Braskem Announces Perpetual Bond Offering

São Paulo, Brazil, April 05, 2006 --- Braskem (BOVESPA: BRKM5; NYSE: BAK; LATIBEX: XBRK), leader in the thermoplastic resins segment in Latin America and one of the three largest Brazilian privately-owned industrial companies, announced today that it plans to offer $200 million of perpetual bonds in an offering exempt from registration under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act"). The bonds will be senior unsecured debt obligations of Braskem and will have no fixed final maturity date, but will be callable, in whole or in part, at par after five years, provided that if the bonds are called in part, at least $100 million aggregate principal amount of the bonds will remain outstanding after any partial redemption. Braskem intends to use the proceeds of the offering for general corporate purposes, including working capital and financing the acquisition of certain common and preferred shares of Politeño Indústria e Comércio S.A..

The bonds have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold (a) in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration under the Securities Act, or (b) in any other jurisdiction in which such offer or sale is prohibited. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell nor the solicitation of an offer to buy the bonds.

Braskem, a world-class Brazilian petrochemical company, is the leader in the thermoplastic resins segment in Latin America and is among the three largest Brazilian privately-owned industrial companies. The company operates 13 manufacturing plants located throughout Brazil and has an annual production capacity of 5.8 million tons of thermoplastic resins and other petrochemical products.
