Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 11, 2015 the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Christopher & Banks Corporation (the “Company”) at the recommendation of the Board’s Compensation Committee adopted the Christopher & Banks Corporation Recoupment Policy (the “Clawback Policy”), effective as of November 11, 2015. The Clawback Policy applies to “Incentive Compensation”, as defined in the Clawback Policy, paid or provided to current or former executive officers and to current or former officers of the Company with the title of the Vice President or above (“Covered Executives”).

In the event the Company is required to prepare an accounting restatement of its financial statements due to the Company’s material noncompliance with any financial reporting requirement under the Securities Laws, as defined in the Clawback Policy, as a result of fraud or misconduct, the Company, except if such recovery would be impracticable as provided in the Clawback Policy, will require reimbursement or forfeiture from a Covered Executive, as the case may be, of any Incentive Compensation in excess of the Incentive Compensation that would have been earned or awarded under the restated financial statements for the three completed fiscal years immediately preceding the date on which the Company is required to prepare an accounting restatement.

The foregoing description of the Clawback Policy is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Clawback Policy which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
