PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED JULY 2, 2015

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Home BancShares, Inc. (which we refer to as HBI), along with its subsidiary bank, Centennial Bank, and Florida Business BancGroup, Inc. (which we refer to as FBBI), along with its subsidiary bank, Bay Cities Bank (which we refer to as BCB), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 17, 2015 (which we refer to sometimes as the Merger Agreement), providing for the combination of HBI and FBBI. Under the Merger Agreement, FBBI will merge with and into HBI, with HBI remaining as the surviving entity (which transaction we refer to as the merger). BCB will, as soon as reasonably practicable following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, merge with and into Centennial Bank, an Arkansas state bank, with Centennial Bank remaining as the surviving entity (we refer to the two mergers together as the mergers). Before we complete the merger, holders of FBBI common stock must approve the Merger Agreement. A special meeting of FBBI shareholders will be held on August [], 2015 for that purpose.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the aggregate merger consideration payable by HBI to FBBI shareholders will be approximately $101,576,813, consisting of (i) approximately $20,315,363 in cash (assuming that all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders), and (ii) shares of HBI common stock with a total value of approximately $81,261,450, based upon the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock immediately preceding the closing date of the merger and subject to the collar described below. Based upon that aggregate purchase price, assuming that 7,813,601 shares of FBBI stock are outstanding at closing (which is equal to the number of shares outstanding when the Merger Agreement was signed) and subject to the right of FBBI shareholders to make optional elections to receive a different mix of consideration, each share of FBBI common stock would be exchanged for consideration valued at $13.00, consisting of a combination of (i) cash payable at closing in the amount of $2.34, (ii) a contingent right to receive an additional amount of up to $0.26 upon release of such funds from escrow, and (iii) HBI common stock with a value of approximately $10.40. The number of shares of HBI common stock issuable for each share of FBBI common stock will not be determined until the effective time of the merger, and will be based on the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market reporting system for the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date the merger closes, subject to the collar described below as set forth in more detail in the Merger Agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. We expect the mergers, taken together, to be a tax-free transaction for FBBI shareholders, to the extent they receive HBI common stock for their shares of FBBI common stock.

The market price of HBI common stock will fluctuate before the merger. You should obtain a current stock price quotation for HBI common stock. HBI common stock is traded on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol HOMB.

The Merger Agreement provides that if the 20-day volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock as of the closing date is equal to or greater than $39.12 or is equal to or below $28.92 (which we sometimes refer to collectively as the collar), then the price used to determine the number of shares of HBI common stock issuable for each share of FBBI common stock will be fixed at $39.12 or $28.92, respectively (subject to adjustment in the event of a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction). Assuming no adjustments are made to the aggregate merger consideration, if the 20-day volume-weighted average closing price of the HBI common stock as of the closing date of the merger is equal to or greater than $39.12, the number of shares of HBI common stock to be issued to FBBI shareholders in connection with the merger will be approximately 2,077,235 shares. If the 20-day volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock as of the closing date of the merger is equal to or below $28.92, the number of shares of HBI common stock to be issued to FBBI shareholders in connection with the merger will be approximately 2,809,870 shares.

If the merger is completed, $2,000,000 of the cash portion of the aggregate purchase price will be placed into escrow, and FBBI shareholders will have a contingent right to receive their pro rata portions of such amount. The amount, if any, of such escrowed funds to be released to FBBI shareholders will depend upon the amount of losses that HBI incurs in the two years following the closing of the merger related to two class action lawsuits that are pending against BCB, as more fully described in the attached proxy statement/prospectus.

Because of the collar restriction and the potential issuance of shares upon the termination or exercise of FBBI stock options, the final per-share merger consideration will not be determined until after the date of the special meeting of FBBI shareholders. Therefore, at the time of the special meeting, you will not know the precise amount of cash or number of shares of HBI common stock you may receive upon the completion of the merger. Moreover, the actual value of the per-share consideration received by FBBI shareholders could be lower than $13.00 if contingent consideration of $2,000,000 is not paid to FBBI shareholders.

FBBI's board of directors has determined that the combination of FBBI and HBI is in the best interests of FBBI shareholders based upon its analysis, investigation and deliberation, and FBBI's board of directors recommends that the FBBI shareholders vote FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement and FOR the approval of the other FBBI proposal described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

You should read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices and the documents incorporated by reference into the document, carefully because it contains important information about the merger and the related transactions. In particular, you should read carefully the information under the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 13.

The shares of HBI common stock to be issued to FBBI shareholders in the merger are not deposits or savings accounts or other obligations of any bank or savings association, and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other governmental agency.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus or the HBI common stock to be issued in the merger, or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this proxy statement/prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

This proxy statement/prospectus is dated [], 2015.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following questions and answers briefly address some commonly asked questions about the merger and the special meeting of FBBI shareholders. They may not include all the information that is important to the shareholders of FBBI. Shareholders of FBBI should read this entire proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the appendices and other documents referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: FBBI is sending these materials to the holders of its common stock (which we sometimes refer to as FBBI shareholders) to help them decide how to vote their shares of FBBI common stock with respect to the proposed merger and the other matter to be considered at the FBBI special meeting described below.

The merger cannot be completed unless FBBI shareholders approve the Merger Agreement. FBBI is holding a special meeting of shareholders to vote on the Merger Agreement as described in FBBI Special Meeting of Shareholders. Information about the special meeting and the merger is contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes a prospectus of HBI and a proxy statement of FBBI. It is a prospectus because HBI will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of FBBI common stock in the merger. It is a proxy statement because the board of directors of FBBI is soliciting proxies from FBBI s shareholders.

Q: What will FBBI shareholders receive in the merger?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, FBBI shareholders will receive their pro rata share of the total consideration (which we refer to sometimes as the Purchase Price) of approximately $101,576,813 (assuming all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders). The aggregate consideration consists of (i) cash equal to 20% of the Purchase Price; and (ii) shares of HBI common stock valued at the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market reporting system for the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date the merger closes with a total value of 80% of the Purchase Price. The calculation of the amount of the Purchase Price assumes that the value of HBI common stock to be issued in the merger is not less than $28.92 nor more than $39.12 and is based upon the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock described above. To the extent that the value of the HBI common stock issued in the merger is greater than or less than the range described in the previous sentence, the value of the merger consideration to be issued by HBI would change accordingly. See The Merger Terms of the Merger beginning on page 33 for a more detailed discussion of the calculation of the Purchase Price.

Q: What will a FBBI shareholder receive for each share of FBBI common stock?

A: Based on a Purchase Price of $101,576,813 and 7,813,601 shares of FBBI common stock outstanding at closing, each share of FBBI common stock will be exchanged for consideration valued at $13.00, consisting of a combination of (i) cash payable at closing in the amount of approximately $2.34, (ii) a contingent right to receive an additional amount of up to approximately $0.26 in cash from escrow as more fully described herein and (iii) HBI common stock with a value of approximately $10.40. FBBI shareholders will be permitted to make an election (an Optional Election) to receive their merger consideration in all cash, all HBI common stock, or a mix thereof, subject to the limitations that (i) the contingent consideration described above will be payable in cash only and (ii) the value of the aggregate merger consideration, assuming a Purchase Price of $101,576,813, will consist of 80% HBI common stock and 20% cash.

The number of shares of HBI common stock issuable for each share of FBBI common stock will not be determined until the effective time of the merger, and will be based on the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market reporting system for the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date the merger closes, as set forth in more detail in the Merger Agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus. See The Merger Terms of the Merger beginning on page 34 for a more detailed discussion of the per-share merger consideration.

Q: Under what conditions will the contingent consideration be released from escrow to FBBI shareholders?

A: At closing, $2,000,000 of the amount of the cash consideration payable by HBI in connection with the merger will be placed into escrow. The escrowed consideration will be released to FBBI shareholders to the extent that such amounts are not needed to reimburse HBI for losses related to the two pending class action lawsuits against BCB (in excess of applicable insurance) at the earlier of the resolution of both class action lawsuits or the second anniversary of the date of closing of the merger.

Q: How are outstanding FBBI stock options addressed in the Merger Agreement?

A: At or prior to the closing of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised FBBI stock option will be terminated by FBBI and shall entitle the holder to a cash payment at the effective time of the merger equal to the positive difference, if any, between the option exercise price and the equivalent dollar value of the merger consideration.

Q: When do HBI and FBBI expect to complete the merger?

A: HBI and FBBI expect to complete the merger after all conditions to the merger in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived, including after shareholder approval is received at the special meeting of FBBI shareholders and all required regulatory approvals are received. HBI and FBBI currently expect to complete the merger in the late third quarter or early fourth quarter of 2015. It is possible, however, that as a result of factors outside of either company's control, the merger may be completed at a later time or may not be completed at all.

Q: How will the merger consideration received by FBBI shareholders affect HBI shareholders?

A: As a result of HBI's issuance of new shares to FBBI shareholders, current HBI shareholders will experience dilution in terms of percentage of ownership. Following the closing of the merger, current HBI shareholders will own approximately 96.77% of the outstanding common stock of HBI, and current FBBI shareholders will own approximately 3.23% of the outstanding common stock of HBI. These percentages assume an issuance of 2,261,660 shares which has been calculated based upon a Purchase Price of $101,576,813 and an HBI common stock price of $35.93 (the closing price on the date the Merger Agreement was signed). The percentages will increase or decrease based on the HBI common stock price as described in more detail in the chart on page 34.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: FBBI shareholders are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

1. To approve the Merger Agreement (referred to as the Merger Proposal); and
2. To approve one or more adjournments of the FBBI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal (referred to as the Adjournment Proposal).

Table of Contents

Q: How does the board of directors of FBBI recommend that I vote?

A: FBBI's board of directors recommends that FBBI shareholders vote FOR the FBBI proposals described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

For a discussion of interests of FBBI's directors and officers in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of FBBI shareholders generally, see "The Directors and Executive Officers of FBBI and BCB Have Financial Interests in the Merger," beginning on page 96.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, FBBI shareholders should complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that their shares will be represented at FBBI's special meeting.

Please follow the instructions set forth on the proxy card or on the voting instruction form provided by the record holder if your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee.

Q: How do I cast my vote?

A: If you are a shareholder of record of FBBI as of the record date for the FBBI special meeting, you may vote by signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided. You may also cast your vote in person at FBBI's special meeting.

Q: When and where is the FBBI special meeting?

A: The special meeting of FBBI shareholders will be held at [], Florida, at [] Eastern Time, on August [], 2015. All shareholders of FBBI as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the FBBI special meeting.

Q: If my FBBI shares are held in street name by a broker or other nominee, will my broker or nominee vote my shares for me?

A: If your FBBI shares are held in street name in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by your bank or broker. Please note that you may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to FBBI or by voting in person at the special meeting unless you provide a legal proxy, which you must obtain from your bank or broker.

Brokers or other nominees who hold shares in street name for a beneficial owner typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers or other nominees are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion on matters that are determined to be non-routine without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are shares held by a broker or other nominee that are represented at the FBBI special meeting but with respect to which the broker or other nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. If you are a FBBI shareholder and you do not instruct your broker or other nominee on how to vote your shares, your broker or other nominee may not vote your shares on the Merger Proposal or the Adjournment Proposal, which broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal, but will have no effect on the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal to be considered at the FBBI special meeting?

A: Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66% of the outstanding shares of FBBI common stock. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of FBBI voting on such proposal, provided that a quorum is present at the FBBI special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered votes cast, but are included in determining whether there is a quorum present.

The directors and certain officers of FBBI and BCB entered into voting agreements with HBI pursuant to which they agreed to vote approximately 3,594,125 total shares in favor of the merger. These shares represent approximately 46.0% of the FBBI common stock entitled to vote at the FBBI special meeting (excluding any shares issued upon exercise of FBBI warrants or options).

Q: What if I abstain from voting or do not vote?

A: For the purposes of the FBBI special meeting, an abstention, which occurs when a FBBI shareholder attends the FBBI special meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting, will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal, but will have no effect on the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: May I change my vote or revoke my proxy after I have delivered my proxy or voting instruction card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting:

by sending written notice of revocation to the corporate secretary of FBBI;

by sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card; or by attending the special meeting and voting in person if you so request and if your shares are registered in your name rather than in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee; however, your attendance alone will not revoke any proxy.

If you choose either of the first two methods, FBBI must receive your written notice of revocation or later dated proxy card prior to the shareholder vote on the Merger Proposal at the special meeting.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker or other nominee, you should contact your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: What happens if I sell my FBBI shares after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the FBBI special meeting is earlier than both the date of such meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your FBBI common stock after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting (provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting), but you will not have the right to receive any merger consideration for the transferred FBBI shares. You will only be entitled to receive the merger consideration for FBBI shares that you own at the effective time of the merger.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus or set of voting instructions?

A: If you hold shares directly as a record holder and also in street name or otherwise through a nominee, you may receive more than one proxy statement/prospectus and/or set of voting instructions relating to the special meeting. These should each be voted or returned separately to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: What are the federal income tax consequences of the merger?

A: Gain (but not loss), if any, will be recognized by FBBI shareholders in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) and the fair market value of the HBI common stock received pursuant to the merger over the adjusted tax basis in the FBBI common stock surrendered), and (2) the amount of cash received by such holder of FBBI common stock (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share). The consequences of the merger to any particular shareholder will depend on that shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. Accordingly, you are urged to consult your tax advisor to determine your tax consequences from the merger.

No gain or loss will be recognized by HBI or FBBI as a result of merger. The obligation of HBI and FBBI to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of a legal opinion to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code).

For a more detailed discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the transaction, see Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 70.

Q: Do I have appraisal or dissenters' rights?

A: FBBI shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Florida Statutes § 607.1301 et seq., a copy of which is attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. If you wish to assert appraisal rights, you must deliver to FBBI, at or prior to the FBBI special meeting, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the merger is consummated and you must not vote for approval of the Merger Proposal. The procedure for dissenting is described in more detail in The Merger section under the heading Appraisal Rights beginning on page 36.

HBI shareholders are not entitled to any appraisal or dissenters' rights.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card. If you are a holder of FBBI common stock, you will receive written instructions from Computershare Trust Company, N.A., after the merger is completed on how to exchange your stock certificates for HBI common stock.

Q: What if I have lost my FBBI stock certificate?

A: At the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will provide a letter of transmittal to FBBI shareholders that will provide instructions for FBBI shareholders who have lost their stock certificates. If you would like to obtain a replacement certificate prior to the closing of the merger, please contact Computershare, transfer agent for FBBI, at (800) 962-4284. An indemnity and surety bond will be required.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have any questions about the proxy materials or the special meeting?

A: If you have any questions about the merger or any of the proposals to be considered at the special meeting, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares or need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact either HBI or FBBI as follows:

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to its terms and conditions and in accordance with Arkansas law, FBBI will merge with and into HBI, with HBI being the surviving corporation in the merger. This transaction is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the merger. As soon as reasonably practicable, following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, BCB will be merged with and into Centennial Bank, which is HBI's wholly owned bank subsidiary, with Centennial Bank being the surviving corporation in that second step merger.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, FBBI shareholders will receive aggregate merger consideration of approximately $101,576,813 (assuming all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders). Contingent consideration of $2,000,000 is being escrowed for up to two years to reimburse HBI for certain potential losses in connection with litigation currently outstanding against BCB and as further described in Exhibit A to the Merger Agreement. At the end of two years or upon any earlier resolution of the pending litigation, any amount remaining in the escrow fund will be disbursed to FBBI shareholders of record as of the effective time of the merger in accordance with their respective ownership percentages as of such time. Each FBBI shareholder therefore will receive a pro rata share of the total merger consideration, which consists of (i) $18,315,363 in cash payable at closing, (ii) the portion of the $2,000,000 in cash to be placed in escrow that is payable to FBBI shareholders under the escrow agreement, and (iii) shares of HBI common stock with a total value of $81,261,450, based on the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock for the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date the merger closes (the HBI Average Closing Price). Based on 7,813,601 outstanding shares of FBBI common stock (which is equal to the number of shares outstanding on the date the Merger Agreement was signed), FBBI shareholders who do not make an Optional Election will receive, in exchange for each share of FBBI common stock, merger consideration valued at approximately $12.7440 (if contingent consideration is not paid to FBBI shareholders) to $13.00 (if all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders) consisting of a combination of (i) cash payable at closing in the amount of approximately $2.34; (ii) a contingent right to receive an additional amount of up to approximately $0.26 in cash from escrow; and (iii) HBI common stock, or a mix thereof, based upon the HBI Average Closing Price and assuming that such HBI Average Closing Price is not less than $28.92 nor more than $39.12. FBBI shareholders may make an Optional Election to receive merger consideration in all HBI stock or all cash or some combination other than 20% cash and 80% HBI stock. However, such elections are subject to adjustment, if necessary, to maintain the ratio of total merger consideration as 20% cash and 80% HBI stock.

The number of shares of HBI common stock comprising the portion of the per-share merger consideration to be paid in shares of HBI common stock will vary based on the HBI Average Closing Price. The following table illustrates, for a range of potentially applicable HBI Average Closing Prices, the number of shares of HBI common stock that would be exchanged for each share of FBBI common stock, assuming that 7,813,601 shares or 7,956,476 shares (which is equal to the sum of 7,813,601 shares—the number of shares outstanding on the date the Merger Agreement was signed, plus 142,875 shares issuable if all FBBI stock options outstanding on the date of the Merger Agreement which have the potential to vest prior to the latest closing date permitted in the

The actual consideration will be based on the actual HBI Average Closing Price, which will be computed at the time of the merger. The HBI Average Closing Prices shown on this table are for illustration only. Cash will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of HBI common stock.

* The Per-Share Stock Consideration will be based on the actual HBI Average Closing Price, which will be computed at the time of the merger; the HBI Average Closing Prices shown on this table are for illustration only. Cash will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of HBI common stock.

 On June 17, 2015, the date the Merger Agreement was signed, the closing price of a share of HBI common stock was $35.93. The Merger Agreement provides that if the HBI Average Closing Price is equal to or greater than $39.12, then the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $39.12. Additionally, if the HBI Average Closing Price is equal to or below $28.92, then the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $28.92. For illustrative purposes only, assuming the HBI Average Closing Price is $35.93, the Purchase Price is $101,576,813, all contingent consideration is paid, and there are 7,813,601 shares of FBBI common stock outstanding immediately before the merger, a FBBI shareholder, who does not make an Optional Election, holding 100 shares of FBBI common stock will receive $260.00 in cash for the cash portion of the merger consideration, 28 shares of HBI common stock, and $33.96 in cash in lieu of the resulting fractional share.

Assuming that 2,261,660 shares of HBI common stock will be issued to FBBI shareholders (based on a $35.93 HBI Average Closing Price and no cash in lieu of fractional shares paid), FBBI shareholders would own approximately 3.23% of HBI's common stock after the merger is completed, excluding any shares of HBI common stock they may already own.

Recommendation of FBBI's Board of Directors (page 42)

FBBI's board of directors recommends that holders of FBBI common stock vote FOR the Merger Proposal, and FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

Opinion of HBI's Financial Advisor (page 50)

On June 16, 2015, Wunderlich Securities, Inc. ("Wunderlich Securities"), HBI's financial advisor in connection with the merger, provided the HBI board of directors with a preliminary overview of its analyses performed as of the date of the meeting and advised the board that its analyses were as of such date and based upon and subject to various qualifications and assumptions described in the meeting. Wunderlich Securities delivered its opinion to the board on June 17, 2015 that, as of such date and subject to and based on the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the aggregate consideration to be paid by HBI pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair to HBI from a financial point of view.

The full text of Wunderlich Securities' opinion, dated June 17, 2015, is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a discussion of, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and any limitations on the review undertaken by Wunderlich Securities in rendering its opinion.

Wunderlich Securities' opinion is addressed to HBI's board of directors and addresses only the fairness of the aggregate consideration to be paid by HBI from a financial point of view and does not address the merits of the underlying decision by HBI to enter into the Merger Agreement, the merits of the merger as compared to other alternatives potentially available to HBI or the relative effects of any alternative transaction in which HBI might engage. Wunderlich Securities has been paid a customary investment banking fee for its services in connection with delivery of its opinion, and will be reimbursed by HBI for certain of its expenses.

Opinion of FBBI's Financial Advisor (page 43)

On June 17, 2015, Hovde Group, LLC ("Hovde"), FBBI's financial advisor in connection with the merger, provided the FBBI board of directors with an overview of its analyses performed as of the date of the meeting and advised the board that its analyses were as of such date and based upon and subject to various qualifications and assumptions described in the meeting. Hovde delivered its opinion to the board on June 17, 2015, that, as of such date and subject to and based upon the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of FBBI.

The full text of Hovde's opinion, dated June 17, 2015, is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a discussion of, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and any limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde in rendering its opinion.

Hovde's opinion is addressed to FBBI's board of directors and addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration to be received by FBBI shareholders from a financial point of view and does not address the merits of the underlying decision by FBBI to enter into the Merger Agreement, the merits to the merger as compared to other alternatives potentially available to FBBI or the relative effects of any alternative transaction in which FBBI might engage. Hovde will be paid a fee for its services in connection with the delivery of its opinion, and will be reimbursed by FBBI for certain of its expenses.

Interests of FBBI Directors and Officers in the Merger (page 96)

Edgar Filing: HOME BANCSHARES INC - Form S-4

Certain of FBBI's directors and officers may have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of FBBI, including, but not limited to, (i) share issuances or cash payments in connection with the termination of their stock options; (ii) cash payments in connection with the termination of their employment agreements and separation pay plans; (iii) obligations to vote in favor of the merger; (iv) continuation of employment with Centennial Bank; (v) cash payments in connection with termination of supplemental retirement plans; and (vi) continuation of indemnification after the merger.

HBI has agreed to indemnify present and former directors and officers of FBBI and its subsidiaries against certain costs, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with claims, investigations and other actions arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, and to provide them with director's and officer's liability insurance coverage for a period of six years following the merger, subject to a cap on the expense related to such insurance.

Appraisal Rights (page 36)

FBBI shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Florida Statutes § 607.1301 et seq., a copy of which is attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. Those rights, if properly exercised, will allow a shareholder who does not wish to accept the consideration provided for by the Merger Agreement instead to obtain payment in cash of the fair value of the shareholder's shares of FBBI common stock. If you wish to assert appraisal rights, you must deliver to FBBI, at or prior to the FBBI special meeting, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the proposed merger is consummated and you must not vote for approval of the Merger Proposal. The procedure for dissenting is described in more detail in The Merger section under the heading Appraisal Rights.

HBI shareholders are not entitled to any appraisal or dissenters' rights.

Regulatory Matters (page 39)

Each of HBI and FBBI has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve Board, the Arkansas State Bank Department and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation, among others. HBI and FBBI have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications and notifications to obtain these regulatory approvals. There can be no assurances that such approvals will be received on a timely basis, or as to the ability of HBI and FBBI to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of litigation challenging such approvals. See The Merger Regulatory Approvals.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 66)

Currently, HBI and FBBI expect to complete the merger late in the third quarter or early in the fourth quarter of 2015. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 67)

The Merger Agreement can be terminated at any time prior to completion of the merger by mutual consent, or by either party in the following circumstances:

a governmental entity that must grant a required regulatory approval has denied approval and such denial has become final and non-appealable, or an injunction or legal prohibition against the transaction becomes final and non-appealable;

the merger has not been consummated by December 31, 2015, or under certain circumstances, February 28, 2016 (unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform or observe its covenants and agreements);

the other party breaches any of its covenants or agreements or representations or warranties under the Merger Agreement in a manner that would cause the closing conditions not to be satisfied and which is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing the breach, or the breach, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement);

FBBI's shareholders fail to approve the Merger Proposal, provided that the failure to obtain such shareholder approval was not caused by the terminating party's material breach of any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement; or if the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI's Common Stock for the twenty (20) days prior to the Closing Date is less than or equal to $24.58 per share.

Additionally, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by (i) FBBI in order to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), upon payment to HBI of a termination fee $4,000,000, (ii) HBI, if the holders of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of FBBI common stock provide notice of dissent and do not vote in favor of the merger, or (iii) HBI, if certain covenants have not been met by FBBI or its board of directors or if FBBI's Board of Directors has recommended or publicly announced its intention to enter into a Superior Proposal.

Expenses and Termination Fees (pages 67 and 68)

Except for the registration fee and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger, which will be paid by HBI, and any termination fees, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger (including the costs and expense of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus) will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses.

FBBI is required to pay HBI a termination fee of $4,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated by FBBI in order to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or is terminated by HBI because (i) FBBI violated the no solicitation provision of the Merger Agreement; (ii) the board of directors of FBBI failed to recommend the merger; (iii) the FBBI board of directors has recommended, proposed, or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose to engage in a transaction resulting in a Superior Proposal; or (iv) FBBI has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold the FBBI shareholder meeting in accordance with the Merger Agreement.

FBBI shareholders will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

to approve the Merger Agreement (the Merger Proposal); and to approve one or more adjournments of the FBBI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal (the Adjournment Proposal).

Approval of the Merger Proposal is required for the completion of the merger. FBBI's board of directors recommends that FBBI shareholders vote FOR the proposals set forth above. For further discussion of the FBBI special meeting, see FBBI Special Meeting of Shareholders.

Table of Contents

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires an affirmative vote by the holders of at least 66% of the outstanding shares of common stock of FBBI. Certain directors and officers have entered into voting agreements pursuant to which they have agreed to vote approximately 3,594,125 shares in favor of the merger. These shares represent approximately 46.0% of the FBBI common stock entitled to vote at the FBBI special meeting.

