Seller hereby waives any defense or right to assert that Buyer or the Company will have an adequate remedy at law or that an injunction is an inappropriate form of relief in any such proceeding. The foregoing rights and remedies will be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to Buyer or the Company under Law, in equity, under any other agreement, or otherwise

(e) Seller acknowledges and agrees that (a) the restrictions contained in this Section 6.7, including the duration, geographical scope, and subject matter, are reasonable and necessary to protect the goodwill, customer relationships, legitimate business interests, trade secrets, and confidential and proprietary information of Buyer and the Company, (b) constitute a material inducement to Buyer to enter into this Agreement and complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (c) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are designed and intended to qualify as a sale (or other disposition) by Seller of all of its interest in the Business within the meaning of section 16601 of the Business and Professions Code of California, (d) Buyer would not complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the benefits contained in this Section 6.7, (e) Seller is directly or indirectly receiving substantial consideration in connection with the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, will be able to earn a satisfactory livelihood without violating this Agreement and understand that this Agreement is assignable by Buyer and will inure to the benefit of its successors and permitted assigns. If any covenant contained in this Section 6.7 should ever be adjudicated to exceed the time, geographic, product or service, or other limitations permitted by applicable Law in any jurisdiction, then any court is expressly empowered to reform that covenant, and that covenant will be deemed reformed, in that jurisdiction to the maximum time, geographic, product or service, or other limitations permitted by applicable Law. The covenants contained in this Section 6.7 and each provision hereof is severable and distinct covenants and provisions. The invalidity or unenforceability of any such covenant or provision as written will not invalidate or render unenforceable the remaining covenants or provisions hereof, and any such invalidity or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate or render unenforceable such covenant or provision in any other jurisdiction.

6.8 Release by Seller.

(a) Except for the Reserved Claims (defined below), and effective upon, but not until, the Closing, Seller on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, trustees, beneficiaries, successors, and assigns (collectively, the “Releasers”), fully, finally, knowingly, and irrevocably releases, acquits, and forever discharges each of the Company and the officers, directors, Representatives, employees, principals, agents, legal representatives, lenders, insurers, and attorneys of the Company, (collectively, the “Releasees”) from and against all claims, causes of action, costs, expenses, liabilities, losses, damages, injunctions, lawsuits, actions, fines, penalties, judgments, demands, and fees (including attorney’s fees) arising from or relating to the Company, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, direct or third party, (“Claims”) any of the Releasers ever had or now has, against any of the Releasees (collectively, the “Released Claims”).

Seller, individually and collectively, for itself and on behalf of the other Releasors, understands and agrees that the releases provided for in this Agreement extend to all claims of every nature and kind, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected. Seller, individually and collectively, for itself and on behalf of the other Releasors expressly understands and agrees to hereby waive the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1542 and all similar laws and statutes in any other jurisdiction. Section 1542 provides as follows: A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES OR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

(d) Seller, individually and collectively, for itself and on behalf of the other Releasors, hereby expressly assumes the risk that there may be claims that exist that it does not know about or suspect to exist, whether through ignorance, oversight, error, negligence, or otherwise, and that if known by Seller or any of the Releasors would materially affect Seller's decision to enter into this Agreement and provide the releases set forth in this Section 6.8. 8.2 Indemnification by Seller. Subject to the other terms, conditions, and limitations of this Article 8, Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, Buyer's Affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, managers, shareholders, members, partners, employees, agents, representatives, predecessors, successors, and permitted assigns (collectively, "Buyer Indemnified Parties") from and against, and will compensate and reimburse Buyer Indemnified Parties for, all Losses incurred or sustained by, or imposed upon, any of Buyer Indemnified Parties arising out of or relating to:

The indemnification provided for in Section 8.2 will be subject to the following limitations:

- (a) Subject to Section 8.3(d), an Indemnifying Party shall be not liable to an Indemnified Party for indemnification under Section 8.2(a), as the case may be, until the aggregate amount of all Losses in respect of indemnification regarding which an Indemnified Party is claiming under Section 8.2(a) exceeds Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) (the "Deductible"), in which event, the Indemnifying Party shall indemnify the Indemnified Party for all Losses incurred by such Indemnified Party that are in excess of the Deductible.

(b) Subject to Section 8.3(d), the aggregate amount of all Losses for which an Indemnifying Party will ever be liable or alleged to be liable under Section 8.2(a) will not exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) (the “Cap”).

