VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD FOR CHANGE

The gold card represents more mismanagement, underperformance, and the individual interests of Sam and Paula Douglass

Dear Equus Shareholder,

After years of Sam and Paula Douglass receiving millions from the Fund and its investment advisor while managing, approving, and originating poorly performing investments, it is time for a change at Equus Total Return. Do not be misled – the Douglasses, through “The Committee to Enhance Equus” (“The Douglass Committee”), are running a proxy contest to regain control of the Fund so that they can maintain the status quo and continue to benefit themselves personally at the expense of Equus’ shareholders. If you are tired of the Douglasses’ legacy of advancing their individual interests and are eager for experienced and independent directors with a fresh perspective who will work diligently to rebuild shareholder value, vote your WHITE proxy card today.

WE URGE SHAREHOLDERS TO ACT NOW!
Submit your vote on the attached WHITE proxy card today.

Equus is at a critical juncture. After years of stagnation and declining value under Sam and Paula Douglass, we believe it is critical for Equus to be represented by independent Board members who can provide access to investment opportunities, capital and management expertise.

Alessandro Benedetti, Bertrand des Pallieres, John A. Hardy, and Fraser Atkinson, the four new nominees for your Board of Directors on the WHITE proxy card, represent 822,031 shares, or 9.28% of Equus stock. As representatives of our largest shareholder -- Versatile Systems Inc. -- their interests in and objectives for the Fund are fully aligned with all of our shareholders. If elected, all of the WHITE proxy card nominees are committed to taking the necessary steps to get Equus back on track and increase shareholder value.

Support real change by voting the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

Sam and Paula Douglass have been intimately involved in the management of the Fund since its creation. Furthermore, the Douglass Committee’s Board slate on the gold card includes both the Chairman and the CEO of Trulite, Inc. – a company that is in default on a $2.3 million loan from Equus. In addition, Paula Douglass, a third gold card nominee, is on the Trulite Board. This is a serious conflict of interest that would make it impossible for such nominees to protect the interests of Equus’ shareholders. Last week, your Board took action to collect all amounts due under this loan.

In order to move Equus forward, the Fund can no longer be associated with or managed by Sam and Paula Douglass. Our new director nominees will help transform Equus from a small Houston-based fund into a much larger, internationally focused and dynamic investment vehicle that can capitalize on opportunities around the world. Our overall investment objective is to put Equus firmly back on the track of receiving regular income and capital appreciation from our portfolio companies, with a view to resuming the Fund's quarterly dividend that was discontinued in early 2009.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT;
VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD FOR CHANGE TODAY

To support a change from the Douglass legacy, please sign, date and return the WHITE proxy card in the postage paid envelope provided. Even if you have previously voted on the gold proxy card supplied by the Douglass Committee, you can still support your Board by voting the enclosed WHITE proxy card today. YOUR RESPONSE TODAY WILL HELP PUT THE FUND BACK ON THE RIGHT TRACK.

If you have any questions, require assistance in voting your WHITE proxy card, or need additional copies of the Fund's proxy materials, please call our proxy solicitation firm, Georgeson Inc., toll-free at 866-821-2606 (banks and brokerage firms should call 212-440-9800), or email equus@georgeson.com. Shareholders also can find additional materials on the annual meeting and how to vote on our website at www.equuscap.com.

We thank you for your consideration and support.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard F. Bergner