Rights of FBBI Shareholders Will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 76)

The rights of FBBI shareholders are governed by Florida law and by FBBI's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Upon the completion of the merger, FBBI shareholders will no longer have any direct interest in FBBI. Those FBBI shareholders receiving shares of HBI common stock as merger consideration will only participate in the combined company's future earnings and potential growth through their ownership of HBI common stock. All of the other incidents of direct stock ownership in FBBI will be extinguished upon completion of the merger. The rights of former FBBI shareholders that become HBI shareholders will be governed by Arkansas law and HBI's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Therefore, FBBI shareholders that receive HBI common stock in the merger will have different rights once they become HBI shareholders. See Comparison of Rights of Holders of HBI and FBBI Common Stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including HBI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and the matters addressed under the caption "Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements," FBBI shareholders should consider the matters described below carefully in determining whether to vote to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of HBI common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of each share of HBI common stock that you will receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of FBBI common stock (other than shares owned by FBBI) will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of cash and shares of HBI common stock, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. The value of each share of HBI common stock to be received by FBBI shareholders will be based on the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock during the 20 trading day period immediately before the date the merger closes. This average price may vary from the closing price of HBI common stock on the date that the merger was announced, on the date that this proxy statement/prospectus was mailed to FBBI shareholders, on the date of the special meeting of the FBBI shareholders, and on the date the merger is completed. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations, among other things. Many of these factors are beyond the control of HBI and FBBI. FBBI shareholders should obtain current market quotations for shares of HBI common stock before voting their shares at the FBBI special meeting.

The number of shares of HBI common stock to be issued to FBBI shareholders in connection with the merger is subject to certain collars, which could materially impact the value of the merger consideration payable to FBBI shareholders.

The Merger Agreement provides for a fixed price structure, which means that, based upon the HBI Average Closing Price, the number of shares of HBI common stock to be issued to FBBI shareholders in connection with the merger will be adjusted so that the Purchase Price will be $101,576,813 if the shares of HBI common stock are valued at the HBI Average Closing Price. The number of shares of HBI common stock to be issued in connection with the merger, however, are subject to a minimum and maximum amount, which is sometimes referred to as a collar. Under the Merger Agreement, if the calculation of the HBI Average Closing Price results in a number greater than or equal to $39.12, the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $39.12. Similarly, if the calculation of the HBI Average Closing Price results in a number less than or equal to $28.92, the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $28.92. As a result, if the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock is greater than $39.12, the Purchase Price (valued using the HBI Average Closing Price) will be more than $101,576,813, and if the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock is less than $28.92, the Purchase Price (valued using the HBI Average Closing Price) will be less than $101,576,813.

If the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock is less than $28.92, FBBI will continue to be obligated to complete the merger, assuming that all other conditions to closing the merger are satisfied. Even though FBBI (and HBI) would have a termination right if the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock is less than $24.58, FBBI may not choose to exercise such termination right. Therefore, the value of the merger consideration to be received by FBBI shareholders may be materially less than $101,576,813.

Payment of a portion of the cash consideration for the merger is contingent on the outcome of litigation currently outstanding against BCB and will not be distributed to FBBI shareholders, if at all, for up to two years after the merger.

Contingent cash consideration of $2,000,000 will be held in escrow for up to two years to reimburse HBI for potential losses in connection with two class-action lawsuits currently outstanding against BCB. This portion of the Purchase Price will only be distributed to FBBI shareholders after the losses, if any, from such litigation are determined and only to the extent the escrowed amount exceeds such losses, if any. Therefore, the per-share cash consideration you receive following the merger will be reduced by the resulting pro rata portion of the escrowed consideration. Depending on the outcome of this litigation, it is possible you may not receive any of the contingent cash consideration. Further, any contingent cash consideration available for distribution will not be paid to the FBBI shareholders for up to two years after the merger.

HBI may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on HBI's ability to successfully combine the HBI and FBBI organizations. If HBI is not able to achieve this objective, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer than expected to be realized.

HBI and FBBI have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process or other factors could result in the loss or departure of key employees, the disruption of the ongoing business of FBBI or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. It is also possible that clients, customers, depositors and counterparties of FBBI could choose to discontinue their relationships with the combined company post-merger because they prefer doing business with FBBI or for any other reason, which would adversely affect the future performance of the combined company. These transition matters could have an adverse effect on each of HBI and FBBI during the pre-merger period and for an undetermined time after the completion of the merger.

The results of operations of HBI after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the results of operations of HBI and FBBI.

The businesses of HBI and FBBI differ in certain respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of HBI's common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of HBI and FBBI. For a discussion of the business of HBI and certain factors to be considered in connection with HBI's business, see Information Concerning Home BancShares and the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information. For a discussion of the business of FBBI, see Information Concerning FBBI.

The Merger Agreement limits FBBI's ability to pursue an alternative transaction and requires FBBI to pay a termination fee under certain circumstances relating to alternative acquisition proposals.

The Merger Agreement prohibits FBBI from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or knowingly facilitating certain alternative acquisition proposals with any third party, subject to exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also provides for the payment by FBBI to HBI of a termination fee of $4,000,000 in the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated in connection with another acquisition proposal or under certain other circumstances. These provisions may discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring FBBI from considering or proposing such an acquisition. See The Merger Agreement Termination; Termination Fee included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The fairness opinions that HBI and FBBI have obtained, have not been, and are not expected to be, updated to reflect any changes in circumstances that may have occurred since the signing of the Merger Agreement.

The fairness opinions issued to HBI and FBBI, regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in connection with the merger, speak only as of their date of delivery. Changes in the operations and prospects of HBI or FBBI, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of HBI and FBBI, and on which each of the fairness opinions was based, may have altered the value of HBI or FBBI or the market prices of shares of HBI or FBBI as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, or may alter such values and market prices by the time the merger is completed. The financial advisors do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm their respective opinions to reflect subsequent developments, and have not done so. Because HBI and FBBI do not currently anticipate asking their financial advisors to update their opinions, the opinions will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view at the time the merger is completed. FBBI's board of directors' recommendation that FBBI shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement is, however, made as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinions that HBI and FBBI received from their financial advisors, see "Opinion of HBI's Financial Advisor" and "Opinion of FBBI's Financial Advisor" included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from governmental entities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals and consents must be obtained from the Federal Reserve Board, the Arkansas State Bank Department, the Florida Office of Financial Regulation and various other securities, antitrust, and regulatory authorities. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals and consents. Although HBI and FBBI do not currently expect that any such material conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger. In addition, each of HBI and FBBI has agreed to use its commercially reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law to consummate the merger. Such actions may entail costs and may adversely affect HBI, FBBI, or the combined company following the merger.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may adversely affect FBBI.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and approval of the FBBI shareholders. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, the merger will not be completed. In addition, HBI and FBBI may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances even if the Merger Agreement is approved by FBBI shareholders. If HBI and FBBI do not complete the merger, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. If the merger is not completed and FBBI's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, FBBI shareholders cannot be certain that FBBI will be able to find a party willing to offer equivalent or more attractive consideration than the consideration HBI has agreed to provide in the merger. If the merger is not completed, additional risks could materialize, which could materially and adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of FBBI. For more information on closing conditions to the Merger Agreement, see "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to the Merger" included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses related to the merger.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses in connection with completing the merger and combining the business, operations, networks, systems, technologies, policies and procedures of the two companies. Although HBI and FBBI have assumed that a certain level of transaction and combination expenses would be incurred, there are a number of factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of their combination expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. Due to these factors, the transaction and combination expenses associated with the merger could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that the combined company expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings related to the combination of the businesses following the completion of the merger. As a result of these expenses, both HBI and FBBI expect to take charges against their earnings before and after the completion of the merger. The charges taken in connection with the merger are expected to be significant, although the aggregate amount and timing of such charges are uncertain at present.

Shares of HBI common stock to be received by FBBI shareholders as a result of the merger will have rights different from the shares of FBBI common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, the rights of former FBBI shareholders who receive HBI common stock in the merger and thereby become HBI shareholders will be governed by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of HBI and by Arkansas law. The rights associated with FBBI common stock are different from the rights associated with HBI common stock. See Comparison of Rights of Holders of HBI and FBBI Common Stock beginning on page 76 for a discussion of the different rights associated with HBI common stock.

You may not receive the type or mix of merger consideration that you elect.

Upon completion of the merger, FBBI shareholders will have the option to elect to receive their merger consideration in all cash, all shares of HBI common stock, or a combination thereof. This election right will be subject to two important limitations. First, any contingent consideration will be paid in cash, and second, elections will be adjusted so that the value of the aggregate merger consideration is comprised of 20% cash and 80% HBI common stock, assuming the HBI common stock is valued at the HBI Average Closing Price and that the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock for the 20 trading days prior to closing is not less than $28.92 nor more than $39.12.

As a result, you may not receive the type or mix of merger consideration that you elect. If you do not receive the type or mix of merger consideration that you elect, the tax consequences of the merger on you may be different from the consequences that you had planned. In addition, because the value of HBI common stock fluctuates, a change in the mix of merger consideration that you receive could affect the value of the merger consideration that you receive.

Certain FBBI directors and officers may have interests in the merger different from the interests of FBBI shareholders.

In considering the recommendations of the board of directors of FBBI, FBBI shareholders should be aware that certain directors and officers of FBBI have interests in the merger that may differ from, or may be in addition to, the interests of FBBI shareholders generally. The board of directors of FBBI was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it adopted the Merger Agreement and in making its recommendations that the FBBI shareholders approve the Merger Proposal. These interests include:

Certain FBBI directors and officers may receive cash payments in connection with the termination of their stock options;

Certain FBBI officers are parties to employment agreements that provide severance and other benefits upon or following a change in control of FBBI in connection with a qualifying termination of employment;

FBBI directors and officers are entitled to indemnification and insurance coverage under the Merger Agreement; and Certain FBBI officers will be offered continued employment with Centennial Bank at salaries agreed upon by the officer and Centennial Bank.

For a more complete description of the interests of FBBI directors and officers in the merger, see The Merger Interests of FBBI's Directors and Officers in the Merger.

Risk Factors Relating to HBI and HBI's Business.

HBI's decisions regarding credit risk could be inaccurate and its allowance for loan losses may be inadequate, which would materially and adversely affect HBI.

HBI's management makes various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of its loan portfolio, including the creditworthiness of its borrowers and the value of the real estate and other assets serving as collateral for the repayment of its secured loans. HBI endeavors to maintain an allowance for loan losses that it considers adequate to absorb future losses that may occur in its loan portfolio. In determining the size of the allowance, HBI analyzes its loan portfolio based on its historical loss experience, volume and classification of loans, volume and trends in delinquencies and non-accruals, national and local economic conditions, and other pertinent information. During the first three months of 2015, the allowance for loan losses for non-covered loans increased by 0.5%. As of March 31, 2015, HBI's allowance for loan losses for non-covered loans was approximately $52.7 million, or 1.07% of its total loans receivable not covered by loss share.

If HBI's assumptions are incorrect, its current allowance may be insufficient to absorb future loan losses, and increased loan loss reserves may be needed to respond to different economic conditions or adverse developments in its loan portfolio. When there is an economic downturn, it is more difficult for HBI to estimate the losses that it will experience in its loan portfolio. In addition, federal and state regulators periodically review its allowance for loan losses and may require HBI to increase its allowance for loan losses or recognize further loan charge-offs based on judgments different than those of its management. Any increase in its allowance for loan losses or loan charge-offs could have a negative effect on HBI's operating results.

HBI's high concentration of real estate loans exposes it to increased lending risk.

As of March 31, 2015, the primary composition of HBI's total loan portfolio was as follows:

commercial real estate loans (excludes construction/land development) of $2.18 billion, or 42.8% of total loans;

construction/land development loans of $759.1 million, or 14.9% of total loans;

commercial and industrial loans of $647.3 million, or 12.7% of total loans;

residential real estate loans of $1.33 billion, or 26.1% of total loans; and consumer loans of $51.9 million, or 1.0% of total loans.

Commercial real estate, construction/land development and commercial and industrial loans, which comprised 70.4% of HBI's total loan portfolio as of March 31, 2015, expose it to a greater risk of loss than HBI's residential real estate and consumer loans, which comprised 27.1% of its total loan portfolio as of March 31, 2015. Commercial real estate and land development loans typically involve larger loan balances to single borrowers or groups of related borrowers compared to residential loans. Consequently, an adverse development with respect to one commercial loan or one credit relationship exposes HBI to a significantly greater risk of loss compared to an adverse development with respect to one residential mortgage loan.

Approximately 87.4% of HBI's loans as of March 31, 2015, are to borrowers in Alabama, Arkansas and Florida, the three states in which HBI has its primary market areas. An adverse development with respect to the market conditions of these specific market areas could expose HBI to a greater risk of loss than a portfolio that is spread among a larger geographic base.

HBI's concentration in commercial real estate loans exposes it to greater risk associated with those types of loans. The repayment of loans secured by commercial real estate is typically dependent upon the successful operation of the related real estate or commercial project. If the cash flows from the project are reduced, a borrower's ability to repay the loan may be impaired. This cash flow shortage may result in the failure to make loan payments. In such cases, HBI may be compelled to modify the terms of the loan, or in the most extreme cases, it may have to foreclose. In addition, the nature of these loans is such that they are generally less predictable and more difficult to evaluate and monitor. As a result, repayment of these loans may, to a greater extent than residential loans, be subject to adverse conditions in the real estate market or economy.

HBI has 83.8% of its loans as real estate loans primarily in Arkansas, Florida and South Alabama, and this poses a concentration risk, especially if the Florida area does not continue to improve or once again deteriorates resulting in depressed sales prices and low sales, combined with increased delinquencies and foreclosures on residential and commercial real estate loans.

Depressed local economic and housing markets have led to loan losses and reduced earnings in the past and could lead to additional loan losses and reduced earnings.

During the latter years of the last decade the Florida markets experienced a dramatic reduction in housing and real estate values, coupled with significantly higher unemployment. These conditions contributed to increased non-performing loans and reduced asset quality during this time period. While market conditions in the Florida markets improved in recent years leading to resulting improvements in HBI's non-performing loans and asset quality, any similar future economic downturn or deterioration in real estate values could cause HBI to incur additional losses relating to increased non-performing loans. HBI does not record interest income on non-accrual loans or other real estate owned, thereby adversely affecting its income, and its loan administration costs. When HBI takes collateral in foreclosures and similar proceedings, it is required to mark the related loan to the then-fair market value of the collateral, which may result in a loss. These loans and other real estate owned also increase its risk profile and the capital HBI's regulators believe is appropriate in light of such risks. In addition, the resolution of non-performing assets requires significant commitments of time from management and HBI's directors, which can be detrimental to the performance of their other responsibilities. These effects, individually or in the aggregate, could have an adverse effect on HBI's financial condition and results of operations.

Additionally, HBI's success significantly depends upon the growth in population, income levels, deposits and housing starts in its markets. If the communities in which HBI operates do not grow or if prevailing economic conditions deteriorate locally or nationally, HBI's business may be adversely affected. HBI is less able than a larger institution to spread the risks of unfavorable local economic conditions across a large number of diversified economies. Moreover, HBI cannot give any assurance it will benefit from any market growth or favorable economic conditions in its primary market areas if they do occur.

If the value of real estate in the Florida markets were to once again deteriorate, a significant portion of HBI's loans in the Florida market that were not acquired from the FDIC could become under-collateralized, which could have a material adverse effect on HBI.

As of March 31, 2015, non-covered loans in the Florida market totaled $1.40 billion, or 28.3% of HBI's non-covered loans receivable. Of the Florida loans for which HBI does not have loss sharing, approximately 24.9% were secured by real estate. In the prior years, the difficult local economic conditions have adversely affected the values of HBI's real estate collateral in Florida and it could do so again if the markets were to once again deteriorate in the future. The real estate collateral in each case provides an alternate source of repayment on HBI's loans in the event of default by the borrower but may deteriorate in value during the time credit is extended. If HBI is required to liquidate the collateral securing a loan to satisfy the debt during a period of reduced real estate values, HBI's earnings and capital could be adversely affected.

Table of Contents

Because HBI has a concentration of exposure to a number of individual borrowers, a significant loss on any of those loans could materially and adversely affect HBI.

HBI has a concentration of exposure to a number of individual borrowers. Under applicable law, Centennial Bank is generally permitted to make loans to one borrowing relationship up to 20% of its Tier 1 capital plus the allowance for loan losses. As of March 31, 2015, the legal lending limit of Centennial Bank for secured loans was approximately $144.5 million. Currently, HBI's board of directors has established an in-house lending limit of $20.0 million to any one borrowing relationship without obtaining the approval of both HBI's Chairman John W. Allison and HBI's director Richard H. Ashley. Currently, HBI has a total of $1.24 billion committed to the aggregate group of borrowers whose total debt exceeds HBI's established in-house lending limit of $20.0 million.

HBI's cost of funds may increase as a result of general economic conditions, interest rates and competitive pressures.

HBI's cost of funds may increase as a result of general economic conditions, interest rates and competitive pressures. HBI has traditionally obtained funds principally through local deposits, and HBI has a base of lower cost transaction deposits. Generally, HBI believes local deposits are a more stable source of funds than other borrowings because interest rates paid for local deposits are typically lower than interest rates charged for borrowings from other institutional lenders. In addition, local deposits reflect a mix of transaction and time deposits, whereas brokered deposits typically are less stable time deposits, which may need to be replaced with higher cost funds. HBI's costs of funds and its profitability and liquidity are likely to be adversely affected, if and to the extent HBI has to rely upon higher cost borrowings from other institutional lenders or brokers to fund loan demand or liquidity needs, and changes in HBI's deposit mix and growth could adversely affect its profitability and the ability to expand its loan portfolio.

The loss of key officers may materially and adversely affect HBI.

HBI's success depends significantly on the Chairman, John W. Allison, and HBI's executive officers, especially C. Randall Sims, Randy E. Mayor, Brian S. Davis and Kevin D. Hester, plus Centennial Bank's Chief Executive Officer and President, Tracy French, and its regional bank presidents, Robert F. Birch, Russell D. Carter, III and Jim F. Haynes, Jr. Centennial Bank, in particular, relies heavily on its management team's relationships in its local communities to generate business. Because HBI does not have employment agreements or non-compete agreements with its executive officers and regional bank presidents, these employees are free to resign at any time and accept an employment offer from another company, including a competitor. The loss of services from a member of HBI's current management team may materially and adversely affect its business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

HBI's growth and expansion strategy may not be successful and its market value and profitability may suffer.

Growth through the acquisition of banks, including FDIC-assisted transactions, and de novo branching represent important components of its business strategy. Any future acquisitions that HBI might make will be accompanied by the risks commonly encountered in acquisitions. These risks include, among other things:

credit risk associated with the acquired bank's loans and investments;

difficulty of integrating operations and personnel; and potential disruption of its ongoing business.

HBI expects that competition for suitable acquisition candidates may be significant. HBI may compete with other banks or financial service companies with similar acquisition strategies, many of which are larger and have greater financial and other resources. HBI cannot assure you that it will be able to successfully identify and acquire suitable acquisition targets on acceptable terms and conditions.

In the current economic environment, HBI may continue to have opportunities to acquire the assets and liabilities of failed banks in FDIC-assisted transactions. These acquisitions involve risks similar to acquiring existing banks even though the FDIC might provide assistance to mitigate certain risks such as sharing in exposure to loan losses and providing indemnification against certain liabilities of the failed institution. However, because these acquisitions are structured in a manner that would not allow HBI the time normally associated with preparing for integration of an acquired institution, HBI may face additional risks in FDIC-assisted transactions. These risks include, among other things, the loss of customers, strain on management resources related to collection and management of problem loans and problems related to integration of personnel and operating systems.

In addition to the acquisition of existing financial institutions, as opportunities arise, HBI plans to have some de novo branching. De novo branching and any acquisition carry with them numerous risks, including the following:

the inability to obtain all required regulatory approvals;

significant costs and anticipated operating losses associated with establishing a de novo branch or a new bank;

the inability to secure the services of qualified senior management;

the local market may not accept the services of a new bank owned and managed by a bank holding company headquartered outside of the market area of the new bank;

economic downturns in the new market;

the inability to obtain attractive locations within a new market at a reasonable cost; and the additional strain on management resources and internal systems and controls.

HBI cannot assure that it will be successful in overcoming these risks or any other problems encountered in connection with acquisitions (including FDIC-assisted transactions) and de novo branching. HBI's inability to overcome these risks could have an adverse effect on its ability to achieve its business strategy and maintain its market value and profitability.

HBI's loss-sharing agreements with the FDIC limit its ability to enter into certain change of control transactions, including the sale of significant amounts of its common stock by HBI or its shareholders, without the consent of the FDIC.

The loss-sharing agreements that HBI entered into with the FDIC in connection with its FDIC-assisted acquisitions require the consent of the FDIC in connection with certain change of control transactions, including the sale by HBI or by any individual shareholder, or group of shareholders acting in concert, of shares of its common stock totaling more than 9% of its outstanding common stock. This requirement could restrict or delay HBI's ability to raise additional capital to fund acquisition or growth opportunities or for other purposes, or to pursue a merger or consolidation transaction that management may believe is in the best interest of its shareholders. This could also restrict or delay the ability of HBI's shareholders to sell a substantial amount of its shares. In addition, if such a transaction were to occur without the FDIC's consent, HBI could lose the benefit of the loss-share coverage provided by these agreements for certain covered assets.

There may be undiscovered risks or losses associated with HBI's bank acquisitions which would have a negative impact upon its future income.

HBI's growth strategy includes strategic acquisitions of banks. HBI has acquired 18 banks since it started its first subsidiary bank in 1999, including six in 2010, three in 2012, one in 2013, two in 2014 and one in 2015 and will continue to consider strategic acquisitions, with a primary focus on Arkansas, Florida, South Alabama and other nearby markets. In most cases, HBI's acquisition of a bank includes the acquisition of all of the target bank's assets and liabilities, including its loan portfolio. There may be instances when HBI, under its normal operating procedures, may find after the acquisition that there may be additional losses or undisclosed liabilities with respect to the assets and liabilities of the target bank, and, with respect to its loan portfolio, that the ability of a borrower to repay a loan may have become impaired, the quality of the value of the collateral securing a loan may fall below HBI's standards, or the allowance for loan losses may not be adequate. One or more of these factors might cause HBI to have additional losses or liabilities, additional loan charge-offs, or increases in allowances for loan losses, which would have a negative impact upon HBI's financial condition and results of operations.

Changes in national and local economic conditions could lead to higher loan charge-offs in connection with HBI's acquisitions.

In connection with HBI's acquisitions since 2010, it has acquired a significant portfolio of loans. Although HBI marked down the loan portfolios it has acquired, there is no assurance that the non-impaired loans acquired by HBI will not become impaired or that the impaired loans will not suffer further deterioration in value resulting in additional charge-offs to the acquired loan portfolio. Fluctuations in national, regional and local economic conditions, including those related to local residential and commercial real estate and construction markets, may increase the level of charge-offs HBI makes to its loan portfolio, and, may consequently, reduce its net income. Such fluctuations may also increase the level of charge-offs on the loan portfolios HBI has acquired in the acquisitions and correspondingly reduce HBI's net income. These fluctuations are not predictable, cannot be controlled and may have a material adverse impact on HBI's operations and financial condition even if other favorable events occur.

Although in connection with the 2010 FDIC-assisted acquisitions HBI entered into loss sharing agreements with the FDIC, which provide a significant portion of losses related to specified loan portfolios HBI acquired will be indemnified by the FDIC, HBI is not protected from all losses resulting from charge-offs with respect to those specified loan portfolios. Additionally, the loss sharing agreements have limited terms, which begin to expire in 2015; therefore, any charge-off of related losses that HBI experiences after the term of the loss sharing agreements will not be reimbursed by the FDIC and will negatively impact HBI's net income.

The expiration of HBI's loss sharing agreements in connection with its 2010 FDIC-assisted acquisitions may result in write-downs to HBI's FDIC indemnification asset to the extent expected loan losses do not occur within the loss share coverage window, which could have a material adverse effect on HBI's financial condition.

In conjunction with HBI's FDIC-assisted transactions, HBI entered into loss sharing agreements with the FDIC which cover realized losses on loans, foreclosed real estate and certain other assets. These agreements are recorded as assets on HBI's consolidated balance sheet to the extent of the expected loss share indemnification. These loss share assets are measured separately from the loan portfolios because they are not contractually embedded in the loans and are not transferable with the loans should HBI choose to dispose of them. Fair values at the acquisition dates were estimated based on projected cash flows available for loss share based on the credit adjustments estimated for each loan pool and the loss share percentages.

Subsequent to the acquisition date, reimbursements received from the FDIC for actual incurred losses will reduce the loss share assets. Reductions to expected credit losses, to the extent such reductions to expected credit losses are the result of an improvement to the actual or expected cash flows from the covered assets, will also reduce the loss share assets. Increases in expected credit losses will require an increase to the allowance for loan losses and a corresponding increase to the loss share assets. As the loss share agreements approach the various expiration dates, there could be unexpected volatility in the indemnification asset as future expected loan losses might become projected to occur outside of the loss share coverage reimbursement window. If the loan losses projected to occur outside the loss share coverage reimbursement period are substantial, the resulting reductions in HBI's FDIC indemnification asset could have a material adverse effect on HBI's financial condition.

HBI's acquisitions have caused it to modify its disclosure controls and procedures, which may not result in the material information that it is required to disclose in its SEC reports being recorded, processed, summarized, and reported timely.

HBI's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to cause the material information that it is required to disclose in reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), to be recorded, processed, summarized, and reported to the extent applicable within the time periods required by the SEC's rules and forms. As a result of its acquisitions, HBI may be implementing changes to processes, information technology systems and other components of internal control over financial reporting as part of its integration activities. Notwithstanding any changes to its disclosure controls and procedures resulting from its evaluation of the same after the acquisition, its control systems, no matter how well designed and operated, may not result in the material information that HBI is required to disclose in its SEC reports being recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within required time periods. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within HBI has been detected.

HBI's failure to fully comply with the loss-sharing provisions relating to its FDIC acquisitions could jeopardize the loss-share coverage afforded to certain individual or pools of assets, rendering HBI financially responsible for the full amount of any losses related to such assets.