The failure to give such prompt written notice will not, however, relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations, except and only to the extent that the Indemnifying Party forfeits rights or defenses by reason of that failure, or materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party. Such notice by the Indemnified Party must describe the Third-Party Claim in reasonable detail, include copies of all material written evidence thereof, and indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the Loss that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. Within thirty (30) days of receiving such notice, the Indemnifying Party will have the right to participate in, or by giving written notice to the Indemnified Party, to assume the defense of any Third-Party Claim at the Indemnifying Party’s expense and by the Indemnifying Party’s own counsel if in such notice the Indemnifying Party expressly agrees that the Indemnifying Party is solely obligated to fully satisfy and discharge such Third-Party Claim notwithstanding any limitation with respect to indemnification contained in this Agreement, and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate in good faith in such defense; provided that the Indemnifying Party will not have the right to participate in or assume the defense of any Third-Party Claim that (i) relates to or arises in connection with any criminal or quasi-criminal proceeding, (ii) seeks an injunction or equitable relief against any Indemnified Party (or any of its, his, or her Affiliates) or would not result solely in monetary liability or damages for which the Indemnifying Party is responsible hereunder, (iii) the Indemnified Party has been advised by counsel that a reasonable likelihood exists of a conflict of interest between the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and the Indemnified Party, on the other hand, (iv) the Indemnifying Party failed or is failing to vigorously prosecute or defend such claim, or (v) relates to the Indemnified Party’s, the Company’s, or any of their respective Affiliates’ on-going relationships with any customer, any supplier, or involves a claim by any Governmental Authority. The Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its own cost and expense, to participate in the defense of any Third-Party Claim with counsel selected by it subject to the Indemnifying Party's right to control the defense thereof. If the Indemnifying Party elects not to compromise or defend such Third-Party Claim or fails to notify the Indemnified Party in writing of its election to defend as provided in this Agreement within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice from the Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party may, subject to Section 8.4(b), pay, compromise, and defend such Third-Party Claim and seek indemnification for any and all Losses based upon, arising from, or relating to such Third-Party Claim. The parties shall cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects in connection with the defense of any Third-Party Claim, including making available records relating to such Third-Party Claim and furnishing, without expense (other than reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses) to the defending party, management employees of the non-defending party that may be reasonably necessary for the preparation of the defense of such Third-Party Claim.

(b) Settlement of Third-Party Claims. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Indemnifying Party shall not enter into settlement of any Third-Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). If a firm offer is made to settle a Third-Party Claim without leading to liability or the creation of a financial or other obligation (including injunctive or equitable relief) on the part of the Indemnified Party or the Company and provides, in customary form, for the unconditional release of each Indemnified Party and the Company from all liabilities and obligations in connection with such Third-Party Claim and the Indemnifying Party desires to accept and agree to such offer, the Indemnifying Party shall give written notice to that effect to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer within ten (10) days after its receipt of such notice, the Indemnified Party may continue to contest or defend such Third-Party Claim and in such event, the maximum liability of the Indemnifying Party as to such Third-Party Claim shall not exceed the amount of such settlement offer. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer and also fails to assume defense of such Third-Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party may settle the Third-Party Claim upon the terms set forth in such firm offer to settle such Third-Party Claim.

(c) For purposes of determining the existence of any misrepresentation, inaccuracy, or breach of representation or warranty, or non-fulfillment of any covenant or agreement, and calculating the amount of any Losses incurred in connection with any such misrepresentation, inaccuracy, or breach of representation or warranty, or non-fulfillment of any covenant or agreement, a qualifications as to materiality, Material Adverse Effect or similar qualifications will be disregarded and of no effect.

misrepresentation, or intentional misconduct (including intentional injury to Person or property), or violation of Law by any Person, including a party to this Agreement.

8.7 Right of Offset.

Soleno Therapeutics Announces Sale of Non-Strategic Assets to Flexicare, Inc.

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., July 24, 2017 - Soleno Therapeutics, Inc. (NASDAQ: SLNO), a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company developing novel therapeutics for the treatment of rare diseases, today announced the sale of one of its non-strategic subsidiaries, NeoForce, Inc., which manufactures and promotes a range of innovative pulmonary resuscitation solutions in the neonatal market, to Flexicare, Inc., a privately-held, leading UK-based manufacturer of airway management, anesthesia and critical care medical devices.

“We have recently refocused our business on the development and commercialization of novel therapeutics for the treatment of rare diseases,” said Anish Bhatnagar, M.D., Chief Executive Officer of Soleno Therapeutics. “As such, we are pleased to monetize these non-strategic assets, which allows us to focus our resources on our lead product candidate, Diazoxide Choline Controlled-Release (DCCR), currently in clinical development for Prader-Willi syndrome (PWS), a rare and complex genetic neurobehavioral disorder affecting appetite, growth, metabolism, cognitive function, and behavior. We expect to initiate a Phase III clinical trial for DCCR by the end of 2017.”

“The acquisition of NeoForce advances Flexicare’s mission of providing high quality medical devices, expanding its neonatal portfolio and footprint both in the US and internationally. We will support NeoForce’s ambition to become a leading supplier of neonatal resuscitation devices, caring for our most vulnerable of patients. This is a long-term strategic investment in a growing sector that we are actively pursuing and will continue to invest in to realize our full potential within this market segment,” said Ghassem Poormand, President Flexicare, Inc.

PWS is a rare and complex genetic neurobehavioral/metabolic disorder affecting appetite, growth, metabolism, cognitive function and behavior. DCCR has received Orphan Drug Designation from the US FDA for the treatment of PWS. Diazoxide choline controlled-release tablet is a novel, proprietary controlled-release, crystalline salt formulation of diazoxide, which is administered once-daily. In the PWS pilot study, DCCR showed promise in addressing the hallmark symptoms of PWS, most notably hyperphagia. Soleno, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Capnia, Inc., continues to market Capnia’s innovative medical devices, including the CoSense® End-Tidal Carbon Monoxide (ETCO) monitor, which measures ETCO and is used by hospitals to detect hemolysis in newborns.
