Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Purchase Agreement

Pursuant to the Master Purchase Agreement, dated July 26, 2015, between the Issuer and Allergan (the Purchase Agreement), the Issuer agreed to acquire Allergan's global generics business including the United States and international generic commercial units, Allergan's third-party supplier Medis, Allergan's global generic manufacturing operations, global generic research and development unit, international OTC commercial unit (excluding OTC eye care products) and some established international brands, for a combination of cash and Common Stock (the Teva Transaction). On July 27, 2016, the Federal Trade Commission accepted the proposed consent order in connection with the Teva Transaction, satisfying the final regulatory approval requirement to complete the transaction. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, on August 2, 2016, the transaction was closed and Allergan received $33.53 billion in cash and 100,291,067 Ordinary Shares (the Shares).

References to and descriptions of the Purchase Agreement and Stockholders Agreement set forth herein do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement and Stockholders Agreement which have been filed as Exhibits 2 and 3 and are incorporated by reference herein.

Stockholders Agreement

The Stockholders Agreement sets forth certain agreements regarding transfer restrictions, voting arrangements, standstill provisions, registration rights and certain other matters.

The Stockholders Agreement generally restricts any transfers of the Shares by Allergan or any of its affiliates during the 12-month period commencing on August 2, 2016, subject to certain limited exceptions.

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, so long as the number of Ordinary Shares (or ADSs) owned by Allergan and its affiliates is greater than or equal to 5% of the then issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares, Allergan and its affiliates shall cause all such Ordinary Shares that include voting rights to be voted (i) in favor of all those persons nominated and recommended to serve as directors of the Issuer by the Board of Directors of the Issuer or any applicable committee thereof, (ii) with respect to any matter directly relating to remuneration of directors, directors insurance or indemnification or release from liability of directors in a manner proportionally consistent with the vote of Ordinary Shares not owned by Allergan and its affiliates, and (iii) with respect to any other action, proposal or matter to be voted on by the shareholders of the Issuer, in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Directors of the Issuer or any applicable committee thereof (so long as a majority of directors at the time of such recommendation are Incumbent Directors (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement)). Allergan and its affiliates shall be free to vote at their discretion in connection with any proposal submitted to a vote of the shareholders of the Issuer in respect of (A) the issuance of equity securities in connection with any merger, consolidation or business combination of the Issuer, (B) any merger, consolidation or business combination of the Issuer or (C) the sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer, except, in each case where such proposal has not been approved or recommended by the Board of Directors of the Issuer, in which case Allergan and its affiliates shall vote as provided above.

The Stockholders Agreement contains a standstill provision that is effective until the date on which the number of Ordinary Shares beneficially owned by Allergan and its affiliates represents less than 5% of the then issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares.

Allergan and its affiliates and permitted transferees will be entitled to (i) after nine months following the closing of the Teva Transaction, up to four demand registration rights with respect to registration to be effective on or after the date that is one year after the date of the closing of the Teva Transaction and (ii) piggyback registration if the Issuer registers securities for its own account. Allergan and its affiliates may be required to enter into lock-up arrangements, from time to time, in connection with underwritten offerings. Allergan's registration rights will terminate when the Shares are no longer Registrable Securities as defined in the Stockholders Agreement, including when the Shares held by Allergan can be freely sold by Allergan pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, without any restriction whatsoever pursuant to Rule 144.

Page 8 of 14 Pages

The Stockholders Agreement will automatically terminate upon the date Allergan and its affiliates no longer beneficially own Ordinary Shares received upon the closing of the Teva Transaction representing in the aggregate at least 1% of the issued and outstanding Ordinary Shares.

Except for the Purchase Agreement and Stockholders Agreement, to the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise), including, but not limited to, the transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies, among the persons named in Item 2 or between such persons and any other person, with respect to any securities of Issuer, including, but not limited to, any securities pledged or otherwise subject to a contingency the occurrence of which would give another person voting power or investment power over such securities.