In connection with its FDIC acquisitions in 2010, HBI entered into loss-sharing agreements with the FDIC whereby the FDIC agreed to cover 70% or 80% of the losses on certain single family residential mortgage loans and certain commercial loans (together, covered assets), and 30%, 80% or 95% of the losses on such covered assets in excess of thresholds stated in the loss-sharing agreements. HBI's management of and application of the terms and conditions of the loss-sharing provisions of the Purchase and Assumption Agreements related to the covered assets is monitored by the FDIC through periodic reports that it must submit to the FDIC and on-site compliance visitations by the FDIC. If HBI fails to fully comply with its obligations under the loss-sharing provisions of the Purchase and Assumption Agreements relating to the acquisitions, HBI could lose the benefit of the loss-share coverage as it applies to certain individual or pools of covered assets. Without such loss-share coverage, HBI would be solely financially responsible for the losses sustained by such individual or pools of assets.

Competition from other financial institutions may adversely affect HBI's profitability.

The banking business is highly competitive. HBI experiences strong competition, not only from commercial banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions, but also from mortgage banking firms, consumer finance companies, securities brokerage firms, insurance companies, money market funds and other financial services providers operating in or near its market areas. HBI competes with these institutions both in attracting deposits and in making loans.

Many of HBI's competitors are much larger national and regional financial institutions. HBI may face a competitive disadvantage against them as a result of its smaller size and resources and its lack of geographic diversification. Many of HBI's competitors are not subject to the same degree of regulation that HBI is as an FDIC-insured institution, which gives them greater operating flexibility and reduces their expenses relative to HBI's.

HBI also competes against community banks that have strong local ties. These smaller institutions are likely to cater to the same small and mid-sized businesses that HBI targets and to use a relationship-based approach similar to HBI's. In addition, HBI's competitors may seek to gain market share by pricing below the current market rates for loans and paying higher rates for deposits.

Additionally, in July 2013, the three year-moratorium on banks affiliated with non-financial businesses under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (which we refer to as the Dodd-Frank Act) expired. When the Dodd-Frank Act was enacted in 2010, a moratorium was imposed that prohibited the FDIC from approving deposit insurance for certain banks controlled by non-financial commercial enterprises. The expiration of the moratorium could result in an increase of traditionally non-financial enterprises entering the banking space, which could increase the number of competitors. Competitive pressures can adversely affect HBI's results of operations and future prospects.

Table of Contents

HBI may incur environmental liabilities with respect to properties to which it takes title.

A significant portion of HBI's loan portfolio is secured by real property. In the course of its business, HBI may own or foreclose and take title to real estate and could become subject to environmental liabilities with respect to these properties. HBI may become responsible to a governmental agency or third parties for property damage, personal injury, investigation and clean-up costs incurred by those parties in connection with environmental contamination, or may be required to investigate or clean-up hazardous or toxic substances, or chemical releases at a property. The costs associated with environmental investigation or remediation activities could be substantial. If HBI were to become subject to significant environmental liabilities, it could have a material adverse effect on HBI's results of operations and financial condition.

If HBI's bank subsidiary's assets exceed $10 billion in the future, its change in status under the federal bank regulatory framework will result in increased compliance costs for the bank subsidiary, which could affect HBI's operating results.

Among other things, the Dodd-Frank Act created the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (the CFPB), which has broad regulatory and enforcement powers over consumer financial products and services. Banks with total assets of more than $10 billion are subject to certain capital testing regulations which are not applicable to smaller banks and, further, the CFPB has exclusive or primary authority to examine banks with more than $10 billion for, and enforce compliance with, the federal consumer financial protection laws. As of March 31, 2015, HBI's bank subsidiary had $7.5 billion in assets. On a pro forma basis assuming completion of the merger, HBI's bank subsidiary would have had $8 billion in assets as of March 31, 2015. In the event that HBI's bank subsidiary's total assets exceed $10 billion at the end of four consecutive quarters in the future, the bank subsidiary would become subject to additional requirements and regulations and CFPB supervision, examination and enforcement. The bank subsidiary expects that it would have increased compliance costs as a result of a change of status, which could affect HBI's operating results.

HBI continually encounters technological change, and it may have fewer resources than many of its competitors to continue to invest in technological improvements.

The financial services industry is undergoing rapid technological changes, with frequent introductions of new technology-driven products and services. In addition to better serving customers, effective use of technology increases efficiency and enables financial institutions to reduce costs. HBI's future success will depend, in part, upon its ability to address the needs of its customers by using technology to provide products and services that will satisfy customer demands for convenience, as well as to create additional efficiencies in its operations. Many of HBI's competitors have substantially greater resources to invest in technological improvements. HBI may not be able to effectively implement new technology-driven products and services or be successful in marketing these products and services to its clients, which may adversely affect its results of operations and future prospects.

A failure in or breach of HBI's operational or security systems, or those of its third party service providers, including as a result of cyber-attacks, could disrupt HBI's business, result in unintentional disclosure or misuse of confidential or proprietary information, damage its reputation, increase its costs and cause losses.

As a financial institution, HBI's operations rely heavily on the secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential and other information on its computer systems and networks. Any failure, interruption or breach in security or operational integrity of these systems could result in failures or disruptions in its online banking system, customer relationship management, general ledger, deposit and loan servicing and other systems. The security and integrity of its systems could be threatened by a variety of interruptions or information security breaches, including those caused by computer hacking, cyber-attacks, electronic fraudulent activity or attempted theft of financial assets. HBI cannot assure you that any such failures, interruption or security breaches will not occur, or if they do occur that they will be adequately addressed. While HBI has certain protective policies and procedures in place, the nature and sophistication of the threats continue to evolve. HBI may be required to expend significant additional resources in the future to modify and enhance its protective measures.

Additionally, HBI faces the risk of operational disruption, failure, termination or capacity constraints of any of the third parties that facilitate its business activities, including exchanges, clearing agents, clearing houses or other financial intermediaries. Such parties could also be the source of an attack on, or breach of, HBI's operational systems. Any failures, interruptions or security breaches in HBI's information systems could damage its reputation, result in a loss of customer business, result in a violation of privacy or other laws, or expose HBI to civil litigation, regulatory fines or losses not covered by insurance.

HBI's recent results do not indicate its future results and may not provide guidance to assess the risk of an investment in its common stock.

HBI is unlikely to sustain its historical rate of growth, and may not even be able to expand its business at all. Further, HBI's recent growth may distort some of its historical financial ratios and statistics. Various factors, such as economic conditions, regulatory and legislative considerations and competition, may also impede or prohibit HBI's ability to expand its market presence. If HBI is not able to successfully grow its business, HBI's financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

HBI may not be able to raise the additional capital it needs to grow and, as a result, its ability to expand its operations could be materially impaired.

Federal and state regulatory authorities require HBI and its bank subsidiary to maintain adequate levels of capital to support its operations. While HBI believes that its existing capital (which well exceeds the federal and state capital requirements) will be sufficient to support its current operations, anticipated expansion and potential acquisitions, factors such as faster than anticipated growth, reduced earnings levels, operating losses, changes in economic conditions, revisions in regulatory requirements, or additional acquisition opportunities may lead HBI to seek additional capital.

HBI's ability to raise additional capital, if needed, will depend on its financial performance and on conditions in the capital markets at that time, which are outside its control. If HBI needs additional capital but cannot raise it on terms acceptable to it, HBI's ability to expand its operations could be materially impaired.

HBI's directors and executive officers own a significant portion of its common stock and can exert significant influence over business and corporate affairs.

HBI's directors and executive officers, as a group, beneficially owned 16.0% of its common stock as of December 31, 2014. Consequently, if they vote their shares in concert, they can significantly influence the outcome of all matters submitted to HBI's shareholders for approval, including the election of directors. The interests of its officers and directors may conflict with the interests of other holders of HBI's common stock, and they may take actions affecting HBI with which you disagree.

Hurricanes or other adverse weather events could negatively affect HBI's local economies or disrupt its operations, which would have an adverse effect on it.

Like other coastal areas, HBI's markets in Alabama and Florida are susceptible to hurricanes and tropical storms. Such weather events can disrupt HBI's operations, result in damage to its properties and negatively affect the local economies in which it operates. HBI cannot predict whether or to what extent damage that may be caused by future hurricanes or other weather events will affect its operations or the economies in its market areas, but such weather events could result in a decline in loan originations, a decline in the value or destruction of properties securing its loans and an increase in the delinquencies, foreclosures and loan losses. HBI's business or results of operations may be adversely affected by these and other negative effects of hurricanes or other significant weather events.

Risk Factors Related to Owning HBI's Stock

The holders of HBI's subordinated debentures have rights that are senior to those of HBI's shareholders. If HBI defers payments of interest on its outstanding subordinated debentures or if certain defaults relating to those debentures occur, HBI will be prohibited from declaring or paying dividends or distributions on, and from making liquidation payments with respect to, its common stock.

As of March 31, 2015, HBI had $60.8 million of subordinated debentures issued in connection with trust preferred securities. Payments of the principal and interest on the trust preferred securities are unconditionally guaranteed by HBI. The subordinated debentures are senior to HBI's shares of common stock. As a result, HBI must make payments on the subordinated debentures (and the related trust preferred securities) before any dividends can be paid on its common stock and, in the event of bankruptcy, dissolution or liquidation, the holders of the debentures must be satisfied before any distributions can be made to the holders of HBI's common stock. HBI has the right to defer distributions on the subordinated debentures (and the related trust preferred securities) for up to five years, during which time no dividends may be paid to holders of its capital stock. If HBI elects to defer or if HBI defaults with respect to its obligations to make payments on these subordinated debentures, this would likely have a material adverse effect on the market value of its common stock. Moreover, without notice to or consent from the holders of its common stock, HBI may enter into other financing agreements that limit its ability to purchase or to pay dividends or distributions on its capital stock, including its common stock.

HBI may be unable to, or choose not to, pay dividends on its common stock.

Although HBI has paid a quarterly dividend on its common stock since the second quarter of 2003 and intends to continue this practice, HBI cannot assure you of its ability to continue. HBI's ability to pay dividends is subject to the following factors, among others:

HBI may not have sufficient earnings since its primary source of income, the payment of dividends to it by Centennial Bank, is subject to federal and state laws that limit the ability of that bank to pay dividends.

Federal Reserve Board policy requires bank holding companies to pay cash dividends on common stock only out of net income available over the past year and only if prospective earnings retention is consistent with the organization's expected future needs and financial condition.

Before dividends may be paid on HBI's common stock in any year, payments must be made on its subordinated debentures.

HBI's board of directors may determine that, even though funds are available for dividend payments, retaining the funds for internal uses, such as expansion of its operations, is a better strategy. If HBI fails to pay dividends, capital appreciation, if any, of its common stock may be the sole opportunity for gains on an investment in its common stock. In addition, in the event Centennial Bank becomes unable, due to regulatory restrictions, capital planning needs, or otherwise, to pay dividends to it, HBI may not be able to service its debt, pay its other obligations or pay dividends on its common stock. Accordingly, HBI's inability to receive dividends from its bank subsidiary could also have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations and the value of your investment in HBI's common stock.

HBI s stock trading volume may not provide adequate liquidity for investors.

Although shares of HBI s common stock are listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, the average daily trading volume in the common stock is less than that of other larger financial services companies. A public trading market having the desired characteristics of depth, liquidity and orderliness depends on the presence in the marketplace of a sufficient number of willing buyers and sellers of the common stock at any given time. This presence depends on the individual decisions of investors and general economic and market conditions over which HBI has no control. Given the daily average trading volume of HBI s common stock, significant sales of the common stock in a brief period of time, or the expectation of these sales, could cause a decline in the price of its common stock.

Table of ContentsTHE MERGER

*The following is a discussion of the merger and the material terms of the Merger Agreement between HBI and FBBI. You are urged to read carefully the Merger Agreement in its entirety, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated by reference herein. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. Factual information about HBI and FBBI can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. Additional factual information about HBI can be found in the public filings HBI makes with the SEC, as described in the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information.*

Terms of the Merger

Transaction Structure. HBI's and FBBI's boards of directors have each approved and adopted the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of FBBI by HBI through the direct merger of FBBI with and into HBI, with HBI continuing as the surviving corporation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, BCB will be merged with and into Centennial Bank, which is HBI's wholly owned community bank subsidiary, with Centennial Bank continuing as the surviving corporation in that second-step merger.

Merger Consideration. In the merger, FBBI shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of FBBI common stock, to receive, subject to their elections, as adjusted and as described below, a combination of cash and shares of HBI common stock valued in the aggregate from $99,576,813 to $101,576,813, with 18.3932% to 20% of the total consideration to be paid in cash and 81.6068% to 80% to be paid in shares of HBI common stock. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the total merger consideration (the Purchase Price) will be $101,576,813, subject to a $2,000,000 escrow of contingent consideration. The amount of the Purchase Price described in the previous sentence is based upon the HBI common stock to be issued in the merger being valued at the HBI Average Closing Price and assuming that the HBI Average Closing Price is not less than $28.92 nor greater than $39.12. If calculation of the HBI Average Closing Price results in an amount less than $28.92 or more than $39.12, the amount of the Purchase Price would change. The contingent consideration payable in the merger is to be paid, if at all, to FBBI shareholders after two years to the extent that the escrowed funds are not used to reimburse HBI for losses and expenses associated with certain litigation pending against BCB or at such earlier time that such litigation is resolved.

The total consideration payable to FBBI shareholders will consist of (i) $18,315,363 in cash payable at closing, (ii) $2,000,000 of contingent consideration payable in the future upon certain conditions and (iii) shares of HBI common stock with a total value of $81,261,450, based upon the HBI Average Closing Price and subject to the collars described above. Assuming 7,813,601 shares of FBBI common stock are outstanding immediately before the merger, FBBI shareholders will receive in exchange for each share of FBBI common stock consideration valued at approximately $12.7440 (if contingent consideration is not paid to FBBI shareholders) to $13.00 (if all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders) (the Merger Consideration), consisting of (i) approximately $2.34 in cash payable at closing, (ii) an amount of up to approximately $0.26 in cash payable in the future upon certain conditions, and (iii) shares of HBI common stock valued at approximately $10.40 per share based upon the HBI Average Closing Price and subject to certain collars. FBBI shareholders will have the option to elect a different mix of consideration, subject to certain limitations as described below.

The number of shares of HBI common stock comprising the portion of the per-share Merger Consideration to be paid in shares of HBI common stock will be determined by the volume-weighted average closing price, rounded to the nearest hundredth of a cent, of HBI common stock on The NASDAQ Global Select Market reporting system (based on regular way trading) for the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date the merger closes (the HBI Average Closing Price), provided that (i) if the calculation of the HBI Average Closing Price yields an amount greater than or equal to $39.12, the HBI Average Closing Price shall be deemed to be $39.12 and (ii) if the calculation of the HBI Average Closing Price yields an amount less than or equal to $28.92, the HBI Average Closing Price shall be deemed to be $28.92. The following table illustrates, for a range of potentially applicable HBI Average Closing Prices, the number of shares of HBI common stock that would be exchanged for each share of FBBI common stock, assuming that 7,813,601 shares or 7,956,476 shares (which is equal to the sum of 7,813,601 shares the number of shares outstanding on the date the Merger Agreement was signed, plus 142,875 shares issuable if all FBBI stock options outstanding on the date of the Merger Agreement which have the potential to vest prior to the latest closing date permitted in the Merger Agreement are exercised) of FBBI common stock are outstanding immediately before the merger and based on a Purchase Price of $101,576,813. Exercisable stock options representing a total of 132,875, shares of FBBI common stock were outstanding as of the date the Merger Agreement was signed. Additional stock options representing a total of 10,000 shares of FBBI common stock have the potential to vest prior to the last closing date contemplated by the Agreement. The actual consideration will be based on the actual HBI Average Closing Price, which will be computed at the time of the merger; the HBI Average Closing Prices shown on this table are for illustration only. Cash will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of HBI common stock.

Per-Share Stock Consideration*

* The Per-Share Stock Consideration will be based on the actual HBI Average Closing Price, which will be computed at the time of the merger; the HBI Average Closing Prices shown on this table are for illustration only. Cash will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of HBI common stock.

 On June 17, 2015, the date the Merger Agreement was signed, the closing price of a share of HBI common stock was $35.93. The Merger Agreement provides that if the HBI Average Closing Price is equal to or greater than $39.12, then the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $39.12. Additionally, if the HBI Average Closing Price is equal to or below $28.92, then the HBI Average Closing Price will be deemed to be $28.92.

For illustrative purposes only, assuming the HBI Average Closing Price is $35.93, the Purchase Price is $101,576,813, all contingent consideration is paid, and there are 7,813,601 shares of FBBI common stock outstanding immediately before the merger, a FBBI shareholder, who does not make an Optional Election, holding 100 shares of FBBI common stock will receive $260.00 in cash for the cash portion of the merger consideration, 28 shares of HBI common stock, and $33.96 in cash in lieu of the resulting fractional share.

Based on the assumption that 2,261,660 shares of HBI common stock will be issued to FBBI shareholders (based on a Purchase Price and payment of all contingent consideration, a $35.93 HBI Average Closing Price and no cash in lieu of fractional shares paid), FBBI shareholders would own approximately 3.23% of HBI's common stock after the merger is completed, excluding any shares of HBI common stock they may already own.

Letters of Transmittal

Promptly upon the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration and/or any cash in lieu of fractional shares of HBI common stock (as described below) to each holder of record of certificates or book-entry shares which, immediately prior to the completion of the merger, represented shares of FBBI common stock, whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Additional information relating to the release of the contingent consideration from the escrow to FBBI shareholders is provided as part of the discussion of the Escrow Agreement, which begins at page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Optional Election

In connection with the submission of their letters of transmittal, FBBI shareholders will be permitted to elect to receive their merger consideration in all cash, all HBI common stock, or a combination thereof. Notwithstanding any Optional Elections submitted by FBBI shareholders, any and all contingent consideration relating to the escrow will be paid in cash. In addition, the exchange agent and HBI will make adjustments to Optional Elections to the extent necessary to cause the value of the aggregate merger consideration to consist of 20% cash and 80% HBI common stock based upon the HBI Average Closing Price and assuming the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI common stock for the 20 trading days prior to the closing of the merger is not less than $28.92 nor more than $39.12.

The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion to determine whether any Optional Election has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the election form, and any good faith decision of the exchange agent regarding such matters will be conclusive and binding. Neither HBI nor the exchange agent will be obligated to notify any person of any defect in an election form.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of HBI common stock will be issued upon the surrender of certificates or book-entry shares of FBBI common stock for exchange, and no dividend or distribution with respect to HBI common stock will be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of HBI. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, HBI will pay to each former shareholder of FBBI who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the HBI Average Closing Price by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of FBBI common stock held by such holder at the effective time of the merger and rounded to the nearest thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of HBI common stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Stock Certificates

If a certificate for FBBI common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement upon receipt of an affidavit as to that loss, theft or destruction and, if requested by the exchange agent, the posting of a bond to indemnify the exchange agent against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate. If an FBBI shareholder would like to replace his, her or its stock certificate prior to the closing of the merger, please contact Computershare, transfer agent of FBBI, at (800) 962-4284.

Dividends and Distributions

Until certificates or book-entry shares representing shares of FBBI common stock are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger with respect to HBI common stock into which such shares of FBBI common stock may have been converted will not be paid. Following surrender of any such certificates or book-entry shares, the record holder thereof will be entitled to receive, without interest, any dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger payable with respect to the whole shares of HBI common stock represented by such certificates or book-entry shares and paid prior to the surrender date, and at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to shares of HBI common stock represented by such certificates or book-entry shares with a record date after the effective time of the merger but before the surrender date and with a payment date after the issuance of HBI common stock issuable with respect to such certificates or book-entry shares.

After the effective time of the merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of FBBI of any shares of FBBI common stock, other than to settle transfers that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger. If certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration into which the shares represented by that certificate have been converted.

Appraisal Rights

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this proxy statement/prospectus, shares of FBBI common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger which are held by a holder who asserted his or her dissenters' rights of appraisal in accordance with § 607.1321 of the Florida Statutes (Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the consideration payable thereon, and any such holder shall be entitled only to such rights of appraisal as are granted by § 607.1301 to § 607.1333 of the Florida Statutes (Dissenter Provisions), unless and until such holder fails to perfect or effectively withdraws or otherwise loses his or her right to appraisal; provided, however, that no payment in connection with Dissenting Shares shall be made to any Dissenting Shareholder unless and until such Dissenting Shareholder has complied with the applicable provisions of the Dissenter Provisions and surrendered to HBI the certificate or certificates representing the Dissenting Shares for which payment is being demanded; however, if you hold your shares in street name and do not have a stock certificate, return of your certificate will not be required. If after the effective time of the merger any such Dissenting Shareholder fails to perfect or effectively withdraws or loses his or her right to appraisal, such shares of common stock shall be treated as if they had been converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive the consideration payable thereon. FBBI shall give HBI prompt notice upon receipt by FBBI of any written objection to the merger and such written demands for payment for shares of common stock under the Dissenter Provisions, and the withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments provided to FBBI pursuant to the Dissenter Provisions (any shareholder duly making such demand being hereinafter called a Dissenting Shareholder). Each Dissenting Shareholder that becomes entitled, pursuant to the Dissenter Provisions, to payment for any shares of common stock held by such Dissenting Shareholder shall receive payment therefor from HBI (but only after the amount thereof shall have been agreed upon or at the times and in the amounts required by the Dissenter Provisions). FBBI shall not, except with the prior written consent of HBI, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any demand for payment by a Dissenting Shareholder. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, HBI will be entitled to reduce the amount of cash to be paid to FBBI shareholders who do not exercise their dissenters' rights of appraisal by the aggregate amount it anticipates paying to Dissenting Shareholders.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF FBBI:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO ASSERT APPRAISAL RIGHTS PURSUANT TO FLORIDA STATUTES § 607.1321. A COPY OF § 607.1301, ET SEQ., IS ATTACHED IN ITS ENTIRETY AS APPENDIX D TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a Dissenting Shareholder must strictly comply with the statutory procedures of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the Dissenter Provisions, which are summarized below. A copy of the full text of those Sections is included as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. FBBI shareholders are urged to read Appendix D in its entirety and to consult with their legal advisors. Each FBBI shareholder who desires to assert his or her appraisal rights is cautioned that failure on his or her part to adhere strictly to the requirements of Florida law in any regard will cause a forfeiture of any appraisal rights.

The following summary of Florida law is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Dissenter Provisions, a copy of which is included as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

A dissenting shareholder who desires to exercise his or her appraisal rights must file with FBBI, prior to the taking of the vote on the Merger Agreement, a written notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the merger is effectuated. A vote against the Merger Agreement will not alone be deemed to be the written notice of intent to demand payment and will not be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements under the Dissenter Provisions. A Dissenting Shareholder need not vote against the merger agreement, but cannot vote, or allow any nominee who holds such shares for the dissenting shareholder to vote, any of his or her shares of FBBI common stock in favor of the Merger Agreement. A vote in favor of the Merger Agreement will constitute a waiver of the shareholder's appraisal rights. A shareholder's failure to vote against the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights. Such written notification should be delivered either in person or by mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, being the recommended form of transmittal) to the main office of FBBI, attention Corporate Secretary.

All such notices must be signed in the same manner as the shares are registered on the books of FBBI. If an FBBI shareholder has not provided written notice of intent to demand fair value before the vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement is taken at the special meeting, then the FBBI shareholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.

Within 10 days after the completion of the merger, HBI must provide to each FBBI shareholder who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares a written appraisal notice and an election form that specifies, among other things:

the date of the completion of the merger;

HBI's estimate of the fair value of the shares of FBBI common stock;

where to return the completed appraisal election form and the shareholder's stock certificates and the date by which each must be received by HBI or its agent, which date with respect to the receipt of the appraisal election form may not be fewer than 40, nor more than 60, days after the date HBI sent the appraisal election form to the shareholder (and shall state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless such form is received by HBI by such specified date) and which with respect to the return of stock certificates must not be earlier than the date for receiving the appraisal election form;

that, if requested in writing, HBI will provide to the shareholder so requesting, within 10 days after the date set for receipt by HBI of the appraisal election form, the number of shareholders who return the forms by such date and the total number of shares owned by them; and the date by which a notice from the FBBI shareholder of his or her desire to withdraw his or her appraisal election must be received by HBI, which date must be within 20 days after the date set for receipt by HBI of the appraisal election form from the FBBI shareholder.

The form must also contain HBI's offer to pay to the FBBI shareholder the amount that it has estimated as the fair value of the shares of FBBI common stock, and request certain information from the FBBI shareholder, including:

the shareholder's name and address;

the number of shares as to which the shareholder is asserting appraisal rights;

Table of Contents

that the shareholder did not vote for the merger;

whether the shareholder accepts the offer of HBI to pay its estimate of the fair value of the shares of FBBI common stock to the shareholder; and if the shareholder does not accept the offer of HBI, the shareholder's estimated fair value of the shares of FBBI common stock and a demand for payment of the shareholder's estimated value plus interest.

A Dissenting Shareholder must execute the appraisal election form, and in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates, by the specified date. Any Dissenting Shareholder failing to return a properly completed appraisal election form and his or her stock certificates within the period stated in the form will lose his or her appraisal rights and be bound by the terms of the Merger Agreement. Upon returning the appraisal election form, a Dissenting Shareholder will be entitled only to payment pursuant to the procedure set forth in the Dissenter Provisions and will not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder, unless the Dissenting Shareholder withdraws his or her demand for appraisal within the time period specified in the appraisal election form.

A Dissenting Shareholder who has delivered the appraisal election form and his or her FBBI common stock certificates may decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by giving written notice to HBI within the time period specified in the appraisal election form. Thereafter, a dissenting shareholder may not withdraw from the appraisal process without the written consent of HBI. Upon such withdrawal, the right of the dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares will cease, and he or she will be reinstated as a shareholder and will be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

If the Dissenting Shareholder accepts the offer of HBI in the appraisal election form to pay HBI's estimate of the fair value of the shares of FBBI common stock, payment for the shares of the dissenting shareholder is to be made within 90 days after the receipt of the appraisal election form by HBI or its agent. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in such shares.

