PART II - RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant's preparation for, and compilation, dissemination and review of relevant information required by, the registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2006 could not be accomplished in order to permit a timely filing of such Form 10-Q without undue hardship and expense to the registrant. Although the registrant attempted to conclude an appropriate process, using the resources reasonably available to it, which would have permitted a timely filing of such Form 10-Q, the registrant was unable to do so, in part because the registrant required additional time to complete its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended August 31, 2006 due to the accounting and reporting required as a result of the registrant's acquisitions of Designer Intimates on October 24, 2005, the assets of Taresha LLC on July 1, 2006. That report was filed on December 14, 2006. In addition, the registrant required additional time to complete its accounting and reporting for the quarter ended November 30, 2006 as a result of its acquisition of Saguaro LLC on October 24, 2006. The registrant undertakes to file such Form 10-Q no later than five calendar days after its original prescribed due date.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2006 will reflect the acquisitions of Designer Intimates on October 24, 2005, the assets of Taresha LLC effective July 1, 2006 and Saguro LLC effective October 24, 2006. The registrant is still compiling the results of operations for these acquisitions for review by its independent auditors. Accordingly, it cannot make an estimate of the impact of those transactions on its overall results of operations for the period.
