SIMTEK ANNOUNCES SECOND QUARTER 2002
FINANCIAL RESULTS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colorado - August 13, 2002 - Simtek Corporation (OTC BB: SRAM), provider of high performance nonvolatile memory and logic integrated circuits, announced financial results for the second quarter ending June 30, 2002.

The Company posted net revenue of $7,524,000 for the first six months of 2002 down from $9,064,000 for the comparable period of 2001. The Company posted net revenue of $3,550,000 for the second quarter 2002 down from $4,733,000 for the comparable period of 2001.

"Gross profit margins for Simtek's semiconductor product sales improved by approximately 6% during the first half of 2002 compared with the previous year, reflecting strong production cost reductions, even while enduring market pressures that resulted in decreased selling prices along with a decline in overall market demand," stated Douglas Mitchell, Simtek's president and CEO. "We have seen relative strength in sales of industrial and military grade components as well as our government research and development activities."

Mitchell continued, "It remains unclear just when the overall market will experience strong growth, but we remain optimistic with new programs actively in development for scheduled production ramps within the next 6 to 9 months. Our focus on new product developments, including our 3 volt and 1 Mbit 0.25 micron product developments remain on track to take full advantage of the imminent market recovery. We are committed to working through the soft market conditions by maintaining our strong customer relationships and investing in new product developments."
