The following documents, descriptions, amendments and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") by Stryker Corporation ("Stryker" or the "Company") are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement:

- (a) Stryker's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007;

Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference into this registration statement shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained in this registration statement, or in any other subsequently filed document that also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference into this registration statement, modifies or supersedes such prior statement. Item 4. Description of Securities

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The following is a brief summary of certain indemnification provisions of the Michigan Business Corporation Act (the "MBCA") and the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Restated Articles") and By-Laws. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of MBCA, the Restated Articles and the By-Laws.

The MBCA permits a Michigan corporation to include in its articles of incorporation a provision that a director is not personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for a breach of the director's fiduciary duty of care under certain circumstances. The Company's Restated Articles provide that the personal liability of the Company's directors to the Company and its shareholders shall be limited and eliminated to the full extent authorized or permitted under the MBCA as from time to time in effect, thus automatically incorporating any future revisions of the MBCA with respect to director liability without the necessity of any further action by the Company's shareholders.

In general, the MBCA allows a corporation to indemnify its directors and officers if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or its shareholders and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The Company's By-Laws provide that the Company shall indemnify its directors and certain officers as designated by the Board of Directors from time to time to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law, including advancement of expenses, and may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to other officers, employees and agents.

Stryker has indemnification agreements with all of its directors and certain designated officers which provide, among other things, the indemnitees with rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted by law in connection with proceedings related to the indemnitees' service to Stryker in their current positions or actions taken during such service.

Stryker has a directors and officers liability insurance policy designed to reimburse the Company, subject to certain exclusions, for payments made pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth above.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

Item 9. Undertakings

Stryker hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by Stryker pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Stryker hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of Stryker's Annual Report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Stryker, Stryker has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Stryker of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Stryker in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Stryker will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
