On May 19, 2016, Robert Dickey, President and CEO of Gannett Co., Inc. (Gannett), sent the following letter to Gannett s employees:

Dear Colleagues,

I am reaching out regarding rumors you may have recently read about, which speculate that Tribune s Chairman, Michael Ferro, is preparing a proposal to acquire Gannett. As a matter of policy, Gannett does not comment on rumors or speculation.

I can assure you that our Board of Directors, management team and advisors continue to focus on taking the right steps for Gannett. We remain committed to the $15.00 per share all-cash, premium offer to acquire Tribune that I wrote to you about on Monday, despite the unwillingness of Tribune to engage in constructive dialogue. We know that a number of Tribune s shareholders support our offer and continue to look forward to hearing back from Tribune regarding our recently increased proposal.

For now, it should be business as usual: our job remains to continue to provide our audiences, customers and communities with the dedication they have come to expect.

If you receive any inquires related to these rumors, please refer them to Amber Allman, Vice President, Corporate Communications at aallman@gannett.com or 703-854-5358, and Michael Dickerson, Vice President, Investor Relations at mdickerson@gannett.com or 703-854-6185.

I want to thank you for your continued focus and dedication to Gannett.

Best Regards,

Robert Dickey

President and CEO, Gannett
