ITEM 5. Other Events

On May 7, 2002, NovaMed Inc., ("Company") effected a fifty to one (50:1) reverse split of its common stock. The Company currently has 869,858 common shares issued and outstanding.

The decision to effect the reverse split was resolved to enable a capital restructuring made necessary due to the winding down of the Company's breast implant business. Management intends to seek a new business opportunity that might create value for the Company's shareholders. The Company's new symbol on
