At the annual meeting of the shareholders of Old Republic International Corporation (the "Company") on May 26, 2006, the shareholders approved the Company's 2006 Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Plan"), a copy of which was attached to the Company's Proxy Statement dated March 31, 2006. The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors had approved the Plan on February 23, 2006, for proposal to the Company's shareholders. At its meeting on March 17, 2006, the Compensation Committee granted conditional stock option awards under the proposed Plan, subject to the shareholders' approval of the Plan at their annual meeting. Options on 980,500 shares of the Company's common stock were conditionally awarded to 32 employees, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer, its Chief Financial Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers who received a total of 529,000, as stated in the Company's Proxy Statement. With the shareholders' approval of the Plan, the option awards became effective, with an exercise price of $21.48 per share, which was the Company's composite transactions closing price for trading on the New York Stock Exchange on May 25, 2006.