A shareholder must demand appraisal rights with respect to all of the shares registered in his or her name, except that a record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but which are owned by a beneficial shareholder, if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares owned by the beneficial shareholder. A record shareholder must notify FBBI in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to any shares held on behalf of the beneficial shareholder only if the beneficial shareholder submits to FBBI the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights before the date specified in the appraisal election form, and does so with respect to all shares that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

A shareholder who is dissatisfied with HBI's estimate of the fair value of the shares of HBI common stock must notify HBI of the shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest in the appraisal election form within the time period specified in the form. A shareholder who fails to notify HBI in writing of the shareholder's demand to be paid its stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest within the required time period waives the right to demand payment and will be entitled only to the payment offered by HBI in the appraisal election form.

Section 607.1330 of the Dissenter Provisions addresses what should occur if a Dissenting Shareholder fails to accept the offer of HBI to pay the value of the shares as estimated by HBI, and HBI fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest.

If a dissenting shareholder refuses to accept the offer of HBI to pay the value of the shares as estimated by HBI, and HBI fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest, then within 60 days after receipt of a written demand from any dissenting shareholder, HBI shall, or at its election at any time within such period of 60 days may, file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in Florida where the registered office of HBI, maintained pursuant to Florida law, is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be determined by the court.

If HBI fails to institute a proceeding within the above-prescribed period, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of HBI. All dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and a copy of the initial pleading will be served on each Dissenting Shareholder as provided by law. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There shall be no right to a jury trial.

HBI is required to pay each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings, which amount may, in the discretion of the court, include a fair rate of interest, which will also be determined by the court. Upon payment of the judgment, the Dissenting Shareholder ceases to have any interest in such shares.

Section 607.1331 of the Dissenter Provisions provides that the costs of a court appraisal proceeding, including reasonable compensation for, and expenses of, appraisers appointed by the court, will be determined by the court and assessed against HBI, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the Dissenting Shareholders who are involved in the judicial proceeding, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent that the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to their appraisal rights. The court also may assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable, against: (i) HBI and in favor of any or all Dissenting Shareholders who are involved in the judicial proceeding if the court finds HBI did not substantially comply with the notification provisions set forth in Sections 607.1320 and 607.1322 of the Dissenter Provisions; or (ii) either HBI or a Dissenting Shareholder, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the appraisal rights. If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any dissenting shareholder were of substantial benefit to other dissenting shareholders, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against HBI, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenting shareholders who were benefited. To the extent that HBI fails to make a required payment when a dissenting shareholder accepts HBI's offer to pay the value of the shares as estimated by HBI, the Dissenting Shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from HBI all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF FLORIDA LAW RELATING TO DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS, SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE CONSIDERING DISSENTING FROM THE MERGER ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN LEGAL ADVISORS.

Regulatory Approvals

Each of HBI and FBBI has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve Board and the Arkansas State Bank Department, among others. HBI and FBBI have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications and notifications to obtain these regulatory approvals.

Federal Reserve Board. The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, and the Bank Merger Act.

Arkansas State Bank Department. The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement is subject to approval by the Arkansas State Bank Department.

Table of Contents

Florida Office of Financial Regulation. The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement requires notice to the Florida Office of Financial Regulation.

Additional Regulatory Approvals and Notices. The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement is also subject to approval by and notifications to various other regulatory agencies.

There can be no assurances that such approvals will be received on a timely basis, or as to the ability of HBI and FBBI to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of litigation challenging such approvals. There can likewise be no assurances that U.S. or state regulatory authorities will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds or for other reasons, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of such challenge. The parties' obligations to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to a number of conditions, including the receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals.

Accounting Treatment

HBI will account for the merger using the acquisition method of accounting. Under this accounting method, HBI would record the acquired identifiable assets and liabilities assumed at their fair market value at the time the merger is complete. Any excess of the cost of FBBI over the sum of the fair values of tangible and identifiable intangible assets less liabilities assumed would be recorded as goodwill. HBI's reported income would include the operations of FBBI after the merger. Financial statements of HBI after completion of the merger would reflect the impact of the acquisition of FBBI. Financial statements of HBI issued before completion of the merger would not be restated retroactively to reflect FBBI historical financial position or results of operation.

Public Trading Market

HBI common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol HOMB. The HBI common stock issuable in the merger will be listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Resale of HBI Common Stock

All shares of HBI common stock received by FBBI shareholders in the merger will be freely tradable for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and the Exchange Act, except for shares of HBI common stock received by any such holder who becomes an affiliate of HBI after completion of the merger. This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of shares of HBI common stock received by any person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

Background of the Merger

Over the last several years, there have been significant developments in the banking and financial services industry. These developments have included the increased emphasis and dependence on automation, specialization of products and services, increased competition from other financial institutions, and a trend toward consolidation, coupled with heightened regulatory capital requirements and compliance obligations on financial institutions. The board of directors of FBBI frequently considered the impact these developments might have on the long term value of the stock of its company.

In addition, FBBI and BCB encountered regulatory scrutiny that led to a regulatory Consent Order being imposed upon BCB in May 2013. The Consent Order primarily related to BCB's former engagement in ACH processing activities with certain third party payment processors. BCB worked to comply with the Consent Order and, in late 2014, began to believe that it would be terminated. In February 2015, the Consent Order was terminated.

Table of Contents

The board of directors of FBBI consistently reviewed alternatives to enhance shareholder value. For that purpose, in May 2012, the board of directors of FBBI formed a Strategic Alternatives Committee (which we refer to as the SAC) to evaluate alternatives from time to time. As the regulatory condition of BCB specifically, and economic conditions in the Tampa market, generally, improved during the past year, the board of directors of FBBI began to more carefully analyze its strategic alternatives. In November 2014, senior management and leadership of the FBBI board of directors met with Hovde Group, LLC, an investment banking firm (which we refer to as Hovde), to discuss FBBI's alternatives upon the lifting of BCB's Consent Order with the FDIC.

During the last several years, Tracy French as Centennial Bank's Regional President for Florida, attended several Florida Bank Association meetings and while attending these meetings he discussed with FBBI's President Greg Bryant and then-Chairman Bronson Thayer the possibility of a merger. Their informal discussions continued through 2013 and into 2014. On March 3, 2014, John Allison, Chairman of HBI, Stephen Tipton, Vice President of HBI and Mr. French met with Mr. Thayer in Tampa to introduce the two Chairmen. Mr. French stayed in touch with representatives of FBBI during the remainder of 2014.

With the view that the market would likely be favorable for a sale or merger of FBBI upon the resolution of its ongoing regulatory matters, FBBI engaged Hovde to act as its consultant and financial advisor as it tested the market for potential partners. At a meeting on January 6, 2015, Hovde provided additional information on a sale process, including background on the Florida marketplace, valuations of other transactions involving financial institutions, and known prospective buyers within the Florida market to the SAC. The SAC was composed of FBBI directors Christopher Lykes, Don Burton, Chris Peifer, Jim Lynch, and Bronson Thayer. At this same meeting, FBBI's legal counsel, Bryan Cave LLP, provided a substantive discussion of the directors' fiduciary duties and obligations under Florida law and the FBBI articles of incorporation with respect to the pursuit of a sale of the institution.

During the balance of January 2015, Hovde created an online data portal and interacted with potential partners, setting up preliminary meetings between those parties and FBBI's senior leadership. During that process, sixteen parties executed Non-Disclosure Agreements in order to obtain confidential information regarding FBBI and BCB to evaluate a potential combination transaction. On February 24, 2015, following the formal termination of BCB's Consent Order, Hovde updated the SAC on the results of the diligence process, which concluded with multiple parties interested in continuing to evaluate the prospect of acquiring FBBI.

During March 2015, senior management met with eight interested parties for initial discussions, and these eight parties continued their diligence into FBBI's operations and results. During this time, Hovde provided regular substantive updates to the SAC as to the ongoing diligence process. On April 16, 2015, initial, non-binding bids for FBBI were due, with seven parties submitting bids. The SAC reviewed the bids, and resolved to permit diligence to continue with the five parties, including HBI, whose bids offered the greatest value to FBBI shareholders, considering different factors including the valuation and liquidity of the stock to be offered as consideration, the availability of cash to shareholders as part of a potential merger, and the growth opportunities in the potential acquirers. On April 21, 2015, these bidders were permitted to enter into formal diligence into FBBI.

Over the balance of April and May 2015, the five potential bidders conducted detailed diligence into FBBI, including on-site visitations and interviews with FBBI's management and legal counsel. On April 8, 2015, Mr. French flew to Tampa to meet with Messrs. Lykes, FBBI's Chairman, and Bryant. This meeting included a more detailed discussion of the possible merger and resulted in HBI participating in the Hovde bidding process. On May 28, 2015, all final bids from interested parties were due, and three parties submitted final non-binding bids. Following receipt of these final bids, Hovde met with senior management and legal counsel to discuss the financial aspects of each bid, as well as areas of the bids where potential improvement could be achieved.

On May 18, 2015, after HBI had completed due diligence, Messrs. Allison, Tipton and French met with Messrs. Lykes, Bardin, Bryant, Murrin and Warren to discuss in more detail the advantages of the potential merger.

Table of Contents

On the morning of June 2, 2015, the SAC met to review the final non-binding offers from each bidder. The SAC had also informally discussed the offers the prior evening. Following discussion, the SAC resolved to enter into a non-binding letter of intent with a third party, pending clarification of certain aspects of its offer. That afternoon, Mr. Bryant, on behalf of FBBI, communicated with management of the third party that had been selected by the SAC. During those conversations, it became clear that certain aspects of that party's offer were not as the SAC had understood them. In the meantime, management from HBI contacted Hovde and increased its price being offered to FBBI and enhanced certain other terms of HBI's offer.

Given those events, the SAC reconvened by telephone during the evening of June 2, 2015. Mr. Bryant updated the SAC on the events of the afternoon, including the favorable changes in HBI's offer. Following that discussion, the SAC unanimously approved entering into a letter of intent with HBI regarding the acquisition of FBBI by HBI.

Following this determination, on June 3, 2015, FBBI and HBI entered into a letter of intent that included a 30-day period for exclusive negotiations between the two parties to reach a definitive agreement on the acquisition of FBBI by HBI. During the following weeks, legal counsel and senior management of HBI and FBBI negotiated the merger agreement, and each party completed its due diligence, including through on-site meetings, extensive discussions, and document review.

On June 11, 2015, Hovde delivered via teleconference to the full boards of directors of both FBBI and BCB a full and wide-ranging discussion of the sale process, as well as the financial aspects of HBI's bid to acquire FBBI. On this call, FBBI's management also provided a substantive update as to the status of the negotiation of the definitive merger agreement.

On June 15, 2015, the directors of each of FBBI and BCB received a full written summary of the merger agreement, a copy of the merger agreement, and proposed board resolutions for their review prior to the upcoming special joint meeting of the FBBI and BCB boards of directors. On June 17, 2015, FBBI's and BCB's boards of directors held a special meeting to consider the definitive merger agreement and related documents. Legal counsel participated in the meeting, and reviewed the directors' fiduciary duties in connection with the acquisition transaction and discussed the material aspects of the draft merger agreement. Hovde reviewed the financial aspects of the transaction and delivered its opinion that the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of FBBI. Following discussion, the boards of directors of FBBI and BCB approved the merger agreement and authorized and directed management to execute and deliver the merger agreement and related documents.

Recommendation of FBBI's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

FBBI's board of directors reviewed and discussed the proposed merger with management and its financial and legal advisors in determining that the proposed merger is in the best interests of FBBI and its shareholders. In reaching its conclusion to approve the Merger Agreement, FBBI's board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

the value and form of the consideration to be received by FBBI shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of FBBI common stock, including that $2 million of the consideration will be placed in escrow and the fact that the payment of such consideration is contingent upon certain future events;

information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospects of FBBI and of HBI;

the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed transaction with HBI;

a report and opinion presented by Hovde as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to FBBI's shareholders;

Table of Contents

the liquidity of the consideration to be received by FBBI's shareholders in the merger, particularly in view of HBI's status as a Nasdaq-listed company;

the alternatives to the merger, including FBBI and BCB remaining independent institutions;

the competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally;

the compensation and other benefits to be provided to certain officers and employees of FBBI by HBI as well as the indemnification to be provided to directors;

the social and economic effect of the merger on FBBI's present and future customers and employees and those of BCB; on the communities in which FBBI and BCB operate or are located; on the ability of FBBI to fulfill its corporate objectives as a financial institution holding company; and on the ability of BCB to fulfill the objectives of such institutions under applicable statutes and regulations; and the fact that the merger is structured as a tax-free reorganization.

The discussion of the information and factors considered by FBBI's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all the material factors considered by FBBI's board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by FBBI's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. FBBI's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of management and its legal and financial advisors, and reached consensus that the merger was in the best interests of FBBI and its shareholders. In considering the factors described above, individual members of FBBI's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. FBBI's board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support its determination.

FBBI's board of directors determined that the merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable and in the best interests of FBBI and its shareholders. Accordingly, the board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that FBBI's shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of Financial Advisor of Florida Business BancGroup, Inc.

Hovde has delivered a written opinion to the board of directors of FBBI that, as of the date of the Merger Agreement, based upon and subject to certain matters stated in the opinion, the merger consideration in connection with the merger is fair to the holders of FBBI common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. The opinion of Hovde is not a recommendation to any FBBI shareholder as to how to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. You should read this opinion completely to understand the procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the reviews undertaken by Hovde in providing its opinion.

The fairness opinion of FBBI's financial advisor, Hovde Group, LLC, is described below. The description contains projections, estimates and other forward-looking statements about the future earnings or other measures of the future performance of FBBI. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections. You should not rely on any of these statements as having been made or adopted by FBBI or HBI. You should review the copy of the fairness opinion, which is attached as Appendix C.

Hovde has acted as FBBI's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger. Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with FBBI and its operations. As part of its investment banking business, Hovde is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with, among other things, mergers and acquisitions.

Hovde reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger with FBBI's board of directors and, on June 17, 2015, delivered a written opinion to FBBI's board of directors that the merger consideration in connection with the merger was fair to the shareholders of FBBI from a financial point of view.

The full text of Hovde's written opinion is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. Hovde's opinion is directed to FBBI's board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration in connection with the merger to FBBI's shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any of the shareholders as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of FBBI, HBI and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

- (i) a draft of the Merger Agreement dated June 11, 2015, as provided to Hovde by FBBI;
- (ii) certain unaudited financial statements for FBBI and HBI for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015;
- (iii) certain historical annual reports of each of FBBI and HBI, including audited annual reports for FBBI and HBI for the year ending December 31, 2014;
- (iv) certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning each of FBBI and HBI;

- (vii) discussed with certain members of senior management of FBBI, the business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects of FBBI, as well as the history and past and current operations of FBBI, FBBI's historical financial performance and FBBI's outlook and future prospects;
- (viii)

the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that we considered relevant;

- (ix) assessed the general economic, market and financial conditions;
- (x) analyzed the pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios;
- (xi) taken into consideration our experience in other similar transactions and securities valuations as well as our knowledge of the banking and financial services industry;
- (xii) historical market prices and trading volumes of HBI's common stock;
- (xiii) certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that Hovde deemed relevant to our analysis;
- (xiv) discussed with management of FBBI and HBI, their assessment of the rationale for the merger; and
- (xv) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

Table of Contents

In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to it by FBBI and in the discussions it had with the management of FBBI. Hovde relied upon the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therein) provided to Hovde by FBBI and assumed that the financial forecasts, including without limitation, the projections, were reasonably prepared by FBBI on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates by FBBI, and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. Hovde did not assume any responsibility to verify such information or assumptions independently.

Hovde is not an expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for loan losses with respect thereto. Hovde assumed that such allowances for FBBI and HBI were, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses, and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. Hovde was not requested to make, and did not conduct, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of FBBI or HBI, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and Hovde was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals, nor did we review any loan or credit files of FBBI or HBI.

Hovde assumed that the merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by FBBI or any other party to the Merger Agreement and that the final Merger Agreement will not differ materially from the draft Hovde reviewed. Hovde assumed that the merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to FBBI and HBI. FBBI has advised Hovde that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the merger. Hovde further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and government approvals, no restriction will be imposed on FBBI or on HBI that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger. Hovde also assumed that no changes in applicable law or regulation will occur that will cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of the institutions after the merger.

FBBI engaged Hovde on December 31, 2014, to provide FBBI with financial advisory services. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement, Hovde will receive consideration from FBBI for services provided, including a fee of $75,000 for the delivery of its fairness opinion. Pursuant to the engagement agreement, in addition to its fees and regardless of whether the merger is consummated, FBBI has agreed to reimburse Hovde for certain reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing its services and to indemnify Hovde against certain claims, losses, and expenses arising out of the merger or Hovde's engagement.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Hovde, FBBI and HBI. Hovde's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market, and other conditions and circumstances as they existed on, and on the information made available to Hovde as of, the dates used in its opinion. Hovde has no obligation to update or reaffirm its opinion at any time. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities may be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which FBBI might engage. In addition, Hovde's fairness opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by FBBI's board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as solely determinative of the decision of FBBI's board of directors or FBBI's management with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration, or any consideration to be received, in connection with the merger.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Hovde and delivered to FBBI's board of directors on June 17, 2015, in connection with the fairness opinion. This summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the fairness opinion or the presentation prepared by Hovde, but it summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include the information presented in tabular format. The analyses and the summary of the analyses must be considered as a whole and selecting portions of the analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses and opinion of Hovde. The tables alone are not a complete description of the financial analyses.

Precedent Transactions Analysis. As part of its analysis, Hovde reviewed publicly available information related to three comparable groups (Group A , Group B , and Group C) of select acquisition transactions of banks. Group A consisted of acquisition transactions of banks headquartered in the state of Florida and announced in the last eighteen months and involving banks in which the target had assets greater than $500 million. Group B consisted of acquisition transactions of banks headquartered in the Southeast Region of the United States announced in the last eighteen months, involving banks in which the target had assets between $500 million and $1 billion and a last-twelve-months return on average assets of greater than 0.00%. Group C consisted of acquisition transactions of banks in the United States announced in the last eighteen months, involving banks in which the target had assets between $500 million and $1 billion and a last-twelve-months return on average assets greater than 0.75% and less than 1.00%. Information for the target institutions was based on the last twelve months starting with the most recent quarter prior to announcement of the transaction. The resulting three groups consisted of the following transactions (six for Group A; seven for Group B; eight for Group C):

For each precedent transaction, Hovde derived and compared the implied ratio of deal value to certain financial characteristics of FBBI as follows:

the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's last twelve months net income (the Price-to-LTM Earnings Per Share Multiple);

the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's total assets (the Price-to-Assets Multiple);

the multiple of the purchase consideration to the acquired company's tangible book value (the Price-to-Tangible Common Book Value Multiple); and the multiple of the difference between the purchase consideration and the acquired company's tangible book value to the acquired company's core deposits (the Premium-to-Core Deposits Multiple).

The results of the analysis are set forth in the table below. Transaction multiples for the merger were derived from an implied total merger consideration of $102.3⁽¹⁾ million or $13.00 per share for FBBI.

(1) Assumes FBBI tangible common equity of $57.771 million as of March 31, 2015

No company or transaction used as comparison in the above transaction analyses is identical to FBBI or HBI, and no transaction was consummated on terms identical to the terms of the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Taking into account various factors including, but not limited to, FBBI's recent performance, the current banking environment and the local economy in which FBBI operates, Hovde utilized earnings estimates for FBBI for a forward looking three and one-half year period with the assistance of information and guidance provided by the management of FBBI; FBBI management developed the forward-looking projections, which formed the basis of the discounted cash flow analyses.

In order to determine a value for FBBI on a discounted cash flow basis, Hovde utilized three different methods of discounted cash flow analysis: 1) present value of future free cash flows into perpetuity, 2) present value of future free cash flows based off a price-to-LTM earnings takeout multiple of 19.0x, and 3) present value of future free cash flows based off a price-to-tangible common book value takeout multiple of 1.67x. In order to derive the terminal value in the takeout multiple methods, Hovde multiplied FBBI's projected 2018 earnings and tangible book value by their respective takeout multiples, as mentioned above. The price-to-LTM earnings takeout multiple was derived from the 25-year average nationwide price-to-LTM earnings takeout multiple based on historical data from SNL Financial LLC. The price-to-tangible common book value takeout multiple was also derived from the 25-year average nationwide price-to-tangible common book value takeout multiple based on historical data from SNL Financial LLC.

Hovde performed variations of the discounted cash flow analysis using FBBI's projections. For the discounted cash flow analysis (DCF Analysis), Hovde utilized management's earnings projections for 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018. Net income projections for FBBI for 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018 were $4.8 million, $5.7 million, $6.6 million, and $7.2 million, respectively. A range of discount rates between 13% and 15% were employed. These rates were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of FBBI's common stock. The resulting values of the three DCF analyses (using the median discount rate of 14%) were $10.32 per share, $11.03 per share, and $11.99 per share, with an average of $11.11 per share.

Table of Contents

These analyses and their underlying assumptions yielded a different values for FBBI, which are outlined in the table below:

Implied Value to FBBI Based On:	Implied Transaction Value (Per Share)	Price-to-LTM Net Income Multiple	Price-to-Assets Multiple	Price-to-Tang. Book Value Multiple	Premium to Core Deposits Multiple
Merger Agreement	$ 13.00	22.4x	18.9%	177.2%	12.9%
DCF Analysis Terminal Growth Model	$ 10.32	17.8x	15.0%	140.2%	6.7%
DCF Analysis Takeout Price-to-Earnings	$ 11.03	19.0x	16.0%	150.0%	8.33%
DCF Analysis Takeout Price-to-Tangible Book Value	$ 11.99	20.7x	17.4%	163.2%	10.54%

Hovde noted that while the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. Hovde's analysis does not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of FBBI's common stock.

Other Factors and Analyses. Hovde took into consideration various other factors and analyses, including but not limited to: current market environment; merger and acquisition environment; movements in the common stock valuations of selected publicly-traded banking companies; and movements in the S&P 500 Index.

Conclusion. Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the merger consideration in connection with the merger is fair from a financial point of view to FBBI's shareholders. Each shareholder is encouraged to read Hovde's fairness opinion in its entirety. The full text of this fairness opinion is included as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement.

HBI Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

HBI's board of directors reviewed and discussed the proposed merger with management and its financial and legal advisors in determining that the proposed merger was in the best interest of HBI and its shareholders. In reaching its conclusion to approve the Merger Agreement, HBI's board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

the combined market footprint for HBI in Florida that the acquisition would provide; the potential earnings accretion for HBI in the future given the opportunities for improvement in operational efficiencies;

the familiarity with FBBI's organization and management;

the common business philosophies and customer profiles;

the quality of FBBI's organization from a financial and regulatory perspective;

the potential market acceptance and approval of a transaction of this quality; and the fairness of the consideration as supported by Wunderlich Securities, Inc. fairness opinion.

The discussion of the information and factors considered by the HBI's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all the material factors considered by HBI's board of directors. HBI's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of management and its legal and financial advisors, and reached consensus that the merger was in the best interests of HBI and its shareholders.

HBI's board of directors determined that the merger, the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated are advisable and in the best interests of HBI and its shareholders. Accordingly, the board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of HBI's Financial Advisor

The HBI board of directors requested that Wunderlich Securities, evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to HBI of the consideration to be paid by HBI in connection with the proposed merger of FBBI with and into HBI's wholly owned subsidiary, Centennial Bank, pursuant and subject to the Merger Agreement.

At a June 16, 2015 meeting of HBI's board of directors, Wunderlich Securities provided the board a preliminary overview of its analyses performed as of the date of the meeting. Wunderlich Securities advised the board that its analyses were as of such date and based upon and subject to various qualifications and assumptions described in the meeting. At this meeting HBI's board of directors did not request and Wunderlich Securities did not provide an opinion. Wunderlich Securities delivered its opinion to the board on June 17, 2015.

The full text of the Wunderlich Securities opinion, dated June 17, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, matters considered, and limits on the scope of review undertaken, is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the opinion set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Holders of HBI's common stock are urged to read the Wunderlich Securities opinion in its entirety. Wunderlich Securities provided its opinion for the information and assistance solely of HBI's board of directors (solely in its capacity as such) in connection with, and for purposes of, its consideration of the merger and the opinion only addresses whether, as of the date of such written opinion, the merger consideration to be paid by HBI in the merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to HBI and does not address any other term or aspect of the Merger Agreement or the merger contemplated thereby. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to HBI or HBI's underlying business decision to effect the merger or any related transaction. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to HBI's board of directors or any shareholder of HBI as to how the board, such stockholder or any other person should vote or otherwise act with respect to the merger or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Wunderlich Securities, among other things, reviewed:

the financial terms and conditions of the merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement, including an analysis of the merger consideration to be paid;

comparative financial and operating data on the banking industry, FBBI, and certain institutions which Wunderlich deemed to be comparable to FBBI;

certain publicly available information regarding actual and proposed business combinations involving companies deemed comparable to FBBI, including valuations for such companies; and such other analyses and information relating to FBBI and the merger as Wunderlich Securities deemed relevant for the purpose of the opinion.

