Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

As reported by Ohio Valley Banc Corp. ("OVBC") previously, a new Ohio law, which places numerous restrictions on short-term and small loans extended by certain non-bank lenders in Ohio, was signed into law on July 30, 2018, and applies to loans made after April 26, 2019. The law may adversely affect almost all of the lending of Loan Central, Inc. ("Loan Central"), a wholly-owned consumer finance subsidiary of OVBC, consisting of its tax refund related loans. Of OVBC's $11.9 million of net income for 2018, up to $0.8 million was contributed by such tax refund related lending. Because most of Loan Central's lending each year occurs before the end of April, the new law should not have a material effect on the net income of OVBC for 2019. OVBC and Loan Central will continue to analyze the law and pursue potential ways to reduce the effect of the law on OVBC's income before Loan Central's 2020 tax related lending season, which commences in late 2019. If OVBC's efforts are not successful, which is a substantial likelihood, Loan Central's tax refund related lending could be rendered impossible, and OVBC's income will, as a result, be adversely impacted by the loss of that source of income.
