZSA LLC and its affiliated accounting firm, KPMG, amounted to ¥120 million.

Method of Determining Accounting Auditor Remuneration

In deciding the amount of remuneration for services provided by the Company's Accounting Auditor, various factors are taken into consideration in discussions with the accounting firm, including the Company's size, special features, the time schedule for the audit and other matters. In addition, to preserve the independence of the Accounting Auditor, remuneration to be paid is decided by the Board of Directors, with the prior approval of the Board of Corporate Auditors.

3. Reasons for the Selection of the Company's Current Corporate Governance System

As a company adopting the board of corporate auditors system of corporate governance, the Company has elected internal members of its Board of Directors who have an in-depth understanding of the Company's business activities, and two outside directors who have objective, broad and highly sophisticated perspectives. In addition, the Company's Board of Corporate Auditors, which is independent of the Board of Directors, has more than a majority of outside Corporate Auditors. The Board of Directors and Board of Corporate Auditors are responsible for supervising and monitoring the conduct of management.

Management's judgment is that the current corporate governance system is functioning appropriately in supervising and monitoring the conduct of management.

IV. Matters Related to Internal Control Systems

1. Basic Approach to and Current Status of Internal Control Systems

- (1) Systems for ensuring that the execution of duties by Directors and employees complies with the law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation

The Company has prepared the Honda Conduct Guidelines which provide for conformity with applicable laws and internal rules and regulations as guidelines for conduct which should be shared by the Company's management and employees, and implements measures to ensure that all management personnel and employees are made aware of and follow these guidelines.

The Company establishes its compliance system such as by appointing a Compliance Officer, who is a director in charge of compliance-related initiatives and by establishing the Compliance Committee and the Business Ethics Improvement Proposal Line.

- (2) Systems related to retention and management of information on execution of duties by the Directors
Information related to the execution of duties by the Directors, including minutes of Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings, is retained and stored appropriately in accordance with the Company's document management policy.

- (3) Regulations and other systems related to risk management
Important management issues are taken up by the Board of Directors, the Executive Council and/or Regional Operating Boards, which discuss them in accordance with established rules of procedure, assess associated risks and make decisions after due consideration.

Table of Contents

A Risk Management Officer is appointed as a director in charge of promoting risk management initiatives. The Risk Management Officer playing the main role, risk information is collected and evaluated (of these risks, significant risk is promptly reported to the division in charge along with instructions on the countermeasures, and its progress is then monitored).

For large-scale disasters requiring Company-level crisis management, the Company organizes the system, such as by establishing the Corporate Crisis Management Policy and the Honda Risk Management Rules.

(4) Systems for ensuring that the execution of duties by the Directors is being conducted efficiently
The Company has established a system for operating its organizational units that reflects its fundamental corporate philosophy. For example, separate headquarters have been set up for each region, business and function, and an operating officer has been assigned to each headquarters and main division. In addition, we have implemented a system that enables prompt and appropriate decision making by having the Executive Council and Regional Operating Boards deliberate on important management issues.

To conduct management efficiently and effectively, business plans are prepared on an annual basis and for the medium term, and measures are taken to share these plans.

(5) Systems for ensuring that the corporate group, comprised of the Company and its subsidiaries, conducts business activities appropriately
The Company and its subsidiaries share the Honda Conduct Guidelines and basic policies regarding corporate governance. In addition, each subsidiary works to promote activities that are in compliance with the laws of countries in which they operate and practices observed in their respective industries as they endeavor to enhance corporate governance.

Table of Contents

The Company appoints the directors in charge of supervising each of its subsidiaries.

As for the business execution of its subsidiaries, the Company helps with the establishment of account settlement rules. When it comes to important management issues, the Company requests the subsidiary to obtain prior approval from the Company or to report to the Company according to its internal rules. The business control division of the Company regularly receives reports on the subsidiary's business plans to confirm the appropriateness of the operation. Based on the Honda Risk Management Rules, the Company also receives reports on important risks from the subsidiary and requests the subsidiary to establish a risk management system in accordance with the corporate size and their respective industries. The Company then confirms the state of establishment and operation of the system.

The Business Ethics Improvement Proposal Line of the Company establishes an internal whistle-blowing and response system for the Company and subsidiaries and major subsidiaries have such internal reporting functions etc. These systems enable the Honda Group to discover and respond to issues that may arise at an early date.

The Audit Office, which directly reports to the president and CEO, is working to strengthen internal auditing functions within the Honda Group, internal auditing of all units, supervising and providing guidance to internal auditing units in major subsidiaries, conducting audits of subsidiaries directly when necessary.

In the case of a company accounted for by the equity method, the Company works to improve corporate governance throughout the Group by seeking the understanding and cooperation of such companies with Honda's basic corporate governance policies.

(6) Provision of employees when assistance is requested by corporate auditors, independence of such employees from the Directors, and to ensure effectiveness of instructions which are given to such employees
The Corporate Auditors' Office has been established as a supportive staff organization directly under the Board of Corporate Auditors to provide support to the Corporate Auditors.

Table of Contents

(7) Systems for ensuring Directors and employees report to Corporate Auditors and other systems related to the reporting to Corporate Auditors

In addition to regularly reporting the state of operations at the Company and its subsidiaries and the state of implementation and operation of internal control systems, including those related to compliance and risk management, any information that may have a significant impact on the Company's operations is also reported to the Corporate Auditors.

No one should suffer a disadvantage because of making such reports to the Corporate Auditor. The Company's subsidiaries are requested to show the same consideration.

(8) Other systems for ensuring the effectiveness of audits by Corporate Auditors

The Corporate Auditors work closely with the Audit Office, which serves as the Company's internal audit department, to conduct business audits of the Company and its subsidiaries. Additionally, the Corporate Auditors attend the Executive Council and other important meetings.

In order to make the Company to bear the necessary cost of the Corporate Auditors to conduct their duties, an annual budget is secured every accounting period based on the proposal from the Corporate Auditor.

2. Basic Approach to and Current Status of Activities to Exclude Anti-Social Elements

Honda's basic policy is to maintain a resolute attitude at all times toward anti-social elements that threaten social order and safety. An organizational unit has been formed to respond to these elements, and the Company works closely with the police and other outside organizations.

Table of Contents

V. Other Information

1. Adoption of anti-takeover measures
Existence of anti-takeover provisions: None

Supplementary Explanation of Matters Related to this Item

2. Other matters related to corporate governance, etc.

Basic policy for timely disclosure

The Company regards the following as material information that should be disclosed and works to make such information available promptly, appropriately and fairly to shareholders, investors and other stakeholders.

Material information

- (1) Corporate information that must be disclosed under Japan's Financial Instruments and Exchange Law and the regulations of stock exchanges (as set forth in regulations regarding listed securities) and that will have a material impact on investment judgments.

- (2) Other corporate information that may have a material impact on investment judgments.

Internal systems for timely disclosure of corporate information

The Company has established systems for the management of corporate information under which, under the supervision of the officer in charge of handling information, the General Affairs, Legal, Finance and Accounting divisions collect corporate information which is expected to constitute information that is subject to timely disclosure from the Company's decision-making body, units that have principal responsibility (units with principal responsibility) for businesses relating to the relevant information and subsidiaries and manages such information..

Decisions on whether the information is material and should be disclosed and the manner in which it should be disclosed are made, in accord with the basic policy previously mentioned, through joint discussions led by the officer in charge of handling information together with the General Affairs, Legal, Finance and Accounting divisions; the representative directors; units with principal responsibility; and the officers who manage and supervise such units (officers in charge).