Table of Contents

In connection with its review, Wunderlich Securities assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to Wunderlich Securities by HBI, FBBI or any other party, as well as publicly available information, and did not undertake any duty or responsibility to verify independently any of such information. In addition, Wunderlich Securities did not receive or review any individual credit files nor did it make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of FBBI or any of its respective subsidiaries and Wunderlich Securities was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Wunderlich Securities is not an expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for loan losses, accordingly, it has assumed that such allowances for losses are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. With respect to the Projections, Wunderlich Securities was advised by HBI and has assumed that the Projections have been reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates, judgments and assumptions of the management of HBI as to the future financial performance of FBBI. Wunderlich Securities was authorized by HBI to rely upon such forecasts and other information and data, including without limitation the Projections, and Wunderlich Securities expresses no view as to any such forecasts or other information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared. Wunderlich Securities assumed that each party to the Merger Agreement would advise it promptly if any information previously provided to Wunderlich Securities became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of its review. Based upon the terms specified in the Merger Agreement, Wunderlich Securities assumed that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Wunderlich Securities did not express any opinion as to the value of HBI's common stock or FBBI's common stock following the announcement of the proposed merger, the value of HBI's common stock following the consummation of the merger, or the prices at which shares of HBI's common stock or FBBI's common stock may be purchased or sold at any time, which in each case, may vary depending on numerous factors, including factors outside of the control of HBI and FBBI.

In rendering its opinion, Wunderlich Securities relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that the final form of the Merger Agreement would be substantially similar to the draft Merger Agreement reviewed by Wunderlich Securities. Wunderlich Securities further assumed that the merger would be consummated on the terms described in the Merger Agreement. Furthermore, Wunderlich Securities assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement were true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the merger will be satisfied without being waived. Wunderlich Securities also assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals will be obtained and that, in the course of obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals, or any amendments, modifications or waivers to any documents to which HBI is a party, as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, no restrictions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would have any material adverse effect on HBI.

In conducting its investigation and analyses and in arriving at its opinion, Wunderlich Securities took into account such accepted financial and investment banking procedures and considerations as it deemed relevant, including the review of: (i) historical and projected assets, loans, deposits, revenues, net income and capitalization of FBBI and certain other publicly held companies, with publicly traded equity securities, that it believed relevant; (ii) the current and projected financial position and results of operations of FBBI; (iii) financial and operating information concerning selected business combinations which it deemed comparable in whole or in part; and (iv) the general condition of the securities markets.

Wunderlich Securities expressed no opinion as to the underlying business decision to effect the merger, the structure or tax consequences of the merger, or the availability or advisability of any alternatives to the merger. The opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid by HBI. Wunderlich

Securities expressed no opinion with respect to any other reasons (legal, business, or otherwise) that may support the decision of HBI's board of directors to approve or consummate the merger. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation was intended by Wunderlich Securities in matters that require legal, accounting or tax advice. Wunderlich Securities assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations had been or would be obtained from appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, Wunderlich Securities relied, with the consent of HBI's board of directors, on the fact that HBI was assisted by legal, accounting and tax advisors, and assumed that the assessments by HBI and its advisors, as to all legal, accounting and tax matters with respect to HBI and the merger were correct. In formulating its opinion, Wunderlich Securities considered only the merger consideration to be paid by HBI, and Wunderlich Securities had not considered, and its opinion does not address, any other payments that may be made to employees or other shareholders of HBI in connection with the merger. Wunderlich Securities had not been requested to opine as to, and the opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things the fairness of the merger or the merger consideration to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of HBI, or to any other party. Wunderlich Securities did not and does not assume any fiduciary duty to HBI's board of directors, shareholders or any other party.

The following summarizes the material financial analyses presented by Wunderlich Securities to HBI's board of directors at its meeting on June 16, 2015, which material was considered by Wunderlich Securities in rendering the opinion described below on June 17, 2015. No company or transaction used in the analyses described below is directly comparable to HBI, FBBI or the contemplated merger.

Wunderlich Securities calculated various financial multiples for each company, including (i) market value compared to tangible book value, and earnings per share for the most recent actual twelve months results and (ii) market value per share compared to earnings per share, using Wall Street estimates for the selected companies for the fiscal year 2015. The estimates published by Wall Street research analysts were not prepared in connection with the merger or at Wunderlich Securities' request and may or may not prove to be accurate. Wunderlich Securities reviewed the mean, median, minimum and maximum relative valuation multiples of the selected public companies and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for the FBBI implied by the merger consideration. The results of the selected public companies analysis are summarized below:

	Tangible Book Value (%)	Price /
		LTM E.P.S (x)	2015E E.P.S. (x)
Mean	146.2	20.6	22.6

Minimum	66.5	9.5	17.5
Maximum	259.0	50.2	27.6
Merger Consideration	182.6	24.0	20.5

Furthermore, Wunderlich Securities applied the mean, median, minimum and maximum relative valuation multiples for each of the metrics to FBBI's actual and projected financial results and determined the implied common equity value of FBBI common stock and then compared those implied common equity values to the merger consideration of approximately $102 million. The results of this are summarized below:

Wunderlich Securities examined valuation multiples of transaction common equity value compared to FBBI's tangible book value, LTM earnings, and core deposit premium, in each case, where such information was publicly available. Wunderlich Securities reviewed the mean, median, minimum and maximum relative valuation multiples of the selected transactions and compared them to corresponding valuation multiples for FBBI implied by the merger consideration. Furthermore, Wunderlich Securities applied the mean, median, minimum and maximum relative valuation multiples to FBBI's tangible book value, LTM earnings, and core deposits to determine the implied common equity value and then compared those implied common equity values to the merger consideration of approximately $102 million. The results of the selected transactions analysis are summarized below:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Wunderlich Securities analyzed the discounted present value of FBBI's projected free cash flows for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019. Wunderlich Securities used projected cash flows, defined as net income to common shareholders, less core deposit intangible amortization, which, assuming a 0% earnings growth rate, equated to approximately $9.6 million annually for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019.

The discounted cash flow analysis was based on projections of the financial performance of FBBI utilizing estimated annual growth rates of net income ranging from 0% to 15% and that represented the best available estimates and judgment of management. Consistent with the periods included in the financial projections, Wunderlich Securities used calendar year 2019 as the final year for the analysis and utilized the perpetuity method to derive a terminal value, assuming a 2.5% growth rate in perpetuity.

Table of Contents

The projected cash flows and terminal values were discounted using a rate of 11.1%, which reflected the cost of equity associated with executing FBBI's business plan. Wunderlich Securities reviewed the range of aggregate common equity values derived in the discounted cash flow analysis and compared them to the merger consideration. The results of the discounted cash flow analysis are summarized below:

	Implied Common Equity Value ($ million)
Minimum	90.8
Maximum	147.2
Merger Consideration	102.0

Additional Considerations. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Wunderlich Securities believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering the analyses taken as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its opinion. In addition, Wunderlich Securities considered the results of all such analyses and did not assign relative weights to any of the analyses, but rather made qualitative judgments as to significance and relevance of each analysis and factor, so the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Wunderlich Securities' view of the actual value of FBBI.

In performing its analyses, Wunderlich Securities made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic and regulatory conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of HBI. The analyses performed by Wunderlich Securities are not necessarily indicative of actual values, trading values or actual future results which might be achieved, all of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were provided to HBI's board of directors and were prepared solely as part of Wunderlich Securities' analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, to HBI of the consideration to be paid in connection with the proposed merger. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which companies may actually be sold, and such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty. The opinion of Wunderlich Securities was one of many factors taken into consideration by HBI's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger. Consequently, the analyses described above should not be viewed as determinative of HBI board of directors' or HBI management's opinion with respect to the value of the FBBI. HBI placed no limits on the scope of the analysis performed, or opinion expressed, by Wunderlich Securities.

Wunderlich Securities' opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic, financial and other circumstances and conditions existing and disclosed to it on June 17, 2015, and any material change in such circumstances and conditions may affect Wunderlich Securities' opinion, but Wunderlich Securities does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm that opinion.

HBI retained Wunderlich Securities based on its qualifications and experience in providing financial advice, on its reputation as a nationally recognized investment banking firm and its experience in the banking sector. During the twelve months preceding the date of Wunderlich Securities' opinion, Wunderlich Securities has not been engaged by, performed any services for or received any compensation from HBI except as related to the delivery of the opinion. For services rendered in connection with the delivery of its opinion, HBI paid Wunderlich Securities an investment banking fee of $100,000. HBI also agreed to reimburse Wunderlich Securities for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and expenses of its counsel, and will indemnify Wunderlich Securities against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement.

Wunderlich Securities is actively involved in the investment banking business and regularly undertakes the valuation of investment securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations and similar transactions. In the ordinary course of business, Wunderlich Securities may trade in the securities of HBI for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Wunderlich Securities may provide investment banking, financial advisory and other financial services to HBI and/or FBBI or other participants in the merger in the future, for which Wunderlich Securities may receive compensation.

Management and Board of Directors of HBI After the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of HBI will consist of the directors serving on the board of directors of HBI prior to the effective time of the merger. The current directors and senior officers of HBI are expected to continue in their current positions, other than as has been or may be publicly announced by HBI in the normal course. Information about the current HBI directors and executive officers can be found in the documents listed under Where You Can Find More Information included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Golden Parachute Compensation

Certain of FBBI's and BCB's directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of FBBI. These interests are described in more detail in The Directors and Officers of FBBI and BCB Have Financial Interests in the Merger beginning on page 96.

The table below describes the following payments to the executive officers of FBBI: (i) cash payments in connection with the termination of an employment agreement or pursuant to the executive severance plan upon or following the closing of the merger, (ii) cash payments upon the termination of options at or prior to the closing of the merger, (iii) cash payments that will be paid in connection with the termination of the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan upon the closing of the merger, and (iv) the total amount of such payments.

Termination of Stock Options

FBBI has outstanding stock options to purchase 167,500 shares of FBBI common stock. Any FBBI stock option that remains outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time shall automatically, and without any action on the part of its holder, be terminated by FBBI and shall entitle the holder a cash payment equal to the positive difference between the option exercise price and the equivalent dollar value of the Merger Consideration. FBBI will take action to terminate any outstanding options to purchase FBBI common stock at a price that is greater than the amount of the Merger Consideration, as calculated assuming that all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders.

If all of the option holders elect to receive cash for their FBBI stock options, the total amount to be paid for termination of the options would be approximately $772,250. For more information, see The Directors and Officers of FBBI and BCB Have Financial Interests in the Merger Stock Options, beginning on page 96.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Effects of the Merger

As a result of the merger, the separate corporate existence of FBBI will cease, and each share of FBBI common stock issued and outstanding (other than shares held by FBBI as treasury stock or by HBI) shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, as such is described as part of the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger" above. FBBI shareholders receiving shares of HBI common stock as merger consideration will only participate in the combined company's future earnings and potential growth through their ownership of HBI common stock. All of the other incidents of direct stock ownership in FBBI, such as the right to vote on certain corporate decisions, to elect directors and to receive dividends and distributions from FBBI, will be extinguished upon completion of the merger.

As soon as reasonably practicable following the merger and as part of a single integrated transaction, HBI will cause BCB to be merged with and into Centennial Bank in the second-step merger with Centennial Bank surviving this second merger and continuing its existence under the laws of the State of Arkansas, and the separate corporate existence of BCB ceasing as of the effective time of this second-step merger.

Effective Time of the Merger

The closing of the merger will be effective at the close of business of BCB as determined by the Federal Reserve on the date specified in the articles of merger, which shall be within ten days after the last to occur of the effective date of the last regulatory approval to be received, or the date of the FBBI Shareholder Meeting, or at such other time as the parties may mutually agree. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the parties expect that the merger will be effective during the late third quarter or early fourth quarter of 2015. However, there can be no assurance as to when or if the merger will occur.

As described below, if the merger is not completed by December 31, 2015, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by either HBI or FBBI, unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in the Merger Agreement. Either party, however, may extend the termination date of the Merger Agreement to February 28, 2016, if the requisite regulatory approvals have not been obtained by December 31, 2015.

Covenants and Agreements

Conduct of Businesses Prior to the Completion of the Merger. FBBI has agreed that, prior to the effective time of the merger, it will conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice in all material respects and use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact its business organization and advantageous business relationships. FBBI has further agreed to take no action (and to cause its subsidiaries to take no action) that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or materially delay the ability to obtain any necessary approvals of any regulatory agency or other governmental entity required for the completion of the merger, to maintain its books and records in the usual, regular and ordinary manner, to maintain and renew liability its insurance policies with reasonably comparable coverage and amounts and terms and conditions which are not less advantageous than FBBI's existing policies, and to provide HBI with reasonable access to its facilities and information it may require as part of the integration of the two companies.

In addition to the general covenants above, FBBI has agreed that prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified exceptions, it will not, and will not permit its subsidiaries to, without the prior approval of HBI (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld):

Table of Contents

Regarding FBBI covenants above, if by enforcing a particular covenant HBI would be exercising control over FBBI or BCB as control is defined under 12 U.S.C Section 1841(a)(2) prior to obtaining approval from the Federal Reserve, HBI will not enforce such covenant.

Regulatory Matters. HBI and FBBI have agreed to promptly prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part. HBI and FBBI have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and FBBI to mail or deliver the proxy statement/prospectus to FBBI's shareholders. HBI has also agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or blue sky permits and approvals required to consummate the merger, and FBBI has agreed to furnish all information concerning FBBI and the holders of FBBI common stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

HBI and FBBI have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, and to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the merger as soon as possible, and no later than December 31, 2015, to the extent reasonably practicable. The parties have also agreed to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations upon such time as they are issued. FBBI and HBI have the right to review in advance and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws, all the non-confidential information relating to FBBI or HBI (excluding any confidential financial information relating to individuals), as the case may be, and any of their respective subsidiaries, that appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any governmental entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In addition, FBBI and HBI will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities necessary or advisable to consummate the merger and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the merger. Each party will consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any governmental entity in connection with the merger and, to the extent permitted by such governmental entity, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences. Additionally, each of HBI and FBBI has agreed to furnish to the other, upon request, all information concerning itself, its subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus, the Form S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of HBI, FBBI or any of their respective subsidiaries to any governmental entity in connection with the merger.

HBI and FBBI have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to (i) avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that would restrain, prevent or delay the closing of the merger, and (ii) avoid or eliminate each and every impediment under any applicable law and resolve any questions or issues raised by any governmental entity so as to enable the closing of the merger to occur as soon as possible, and in any event no later than December 31, 2015, including, without limitation, making expenditures and incurring costs, raising capital, divesting or otherwise disposing of businesses or assets of HBI, FBBI, and their respective subsidiaries, effecting the dissolution, internal merger or consolidation of subsidiaries of HBI or FBBI effective upon the completion of the merger, or enhancing internal controls (including by increasing staffing levels and external hires).

Each of HBI and FBBI will promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any governmental entity the consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the merger that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any requisite regulatory approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed.

Shareholder Approval. FBBI's board of directors has resolved to recommend to the FBBI shareholders that they approve the Merger Agreement and to submit to FBBI shareholders the Merger Agreement and any other matters required to be approved by FBBI shareholders in order to carry out the intentions of the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exceptions if, following the receipt of a Superior Proposal (as defined below), the board of directors of FBBI concludes in good faith (and based on the advice of counsel) that the failure to withdraw its recommendation or terminate the Merger Agreement would more likely than not result in a violation of the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law.

NASDAQ Listing. HBI will cause the shares of HBI common stock to be issued in the merger to have been authorized for listing on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Employee Matters. The Merger Agreement provides that HBI shall provide each employee who is actively employed by FBBI on the closing date while employed by HBI following the closing date with employee benefits which, in the aggregate, are no less favorable than employee benefits provided by HBI to similarly situated employees of HBI. FBBI and HBI will cooperate to ensure that FBBI's employees that will be continuing on with HBI will be able to participate in FBBI's benefits programs until they can transition to those provided by HBI, and respect shall be given to the prior service credit for each continuing employee's service with FBBI and/or BCB. Before the effective time of the merger, FBBI will terminate certain benefit arrangements for certain employees and distribute payments to such employees in consideration of those terminations, and HBI will enter into employment agreement or arrangements with specified FBBI employees on stated terms. FBBI shall also terminate its 401(k) plan as of the Closing Date of the merger, with FBBI and BCB employees entitled to a distribution of assets therefrom, with HBI also permitting these participants to roll over their 401(k) plan balances to the 401(k) plan currently provided by HBI.

Indemnification and Directors' and Officers' Insurance. From and after the effective time of the merger, HBI will indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of FBBI and its subsidiaries against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, to the same extent as such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses pursuant to the bylaws of FBBI and permissible under the applicable law.

In addition, for a period of six years following the effective time of the merger, HBI will provide director's and officer's liability insurance covering the present and former officers and directors of FBBI (determined as of the effective time) with respect to claims arising from facts or events occurring before the effective time (including the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), which insurance will be no less advantageous to the indemnified party as that coverage currently provided by FBBI. At HBI's option and in lieu of such director's and officer's liability insurance, HBI and FBBI will cooperate to select a tail policy for directors' and officers' liability insurance on the terms described in the prior sentence, to be fully paid for by FBBI prior to the merger. However, if the premiums necessary to obtain such a policy would exceed $170,000, HBI and FBBI will cooperate to obtain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for an aggregate premium not exceeding $170,000.

No Solicitation. The Merger Agreement precludes FBBI and its respective officers, directors, agents, advisors and affiliates from initiating, soliciting, or encouraging inquiries or proposals with respect to, or participating in any negotiations concerning, or providing any nonpublic information relating to, any Acquisition Proposal (as defined below). However, if at any time after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to obtaining the approval of the Merger Agreement by FBBI shareholders, FBBI receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal and the board of directors of FBBI concludes in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below), then FBBI and its board of directors may furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information and participate in such negotiations or discussions to the extent that the board of directors of FBBI concludes in good faith (and based on the advice of counsel) that failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Prior to providing any such nonpublic information or engaging in any such negotiations, FBBI must have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to FBBI than the confidentiality agreement between

FBBI and HBI, and such confidentiality agreement must expressly permit FBBI to comply with its obligations pursuant to the Merger Agreement. FBBI must promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) advise HBI following receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to any Acquisition Proposal and the substance thereof (including the identity of the person making such Acquisition Proposal), and keep HBI promptly apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations (including the terms and conditions of any such request, inquiry or Acquisition Proposal, or all amendments or proposed amendments thereto) on a current basis.

As used in the Merger Agreement, Acquisition Proposal means any proposal or offer other than the Merger Agreement with respect to any transaction or any public announcement by any entity of a proposal, plan or intention with respect to any (a) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction; (b) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets that constitute a substantial portion of the assets of FBBI in a single transaction or series of transactions; or (c) any tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of its capital stock or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act, in connection therewith.

In addition, only in the event that FBBI receives an Acquisition Proposal that FBBI's board of directors concludes in good faith constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below), the board of directors of FBBI may withdraw or materially and adversely modify its recommendation that FBBI shareholders vote to approve the Merger Agreement, or recommend to its shareholders an Acquisition Proposal other than the merger, or terminate the Merger Agreement, if it concludes in good faith (and based on the advice of counsel) that failure to take such actions would be more likely than not to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, as long as FBBI gives HBI prior written notice at least four business days before taking such action and during such four business day period FBBI negotiates in good faith with HBI to enable HBI to make an improved offer that is at least as favorable to the shareholders of FBBI as such alternative Acquisition Proposal.

As used in the Merger Agreement, Superior Proposal means any proposal or offer other than the Merger Agreement with respect to any transaction or any public announcement by any entity of a proposal, plan or intention with respect to any (a) merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction; (b) sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets that constitute a substantial portion of the assets of FBBI in a single transaction or series of transactions; or (c) tender offer or exchange offer for 50% or more of the outstanding shares of its capital stock or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act, in connection therewith.

Other Terms. As a condition of the closing, FBBI will effect the redemption of FBBI's preferred securities and cause certain stock purchase agreements to be terminated. If HBI waives the condition that FBBI redeem its preferred securities prior to the closing of the merger, the terms of FBBI's Series F preferred stock would require HBI, as successor to FBBI, to issue to the holder thereof shares of HBI preferred stock with equal liquidation preference and equivalent other terms as part of the merger.

Certain of these representations and warranties are qualified as to materiality or material adverse effect. For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a material adverse effect means, with respect to any party, a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or business of such FBBI and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole; provided, however, that, with respect to the financial condition of FBBI and its Subsidiaries, a material adverse effect shall not be deemed to include effects arising out of, relating to or resulting from (A) changes after the date hereof in applicable GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements, (B) changes after the date hereof in laws, rules or regulations of general applicability to companies in the industries in which such party and its Subsidiaries operate, (C) changes after the date hereof in global, national or regional political conditions or general economic or market conditions (including changes in prevailing interest rates, credit availability and liquidity, currency exchange rates, and price levels or trading volumes in the United States or foreign securities markets) affecting other companies in the industries in which such party and its subsidiaries operate, (D) changes after the date hereof in the credit markets, any downgrades in the credit markets, or adverse credit events resulting in deterioration in the credit markets generally and including changes to any previously correctly applied asset marks resulting therefrom, (E) a decline in the trading price of a party's common stock or a failure, in and of itself, to meet earnings projections, but not, in either case, including any underlying causes thereof, (F) the public disclosure of the Merger Agreement or the contemplated transactions or the consummation of the contemplated transactions, (G) any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism or (H) actions or omissions taken with the prior written consent of the other party or expressly required by this Agreement except, with respect to clauses (A), (B), (C), (D) and (G), to the extent that the effects of such change are materially disproportionately adverse to the financial condition, results of operations or business of such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other companies in the industry in which such party and its subsidiaries operate.

In addition, for purposes of the Merger Agreement, a material adverse effect also means, with respect to any party, a material adverse effect on the ability of such party to timely consummate the contemplated transactions.

The representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement do not survive the effective time of the merger and, as described below under Effect of Termination, if the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, there will be no liability under the representations and warranties of the parties, unless a party knowingly breached the Merger Agreement.

This summary and the copy of the Merger Agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A are included solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. They are not intended to provide factual information about the parties or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by HBI and Centennial Bank, on the one hand, and FBBI and BCB on the other hand, which were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those generally applicable to investors. In reviewing the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement or any descriptions thereof in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that such representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof were not intended by the parties to the Merger Agreement to be characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in HBI's public disclosures. For the foregoing reasons, the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone and should instead be read in conjunction with the other information contained in the reports, statements and filings that HBI publicly files with the SEC. For more information regarding these documents, see the section entitled Where You Can

Termination; Termination Fee

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by FBBI shareholders.

by mutual written consent of HBI and FBBI;

by either HBI or FBBI, if a requisite regulatory approval is denied and such denial has become final and non-appealable, or if a governmental entity has issued a final, non-appealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

by either HBI or FBBI, if the merger has not closed by December 31, 2015 (which date can be extended to February 28, 2016, by either party if the requisite regulatory approvals have not yet been obtained), unless the failure of the closing to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in the Merger Agreement;

by either HBI or FBBI, if there is a breach by the other party of any of its covenants, agreements, representations or warranties that would, individually or in the aggregate with other breaches by such party, result in the failure of a closing condition of the other party, and such breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing the breach, or the breach, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement);

by either HBI or FBBI, if the FBBI shareholders have not approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby at the duly convened FBBI special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, provided that the failure to obtain such shareholder approval was not caused by the terminating party's material breach of any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

by FBBI, prior to obtaining the FBBI shareholder approval, in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal (provided that FBBI pays HBI a termination fee in advance of or concurrently with such termination, as described below);

by HBI, if holders of ten percent (10%) or more of the outstanding shares of FBBI common stock provide notice of dissent and do not vote in favor of the merger;

by HBI, if FBBI shall have (i) materially breached its obligations relating to its receipt of an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) the board of directors of FBBI shall have failed to make a recommendation to its shareholders in favor of the merger, (iii) the board of directors of FBBI shall have recommended, proposed or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose to engage in a transaction resulting in a Superior Proposal, or (iv) FBBI shall have breached its obligations to timely give notice of and call, convene and hold a special meeting to consider the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or by either HBI or FBBI, if the volume-weighted average closing price of HBI Common Stock for the twenty (20) trading days through the day immediately preceding the closing date is less than or equal to $24.58. FBBI is required to pay HBI a termination fee of $4,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated by FBBI in order to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Proposal or by HBI because (i) FBBI violated the no solicitation provision of the Merger Agreement; (ii) the board of directors of FBBI failed to recommend the merger; (iii) the FBBI board of directors has recommended, proposed, or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose to engage in a transaction resulting in a Superior Proposal; or (iv) FBBI has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold the FBBI shareholder meeting in accordance with the Merger Agreement.

Effect of Termination

If the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, the Merger Agreement will become void and have no effect, and none of FBBI, HBI, any of their respective subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them will have any liability under the Merger Agreement, or in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, except that (i) the provisions of the Merger Agreement relating to confidentiality obligations of the parties, the termination fees, publicity and certain other technical provisions will continue in effect notwithstanding termination of the Merger Agreement and (ii) neither FBBI nor HBI will be relieved or released from any liability or damages arising out of its knowing breach of the Merger Agreement.

Amendments, Extensions and Waivers

The Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the merger by the shareholders of FBBI or HBI, in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties, provided that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by the FBBI or HBI shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of the Merger Agreement that requires further approval under applicable law.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement or (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the Merger Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any extension or waiver must be in writing signed on behalf of such party. Any such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition will not operate as a waiver of any subsequent or other failure.

Stock Market Listing

Application will be made by HBI to have the shares of HBI common stock to be issued in the merger approved for listing on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, which is the principal trading market for existing shares of HBI common stock. It is a condition to both parties' obligation to complete the merger that such approval is obtained, subject to official notice of issuance.

Fees and Expenses

Except for (i) the registration fee for the filing of the Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger, which will be paid by HBI, and (ii) any termination fees, as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger, the Merger Agreement, and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus) will be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the merger is completed.

