WESTAMERICA BANCORPORATION ANNOUNCES
STOCK REPURCHASE PLAN

Edgar Filing: WESTAMERICA BANCORPORATION - Form 8-K

San Rafael, Calif: Westamerica Bancorporation (NASDAQ: WABC), parent company of Westamerica Bank, today announced that its Board of Directors approved a plan to repurchase, as conditions warrant, up to two million shares of the Company's common stock on the open market or in privately negotiated transactions from time to time prior to September 1, 2005. The repurchase plan represents approximately 6.3% of the Company's currently outstanding common stock. This plan replaces the existing two million-share stock repurchase program authorized in August 2003. As previously announced, Westamerica and Redwood Empire Bancorp signed a definitive agreement under which Westamerica will acquire Redwood Empire Bancorp for approximately $148 million in a combination of stock and cash. Westamerica intends to reduce the allocation of its operating cash flow toward the repurchase of its common shares in order to meet the approximate $57 million cash payment for this transaction, which is estimated to be completed in the fourth quarter 2004 or early first quarter 2005.

Chairman, President, and CEO David Payne stated "This stock repurchase program is being adopted to continue to provide management with the flexibility to optimize the Company's use of equity capital and enhance shareholder value. Westamerica's strong capital position, profitability and low-risk balance sheet supported the initiation of this new program."

Westamerica Bancorporation is the holding company for Westamerica Bank operating 87 branches and 2 trust offices throughout 22 counties in Northern and Central California. At June 30, 2004, total assets were $4.6 billion, Shareholders' equity was $330 million, and total common shares outstanding were approximately 31.8 million.

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION:

The following appears in accordance with the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This press release may contain forward-looking statements about the Company, including descriptions of plans or objectives of its management for future operations, products or services, and forecasts of its revenues, earnings or other measures of economic performance. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They often include the words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate," or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could," or "may."

Forward-looking statements, by their nature, are subject to risks and uncertainties. A number of factors - many of which are beyond the Company's control - could cause actual conditions, events or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements. The Company's most recent annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, describe some of these factors, including certain credit, market, operational, liquidity and interest rate risks associated with the Company's business and operations. Other factors described in these reports include changes in business and
