SECTION 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 24, 2009, we closed an issuance of Convertible Promissory Notes (the “Notes”) to three investors in the total amount of $200,000. The Notes are due and payable in 180 days and bear interest at an annual rate of 12%. To secure our obligation under the Notes, each of the holders has been granted a security interest in all of our equipment, accounts, inventory, software, and cash and non-cash proceeds as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code. Upon default under any of the Notes, the holders of the Notes may accelerate the total balances due and pursue their right to foreclose against the collateral given as security. Acts of default under the Notes would include, among other things, failing remit any payment due if such failure is not cured within 5 days written notice, a default under any other obligation for borrowed money which continues for more than 20 days, and a failure to timely file any reports and other documents required under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

At any time upon 5 days written notice, each of the holders of the Notes may, at its option, convert all or part of the unpaid interest and principal due under its Note into common stock of the Company at a conversion price of $0.20 per share. As additional consideration to the holders of the Notes, we have issued them a total of 175,000 warrants to purchase common stock in the Company at a price of $0.40 per share. The warrants are exercisable for a period of 5 years.

The holders of the Notes have been granted “piggyback” registration rights with regard to all shares of common stock which would be issuable upon a conversion of the Notes and upon exercise of the warrants issued to the holders of the Notes. The holders of the Notes have the right to have such shares included in any future registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act, other than Form S-8, Form S-4, or any other form that does not include substantially the same information as would be required in a form for the general registration of securities.

For the complete terms of our transaction with the holders of the Notes, please review the Convertible Promissory Notes and Security Agreements, Stock Purchase Warrants, and Conversion and Registration Rights Agreements filed herewith as Exhibits.
