Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 26, 2017, Valley National Bancorp (Valley) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with USAmeriBancorp, Inc. (USAB), providing for the merger of USAB with and into Valley, with Valley as the surviving entity (the Merger). Immediately following the Merger, USAmeriBank, a Florida state-chartered commercial bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of USAB, will merge with and into Valley National Bank, a national banking association and wholly-owned subsidiary of Valley, with Valley National Bank surviving the merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each share of common stock of USAB will be converted into 6.100 shares of Valley common stock, subject to adjustment as described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares. Subject to the termination rights set forth below, in the event Valley's volume-weighted average share price during the 30 consecutive trading day period ending 5 trading days prior to closing (the Average Closing Price) is less than $11.50, then Valley will increase the 6.100 exchange ratio (or, in lieu of such increase, make a cash payment to USAB shareholders equal to the difference between (i) $69.00 and (ii) the product of the Average Closing Price multiplied by 6.100) so that USAB shareholders receive $69.00 in Valley common stock for each USAB share they hold. Subject to the termination rights set forth below, in the event the Average Closing Price is greater than $13.00, then Valley will decrease the 6.100 exchange ratio so that USAB shareholders receive $79.30 in Valley common stock for each USAB share they hold. In the event the Average Closing Price is less than $11.00, either Valley or USAB may elect to terminate the Merger Agreement. In the event the Average Closing Price is greater than $13.50, then USAB may elect to terminate the Merger Agreement. Each outstanding share of Valley common stock will remain outstanding and be unaffected by the Merger.

In addition to the foregoing, at the effective time of the Merger, Valley will either (i) convert each outstanding share of Series C preferred stock of USAB (the USAB Preferred Stock) into shares of Valley preferred stock having identical rights and preferences as the USAB Preferred Stock or (ii) redeem the USAB Preferred Stock for cash in accordance with its terms.

With respect to outstanding USAB stock options to acquire USAB common stock, such USAB stock options will vest only to the extent set forth in the USAB stock plans and option grant agreements. In addition, such USAB stock options will be converted, at the effective time of the Merger, into Valley stock options to acquire Valley common stock where the number of shares of Valley common stock underlying such Valley stock options will be equal to the number of shares of USAB common stock underlying such USAB stock options multiplied by the exchange ratio and the exercise price per share of Valley common stock subject to such Valley stock options will be equal to the exercise price per share of USAB common stock subject to such USAB stock option divided by the exchange ratio. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Valley elects to make a cash payment to USAB shareholders as described above, the exchange ratio will be based on the total merger consideration so that the USAB stock options are converted on economically equivalent terms.

With respect to outstanding USAB warrants to acquire USAB common stock, such USAB warrants will be converted at the effective time of the Merger into Valley warrants to acquire Valley common stock where the number of shares of Valley common stock underlying such Valley warrants will be equal to the number of shares of USAB common stock underlying such USAB warrants multiplied by the exchange ratio and the exercise price per share of Valley common stock subject to such Valley warrants will be equal to the exercise price per share of USAB common stock subject to such USAB warrants divided by the exchange ratio. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Valley elects to make a cash payment to USAB shareholders as described above, the exchange ratio will be based on the total merger consideration so that the USAB warrants are converted on economically equivalent terms.

With respect to USAB restricted stock units representing the right to receive a share of USAB common stock, such USAB restricted stock units will vest only to the extent set forth in the USAB stock plans and award agreements and be converted into the right to receive, at the effective time of the Merger, the same consideration as holders of USAB common stock are receiving in the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains representations, warranties, and covenants of Valley and USAB, including, among others, a covenant that requires (i) each of Valley and USAB to conduct its business in the ordinary course and consistent with past banking practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger and (ii) USAB to not engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period (without the prior written consent of Valley). USAB has also agreed, subject to certain exceptions generally related to the Board's evaluation and exercise of its fiduciary duties, to not (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) enter into discussions or negotiations or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions. Valley has also agreed to elect Jennifer Steans, Chairperson of USAB, to serve as a Valley director, subject to her meeting Valley's qualifications for service on Valley's board of directors, as of the effective time of the Merger. In addition, if Valley pays a cash dividend on Valley common stock, USAB will have the right, subject to the receipt of any required regulatory approvals, to pay its shareholders an equivalent cash dividend.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both Valley and USAB, and further provides that upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, USAB will be obligated to pay Valley a termination fee of $30 million, plus Valley's reasonable out of pocket expenses up to $2 million, and if the Merger Agreement is terminated under other certain circumstances, Valley will be obligated to pay USAB up to $2 million of USAB's reasonable out of pocket expenses.

Completion of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including (i) receipt of the requisite approval (a) of the Merger by shareholders of USAB and (b) of the issuance of Valley common stock in the Merger by shareholders of Valley, (ii) receipt of regulatory approvals, (iii) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, (iv) no more than 10% of CNL shareholders exercising their dissenters' rights under Florida law and (v) effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Valley with respect to the capital stock to be issued in the Merger. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party and compliance of the other party with its covenants in all material respects.

The Merger Agreement also contains representations and warranties that the parties have made to each other as of specific dates. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties with respect to the Merger described therein, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a shareholder might view as material, may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts, may have been qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the Merger Agreement that were made to the other party in connection with the negotiation of the Merger Agreement and generally were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.
