The Employment Agreement is dated effective as of January 10, 2005, and contains the terms described below. The following summary description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Employment Agreement, which is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.

- Duties. Mr. Rotella will have the title of President and Chief Operating Officer and shall at all times retain either title, unless he agrees otherwise and any such change does not diminish, reduce or impair his authority, responsibilities or duties. Mr. Rotella's duties shall be reasonably directed by the Company's Board of Directors from time to time, and shall include, in cooperation with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, responsibility for the operating strategies of the Company and other customary duties. Mr. Rotella will report to Kerry K. Killinger, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

- Compensation. Mr. Rotella's compensation shall be determined by the Human Resources Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "HR Committee") and will be reviewed annually. During his employment, however, there may be no reduction in Mr. Rotella's base salary, target bonus, stock options, restricted stock and performance share grant amounts without his consent and the Company has no implied obligation to raise his compensation at any time. Mr. Rotella's starting annual salary will be $900,000 and his 2005 target cash performance bonus will be $2,500,000. The bonus will be paid pursuant to the Company's Leadership Bonus Plan, and for 2005 is guaranteed to be not less than $2,000,000. In addition, the Company will pay Mr. Rotella a one-time cash payment of $2,600,000 upon his commencement of employment. Mr. Rotella will also be enrolled as a participant in all employee benefit plans (including retirement and insurance plans) available to other Company officers, and will be entitled to receive such other perquisites as the Board or the HR Committee may from time to time deem appropriate.

- Restricted Stock. On his first day of employment, Mr. Rotella will receive a one-time award of 220,000 restricted shares of Company common stock pursuant to the Company's Equity Incentive Plan. The sale and transfer restrictions on the shares will lapse pursuant to the following vesting schedule: 40% of the shares vest on July 31, 2005, 35% of the shares vest on January 31, 2006 and 25% of the shares vest on January 31, 2010.

- Employment Term. Mr. Rotella's employment may be terminated by the Company's Board of Directors in its sole discretion, or Mr. Rotella in his sole discretion, at any time. In the event he is terminated or resigns upon or within three years after a "change in control" (as defined in Section 11 of the Employment Agreement) of the Company, is terminated by the Company other than for "cause" (as defined in Section 6(i) of the Employment Agreement), or dies or becomes disabled while employed by the Company, (i) all stock options held by Mr. Rotella shall become immediately vested and exercisable until the earlier of the second anniversary of his termination date or the options' expiration date; (ii) the restrictions on Mr. Rotella's restricted stock will immediately lapse (subject to exclusion by the HR Committee of any grants made after March 1, 2005); and (iii) all performance share awards shall vest and become payable to Mr. Rotella in accordance with their terms after completion of the applicable performance period. In addition, Mr. Rotella is entitled to the following benefits:

 - Termination After a Change in Control. If Mr. Rotella is terminated for any reason or resigns for "good cause" (as defined in Section 12 of the Employment Agreement) upon or within three years after a "change in control" (as defined in Section 11 of the Employment Agreement) of the Company, the Company or its successor will pay Mr. Rotella an amount equal to three times his "annual compensation" (as defined in Section 6(d) of the Employment Agreement). If any of these benefits payable to Mr. Rotella are deemed to constitute a "parachute payment" under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the Company will pay Mr. Rotella certain tax gross-up payments as described in Section 6(e) of the Employment Agreement.

 - Termination by the Company without Cause. If Mr. Rotella is terminated by the Company other than for "cause" (as defined in Section 6(i) of the Employment Agreement), then upon executing the Company's form Separation Agreement, Mr. Rotella will be entitled to the benefits described in (i), (ii) and (iii) above and an amount equal to two times his "annual compensation" (as defined in Section 6(d) of the Employment Agreement).

 - Termination Upon Death or Disability. Upon Mr. Rotella's death or disability, his employment shall terminate, and neither he nor his estate shall be entitled to further compensation from the Company pursuant to the Employment Agreement, except for payments under life and disability insurance policies, any sums which may be available under applicable employee benefit plans, and the amounts described above.
