Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 8, 2017, Joseph B. Armes, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of CSW Industrials, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a pre-arranged trading plan in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and the Company's insider trading policy (the Plan).

Under the Plan, Mr. Armes may sell in the open market at prevailing prices on specified dates (subject to minimum price thresholds set forth in the Plan) an aggregate of up to 17,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The shares are intended to be sold on a quarterly basis in four equal installments, to the extent practicable. Any sales will be made during the period beginning in January 2018 until the Plan terminates in January 2019. Any transactions under the Plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Mr. Armes entered into the Plan in order to diversify his personal financial holdings and address estate planning needs. Mr. Armes currently owns shares of Company common stock with a value in excess of the five times base salary amount required for his role under the Company's stock ownership guidelines and, based on current valuations, he will continue to do so following completion of the Plan.

Rule 10b5-1 allows insiders to adopt written plans for trading securities in a non-discretionary, pre-scheduled manner in order to avoid concerns about initiating stock transactions when the insider may be in possession of material non-public information. Certain other officers and directors of the Company may from time to time enter into trading plans established in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act. Except to the extent required by law, the Company does not undertake to report Rule 10b5-1 plans that may be adopted by any officers or directors in the future or to report any modifications or terminations of any publicly announced trading plan.
