MATERIAL FACT

Braskem S.A. (“Company”), in compliance with CVM Instruction 358/02, in light of the information filed by the Federal Prosecution Office (“MPF”) against third parties in connection with Operation Car Wash, which mentions alleged unlawful payments made to benefit the Company in contracts entered into with Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras, hereby announces to the market that the grounds on which the accusations in the information were made are the same as previously reported by the media, regarding which the Company has already released two Material Fact and Market Notices.

Specifically with respect to the alleged losses caused to Petrobras as a result of the naphtha supply agreement executed in 2009, Braskem highlights the following information contained in the document filed against third parties:

§ Petrobras itself has formally acknowledged that the naphtha pricing formula was compatible with its opportunity cost to the product.

§ Petrobras has further acknowledged that the need to import naphtha resulted from its unilateral decision to allocate domestically produced naphtha that had already been contracted by the petrochemical industry to meet the increasing demand by the fuel sector.

Braskem continues to be at the disposal of competent authorities to collaborate with the investigations.