Escrow Agreement

The Merger Agreement provides for $2,000,000 of the Purchase Price to be paid into escrow. The release of the funds from escrow will be governed by an Escrow Agreement, a form of which is attached to the Merger Agreement as Exhibit B. The following is a summary of the material terms of the Escrow Agreement. The summary is qualified by reference to Exhibit B to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. The Escrow Agreement is considered an integral part of the merger, such that no separate approval of the Escrow Agreement or its terms will be required. Because the Escrow Agreement will not be executed until the closing of the merger, its terms may change, though neither HBI or FBBI anticipates that any such changes would materially impact the rights of FBBI shareholder to receive escrowed funds.

Table of Contents

The Parties. The parties to the Escrow Agreement will be HBI, an escrow agent to be selected by HBI and FBBI, and a representative of the FBBI shareholders to be selected by FBBI. At this time, HBI and FBBI expect that SunTrust Bank will serve as escrow agent. FBBI has not yet selected an individual to serve as FBBI shareholder representative, though it anticipates selecting such representative from among FBBI's and BCB's directors.

Escrow Amount and Release. The Escrow Agreement requires HBI to place $2,000,000 in cash into the escrow account at or prior to the closing. The escrowed amount will be used to pay expenses related to the escrow, released to HBI, or released to shareholders of FBBI.

HBI will be entitled to receive payments from the escrow in the event that it incurs a loss in connection with the two pending class action lawsuits against BCB, as described under Certain Information Concerning FBBI Legal Proceedings, beginning on page 92. Under the Escrow Agreement, loss is defined broadly to include a wide variety of payments that could be made by HBI, including settlement amounts and legal expenses. Loss, however, is limited to amounts that will not be reimbursed by insurance available to HBI.

Amounts in escrow will be released to FBBI to the extent that they have not been used to fund expenses of escrow or released to HBI to reimburse HBI for the losses described above. The amount payable to shareholders of FBBI will be determined and paid (to the extent that any funds are due and owing to FBBI shareholders) upon the earlier of (i) the resolution of both class action lawsuits pending against BCB or (ii) the second anniversary of the closing of the merger.

Any amounts payable to FBBI shareholders will be transferred to the exchange agent, who will in turn pay them to FBBI shareholders of record as of the closing of the merger in accordance with their ownership interests at such time. FBBI shareholders may not transfer their rights to receive amounts from escrow after the closing of the merger and may not transfer them separate from their FBBI common stock.

Role of the Shareholder Representative. The shareholder representative will serve an important function on behalf of FBBI shareholders. Under the Escrow Agreement, the shareholder representative may select counsel to defend the class action lawsuits and will have the right to approve or reject any settlement of the class action lawsuits, provided that such approval may not be unreasonably withheld. In addition, each time that HBI requests a disbursement from escrow, the request must be submitted to the escrow agent in the form of a joint written direction signed by HBI and the representative, giving the representative the right to review and approve such requests.

Under the Escrow Agreement, the representative will be compensated for his or her services through a cash payment of $10,000 and will be indemnified for losses related to his or her services. Any indemnity will be funded through from the escrowed funds. If the shareholder representative becomes unwilling or unable to serve, HBI may select a replacement representative from among the FBBI shareholders, provided that such person may not be an employee of HBI or any of its affiliates.

The Escrow Agent; Fees and Expenses; Investment of Funds. Up to $10,000 of the fees of the escrow agent will be borne by HBI. Any additional fees and expenses of the escrow agent will be paid from the escrowed funds. The escrow agent has broad authority to take any number of actions with respect to the escrowed funds. In each case, the escrow agent will be held harmless for its actions and will be indemnified, subject to certain limitations, for its expenses from the escrowed funds. The escrow agent will place the escrowed funds in a non-interest bearing deposit account. As a result, the escrowed funds will not earn a return while placed in escrow.

Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute between HBI and the shareholder representative, the parties will be required to resolve such dispute through binding arbitration. At the conclusion of such arbitration, HBI and the shareholder representative will be required to give a joint written direction to the escrow agent to disburse the funds in accordance with the ruling of the arbitrator.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

This section describes the anticipated material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of FBBI common stock who exchange shares of FBBI common stock for shares of HBI common stock and cash pursuant to the merger. This discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to, or concurrently with, the merger (whether or not such transactions are undertaken in connection with the merger).

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code), its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder means a holder of FBBI common stock who is, for United States federal income tax purposes:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holds FBBI common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding FBBI common stock, you should consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the merger.

This discussion addresses only those FBBI shareholders that hold their FBBI common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code, and does not address all the United States federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular FBBI shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to FBBI shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons who exercise dissenters' rights;

persons that hold FBBI common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

persons who are not U.S. holders; and

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

HBI and FBBI have structured the mergers, taken together, to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, HBI and FBBI have received an opinion of Mitchell, Williams, Selig, Gates & Woodyard, P.L.L.C. (MWSGW), that, as of the date of such opinion, if certain factual circumstances exist, the mergers, taken together, will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that HBI and FBBI will each be a party to that reorganization. This tax opinion is an exhibit to this registration statement and the disclosure in this section is based upon such tax opinion. The parties will not be required to consummate the merger unless they each receive an additional opinion of MWSGW, dated the closing date of the merger, confirming that the mergers, taken together, will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and that HBI and FBBI will each be a party to that reorganization. The opinion of MWSGW regarding the merger will be based on assumptions, representations, warranties and covenants, including those contained in the Merger Agreement and in tax representation letters provided by HBI and FBBI. The accuracy of such assumptions, representations and warranties, and compliance with such covenants, could affect the conclusions set forth in such opinions. None of these opinions are binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. HBI and FBBI have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Accordingly, each FBBI shareholder should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the merger to such holder. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally. On the basis of the opinions delivered in connection herewith:

no gain or loss will be recognized by HBI or FBBI as a result of the merger;

gain (but not loss), if any, will be recognized by those holders who receive shares of HBI common stock and cash in exchange for shares of FBBI common stock pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) and the fair market value of the HBI common stock received pursuant to the merger over the adjusted tax basis in the FBBI common stock surrendered), and (2) the amount of cash received by such holder of FBBI common stock (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share);

the aggregate tax basis in the shares of HBI common stock received by a FBBI shareholder in the merger (including any fractional share interests deemed received and sold as described below) will equal the aggregate tax basis of the FBBI common stock surrendered, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share), and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized (excluding any gain recognized with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share) on the exchange (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain, or as ordinary dividend income, as discussed below); and the holding period of HBI common stock received in exchange for shares of FBBI common stock (including fractional shares of HBI common stock deemed received and redeemed as described below) will include the holding period of the FBBI common stock that is surrendered in the merger.

If a holder of FBBI common stock acquired different blocks of FBBI common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of FBBI common stock and such holder's basis and holding period in his or her shares of HBI common stock may be determined with reference to each block of FBBI common stock. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and HBI common stock received in the exchange should be allocated among different blocks of FBBI common stock and with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of HBI common stock received in the merger.

Table of Contents

Taxation of Gains. Gain that holders of FBBI common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such holders have held (or are treated as having held) their FBBI common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. Long-term capital gain of non-corporate holders of FBBI common stock is generally taxed at preferential rates. In some cases, if a holder actually or constructively owns HBI stock other than HBI stock received pursuant to the merger, the recognized gain could be treated as having the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of the constructive ownership rules, holders of FBBI common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Tax Treatment of the Contingent Consideration. FBBI shareholders may be eligible to recognize any gain realized with respect to that portion of the merger consideration that is contingent (i.e., the $2,000,000 that is being held in escrow and that may be released to FBBI shareholders, in whole or in part, upon resolution of certain litigation) under the installment method unless a holder elects to not have the installment method apply to the sale. Under the contingent payment installment sale rules, an FBBI shareholder must allocate a portion of the basis in his, her, or its FBBI common stock to the contingent portion of the consideration received in the merger. The rules for allocating basis in a contingent payment sale that is subject to the installment rules can be quite complex. The rules for allocating basis provide generally that, in the case of a contingent payment sale in which there is a maximum selling price, basis is allocated ratably to each potential payment, regardless of whether such payment is contingent or not. The regulations provide alternative methods of recovering basis if failure to employ the alternative method would result in a substantial distortion of income or basis recovery over time. Use of an alternative method may require pre-approval from the Internal Revenue Service, i.e., the taxpayer may be required to submit a request to the Internal Revenue Service for a letter approving the use of such alternative method, before allocating basis and reporting any gain using such alternative method on the taxpayer's tax return. Finally, since any payment made to FBBI shareholders from the escrow will be made subsequent to closing, the imputed interest or original issue discount rules of the Internal Revenue Code will require that a portion of any such payment be treated as interest income and reported by HBI as such to FBBI shareholders. Only the excess of the amount received upon release from the escrow over the amounts treated as interest income (net of any basis allocated to such contingent payment) may be recognized as capital gain with respect to the exchange of FBBI common stock in connection with the merger. Application of the contingent payment installment sale rules to a particular taxpayer's situation can be quite complex and FBBI shareholders are strongly encouraged to seek the advice of tax counsel in determining how these rules may apply to them in connection with any gain recognized upon the exchange of FBBI common stock for cash, including any cash paid to FBBI shareholders upon release of the escrowed amount, and HBI common stock in connection with the merger.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of HBI Common Stock. If a FBBI shareholder receives cash instead of a fractional share of HBI common stock, he or she will be treated as having received the fractional share of HBI common stock pursuant to the applicable merger and then as having sold that fractional share of HBI common stock for cash. As a result, the FBBI shareholder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis allocable to the fractional share interest as set forth above. Except as described above, this gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a holder of FBBI common stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to HBI and the exchange agent or, in the case of backup withholding, furnishes its correct taxpayer identification number and generally otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Table of Contents

The discussion set forth above does not address all United States federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to holders of FBBI common stock and may not be applicable to such holders that are subject to special rules. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

DESCRIPTION OF HBI S CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a description of the HBI common stock and certain provisions of HBI s Restated Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and applicable law. The following is only a summary and is qualified by applicable law and by the provisions of HBI s Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, copies of which have been filed with the SEC and are also available upon request from HBI.

General

Under HBI s Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, HBI has authority to issue up to 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and up to 5,500,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. Each share of HBI common stock has the same relative rights as, and is identical in all respects to, each other share of HBI common stock.

As of June 30, 2015, there were 67,737,390 shares of HBI common stock issued and outstanding, and approximately 2,147,732 shares of common stock were reserved for issuance pursuant to HBI s stock option plan. HBI common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol HOMB. The outstanding shares of HBI s common stock are validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

As of June 30, 2015, no shares of HBI preferred stock are issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. Holders of HBI common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. Holders of HBI common stock do not have cumulative voting rights.

Dividend Rights. Holders of HBI common stock are entitled to receive ratably dividends when, as, and if declared by HBI s board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. Holders of any preferred stock HBI may issue in the future may have a priority over holders of common stock with respect to dividends. The payment of dividends is subject to government regulation, in that regulatory authorities may prohibit banks and bank holding companies from paying dividends in a manner that would constitute an unsafe or unsound banking practice. In addition, a bank may not pay cash dividends if doing so would reduce the amount of its capital below that necessary to meet minimum regulatory capital requirements. State laws also limit a bank s ability to pay dividends. Accordingly, the dividend restrictions imposed on HBI s subsidiaries by statute or regulation effectively may limit the amount of dividends HBI can pay.

Liquidation and Dissolution. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution and winding up of HBI, the holders of HBI common stock are entitled to receive ratably all of the assets of HBI available for distribution after satisfaction of all liabilities of HBI, subject to the rights of the holders of any of HBI s preferred shares that may be issued from time to time.

Other Rights. Holders of HBI common stock have no preferential or preemptive rights with respect to any securities of HBI, and there are no conversion rights or redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to HBI common stock.

Restrictions on Ownership. The Bank Holding Company Act requires any bank holding company, as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act, to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Board prior to the acquisition of 5% or more of HBI common stock. Any person, other than a bank holding company, is required to obtain prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board to acquire 10% or more of HBI common stock under the Change in Bank Control Act. Any holder of 25% or more of HBI common stock, or a holder of 5% or more if such holder otherwise exercises a controlling influence over HBI, is subject to regulation as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act.

Table of Contents

Modification of Rights. Rights of the holders of HBI common stock may not be modified by less than a majority vote of the common stock outstanding. Additionally, under the Arkansas Business Corporation Act of 1987, a majority vote is required for the approval of a merger or consolidation with another corporation, and for the sale of all or substantially all of HBI's assets and liquidation or dissolution of HBI.

Transfer Agent. The transfer agent and registrar for HBI common stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A., P.O. Box 43078, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-3078.

For additional information concerning HBI's common stock, see "Comparison of Rights of Holders of HBI and FBBI Common Stock" below.

Preferred Stock

The 5,500,000 authorized shares of HBI preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, are typically referred to as "blank check" preferred stock. This term means that these shares of preferred stock may be issued with such preferences, limitations, relative rights, and terms as determined by HBI's board of directors. As such, the board of directors can, without shareholder approval, issue preferred stock with voting, dividend, liquidation and conversion rights that could dilute the voting strength of the holders of the common stock and may assist management in impeding an unfriendly takeover or attempted change in control. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, HBI had no designated or outstanding shares of preferred stock.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF HBI AND FBBI COMMON STOCK*General

FBBI is incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida and the rights of FBBI shareholders are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, FBBI's Articles of Incorporation and FBBI's Bylaws, as amended. As a result of the merger, FBBI shareholders who receive shares of HBI common stock will become HBI shareholders. HBI is incorporated under the laws of the State of Arkansas and the rights of HBI shareholders are governed by the laws of the State of Arkansas, HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and HBI's Bylaws. Thus, following the merger, the rights of FBBI shareholders who become HBI shareholders in the merger will no longer be governed by FBBI's Articles of Incorporation and FBBI's Bylaws, and instead will be governed by HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws.

Comparison of Shareholders' Rights

Set forth below is a summary comparison of material differences between the rights of HBI shareholders under the HBI Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws (right column), and the rights of FBBI shareholders under FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and its Bylaws, as amended (left column). The summary set forth below is not intended to provide a comprehensive discussion of each company's governing documents. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation and amendments thereto, HBI's Bylaws, FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and FBBI's Bylaws.

FBBIHBI*Removal of Directors

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and its Bylaws provide that directors may be removed for any reason at a meeting of shareholders, noticed and called expressly for that purpose by a vote of the holders of not less than 66% of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

HBI's Restated Bylaws provide that a director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the shareholders at a special meeting called expressly for that purpose.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors

FBBI's Bylaws provide that any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including any vacancy created by reason of an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

HBI's Restated Bylaws provide that if a vacancy occurs in the Board of Directors by reason of death or resignation, or if the shareholders fail to fill all the vacancies on the board of directors at the annual meeting of shareholders or any meeting for the purpose of electing directors, or if by an affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors a vacancy is declared to exist, the vacancies shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining members of the board of directors. Any vacancy caused by removal of a director shall be filled by the shareholders at a shareholders meeting at which the vacancy is created or at a subsequent meeting.

Shareholder Proposals and Nominations

FBBI Bylaws provide that a shareholder may place on the agenda certain new business to be considered at an annual meeting, including the nominations for directors, provided the shareholder has given proper written notice to the Corporate Secretary of not less than ten business days before the time originally fixed for such meeting.

FBBI Bylaws provide that to be considered for inclusion in the proxy statement and proxy relating to the annual meeting of shareholders, a shareholder proposal must be received by the Corporate Secretary of FBBI by no later than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days in advance of the date (month and date) of FBBI's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting, except if no annual meeting was held in the previous year, such proposal must be received by FBBI at a reasonable time before solicitation for the upcoming annual meeting of the shareholders is made.

HBI has adopted a policy stating that its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider a candidate properly and timely recommended for directorship by a stockholder or group of stockholders of HBI if:

The recommendation is submitted by one or more stockholders that have individually or as a group owned beneficially at least two percent of HBI's issued and outstanding common stock for at least one year, determined as of the date the recommendation is submitted; and

The recommendation is submitted to the Secretary of HBI, in writing via certified U.S. mail, not less than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the proxy statement relating to HBI's previous annual meeting.

The recommendation includes specified information about the recommending shareholder(s) and the candidate, such required information is provided in more detail in HBI's Policy Regarding Director Recommendations by Stockholders and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Directorship Guidelines and Selection Policy published on HBI's website at www.homebancshares.com under the caption Investor Relations / Corporate Profile / Governance Documents.

The recommending shareholder(s) and the candidate submit, with the recommendation, a signed statement agreeing and acknowledging that, among other things, the recommending shareholder will maintain an ownership of at least two percent of HBI's stock throughout the candidate's term as director.

Upon receipt of the recommendation, the committee will consider the qualifications of the candidate. The committee does not intend to review and/or consider candidates in a manner different than other recommendations, although the committee may prefer director candidates who are personally known to the existing directors, have the requisite experience and whose reputations are highly regarded.

In order for a proposal by a shareholder to be presented at an annual meeting of HBI's shareholders, the proposal must be included in the related proxy statement and proxy form. For a shareholder proposal to be included in the proxy statement and proxy form for an annual meeting of HBI's shareholders, the proposal must: (1) concern a matter that may be properly considered and acted upon at the annual meeting in accordance with applicable laws, including HBI's Bylaws and Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act; and (2) be received by HBI at its home office, 719 Harkrider Street, Suite 100, Conway, Arkansas 72032, Attention: Holly A. McKenna, Secretary, not less than 120 calendar days before the anniversary of the date of the previous year's proxy statement, or November 5, 2015, in the case of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders in 2016. If no annual meeting was held the previous year and in any year in which the date of the annual meeting is moved by more than 30 days from the date of the previous year's annual meeting, the proposal will be considered timely if received within a reasonable time before HBI begins to print and mail its proxy materials.

Voting Rights in an Extraordinary Transaction

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation state that FBBI shall not be merged or consolidated with another corporation or entity and FBBI shall not sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of FBBI unless such merger, consolidation, sale or disposition is approved by a vote of at least 66% of the outstanding shares of common stock of FBBI.

Neither HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, nor HBI's Restated Bylaws impose heightened shareholder approval requirements for any action. Arkansas law therefore governs the number of votes required to take any action.

Anti-Takeover Provisions and Other Shareholder Protections

In addition to the increased voting requirements described above, FBBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation require that FBBI's board of directors consider, in the context of a merger or acquisition transaction, the social and economic effect of the transaction on FBBI's present and future customers and employees and those of BCB and of other FBBI subsidiaries; on the communities in which FBBI and BCB operate or are located; on the ability of the FBBI Company to fulfill its corporate objectives as a financial institution holding company; and on the ability of BCB to fulfill the objectives of such institutions under applicable statutes and regulations. Consideration of these factors could have caused the board of directors of FBBI to reject an acquisition proposal that was otherwise advantageous to the shareholders of FBBI.

In addition, FBBI has entered into contracts with certain officers and employees entitling such persons to payments upon a merger or other takeover event, if such person's employment is terminated as described in more detail in such contracts.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that FBBI shall indemnify any person made a party to an action, suit or proceeding:

(a) by, or in the right of, FBBI to procure a judgment in favor by reason of such person being or having been (i) a director, officer, employee or agent of FBBI; (ii) a director, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, firm, association or entity which such person served as such at the request of FBBI, including a subsidiary of FBBI (but only if such indemnification is approved in writing by the Chief Executive Officer of FBBI); or (iii) trustee of any employee benefit plan or trust or other program sponsored by FBBI or any subsidiary of FBBI, in each case, against the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein; provided that indemnification is limited to instances where the Board of Directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting only of directors not a party to such proceeding, determines, the person to be indemnified acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of FBBI with no reasonable belief to believe his or her action was unlawful. Additionally, in any case where such person is adjudged in a final adjudication to have been guilty of, or liable for, conduct as to which as a matter of law, no such indemnification may be made; and

(b) other than one by or in the right of FBBI to procure judgement in its favor, whether civil or criminal, brought to impose liability or penalty on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his or her capacity as: (i) a director, officer, employee or agent of FBBI; (ii) a director, officer, employee or agent of any other Corporation, firm, association or entity which such person served as such at the request of FBBI, including a subsidiary of FBBI (but only if such indemnification is approved in writing by the Chief Executive Officer of FBBI); or (iii) a

In HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Restated Bylaws, every person who was or is a party to, or is involved in, any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of HBI (or is or was serving at the request of HBI as a director or officer of another entity) shall be indemnified and held harmless to the fullest extent legally permissible under and pursuant to any procedure specified in the Arkansas Business Corporation Act of 1987 (ABCA), against all expenses, liabilities and losses reasonably incurred or suffered by him in connection therewith.

The rights of indemnification provided in the Restated Articles of Incorporation are not exclusive of any rights which may be available under any agreement, vote of stockholders, provision of law or otherwise. In addition, the Articles of Incorporation authorize HBI to maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of HBI, whether or not HBI would have the power to provide indemnification to such person.

trustee of any employee benefit plan or trust or other program sponsored by FBBI or any subsidiary of FBBI, in each case, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding, or any appeal therein, unless the Board of Directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of only directors not a party to such proceeding, determines that such person did not act in good faith and with the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interest of FBBI.

The termination of any such civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by judgment, settlement, conviction, or upon plea of nolo contendere shall not itself disqualify such person from indemnification except in any case where such person is adjudged in a final adjudication to have been guilty of, or liable for, conduct as to which as a matter of law, no such indemnification may be made.

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that FBBI shall not indemnify any person, if a judgment or other financial adjudication established that his or her actions or omissions were material to cause of action and constitute: (a) a violation of a criminal law, unless the person had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful;(b) a transaction from which the person derived improper personal benefit; (c) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Florida law governing unlawful distributions or dividends is triggered; or (d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of FBBI in a proceeding by or in the right of FBBI to procure a judgement in its favor in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that FBBI may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of FBBI or of any other corporation, firm, association or entity which such person served as such at the request of FBBI, including a subsidiary of FBBI, if the Board of Directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting only of directors not a party to such proceeding, determines that the person seeking indemnification: (a) acted in good faith; (b) acted in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interest of FBBI; and (c) with respect to a criminal action, he or she had no reason to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be offered to directors, officers and controlling persons of FBBI, FBBI has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by FBBI of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of FBBI in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, FBBI undertakes, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, to submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and agrees to be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that FBBI may enter into indemnification agreements with directors, officers, employees of FBBI or of any other corporations, firm, association or entity which such person served as such at the request of FBBI, including a subsidiary of FBBI which may provide for further or expanded indemnification rights or otherwise modify the rights provided.

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that FBBI (a) may elect to advance payments of expenses, including attorneys' fees to any person who may be entitled to indemnification hereunder during the pendency of any claim, action or proceeding; provided such advancement is made after a determination by either the Board of directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting only of directors not a party to such proceeding, or by independent legal counsel, that such an advancement is proper and in FBBI's best interest and provided any person seeking advancement of expenses agrees in writing to reimburse FBBI for such expenses if that person is ultimately determined not to be entitled to indemnification from FBBI; and (b) in any instance where more than one person may be entitled to advancement of attorneys' fees hereunder, shall select one attorney to serve as attorney for all such persons, unless, in the opinion of the attorney selected by FBBI, a conflict of interest exists which would prevent representation by that attorney of one or more persons. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, any person may at any time decide to be represented by an attorney of his choosing, at his or her own expense.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that any action required or permitted to be taken by the shareholders of FBBI may be effected at a duly called Annual or Special Meeting of Shareholders of FBBI or may be effected by consent in writing by such shareholders.

Shareholder action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of all shares entitled to vote thereon.

Table of ContentsFBBI*HBI*Special Meetings

FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that Special Meetings of shareholders of FBBI, may be called by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board for adoption), the Chairman of the Board or the President of FBBI, or by shareholders holding at least twenty percent (20%) of the outstanding shares of FBBI.

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the president, resolution of the board of directors, or by the holders of not less than ten percent (10%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting.

Shareholders' Rights to Examine Books and Records

Per FBBI's Bylaws, FBBI shareholders are entitled to inspect and extract during regular business hours, at FBBI's principal office, corporate records entitled to inspection by shareholders under Florida law, if the shareholder gives written notice of his or her demand at least five (5) business days before the date of inspection. Specifically, Florida law permits shareholder inspection of (i) FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and any amendments thereto; (ii) board resolutions creating any classes or series of shares and fixing their relative rights; (iii) shareholder meeting minutes and records for the past three years; (iv) written communications to all shareholders, including financial statements furnished, for the past three years; (v) the names and business street addresses of the current directors and officers; and (vi) FBBI's most recent annual report delivered to the Florida Department of State.

Arkansas law provides a shareholder and his, her, or its agent or attorney with a right to inspect (beginning two (2) business days after notice of a meeting is given) and copy the corporation's shareholder list.

The shareholder's written demand must state the purpose of the request. FBBI may impose a reasonable charge to cover the costs of labor and material for copies of any documents provided to the shareholder. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

Arkansas law also permits any shareholder, on at least five (5) business days advance written demand to the corporation, to inspect (1) the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect, (2) board resolutions of the corporation relating to the creation of fixing the rights, preferences and limitations of any class of shares that are still outstanding, (3) minutes of shareholder meetings, records of actions taken by shareholders without a meeting and all written communications to shareholders, including financial statements furnished to shareholders, for the past three (3) years, (4) the name and business addresses of the current directors and officers, and (5) the most recent annual franchise tax report delivered to the Arkansas Secretary of State. In addition, a shareholder satisfying specified conditions is entitled to inspect (a) excerpts of minutes of any meeting of the board of directors and records of any actions of any committee of the board of directors and of actions taken by the board of directors without a meeting, (b) accounting records, (c) the record of shareholders, and (d) the shareholder list as described above, in each case if the demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose, describes the purpose of the inspection and the desired records with reasonable particularity, and the desired records are directly connected to the purpose of such inspection.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Under Florida law, an amendment to the articles of incorporation generally is approved if a majority of the votes representing the quorum approves it; provided, however, FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation state that the Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained within [its] Articles of Incorporation in the manner prescribed by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, and all rights conferred upon shareholders are granted subject to this reservation; however, an affirmative vote of at least 66% of the outstanding common stock of FBBI shall be necessary to amend Articles VIII and Article VI, section 6 of FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation.

