awareness of the importance of the presence of independent members elected by minority shareholders occurred in the last 7 years. The failures of corporate governance that prevailed in state-controlled companies, coupled with the corruption problems that spread in Petrobras and Eletrobras, among others, negatively affected the Brazilian capital market, obliging us to rethink the current rules of governance and create rules much more rigid and much more severe punishments. Mindful of the continuing education process participates annually of the main events of corporate governance and capital markets in Brazil. In March 2018 he attended the CII Spring Conference organized by the Council of Institutional Investors, Washington / USA, and spoke to The Emerging Markets Investors Alliance on Corporate Governance in Brazil: The Moment of Reform in New York / USA.