Under Arkansas law, an amendment to the articles of incorporation generally is approved if a majority of the votes representing the quorum approves it. Pursuant to HBI's Restated Bylaws, a quorum at any meeting of the shareholders of HBI consists of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, represented in person or by proxy at such meeting.

An amendment to the Restated Bylaws may be adopted, amended or repealed at any meeting of the board of directors.

FBBI's Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted, by the Board of Directors.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under Arkansas law, a majority of a class of stock must approve any amendment that adversely affects their particular class as further described in Ark. Code Ann. §4-27-1004.

Dividends

Under Florida law and FBBI's Bylaws, FBBI may not make any distribution to its shareholders if, after giving effect to the distribution (1) FBBI is insolvent or (2) FBBI's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if FBBI were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Under Arkansas law, a corporation may not make any distribution to its shareholders if, after giving effect to the distribution (1) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or (2) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution. The ability of HBI to pay dividends to its shareholders is directly influenced by the ability of Centennial Bank to pay dividends to HBI, as its sole shareholder.

Approval of the Florida Office of Financial Regulations is required before a Florida bank can declare and pay any dividend where its net income from the current year combined with the retained net income from the preceding two years is a loss or which would cause the capital accounts of the bank to fall below the minimum amount required by law, regulation, order or any written agreement any dividend of 75% or more of its net profits after all taxes for the current year plus 75% of the retained net profits for the immediately preceding year.

FBBI and BCB are also subject to relevant regulations and policies promulgated by the Federal Reserve and the FDIC relating to the payment of dividends. In general, these regulations and policies may limit the payment of dividends in relation to FBBI's earnings and when BCB is considered less than well capitalized for regulatory purposes.

In addition, the Federal Reserve further limits the ability to pay dividends if the total of all dividends declared in any calendar year by the bank exceeds the bank's net profits to date for that year combined with its retained net profits for the preceding two years.

Appraisal Rights

Neither FBBI's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation nor FBBI's Bylaws, as amended, address appraisal rights. Florida law therefore governs when a shareholder is entitled to dissent, the process for dissenting and the amount of the payment.

Neither HBI's Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, nor HBI's Bylaws address dissenters' rights. Arkansas law therefore governs when a shareholder is entitled to dissent, the process for dissenting and the amount of the payment.

Pursuant to Florida Statutes § 607.1302, the FBBI shareholders have appraisal rights because FBBI shares are being acquired.

The HBI shareholders do not have dissenters' rights for this transaction under Arkansas law.

FBBI SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

General

FBBI's board of directors is using this proxy statement/prospectus to solicit proxies from the holders of shares of FBBI common stock for use at the FBBI special meeting.

Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, FBBI is also sending you a notice of the special meeting and a form of proxy that is solicited by FBBI's board of directors. The FBBI special meeting will be held at [], Tampa, Florida at [] Eastern Time. On [], 2015, FBBI commenced mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy to its shareholders entitled to vote at the FBBI special meeting.

Purpose of FBBI Special Meeting

At the FBBI special meeting, FBBI shareholders will be asked to:

approve the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus, which is referred to as the Merger Proposal; and approve one or more adjournments of the FBBI special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal, which is referred to as the Adjournment Proposal.

Recommendation of FBBI's Board of Directors

FBBI's board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the Merger Proposal and FOR the Adjournment Proposal. See The Merger Recommendation of FBBI's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger on page 42.

FBBI Record Date and Quorum

FBBI's board of directors has fixed the close of business on [], 2015, as the record date for determining the holders of FBBI stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the FBBI special meeting.

As of the FBBI record date, there were [] shares of FBBI common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the FBBI special meeting held by [] holders of record. Each share of FBBI common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the FBBI special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the FBBI special meeting.

The representation (in person or by proxy) of holders of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on each of the matters to be voted on at the FBBI special meeting constitutes a quorum for action on that matter at the FBBI special meeting. All shares of FBBI common stock present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the FBBI special meeting.

Required Vote; Effects of Abstention or Failure to Vote

Required Vote to Approve the Merger Proposal. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote by the holders of at least 66% of the outstanding common shares of FBBI, provided that a quorum is present at the FBBI special meeting. Therefore, assuming that a quorum is present, your failure to vote, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal.

The directors and certain officers of FBBI and BCB entered into voting agreements with HBI pursuant to which they agreed to vote 3,594,125 total shares in favor of the merger. These shares represent approximately 46.0% of the FBBI common stock entitled to vote at the FBBI special meeting (excluding any shares issued upon exercise of FBBI options).

Table of Contents

Required Vote to Approve the Adjournment Proposal. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of FBBI voting on the proposal. Therefore, your failure to vote, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have no effect on the approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Voting on Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Giving a proxy means that a FBBI shareholder authorizes the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote its shares at the FBBI special meeting in the manner it directs. A FBBI shareholder may vote by proxy or in person at the FBBI special meeting. If you hold your shares of the FBBI common stock in your name as a shareholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a FBBI shareholder, may vote by completing and signing the accompanying proxy and returning it to FBBI as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of FBBI stock represented by it will be voted at the FBBI special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card.

If any proxy is returned without indication as to how to vote, the shares of FBBI common stock represented by the proxy will be voted as recommended by FBBI's board of directors.

If your shares are held in a street name, you should follow the instructions you receive from your broker in order to direct your broker how to vote, and you should also follow the instructions of your broker regarding revocation of proxies.

Every FBBI shareholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each FBBI shareholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, whether or not the FBBI shareholder plans to attend the FBBI special meeting in person.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a FBBI Shareholder's Vote

A FBBI shareholder has the power to change his or her vote at any time before his or her shares of FBBI common stock are voted at the FBBI special meeting by:

sending a written notice of revocation to FBBI's corporate secretary at 4301 W. Boy Scout Boulevard, Suite 150, Tampa, Florida 33607 stating that you would like to revoke your proxy; sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card; or attending the FBBI special meeting and voting in person if your shares of FBBI common stock are registered in your name rather than in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, and you so request, although attendance at the special meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

If you choose the first or the second method, FBBI must receive your written notice of revocation or later dated proxy card prior to the shareholder vote on the Merger Proposal at the special meeting. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of FBBI common stock, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change or revoke your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by FBBI. FBBI will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries of reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, directors, officers and regular employees of FBBI may solicit proxies personally by telephone without additional compensation.

Attending the FBBI Special Meeting

All FBBI shareholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the FBBI special meeting. Registration and seating will begin at [], Eastern Time.

Table of Contents

If you hold your shares of FBBI common stock in your name as a shareholder of record and you wish to attend the FBBI special meeting, please bring your proxy and valid picture identification to the FBBI special meeting.

If your shares of FBBI common stock are held in street name in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or nominee and you wish to attend the FBBI special meeting, you need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the FBBI special meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date. If you also intend to vote at the special meeting, you must also obtain and bring a legal proxy, executed in your favor, from the broker, bank or other nominee that is the holder of record of your shares. In either instance, you should also bring valid picture identification.

FBBI PROPOSALS

Merger Proposal

As discussed throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, FBBI is asking its shareholders to approve the Merger Proposal. Holders of FBBI common stock should read carefully this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including the appendices, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the merger. In particular, holders of FBBI common stock are directed to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

FBBI's board of directors recommends a vote FOR the Merger Proposal.

Adjournment Proposal

The FBBI special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the FBBI special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal.

If, at the FBBI special meeting, the number of shares of FBBI common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Proposal is insufficient to approve the Merger Proposal, FBBI intends to move to adjourn the FBBI special meeting in order to enable FBBI's board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Merger Agreement. In that event, FBBI will ask its shareholders to vote only upon the Adjournment Proposal, and not the Merger Proposal.

In this proposal, FBBI is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by FBBI's board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders, and each of them individually, to adjourn the FBBI special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the FBBI shareholders approve the Adjournment Proposal, FBBI could adjourn the FBBI special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from FBBI shareholders who have previously voted.

FBBI's board of directors recommends a vote FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

No Other Matters To Come Before the FBBI Special Meeting

No other matters will be brought before the FBBI special meeting.

CERTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING FBBI

General

FBBI was incorporated under Florida law in November 1999. It currently owns one community bank BCB. BCB is a Florida chartered bank that operates branches in Tampa, Lutz, St. Petersburg, and Sarasota, Florida, and a loan production office in Clearwater, Florida. BCB commenced business in November 1999.

FBBI is a bank holding company regulated by the Federal Reserve. FBBI's assets consist principally of the shares of stock of BCB and cash. BCB is a Florida chartered bank that is regulated by the FDIC and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation. Its deposits are insured by the FDIC up to applicable federal deposit insurance limits.

BCB provides a full range of commercial and consumer banking services in Tampa, St. Petersburg, and Sarasota, Florida. The banking products offered by BCB include checking and savings accounts, business checking accounts, time deposits and money market accounts. BCB also offers internet banking services, bill payment, cash management services, remote deposit capture, retirement account services and cash management services. BCB also conducts commercial lending activities from its office in Clearwater, Florida.

At March 31, 2015, FBBI had total assets of $541.0 million, total deposits of $457.5 million, and total stockholders equity of $73.1 million. FBBI is privately held, and, as of the record date, had approximately 375 holders of record of its common stock. There is no market for its stock, and its shares are only traded in privately negotiated transactions.

FBBI's principal executive offices are located at 4301 W. Boy Scout Boulevard, Suite 150, Tampa, Florida 33607, and its telephone number is (813) 281-0009. FBBI's internet address is <https://www.bay-cities-bank.com>.

Market Area

BCB's branches and lending offices are located in Hillsborough, Pinellas, and Sarasota counties, Florida. Its market area is concentrated in the Tampa St. Petersburg Clearwater MSA.

Competition

BCB competes for deposits in its banking market with commercial banks, credit unions, agencies issuing United States government securities and all other organizations and institutions engaged in money market transactions. In its lending activities, BCB competes with all other financial institutions as well as consumer finance companies, mortgage companies and other lenders. Commercial banking in the Tampa MSA and in Florida as a whole is extremely competitive.

Interest rates, both on loans and deposits, and prices of fee-based services are significant competitive factors among financial institutions generally. Other important competitive factors include office location, office hours, the quality of customer service, community reputation, continuity of personnel and services, and, in the case of larger commercial customers, relative lending limits and the ability to offer sophisticated cash management and other commercial banking services. Most of BCB's competitors have greater resources, broader geographic markets and higher lending limits than it does, and they can offer more products and services and can better afford and make more effective use of media advertising, support services and electronic technology than can BCB.

In recent years, federal and state legislation has heightened the competitive environment in which all financial institutions conduct their business, and the potential for competition among financial institutions of all types has increased significantly. Additionally, with the elimination of restrictions on interstate banking

Table of Contents

(including those most recently implemented by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act), a bank headquartered in Florida may be required to compete not only with other Florida-based financial institutions, but also with out-of-state financial institutions which may acquire Florida institutions, establish or acquire branch offices in Florida, or otherwise offer financial services across state lines, thereby adding to the competitive atmosphere of the industry in general.

To counter its competitive disadvantages, BCB attempts to differentiate itself from its larger competitors with its focus on relationship banking, personalized service, direct customer contact, and its ability to make credit and other business decisions locally. BCB also depends on its reputation as a community bank in its banking markets and its involvement in the community it serves.

Subsidiaries

FBBI has one subsidiary, BCB. BCB currently owns four investment subsidiaries for the liquidation of problem real estate assets and owns 100% of Total Integrated Payment Solutions, Inc. (which we refer to as TIPS). TIPS markets certain software licenses owned by BCB relating to ACH transfers and currently conducts no other active business operations.

Employees

At March 31, 2015, BCB had 87 employees. None of BCB's employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement. BCB believes its relations with its employees to be good.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time as part of their respective businesses, FBBI and/or BCB is subject to routine litigation, including routine collection and foreclosure matters.

In addition to these matters that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business, BCB has been named as a defendant in two separate putative class action matters filed in New York and North Carolina, respectively. The claims are based on allegations that BCB participated in a scheme to facilitate allegedly illegal payday loans by effectuating Automated Clearing House (ACH) transactions involving payday lenders and borrowers. The allegations involve BCB's All Cities Processing line of business, which was terminated as of March 2013. The lawsuits assert claims under the federal RICO statute that are premised on the alleged collection of unenforceable debts due to state usury laws, as well as various state law claims. The matter styled Moss v. BMO Harris Bank et al., was filed in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York on September 30, 2013, and the matter styled Dillon v. BMO Harris Bank et al., was filed in the United States District Court, Middle District of North Carolina on October 8, 2013. BCB filed motions to compel arbitration and motions to dismiss in both actions. Litigation in each matter is ongoing with respect to the cases' entry into arbitration.

THE DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS OF FBBI AND BCB HAVE FINANCIAL INTERESTS IN THE MERGER

In considering the recommendation of the FBBI Board that you vote to approve the merger on substantially the terms set forth in the merger agreement, you should be aware that the directors and executive officers of FBBI and BCB have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of FBBI's shareholders generally. The FBBI Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to approve the Merger Agreement and to recommend that you vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

Share Ownership

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of FBBI beneficially owned 3,246,955 shares of FBBI common stock, representing 41.56% of the outstanding shares of FBBI common stock with voting power, including outstanding options to acquire common stock. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of FBBI on page 94.

Stock Options

Certain of FBBI's and BCB's officers hold options to purchase shares of FBBI common stock. Under the Merger Agreement, to the extent that the exercise price of these stock options is less than the per-share merger consideration, assuming all contingent consideration is paid to FBBI shareholders, the holder of the stock option will be paid, for each option he or she holds, the difference between (i) the amount of the per-share merger consideration and (ii) the exercise price of such option. Such amounts will be paid to the holders in cash at closing and will be paid irrespective of whether the option would have been vested at the time of the closing. The table below sets forth amounts to be paid to FBBI's and BCB's executive officers based upon the number of options they held on the date of the Merger Agreement. In addition to the amounts disclosed below, HBI will make payments to other non-executive officers and employees of BCB in the aggregate amount of $109,750 in respect of the termination of their stock options.

Voting Agreements

As an inducement to and a condition of HBI's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, each of the directors, and certain of the executive officers, of FBBI and BCB entered into a voting agreement with HBI and Centennial Bank. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these individuals agreed, among other things, to vote (or cause to be voted), all the shares owned beneficially by each of them, in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting of the FBBI shareholders, except in accordance with the directors' fiduciary duties in the event of a Superior Proposal, as such is defined in the Merger Agreement. As of June 17, 2015, 3,594,125 shares of FBBI common stock, or approximately 46.0% of the outstanding shares of FBBI common stock, were held by individuals who have entered into a voting agreement. A copy of the form of this voting agreement is attached as Exhibit A to the Merger Agreement attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. FBBI shareholders are urged to read the voting agreements in their entirety.

Table of ContentsFBBI Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

HBI has agreed to indemnify the present and former directors and officers of FBBI and BCB following the merger against certain liabilities arising from their acts or omissions occurring before the merger. The terms of such indemnification will be consistent with those set forth in the governing documents of FBBI and BCB in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. HBI has also agreed to provide directors and officers liability insurance for the directors and officers of FBBI for a period of six years following the merger with respect to acts or omissions occurring before the merger that were committed by such directors and officers in their capacities as such. However, should the annual premiums paid to procure or maintain such insurance exceeds $170,000, HBI and FBBI will cooperate to select the most advantageous policy or policies available at a cost not to exceed $170,000.

If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Book-Entry Shares representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the applicable Merger Consideration in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no fractional shares of HBI Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for exchange, no dividend or distribution with respect to HBI Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of HBI. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, HBI shall pay to each former shareholder of FBBI who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the HBI Average Closing Price by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of FBBI Common Stock held by such holder at the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest ten thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of HBI Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.4.

(g) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of FBBI as of the one (1) year anniversary of the Effective Time will be transferred to HBI. In such event, any former shareholders of FBBI who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to HBI with respect to the Closing Consideration and any unpaid dividends and distributions on HBI Common Stock deliverable in respect of each Exchangeable Share such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of HBI, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of FBBI Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(h) In the event that any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by HBI or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as HBI may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article II, issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

(i) Subject to the condition that the Purchase Price shall consist as nearly as practicable (taking into account, among other things, (i) cash payments in lieu of the issuance of fractional shares of HBI Common Stock and (ii) the reservation of HBI Common Stock and cash as necessary, in Purchaser's reasonable discretion, to pay the Merger Consideration in respect of any Dissenting Shares) of twenty percent (20%) Total Cash Consideration and eighty percent (80%) Total Stock Consideration, each record holder of Exchangeable Shares will be entitled to make an election (the Optional Election) to receive the Closing Consideration payable in respect of the exchange for such holder's Exchangeable Shares: (i) all in cash, or (ii) all in HBI Common Stock, or (iii) in a combination of cash and HBI Common Stock in percentages of value (which shall total 100%) specified by the holder; provided that in each case such holder's Exchangeable Shares are exchanged for cash or HBI Common Stock or a combination of cash and HBI Common Stock with a total value equal to the value of the Closing Consideration payable for such Exchangeable Shares. All Optional Elections shall be made on a Form of Election designed for that purpose and included with or incorporated into the Letter of Transmittal mailed pursuant to Section 2.2(a). Any record holder of Exchangeable Shares not making a timely Optional Election shall receive the Closing Consideration consisting of cash and shares of HBI Common Stock as provided in Section 2.2(b). Holders of record of Exchangeable Shares who hold such shares as nominees, trustees or in other representative capacities (Representative) may submit multiple Forms of Election, provided that such Representative certifies that each such Form of Election covers the Exchangeable Shares held by the Representative for a particular beneficial owner. In the event that all Optional Elections would, if honored as requested, cause the Purchase Price to vary from twenty percent (20%) Total Cash Consideration and eighty percent (80%) Total Stock Consideration, the available cash and shares of HBI Common Stock shall be allocated ratably among the holders making Optional Elections. In no event shall an Optional Election apply to the Contingent Consideration, if any, that may be payable under Section 2.3, which Contingent Consideration, if any, shall be paid only in cash.

2.3 Payment of Contingent Consideration.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Escrow Agreement, any balance remaining in the Escrow Account (such remaining balance being called herein the Contingent Consideration) as of the date the Escrow Agreement shall provide for a final distribution to the former FBBI shareholders (the Escrow Termination Date) shall be distributed by the Exchange Agent, within ten (10) Business Days after the Exchange Agent's receipt of the Contingent Consideration, to all holders of Exchanged Shares who have properly submitted Letters of Transmittal and otherwise complied with the requirements of Section 2.2(b). Each such holder of Exchanged Shares shall be entitled to receive a percentage of the Contingent Consideration equal to the percentage of the Closing Consideration previously paid to such holder. No interest (except such as may have accrued through investment of the funds held in the Escrow Account) shall be payable on any Contingent Consideration.

(b) Any portion of the Contingent Consideration that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of FBBI as of the one (1) year anniversary of the Escrow Termination Date will be transferred to HBI. In such event, any former shareholders of FBBI who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to HBI with respect to the Contingent Consideration, if any, payable in respect of each Exchangeable Share such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon (except such as may have accrued through investment of the funds held in the Escrow Account). Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of HBI, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of FBBI Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Purchaser shall also use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or blue sky permits and approvals required to carry out the Contemplated Transactions, and Company shall furnish all information concerning Company and the holders of FBBI Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) The parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective commercially reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation as promptly as practicable after the Agreement Date (but in no event later than 60 days following the Agreement Date), to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the Contemplated Transactions as soon as possible, and in any event no later than July 31, 2015, to the extent reasonably practicable, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties or Governmental Authorities. Company and Purchaser shall have the right to review in advance and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws, all the non-confidential information relating to Company or Purchaser (excluding any confidential financial information relating to individuals), as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, that appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties shall consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the Contemplated Transactions and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the Contemplated Transactions. Each party shall consult with the other in advance of any meeting or conference with any Governmental Authority in connection with the Contemplated Transactions and to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority, give the other party and/or its counsel the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences.

(c) Each of Purchaser and Company shall, upon request, furnish to the other all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement-Prospectus, the Form S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Purchaser, Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Authority in connection with the Merger and the other Contemplated Transactions. Each of Purchaser and Company agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Form S-4 will, at the time the Form S-4 and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) the Proxy Statement-Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of Company's meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon approval of this Agreement, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. Each of Purchaser and Company further agrees that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Form S-4 or the Proxy

Statement-Prospectus to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to correct the Form S-4 or the Proxy Statement-Prospectus.

(d) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Purchaser and Company shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to (i) avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that would restrain, prevent or delay the Closing, and (ii) avoid or eliminate each and every impediment under any applicable law and resolve any questions or issues raised by any Governmental Authority so as to enable the Closing to occur as soon as possible, and in any event no later than December 31, 2015, including, without limitation, making expenditures and incurring costs, raising capital, divesting or otherwise disposing of businesses or assets of Purchaser, Company and their respective Subsidiaries, effecting the dissolution, internal merger or consolidation of Subsidiaries of Purchaser or Company effective upon the Effective Time, or enhancing internal controls (including by increasing staffing levels and external hires).

(e) Each of Purchaser and Company shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Authority the consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the Contemplated Transactions that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed.

6.2 Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws, Company shall afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, advisors, agents and other representatives of Purchaser, reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records, and, during such period, Company shall make available to Purchaser (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal securities laws or federal or state banking or insurance laws (other than reports or documents that Company is not permitted to disclose under applicable law), (ii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Purchaser may reasonably request and (iii) access to the necessary information (including Company's own good faith estimates as available and third-party reports, if any, commissioned by Company at Purchaser's request) in order to prepare a good faith estimate of the potential impact of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code with respect to amounts potentially payable to senior executives of Company in connection with the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions. Upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, Company shall furnish such reasonable information about it and its business as is relevant to Company and Company's shareholders in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, including such title reports and environmental reports pertaining to Company Real Property not previously made available to Purchaser. Neither Company nor Purchaser, nor any of their Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information to the extent such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of such party or its Subsidiaries (after giving due consideration to the existence of any common interest, joint defense or similar agreement between the parties) or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the Agreement Date. The parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) No investigation by a party hereto or its representatives shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representations, warranties or covenants of the other party set forth in this Agreement.

6.3 Shareholder Approval.

(a) The board of directors of FBBI has resolved to recommend to FBBI's shareholders that they approve this Agreement (the FBBI Board Recommendation) and, subject to Sections 6.7(b)-(c) and 8.1(c), will submit to FBBI's shareholders this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved by its shareholders in order to carry out the intentions of this Agreement. Subject to Section 8.1(c), FBBI shall duly take, in accordance with applicable law and the FBBI Articles and FBBI Bylaws, all action necessary to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective under the Securities Act by the SEC, for the purpose of obtaining the FBBI Shareholder Approval (the FBBI Shareholder Meeting). Subject to Sections 6.7(b)-(c) and 8.1(c), the board of directors of FBBI will include in the Proxy Statement-Prospectus the FBBI Board Recommendation and use all commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders the FBBI Shareholder Approval. Unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, including pursuant to Section 8.1(c) hereof, nothing otherwise contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to relieve FBBI of its obligation to submit this Agreement to its shareholders for a vote. For purposes of this Agreement, FBBI Shareholder Approval shall mean the affirmative vote of not less than sixty-six percent (66%) of all the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding FBBI Common Stock and, if required by Florida or other applicable law or the terms of the Series F Preferred Stock, the approval or consent of the holder(s) of the Series F Preferred Stock.

(b) If on the date of the FBBI Shareholder Meeting, FBBI has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of FBBI Common Stock to obtain the FBBI Shareholder Approval, FBBI shall adjourn the FBBI Shareholder Meeting until such date as shall be mutually agreed upon by FBBI and HBI, which date shall not be fewer than five (5) days nor more than ten (10) days after the date of adjournment, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall continue to use all commercially reasonable best efforts, together with its proxy solicitor, to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the FBBI Shareholder Approval.

6.4 NASDAQ Listing. HBI shall cause the shares of HBI Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange.

6.5 Employee Matters.

(a) Purchaser shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, provide each employee who is actively employed by Company on the Closing Date while employed by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries following the Effective Time (each a Continuing Employee) with employee benefits which, in the aggregate, are no less favorable than employee benefits provided by Purchaser to similarly situated legacy employees of Purchaser; provided, however, that until such time as Purchaser shall cause Continuing Employees to participate in the benefit plans of Purchaser, a Continuing Employee's continued participation in Company's Benefit Arrangements shall be deemed to satisfy the foregoing provision of this sentence (it being understood that participation in Purchaser's Benefit Arrangements may commence at different times with respect to each type of Benefit Arrangement). Accordingly, Company shall cooperate with Purchaser to ensure that from the Closing Date through the commencement date for participation in the appropriate corresponding Benefit Arrangements of Purchaser, the Continuing Employees shall continue to be covered by Company's Benefit Arrangements.

(b) Upon Continuing Employees' enrollment in each of Purchaser's Benefit Arrangements, such Continuing Employees will, consistent with the provisions of Section 6.5(a) above, become participants in such Purchaser's Benefit Arrangement on the same terms and conditions as similarly situated employees of Purchaser. From and after the Effective Time, except as may otherwise be contemplated by this Section 6.5, Continuing Employees shall be subject to the same personnel policies as similarly situated legacy employees of Purchaser. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, prior service credit for each of Continuing Employee's service with Company, except as expressly provided otherwise herein, shall be given by Purchaser with respect to all Purchaser's Benefit Arrangements and other practices and policies, including, but not limited to, vacations, sick leave and personal time, to the extent that such crediting of service does not result in duplication of benefits, but not for accrual of benefits under any defined benefit. If any Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in any Purchaser Benefit Arrangement that provides medical, hospitalization or dental benefits, Purchaser shall (A) cause any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such Purchaser Benefit Arrangement to be waived with respect to such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents to the extent such limitation would have been waived or satisfied under the corresponding Benefit Arrangement of Company in which such Continuing Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (B) recognize any health expenses incurred by such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents in the year that includes the Closing Date (or, if later, the year in which such Continuing Employee is first eligible to participate) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such Purchaser Benefit Arrangement.

(c) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, Company (i) shall take all action necessary to terminate all nonaccount balance plans, within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(c)(2)(C) and all separation pay plans, within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(c)(2)(D) and (ii) in consideration for the termination of such arrangements shall distribute payments to the employees affected by such terminations the amounts set forth on Section 6.5(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(d) Prior to or at the Effective Time, Purchaser shall enter into agreements or arrangements with certain executives of BC Bank, which agreements or arrangements shall reflect the terms set forth on Section 6.5(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(e) Prior to the Closing Date, Company's board of directors (or the appropriate governing body) shall adopt resolutions and take such corporate action as is necessary to terminate Company's 401(k) plan (the Company 401(k) Plan) and to ensure that the account balances of the participants in Company's 401(k) Plan are fully vested upon such plan termination, in each case effective as of the day prior to the Closing Date. Following the Effective Time and as soon as practicable following receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS on the termination of the Company 401(k) Plan, the assets thereof shall be distributed to the participants, and Purchaser shall take the action necessary (including the amendment of Purchaser's 401(k) Plan (the Purchaser 401(k) Plan)) to permit the Continuing Employees to roll over any eligible rollover distributions (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code, including any outstanding participant loans) in cash or notes (in the case of participant loans) in an amount equal to the full account balance distributed to such Continuing Employee from the Company 401(k) Plan to the Purchaser 401(k) Plan. Each Continuing Employee shall be eligible immediately as of the Effective Time to participate in the Purchaser 401(k) Plan.

(f) Without limiting the generality of Section 9.10, the provisions of this Section 6.5 are solely for the benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and no current or former employee, independent contractor or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement. Except as expressly contemplated by the provisions of this Section 6.5, in no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Benefit Arrangement, payroll practice or personnel policy maintained or sponsored by Purchaser, Company or any of their respective affiliates; (ii) alter or limit the ability of Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries (including, after the Closing Date, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries) to amend, modify or terminate any such Benefit Arrangement, payroll practice or personnel policy; or (iii) confer upon any current or former employee, independent contractor or other service provider any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries (including, following the Closing Date, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries), or constitute or create an employment or other agreement with any employee, independent contractor or other service provider.

6.6 Indemnification: Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, each of HBI and the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Company (in each case, when acting in such capacity) (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the Contemplated Transactions to the same extent as such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Company and the Florida Business Corporation Act, in effect on the Agreement Date.

(b) Subject to the following sentence, for a period of six years following the Effective Time, HBI will provide director s and officer s liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of Company (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such directors and officers arising from facts or events occurring before the Effective Time (including the Contemplated Transactions), which insurance will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous to the Indemnified Party as that coverage currently provided by Company. At Purchaser s option and in lieu of the director s and officer s liability insurance described in the foregoing sentence, Purchaser and Company will cooperate to select a tail policy for directors and officers liability insurance on the terms described in the prior sentence, and Company shall and fully pay for such policy prior to the Effective Time; provided that Company shall not, without the consent of Purchaser, pay aggregate premiums for such policy that exceed $170,000, and provided, further, that if the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such policy would exceed $170,000, Purchaser and Company will cooperate to select the most advantageous policies of directors and officers liability insurance obtainable for an aggregate premium not exceeding $170,000.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.6(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, will promptly notify HBI in writing; provided that failure to so notify will not affect the obligations of HBI under Section 6.6(a) unless and to the extent that HBI is actually and materially prejudiced as a consequence.

(d) If HBI or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, HBI will cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of HBI will assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.6.

6.7 No Solicitation.

(a) Company shall immediately cease, and Company shall cause each of its representatives to immediately cease, any discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted prior to the date hereof with respect to an Acquisition Proposal. After the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Company and its directors, executive officers and Subsidiaries shall not directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or encourage any inquiry with respect to, or the making of, any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) participate in any negotiations regarding an Acquisition Proposal with, or furnish any nonpublic information relating to an Acquisition Proposal to, any Person that has made or, to the Knowledge of Company, has indicated without solicitation that it is considering making an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) engage in discussions regarding an Acquisition Proposal with any Person that has made, or, to the Knowledge of Company, without solicitation is considering making, an Acquisition Proposal, except to notify such Person of the existence of the provisions of this Section 6.7. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time after the date hereof but before approval of this Agreement by the FBBI shareholders, (1) Company receives an unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that FBBI s board of directors believes in good faith to be bona fide, (2) such Acquisition Proposal was not the result of a violation of this Section 6.7, (3) FBBI s board of directors determines in good faith (after receiving advice from outside counsel and its financial advisor) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and (4) FBBI board of directors determines in good faith (after receiving advice from outside counsel) that the failure to take the actions referred to in clause (x) or (y) below would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Company may (and may authorize its representatives to) (x) furnish nonpublic information regarding Company to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal (and its representatives) pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement containing terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to Company than, those contained in the LOI with Purchaser, and (y) participate in discussions and negotiations with the Person making such Acquisition Proposal.

(b) The board of directors of FBBI shall not (i) withhold, withdraw, amend, modify, change or qualify (or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend, modify, change or qualify), in a manner adverse in any respect to the interests of Purchaser, its recommendation referred to in Section 6.3, or (ii) approve or recommend (or publicly propose to approve or recommend or announce its intention to approve, recommend or propose) any Acquisition Proposal (either (i) or (ii), an Adverse Recommendation Change). Company shall not, and the board of directors of FBBI shall not allow Company to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time before obtaining approval of the Merger by the FBBI shareholders, FBBI's board of directors may, if FBBI's board of directors determines in good faith (after receiving advice from outside counsel) that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law, taking into account all adjustments to the terms of this Agreement that have been offered by Purchaser under this Section 6.7(b), make an Adverse Recommendation Change or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal; provided that Company may not make any Adverse Recommendation Change in response to an Acquisition Proposal unless (x) Company shall not have breached this Section 6.7 in any respect and (y):

(i) FBBI's board of directors determines in good faith (after receiving advice from outside counsel and its financial advisor) that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal and such Superior Proposal has been made and has not been withdrawn and continues to be a Superior Proposal after taking into account all adjustments to the terms of this Agreement that have been offered by Purchaser under this Section 6.7(b);

(ii) Company has given Purchaser at least four (4) Business Days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal (including the identity of the party making such Superior Proposal) and has contemporaneously provided an unredacted copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreements with the Person making such Superior Proposal; and

(iii) Before effecting such Adverse Recommendation Change or entering into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, Company has negotiated, and has caused its representatives to negotiate, in good faith with Purchaser during such notice period to the extent Purchaser wishes to negotiate, to enable Purchaser to revise the terms of this Agreement to give Purchaser the opportunity to match or exceed the terms of the Acquisition Proposal such that such Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Proposal.

In the event of any material change to the terms of such Superior Proposal, Company shall, in each case, be required to deliver to Purchaser a new written notice, the notice period shall have recommenced and Company shall be required to comply with its obligations under this Section 6.7 with respect to such new written notice.

(c) In addition to the obligations of Company under Section 6.7(a) and Section 6.7(b), Company shall notify Purchaser promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, or any material modification of or material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to Company or for access to the properties, books or records of Company by any Person that informs FBBI's board of directors that it is considering making, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal. Such notice to Purchaser shall be made orally (which may be given by voicemail message to the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Purchaser) and in writing (which may be given by email to the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Purchaser), and shall indicate the identity of the Person making the Acquisition Proposal or intending to make or considering making an Acquisition Proposal or requesting nonpublic information or access to the books and records of Company, and the material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal or modification or amendment to an Acquisition Proposal. Company shall keep Purchaser fully informed, on a current basis, of any material changes in the status and any material changes or modifications in the terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, indication or request. Company shall also promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify Purchaser, orally and in writing, if it enters into discussions or negotiations concerning any Acquisition Proposal in accordance with Section 6.7(a).

(d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit Company from informing any Person of the existence of the provisions contained in this Section 6.7.

For purposes of this Agreement, an Acquisition Proposal means any proposal or offer other than this Agreement or any amendment hereto after the date hereof with respect to any Acquisition Transaction or any public announcement by any Person (which shall include any regulatory application or notice) of a proposal, plan or intention with respect to any Acquisition Transaction.

For purposes of this Agreement, an Acquisition Transaction means any of the following (other than the transactions contemplated hereby) involving Company: (a) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction; (b) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets that constitute a substantial portion of the assets of Company in a single transaction or series of transactions; or (c) any tender offer or exchange offer for 20% or more of the outstanding shares of its capital stock or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act, in connection therewith.

For purposes of this Agreement, a Superior Proposal means any unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal (with the percentage set forth in or incorporated into the definition of such term changed from 20% to 50%) that FBBI's board of directors determines in good faith (after receiving advice from outside counsel and its financial advisor), taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the Person (or group of Persons) making the proposal (including the Company Termination Fee and conditions to consummation), (A) if consummated, would be more favorable to the shareholders of FBBI from a financial point of view than the Contemplated Transactions (including taking into account any adjustment to the terms and conditions proposed by Purchaser in response to such proposal under Section 6.7 or otherwise) and (B) if accepted, is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed on a timely basis.

6.8 Takeover Laws. No party will take any action that would cause the Contemplated Transactions to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and each of them will take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) those transactions from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, Takeover Laws means any moratorium, control share, fair price, interested stockholder or other anti-takeover law regulations of any jurisdiction.

6.9 Financial Statements and Other Current Information. As soon as reasonably practicable after they become available, but in no event more than 15 days after the end of each calendar month ending after the date hereof, Company will furnish to Purchaser, and Purchaser will furnish to Company, (a) consolidated financial statements (including balance sheets, statements of operations and stockholders' equity) of it or any of its Subsidiaries (to the extent available) as of and for such month then ended, (b) internal management reports showing actual financial performance against plan, and (c) to the extent permitted by applicable law, any reports provided to its board of directors or any committee thereof relating to the financial performance and risk management of it or any of its Subsidiaries.

6.10 Notification of Certain Matters. Company and Purchaser will give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (a) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (b) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in Article VII.

6.11 Company Preferred Securities; Stock Purchase Agreements. Prior to or as of the Effective Time, Company will (i) redeem or cause to be redeemed all outstanding shares of Series F Preferred Stock for the liquidation preference applicable thereto, and (ii) cause to be terminated (without cost to or the imposition of any condition on Company) each stock purchase agreement described in Section 3.2(b)(iii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

6.12 Resignations of Company Directors. Company shall cause each person serving as a member of the board of directors of FBBI or BC Bank (or, as requested by Purchaser, any Subsidiary of FBBI or BC Bank) to submit a written resignation and release, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser, to take effect at the Effective Time.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of FBBI or HBI:

(a) Mutual Consent by mutual consent of Company and Purchaser in a written instrument authorized by the boards of directors of FBBI and HBI;

(b) Either Party by either Company or Purchaser:

(i) No Regulatory Approval if any Governmental Authority that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final and nonappealable order, injunction or decree permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions;

(ii) Delay if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before December 31, 2015; provided that if as of such date, the conditions to the Closing set forth in Section 7.1(d) shall not have been satisfied, then December 31, 2015, shall be extended to and including February 28, 2016, if either Company or Purchaser notifies the other party in writing on or prior to December 31, 2015, of its election to extend December 31, 2015, to February 28, 2016; and provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall not be available to any party whose failure to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement resulted in the failure of the Merger to be consummated by December 31, 2015;

(iii) Breach if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Company, in the case of a termination by Purchaser, or on the part of Purchaser, in the case of a termination by Company, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate with other breaches by such party, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3, as the case may be, and which is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach or by its nature or timing cannot be cured within such time period; provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein; or

(iv) No FBBI Shareholder Approval if the FBBI Shareholder Approval shall not have been obtained at the FBBI Shareholder Meeting duly convened therefor or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on the adoption of this Agreement was taken; provided, however, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(iv) if such party has breached in any material respect any of its obligations under this Agreement, in each case in a manner that caused the failure to obtain the FBBI Shareholder Approval at the FBBI Shareholder Meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof;

(c) Superior Proposal by Company, prior to such time as the FBBI Shareholder Approval is obtained, in order to enter into an agreement providing for a Superior Proposal; provided that the Company Termination Fee is paid to Purchaser in advance of or concurrently with such termination in accordance with Section 8.3(b);

(d) Dissenting Shares by Purchaser, if holders of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of FBBI Common Stock are Proposed Dissenting Shares;

(e) Failure to Recommend or Proceed to Closing by Purchaser, if (i) Company shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.7; (ii) the board of directors of FBBI shall have failed to make a recommendation in favor of the Merger as required by Section 6.3; (iii) the board of directors of FBBI shall have recommended, proposed, or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose to engage in a transaction resulting in a Superior Proposal; or (iv) Company shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.3 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the FBBI shareholder meeting in accordance with Section 6.3; or

(f) HBI Common Stock Price by Company or Purchaser, if the volume-weighted average closing price, rounded to the nearest hundredth of a cent, of HBI Common Stock on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange reporting system (based on regular way trading) for the twenty (20) trading days through the day immediately preceding the Closing Date is less than or equal to $24.58.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Company or Purchaser as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of Company, Purchaser, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever under this Agreement, or in connection with the Contemplated Transactions, except that (i) Sections 5.2, 8.2, 8.3, and 9.3 through 9.11 shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and

(ii) neither Company nor Purchaser shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its knowing breach of any provision of this Agreement (which, in the case of Company, shall include the loss to Company's shareholders of the economic benefits of the Merger).

8.3 Fees and Expenses.

(a) General Fees. Except for the registration fee for the Form S-4 filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Merger, which shall be paid by Purchaser, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement, and the Contemplated Transactions (including costs and expenses of printing and mailing the Proxy Statement-Prospectus) shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated.

(b) Company Termination Fee. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Company pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or terminated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 8.1(e), then Company shall pay Purchaser a fee, in immediately available funds, in the amount of Four Million Dollars ($4,000,000) (the Company Termination Fee) in advance of or concurrently with such termination in the case of Company's termination, or within two (2) business days after receipt of Purchaser's notification of termination. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the payment of the Company Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 8.3 shall fully discharge Company from, and be the sole and exclusive remedy of Purchaser with respect to, any and all losses that may be suffered by Purchaser based upon, resulting from or arising out of the circumstances giving rise to such termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or Section 8.1(e)(iii). In no event shall Company be required to pay the Company Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

8.4 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of FBBI or HBI; provided, however, that after any approval of the Contemplated Transactions by such shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that requires further approval under applicable law. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

8.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

ARTICLE IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Closing. On the terms and subject to conditions set forth in this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at such time and place as agreed upon by the parties (the Closing Date).

9.2 Nonsurvival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements. None of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time, except for Section 6.6 and for those other covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement that by their terms apply or are to be performed in whole or in part after the Effective Time.

9.4 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words include, includes or including are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words without limitation. References to the date hereof shall mean the Agreement Date. As used in this Agreement, the phrase to the Knowledge of Company or words of similar import means what is known or should have been known based on reasonable inquiry by any of Company's officers listed on Section 9.4 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, and the phrase to the Knowledge of Purchaser or words of similar import means what is known or should have been known based on reasonable inquiry by any of Purchaser's officers listed on Section 9.4 of the Purchaser Disclosure Schedule. All schedules and exhibits hereto shall be deemed part of this Agreement and included in any reference to this Agreement. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement is held by a court or a federal or state regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions and covenants and restrictions contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated. If for any reason such court or regulatory agency determines that any provision, covenant or restriction is invalid, void or unenforceable, it is the express intention of the parties that such provision, covenant or restriction be enforced to the maximum extent permitted.

9.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts (including by facsimile or other electronic means), all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other party, it being understood that each party need not sign the same counterpart. Signatures delivered by facsimile or by electronic data file shall have the same effect as originals.

9.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to in this Agreement), together with the Voting Agreements, constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

9.7 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Prevailing Party. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Arkansas, without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws. The parties hereto agree that any suit, action or proceeding brought by either party to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in any federal or state court located in the State of Arkansas. Each of the parties hereto submits to the jurisdiction of any such court in any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of, or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and hereby irrevocably waives the benefit of jurisdiction derived from present or future domicile or otherwise in such action or proceeding. Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court or that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. If any legal action or other proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or the enforcement of any provision of the Agreement is brought by any party against the other party, the prevailing party in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover all reasonable expenses relating thereto (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, court costs and expenses incident to arbitration, appellate and post-judgment proceedings) from the other party, in addition to any other relief to which such prevailing party may be entitled.

9.8 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto acknowledges and agrees that any controversy that may arise under this Agreement is likely to involve complicated and difficult issues, and therefore each party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right such party may have to a trial by jury in respect of any litigation, directly or indirectly, arising out of, or relating to, this Agreement, or the Contemplated Transactions. Each party certifies and acknowledges that (a) no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver, (b) each party understands and has considered the implications of this waiver, (c) each party makes this waiver voluntarily, and (d) each party has been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 9.8.

9.9 Publicity. Neither Company nor Purchaser shall, and neither Company nor Purchaser shall permit any of its Subsidiaries to, issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement with respect to, or otherwise make any public statement, or, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, any disclosure of nonpublic information to a third party, concerning, the Contemplated Transactions without the prior consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of Purchaser, in the case of a proposed announcement, statement or disclosure by Company, or Company, in the case of a proposed announcement, statement or disclosure by Purchaser; provided, however, that either party may, without the prior consent of the other party (but after prior consultation with the other party to the extent practicable under the circumstances) issue or cause the publication of any press release or other public announcement to the extent required by law or by the rules and regulations of the SEC or NASDAQ.

9.10 Assignment; Third-Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned by either of the parties (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Any purported assignment in contravention hereof shall be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by each of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except for (i) Section 6.6, which is intended to benefit each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, and (ii) if the Effective Time occurs, the right of the holders of FBBI Common Stock to receive the Merger Consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement, (1) Purchaser and Company hereby agree that their respective representations, warranties and covenants set forth herein are solely for the benefit of the other party hereto, in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement, and (2) this Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to in this Agreement) is not intended to and does not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies under this Agreement, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein.

9.11 Specific Performance; Time of the Essence. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the terms hereof, this being in addition to any other remedies to which they are entitled at law or equity. Time is of the essence for performance of the agreements, covenants and obligations of the parties herein.

9.12 Disclosure Schedule. Before entry into this Agreement, Company delivered to Purchaser a schedule (a Company Disclosure Schedule) and Purchaser delivered to Company a schedule (Purchaser Disclosure Schedule), each of which sets forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations or warranties contained in Article III or Article IV, respectively, or to one or more covenants contained herein; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) no such item is required to be set forth as an exception to a representation or warranty if its absence would not result in the related representation or warranty being deemed untrue or incorrect and (ii) the mere inclusion of an item as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect.

EXHIBIT A

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

THIS VOTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is dated as of June , 2015, by and between the undersigned holder (Shareholder) of Common Stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Florida Business Bancgroup, Inc., a Florida corporation (Company), and Home BancShares, Inc., an Arkansas corporation (HBI) and Centennial Bank, an Arkansas state bank (Centennial) (HBI and Centennial are collectively referred to herein as Purchaser). All capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement (defined below).

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, HBI, Centennial, Company, and Company's bank subsidiary, Bay Cities Bank, are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as such agreement may be subsequently amended or modified, the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Company will merge with and into HBI, with HBI as the surviving entity (the Merger), and in connection with the Merger, each outstanding share of FBBI Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration;

WHEREAS, Shareholder has voting power over the number of shares of Company Common Stock as indicated on the signature page of this Agreement under the heading Total Number of Shares of Company Common Stock Subject to this Agreement (such shares, together with any additional shares of Company Common Stock subsequently acquired by Shareholder during the term of this Agreement, including through the exercise of any stock option or other equity award, warrant or similar instrument, being referred to collectively as the Shares);

WHEREAS, it is a material inducement to the willingness of Purchaser to enter into the Merger Agreement that Shareholder execute and deliver this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of, and as a material inducement to, Purchaser entering into the Merger Agreement and proceeding with the transactions contemplated thereby, and in consideration of the expenses incurred and to be incurred by Purchaser in connection therewith, Shareholder and Purchaser agree as follows:

Section 1. Agreement to Vote Shares. Shareholder agrees that, while this Agreement is in effect, at any meeting of shareholders of Company, however called, or at any adjournment thereof, or in any other circumstances in which Shareholder is entitled to vote, consent or give any other approval, except as otherwise agreed to in writing in advance by Purchaser, Shareholder shall:

- a) appear at each such meeting in person or by proxy; and
- b) vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, all the Shares that are beneficially owned by Shareholder or as to which Shareholder has, directly or indirectly, the sole right to vote or direct the voting, (i) in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including any amendments or modifications of the terms thereof approved by the board of directors of Company and adopted in accordance with the terms thereof unless the effect of the amendment is to reduce the Purchase Price); (ii) against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Company contained in the Merger Agreement or of Shareholder contained in this Agreement; and (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal or any other action, agreement or transaction that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or this Agreement.

Shareholder further agrees not to vote or execute any written consent to rescind or amend in any manner any prior vote or written consent, as a shareholder of Company, to approve or adopt the Merger Agreement unless this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms.

Section 2. No Transfers. While this Agreement is in effect, Shareholder agrees not to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, pledge, assignment or other disposition of, any of the Shares, except the following transfers shall be permitted: (a) transfers by will or operation of law, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, (b) transfers pursuant to any pledge agreement, subject to the pledgee agreeing in writing, prior to such transfer, to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, (c) transfers in connection with estate and tax planning purposes, including transfers to relatives, trusts and charitable organizations, subject to each transferee agreeing in writing, prior to such transfer, to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, and (d) such transfers as Purchaser may otherwise permit in its sole discretion, and further provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Shares that are pledged to secure a credit facility as of the Agreement Date may continue to be pledged to secure a credit facility. Any transfer or other disposition in violation of the terms of this Section 2 shall be null and void.

Section 3. Representations and Warranties of Shareholder. Shareholder represents and warrants to and agrees with Purchaser as follows:

a) Shareholder has all requisite capacity and authority to enter into and perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement.

b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shareholder, and assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Purchaser, constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of Shareholder enforceable against Shareholder in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the performance by Shareholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the consummation by Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which Shareholder is a party or by which Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which Shareholder is subject or, in the event that Shareholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, any charter, bylaw or other organizational document of Shareholder.

d) Shareholder has the authority to exercise voting power over the Shares. The Shares do not include shares over which Shareholder exercises control in a fiduciary capacity for any other person or entity that is not an Affiliate of Shareholder, and no representation by Shareholder is made with respect thereto. Shareholder has the right to vote the Shares, and none of the Shares is subject to any voting trust or other agreement, arrangement or restriction with respect to the voting of the Shares, except as contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 4. No Solicitation. From and after the date hereof until the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7 hereof, Shareholder, in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Company, shall not, nor shall such Shareholder authorize any partner, officer, director, advisor or representative of, such Shareholder or any of his, her or its Affiliates to (and, to the extent applicable to Shareholder, such Shareholder shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prohibit any of his, her or its representatives or Affiliates to), (a) initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or knowingly take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, (b) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal, or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person (other than Purchaser) any information or data with respect to Company or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, (c) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle, letter of intent, memorandum of understanding or similar arrangement with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, (d) solicit proxies with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (other than the Merger Agreement) or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, or (e) initiate a shareholders' vote or action by consent of Company's shareholders with respect to an Acquisition Proposal.

Section 5. [Reserved.]

Section 6. Specific Performance; Remedies; Attorneys' Fees. Shareholder acknowledges that it is a condition to the willingness of Purchaser to enter into the Merger Agreement that Shareholder execute and deliver this Agreement and that it will be impossible to measure in money the damage to Purchaser if Shareholder fails to comply with the obligations imposed by this Agreement and that, in the event of any such failure, Purchaser will not have an adequate remedy at law or in equity. Accordingly, Shareholder agrees that injunctive relief or other equitable remedy is the appropriate remedy for any such failure and will not oppose the granting of such relief on the basis that Purchaser has an adequate remedy at law. Shareholder further agrees that Shareholder will not seek, and agrees to waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with Purchaser's seeking or obtaining such equitable relief. In addition, after discussing the matter with Shareholder, Purchaser shall have the right to inform any third party that Purchaser reasonably believes to be, or to be contemplating, participating with Shareholder or receiving from Shareholder assistance in violation of this Agreement, of the terms of this Agreement and of the rights of Purchaser hereunder, and that participation by any such persons with Shareholder in activities in violation of Shareholder's agreement with Purchaser set forth in this Agreement may give rise to claims by Purchaser against such third party. If any legal action or other proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement is brought by any party against the other party, the prevailing party in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover all reasonable expenses relating thereto (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, court costs and expenses incident to arbitration, appellate and post-judgment proceedings) from the other party, in addition to any other relief to which such prevailing party may be entitled.

Section 7. Term of Agreement; Termination. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by the written agreement of the parties hereto, and shall be automatically terminated upon termination of the Merger Agreement. Upon such termination, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities hereunder; provided, however, that such termination shall not relieve any party from liability for any breach of this Agreement prior to such termination.

Section 8. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by either party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

Section 9. Severability. In the event that any one or more provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement and the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision which, insofar as practical, implements the purposes and intents of this Agreement.

Section 10. Capacity as Shareholder. This Agreement shall apply to Shareholder solely in his or her capacity as a shareholder of Company and it shall not apply in any manner to Shareholder in his or her capacity as a director, officer or employee of Company. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to apply to, or limit in any manner, the obligations of Shareholder to comply with his or her fiduciary duties as a director or officer of Company, if applicable.

Section 11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted in accordance with, the internal, substantive laws of the State of Arkansas, without regard for the law or principles of conflict of laws.

Section 12. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THE ACTIONS OF THE PARTIES IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT.
